EXPLANATORY NOTE

(This note is not part of the Order)

This Order relates to section 30 of the Education Act 1997 and in particular to the functions listed in section 30(1) so far as they relate to national vocational qualifications. Section 30(1C) states that certain of those functions ((a) to (c), (d) and (ea)) are exercisable concurrently by the Welsh Ministers (by whom functions are now exercisable following the Government of Wales Act 2006) and the Qualifications and Curriculum Authority; and certain other functions ((e) and (f)) are exercisable solely by the Qualifications and Curriculum Authority.

The functions exercisable concurrently with the Qualifications and Curriculum Authority are: keeping under review all aspects of national vocational qualifications; providing support and advice to persons providing courses leading to such qualifications with a view to maintaining high standards; publishing information relating to such qualifications; developing and publishing criteria for the accreditation of such qualifications; developing procedures for continued accreditation if any person ceases to be recognised. The functions exercisable solely by the Qualifications and Curriculum Authority are: accrediting national vocational qualifications and making arrangements for tests.

This Order prescribes for both sets of functions to be exercisable solely by the Welsh Ministers.
