The Town and Country Planning (Fees for Applications, Deemed Applications and Site Visits) (Wales) Regulations 2015

Exceptions – consolidation of subsisting minerals permissions

7. Regulation 3 does not apply in relation to an application to a local planning authority for permission to carry out development consisting of the winning and working of minerals where the application—

- (a) is for a permission which consolidates two or more subsisting permissions; and
- (b) does not seek permission for development which is not authorised by a subsisting permission.
