3. The following are matters about which complaints may be made to SHOW in accordance with these Regulations:

- (a) alleged maladministration by a social landlord in connection with relevant action;
- (b) an alleged failure by a social landlord to provide a relevant service; and
- (c) an alleged failure in a relevant service provided by a social landlord.

Grounds on which a matter is excluded from investigation

4.—(1) SHOW may not investigate:

- (a) matters arising in connection with the discharge by a social landlord of any of its functions otherwise than in relation to Wales;
- (b) action taken by the social landlord when that social landlord was not registered;
- (c) matters in respect of a contract of employment between the social landlord and any other person, (but not procedures for recruitment and appointment);
- (d) matters in relation to the determination of the amount of rent; and
- (e) a matter which is the subject of a complaint made against a social landlord to the National Assembly for Wales before these Regulations come into force unless the National Assembly for Wales agree that SHOW may investigate the matter.

(2) SHOW may not investigate a matter where a complainant has or had a remedy by way of proceedings in a court of law, unless SHOW is satisfied that, in the particular circumstances, it is not reasonable to expect the complainant to resort, or to have resorted, to seeking the remedy via a court.

(3) (a) subject to sub-paragraph (b) SHOW may not investigate a matter unless SHOW is satisfied that:

- (i) the matter has been brought to the attention of the social landlord to which it relates by or on behalf of the complainant; and
 - (ii) the social landlord has been given a reasonable opportunity to investigate and respond to the complaint in accordance with the social landlord's complaints procedure.
- (b) sub-paragraph (a) does not apply if SHOW is satisfied that it is nevertheless reasonable to investigate the matter in the particular circumstances.

(4) Paragraphs (1) to (3) do not prevent SHOW from investigating action of a social landlord in operating a procedure established to examine complaints or review decisions.

Description of individuals who may make a complaint

5.—(1) The persons who may make a complaint are:

- (a) a complainant;
- (b) a person authorised by the complainant to act on behalf of the complainant; and
- (c) if the complainant is not capable of authorising a person to act on their behalf, a person who appears to SHOW to be appropriate to represent a complainant.

(2) It is for SHOW to determine any question of whether a person is entitled under this regulation to make a complaint.

Power of SHOW to investigate a complaint made

6.—(1) Subject to regulation 5 SHOW may investigate a complaint where a complaint is made by or on behalf of a complainant in accordance with these Regulations.

(2) Subject to paragraph (3) a complaint must be made in writing, specifying the matters about which the complaint is made.

(3) A complaint need not be made in writing if SHOW is satisfied that there are special circumstances which make it appropriate for it to be made orally.

(4) A complaint to SHOW must be made before the end of the period of one year starting on the day on which the complainant first has notice of the matters alleged in the complaint, but SHOW may waive this requirement if SHOW considers it is reasonable to do so.

(5) Subject to paragraph (6) SHOW may:

- (a) decide whether to begin, continue or discontinue an investigation; and
- (b) begin or continue an investigation into a complaint even if the complaint has been withdrawn.

(6) Where in accordance with paragraph (5) SHOW decides not to investigate a complaint or decides to discontinue an investigation, SHOW must prepare a written statement of the reasons for the decision.

(7) SHOW must send a copy of the statement to:

- (a) the complainant;
- (b) the social landlord; and
- (c) any other person SHOW considers appropriate.

(8) If a written statement of reasons prepared under paragraph (6) –

- (a) mentions the name of any person other than the social landlord in respect of which the complaint was made, or
- (b) includes any particulars which, in the opinion of SHOW, are likely to identify any such person and which, in SHOW's opinion, can be omitted without impairing the effectiveness of the statement of reasons, that information must not be included in a version of the statement of reasons sent to a person under paragraph (7), subject to paragraph (9).

(9) Paragraph (8) does not apply in relation to a version of the statement of reasons if, after taking account of the interests of the complainant and any other persons SHOW thinks appropriate, SHOW considers it to be in the public interest to include that information in that version of the statement of reasons.

