Provisions relating to transfer schemes

Transfer of employees and continuity of employment

- 10.—(1) Where, by virtue of a transfer scheme, a person employed by Network Rail becomes an employee of the undertaker—
 - (a) the person is not to be regarded for the purposes of Part 11 of the Employment Rights Act 1996(1) as having been dismissed by virtue of the transfer,
 - (b) the person's period of employment with Network Rail counts, for the purposes of that Act, as a period of employment with the undertaker, and
 - (c) the change of employment does not break the continuity of the period of employment for the purposes of that Act.
 - (2) This sub-paragraph applies where—
 - (a) a transfer scheme provides for the transfer of rights, powers, duties and liabilities relating to a person's contract of employment, but
 - (b) before the transfer takes effect, the person informs Network Rail or the undertaker that the person objects to the transfer.
 - (3) Where sub-paragraph (2) applies—
 - (a) those rights, powers, duties and liabilities are not transferred to the undertaker;
 - (b) the person's contract of employment is terminated immediately before the day on which the transfer would have occurred;
 - (c) the person is not, for any purpose, to be regarded as having been dismissed.
- (4) Nothing in sub-paragraph (2) or (3) affects the person's right to terminate the contract of employment if, apart from the change of employer, a substantial change is made to the person's detriment in his or her working conditions.
- (5) If a transfer scheme provides for the transfer of rights, powers, duties and liabilities relating to a person's contract of employment, it may include provision with respect to the person's eligibility to become a member of a pension scheme by virtue of employment with the undertaker.
- (6) The transfer scheme may include provision with respect to rights of, or rights or liabilities in respect of, the person under—
 - (a) a pension scheme of which the person may become a member by virtue of employment with the undertaker, or
 - (b) a pension scheme of which the person is a member by virtue of employment immediately before the transfer.
