Section 14 – Sub-committee of transition committees

30. Section 14 enables a transition committee to establish one or more sub-committees to provide the transition committee with advice on matters the transition committee refers to it. The membership of a sub-committee is to be determined by the transition committee, but any appointed person who is not a member of one of the merging local authorities will not be entitled to vote on matters before the sub-committee.
