2010 No. 2574

The Child Minding and Day Care (Wales) Regulations 2010

PART 6

SUSPENSION OF A PERSON'S REGISTRATION
UNDER PART 2 OF THE MEASURE

Notice provisions

43.—(1) A notice under these Regulations may be given to the registered person—

- (a) by delivering it to the registered person;
- (b) by sending it by post; or
- (c) subject to paragraph (3), by transmitting it electronically.

(2) A notice to a registered person under these Regulations will be deemed to be properly addressed if it is addressed to the registered person at the last address notified by the registered person to the Welsh Ministers upon the registered person's application for registration or subsequently.

(3) If the notice is transmitted electronically for the purposes of paragraph (1)—

- (a) the registered person must have stated to the Welsh Ministers their willingness to receive notices transmitted by electronic means and provided an address suitable for that purpose;
- (b) the notice must be sent to the address provided by the registered person; and
- (c) any notice sent in accordance with this paragraph will be deemed to have been received by the registered person on the next working day after the day on which it is sent.
