PART 2

Certificates, temporary certificates and licences

CHAPTER 3

Administrative provisions

Refusal to modify a certificate or licence

21.—(1) The competent authority may, by notice in writing, refuse to modify a certificate or licence if satisfied that the applicant—

- (a) has failed to meet the conditions in regulation 8 or 16 (as the case may be) in respect of the modification; or
- (b) is not a fit and proper person to hold a certificate or licence, as modified.

(2) The notice must—

- (a) give reasons for the refusal; and
- (b) give details of the right of appeal against the decision.