Procedure to be followed in conduct of investigations

7.—(1) If SHOW decides to investigate a complaint, SHOW must:

- (a) give the social landlord an opportunity to comment on any allegations contained in the complaint; and
- (b) give any other person who is alleged in the complaint to have taken or authorised the action complained of an opportunity to comment on any allegations relating to that person.

(2) An investigation in accordance with these Regulations must be conducted in private.

(3) The procedure for conducting an investigation is to be that which SHOW considers appropriate in the circumstances of the case.

(4) For the purposes of an investigation SHOW may request the social landlord and any person considered able to supply information or produce a document relevant to the investigation to do so.

(5) For the purposes of an investigation SHOW may request:

- (a) the attendance and examination of witnesses; and

(b) the production of documents.

(6) Failure to comply with paragraphs (4) and (5) mean SHOW may draw such inferences as SHOW considers appropriate.

(7) SHOW may request any person considered appropriate to provide any facility as may be reasonably required for the purposes of an investigation.

Making a determination

8.—(1) Upon completion of an investigation of a complaint SHOW must make a written determination in respect of it.

(2) If a determination concludes that the complainant has sustained injustice or hardship in consequence of the matter investigated, the social landlord must consider the determination and any recommendations made in it and notify SHOW in writing before the end of a period of one month from the date on which the social landlord receives the determination (or such longer period as SHOW may in writing permit):

- (a) the action it has taken or proposes to take in response to the determination, and
- (b) the period within which it proposes to take that action (if it has not already taken it).

(3) If SHOW has not received the notification required by paragraph (2) before the end of the period specified in that paragraph, or has received notification, but is not satisfied:

- (a) with the action the social landlord has taken or proposes to take;
- (b) with the period within which it proposes to take that action;
- (c) that the social landlord has taken the action it proposed to take within the relevant period,

SHOW must prepare a special report in accordance with paragraph (4).

(4) A special report must contain the following:

- (a) the determination in respect of the investigation; and
- (b) the social landlord's response to that determination; and
- (c) such recommendations, if any, as SHOW sees fit with respect to the action which, in SHOW's opinion should be taken by the social landlord:
 - (i) to remedy the injustice or hardship to the complainant; and
 - (ii) to prevent similar injustice or hardship being caused in the future.

(5) If a determination or special report –

- (a) mentions the name of any person other than the social landlord in respect of which the complaint was made, or

that information must not be included in a version of the determination or special report sent to a person under regulation 11(1) or published under regulation 11(2), subject to paragraph (6).

(6) Paragraph (5) does not apply in relation to a version of the determination or special report if, after taking account of the interests of the complainant and any other persons SHOW thinks appropriate, SHOW considers it to be in the public interest to include that information in that version of the determination or special report.

Alternative resolution of complaints

9.—(1) SHOW may take any action considered appropriate with a view to resolving a complaint which SHOW has power to investigate under regulation 6.

(2) SHOW may take action under this regulation in addition to or instead of conducting an investigation into the complaint.

(3) Any action under this regulation must be taken in private.

Consultation and co-operation with other persons

10. SHOW may consult with anyone who may assist in an investigation and request such information or documents considered relevant to the investigation to be produced for the purposes of the investigation.

Manner in which determinations and special reports are to be communicated and published

11.—(1) Where a determination is made in accordance with regulation 8(1) or a report prepared under regulation 8(4) SHOW must send a copy of that determination or report to:

- (a) the person who made the complaint;
- (b) the social landlord, and any other person who is alleged in the complaint to have taken or authorised the action complained of;
- (c) the National Assembly for Wales; and
- (d) any other person or persons SHOW considers appropriate.

(2) SHOW may publish a determination or special report on any complaint, either in full or in part if SHOW, after taking into account the interests of the complainant and of any other person SHOW considers appropriate, if SHOW considers it to be in the public interest to do so.
