2010 No. 1395

The Policing and Crime Act 2009 (Transitional and Saving Provisions)(Wales) Order 2010

Transitional and saving provisions

5.—(1) It is lawful for any person who, immediately before the first appointed day has a 2003 Act licence in relation to any premises and uses the premises as a sexual entertainment venue under the 2003 Act licence, or is undertaking preparatory work to use the premises as such a venue under that licence, to use the premises as a sexual entertainment venue under the 2003 Act licence until the third appointed day, or the determination of an application to which article 6 or 7 applies and which is made by that person (including the determination of any appeal against a refusal to grant the application), whichever is the later.

(2) In paragraph (1) “2003 Act licence”, in relation to any premises, means a premises licence or club premises certificate under which it is lawful to provide relevant entertainment at those premises.

(3) Paragraph (1) applies despite Schedule 3 to the 1982 Act (and therefore any use authorised by that paragraph is not contrary to paragraph 6 of that Schedule) but is otherwise without prejudice to any other enactment.
