

Status: This is the original version (as it was originally made). This item of legislation is currently only available in its original format.

SCHEDULE 1

Information to be provided by an applicant for registration or by a service provider on application for a variation of registration

Information about the service to be provided

30. In the case of a care home service, secure accommodation service or residential family centre service, the date on which it is intended to begin providing the service at each place specified in the application.