SCHEDULE 11

SUITABLE ALTERNATIVE ACCOMMODATION

Needs of contract-holder and his or her family

- 4 (1) The court must determine whether accommodation is reasonably suitable in relation to the needs of the contract-holder and his or her family in accordance with this paragraph.
- (2) The court must consider (among other things)—
- (a) the needs of the contract-holder and his or her family as regards extent of accommodation,
 - (b) if the landlord is a private landlord, the needs of the contract-holder and his or her family as regards character of accommodation,
 - (c) the means of the contract-holder and his or her family,
 - (d) if the contract-holder or a member of his or her family works or is being educated, the distance of the accommodation from the place (or places) of work or education,
 - (e) if proximity to the home of any member of the contract-holder's family is essential to the well-being of the contract-holder or that member of his or her family, the proximity of the accommodation to that home,
 - (f) the terms of the existing contract and the terms of the occupation contract under which the accommodation is to be occupied, and
 - (g) if furniture was provided by the landlord under the existing contract, whether furniture is to be provided for use by the contract-holder and his or her family and, if so, the nature of that furniture.
- (3) If the landlord is a community landlord, the court must also consider the nature of the accommodation which it is the practice of the landlord to allocate to persons with similar needs.
- (4) If the landlord is a private landlord the court may consider, as an alternative to the matters in sub-paragraph (2)(a) to (c), whether the accommodation is similar as regards rent and extent to the accommodation provided in the neighbourhood by community landlords for comparable persons.
- (5) “Comparable persons” are those whose needs, as regards extent, are in the opinion of the court similar to those of the contract-holder and the contract-holder's family.
- (6) For the purposes of sub-paragraph (4) a certificate of a local housing authority stating—
- (a) the extent of the accommodation provided by the authority to meet the needs of persons with families of such number as may be specified in the certificate, and
 - (b) the amount of rent charged by the authority for accommodation of that extent,
- is to be conclusive evidence of the facts so stated.
- (7) In considering the matters in sub-paragraph (2)(f) the court may not take into account any terms of the occupation contract that relate to lodgers and sub-holders.
