SCHEDULE

Pecuniary interests and other specified conflicts of interest

Pecuniary interests

1.—(1) For the purposes of regulation 10, a pecuniary interest in a contract, proposed contract or other matter includes a case where—

- (a) a relevant person was nominated or appointed to an office as a member of a collaborating education body by a person with whom the contract was made or is proposed to be made;
- (b) a relevant person is a partner of a person, or is in the employment of a person, with whom the contract was made or is proposed to be made; or

(2) For the purposes of regulation 10, a relevant person is not to be treated as having a pecuniary interest in any matter—

- (a) provided that person's interest in the matter is no greater than the interest of the generality of those paid to work for the collaborating education body;
- (b) by reason only of the fact that the person was nominated or appointed to office by, is a member of, or is employed by, any public body; or
- (c) by reason only of the fact that the person is a member of a corporation or other body, if that person has no significant financial interest in any securities of that corporation or other body.

(3) Members of the joint committee are not, by reason of their pecuniary interest in the matter, prevented from considering and voting upon proposals for one or more of the collaborating education bodies to take out insurance protecting its members against liabilities incurred by them arising out of their office and a collaborating education body is not, by reason of the pecuniary interest of its members, prevented from obtaining such insurance and paying the premiums.

Appointment as member of the joint committee, chair or clerk

2.—(1) This sub-paragraph applies where a relevant person is present at a meeting of the joint committee at which a subject of consideration is—

- (a) that person's own appointment, reappointment or removal as a member of the joint committee;
- (b) that person's own appointment or removal from office as clerk to, or chair of, the joint committee; or
- (c) if that person is a sponsor governor, any determination under paragraph 2 of Schedule 4 to the Government of Maintained Schools Regulations or paragraph 2 of Schedule 5 to the Federation of Maintained Schools Regulations as to the provision in the instrument of government for sponsor governors.

(2) In any case where sub-paragraph (1) applies, the relevant person's interests must be treated for the purpose of regulation 10(2) as being in conflict with the collaborating education bodies' interests.

(9) 2004 c. 33.

Pay or appraisal of persons working at one of the collaborating education bodies

3.—(1) This sub-paragraph applies where a relevant person who is paid to work for a collaborating education body other than as head teacher or principal is present at a meeting of the joint committee at which a subject of consideration is the pay or performance appraisal of any particular person employed to work for a collaborating education body.

(2) This sub-paragraph applies where a head teacher or principal of a collaborating education body is present at a meeting of the joint committee at which a subject of consideration is their own pay or performance appraisal.

(3) In any case where sub-paragraph (1) or (2) applies, the relevant person's interests shall be treated for the purpose of regulation 10(2) as being in conflict with the collaborating education bodies' interests.

Persons who are members of more than one collaborating education body

4. The fact that a person is a member of a joint committee of a collaborating education body for more than one school or further education body is not under any circumstances to be considered a conflict of interest for the purpose of these Regulations.

EXPLANATORY NOTE

(This note is not part of the Regulations)

The Education (Wales) Measure 2011 enables governing bodies of maintained schools, further education bodies and local authorities (“education bodies”) to develop joint working arrangements. These Regulations make further provision in relation to the arrangements that may be made for their functions to be discharged by joint committees.

Regulation 1 provides that these Regulations will come into force on 16 November 2012. Regulation 2 makes provision in relation to revocation. Regulation 3 contains the interpretation provisions.

Regulation 4 makes provision as to when two or more education bodies may arrange for their functions to be discharged jointly by means of a joint committee (and in the case of a local authority, this means their education functions only).

Regulation 5 makes provision in relation to the establishment by collaborating education bodies of joint committees, including determining its constitution, membership and terms of reference which must be reviewed annually. The quorum appoints its own chair (who may be removed from office at any time) and may appoint non governor members whose voting rights are determined by the collaborating education bodies (subject to certain restrictions).

The joint committee must appoint a clerk to convene its meetings and ensure minutes of its proceedings are drawn up (regulation 6). Regulation 7 provides that a joint committee may appoint “non governor members”, who are not members of the collaborating governing bodies, are not appointed by the local authority and who may be accorded voting rights by the collaborating education bodies (subject to certain restrictions). Non governor members must not be disqualified from being governors under the Government of Maintained Schools (Wales) Regulations 2005, the Federation of Maintained Schools and Miscellaneous Amendments (Wales) Regulations 2010 or from the membership of further education bodies under the relevant instrument and articles of governance.

Under regulation 8, joint committees have power to decide who may attend their meetings. Regulation 9 provides for convening meetings and voting.

Regulation 10 and the Schedule deal with conflicts of interest and the circumstances in which members of a joint committee and others who are otherwise entitled to attend meetings of the joint committee must withdraw from the meeting and not vote. The general principle is that where there is a conflict between the interests of such a person and the interests of the collaborating education bodies, or whether the principles of natural justice require a fair hearing and there is any reasonable doubt about a person's ability to act impartially, they should withdraw from the meeting and not vote.

Regulation 11 deals with the drawing up of minutes of joint committee meetings and the publication of the minutes.
