

Status: This is the original version (as it was originally made). This item of legislation is currently only available in its original format.

SCHEDULE

Documents

7. A person may, in substitution for the proper address which would otherwise apply, state an address in the United Kingdom at which that person or someone on that person's behalf may be given documents, which address is to be treated instead as that person's proper address.