Calculation of the value of a bovine animal slaughtered for tuberculosis

Breach of obligations

- 5.—(1) This paragraph applies where—
- (a) the Welsh Ministers are satisfied beyond reasonable doubt that the keeper of a bovine animal has committed an offence under section 73 of the Act (general offences) by virtue of this Order;
 - (b) the relevant test has been applied to an animal; and
 - (c) that animal has been slaughtered following that test.
- (2) This paragraph applies in relation to the slaughter of animals carried out following the application of the relevant test—
- (a) within 6 months of sub-paragraph (1)(a) being satisfied; and
 - (b) under article 12 for the first time since sub-paragraph (1)(a) was satisfied.
- (3) Where this paragraph applies and where sub-paragraph (1)(a) is satisfied on—
- (a) one occasion, “B” is 0.5; and
 - (b) more than one occasion, “B” is 0.05.
- (4) This paragraph does not apply to a failure to comply with notices served under article 11(1) or 12(1).
