

Status: This is the original version (as it was originally made). This item of legislation is currently only available in its original format.

SCHEDULE

Matters about which information must be given to secure tenants

5. The fact that in order to keep the property maintained and in good repair an owner of a dwelling-house will be likely to have to incur expenditure which may include payment of service charges (both annual and in respect of major works) where appropriate.