- (1) A person is liable to a penalty where—

Changes to legislation: There are currently no known outstanding effects for the Tax Collection and Management (Wales) Act 2016, PART 5. (See end of Document for details)

---

- (a) the person gives WRA a document, and
  - (b) conditions 1 and 2 are satisfied.
- (2) Condition 1 is that the document contains an inaccuracy which amounts to, or leads to—
- (a) an understatement of a liability to a devolved tax,
  - (b) a false or inflated statement of a loss relating to a devolved tax, <sup>F42</sup> ...
  - (c) a false or inflated claim to repayment of devolved tax [<sup>F43</sup>, or
  - (d) a false or inflated claim for a tax credit.]
- (3) Condition 2 is that the inaccuracy was deliberate or careless on the person's part.
- (4) An inaccuracy is careless on a person's part if it is due to the person's failure to take reasonable care.
- (5) An inaccuracy which was neither deliberate nor careless on a person's part when the document was given is to be treated as careless if the person—
- (a) discovered the inaccuracy at some later time, and
  - (b) did not take reasonable steps to inform WRA.
- (6) Where a document contains more than one inaccuracy in respect of which conditions 1 and 2 are satisfied, the person is liable to a penalty for each such inaccuracy.

- (1) WRA may suspend all or part of a penalty for a careless inaccuracy under section 129 by issuing a notice to the person liable to the penalty.
- (2) The notice must specify—
  - (a) what part of the penalty is to be suspended,
  - (b) a period of suspension not exceeding 2 years, and
  - (c) conditions of suspension to be complied with by the person.
- (3) WRA may suspend all or part of a penalty only if compliance with a condition of suspension would help the person to avoid becoming liable to further penalties under section 129 for careless inaccuracy.
- (4) A condition of suspension may specify—
  - (a) action to be taken, and
  - (b) a period within which it must be taken.
- (5) At the end of the period of suspension—
  - (a) if the person satisfies WRA that the conditions of suspension have been complied with, the suspended penalty or part is cancelled, and
  - (b) otherwise, the suspended penalty or part becomes payable.

Penalty for failure to notify under-assessment etc.

133 Penalty for failure to notify under-assessment or under-determination

- (1) A person is liable to a penalty where—
- a WRA assessment understates the person's liability to a devolved tax, and
  - the person has failed to take reasonable steps to notify WRA, within the period of 30 days beginning with the day on which the notice of assessment is issued, that it is an under-assessment.

[<sup>F49</sup>(1A) A person is also liable to a penalty where—

- a WRA assessment under section 55A understates the amount that the person is required to pay to WRA, and
- the person has failed to take reasonable steps to notify WRA, within the period of 30 days beginning with the day on which the notice of assessment is issued, that it is an under-assessment.]

- (2) In deciding what steps (if any) were reasonable, WRA must consider whether the person knew, or should have known, about the under-assessment.

- (3) The penalty payable under this section is [<sup>F50</sup>an amount not exceeding] 30% of the potential lost revenue.

- (4) In this section—

- “WRA assessment” includes a determination made by WRA under section 52, and respect of each inaccuracy depends on the order in which they are corrected, careless inaccuracies are to be taken to be corrected before deliberate inaccuracies.

- (2) In calculating potential lost revenue where a person is liable to a penalty under section 129 in respect of one or more understatements in one or more documents relating to a tax period [<sup>F54</sup>, transaction or claim for tax credit], account must be taken of any overstatements in any document given by the person which relate to the same tax period [<sup>F55</sup>, transaction or claim for tax credit].
- (3) In subsection (2)—
  - (a) “understatement” means an inaccuracy that meets condition 1 in section 129, and
  - (b) “overstatement” means an inaccuracy that does not meet that condition.
- (4) For the purposes of subsection (2) overstatements are to be set against understatements in the following order—
  - (a) understatements in respect of which the person is not liable to a penalty,
  - (b) careless understatements, and
  - (c) deliberate understatements.
- (5) In calculating, for the purposes of a penalty under section 129, potential lost revenue in respect of a document given by or on behalf of a person, no account is to be taken of the fact that a potential loss of revenue from a person is or may be balanced by a potential overpayment by another person (except to the extent that an enactment requires a person's liability to a devolved tax to be adjusted by reference to another person's liability to a devolved tax).

137 Potential lost revenue: losses

- (1) Where an inaccuracy has the result that a loss is wrongly recorded for the purposes of a devolved tax and the loss has been wholly used to reduce the amount payable in respect of that tax, the potential lost revenue is calculated in accordance with section 135.
- (2) Where an inaccuracy has the result that a loss is wrongly recorded for the purposes of a devolved tax and the loss has not been wholly used to reduce the amount payable in respect of that tax, the potential lost revenue is—
  - (a) the potential lost revenue calculated in accordance with section 135 in respect of any part of the loss that has been used to reduce the amount payable in respect of that tax, plus
  - (b) 10% of any part that has not.
- (3) Subsections (1) and (2) apply both—

- (a) to a case where no loss would have been recorded but for the inaccuracy, and
  - (b) to a case where a loss of a different amount would have been recorded (but in that case subsections (1) and (2) apply only to the difference between the amount recorded and the true amount).
- (4) The potential lost revenue in respect of a loss is nil where, because of the nature of the loss or the circumstances of the person chargeable to the devolved tax, there is no reasonable prospect of the loss being used to support a claim to reduce any person's liability to that tax.

    - (ii) the inaccuracy attributable to the supply of false information or withholding of information, or
    - (iii) the under-assessment, and
  - (c) allowing WRA access to records for the purpose of ensuring that—
    - (i) the inaccuracy,
    - (ii) the inaccuracy attributable to the supply of false information or withholding of information, or
    - (iii) the under-assessment, is fully corrected.
- (4) In reducing a penalty under this section, WRA may take account of—

  - (b) the quality of the disclosure.
- (5) Disclosure of relevant information—
- (a) is “unprompted” if made at a time when the person making the disclosure has no reason to believe that WRA has discovered or is about to discover the inaccuracy, the supply of false information or withholding of information, or the under-assessment, and

  - (c) the person has been told that an application may be made under this section for an increased daily penalty to be imposed.
- (2) WRA may make an application to the tribunal for an increased daily penalty to be imposed on the person.

Changes to legislation: There are currently no known outstanding effects for the Tax Collection and Management (Wales) Act 2016, PART 5. (See end of Document for details)

---

- (3) But WRA may not make such an application if a decision relating to a penalty under section 146 or 147 in respect of the failure is the subject of—
  - (a) a review for which notice of the conclusions has not yet been issued, or
  - (b) an appeal which has not yet been finally determined or withdrawn.
- (4) If the tribunal decides that an increased daily penalty should be imposed, then for each applicable day on which the failure continues—
  - (a) the person is not liable to a penalty under section 147 for the failure, and
  - (b) the person is liable instead to a penalty under this section of an amount determined by the tribunal.
- (5) The tribunal may not determine an amount exceeding £1,000 for each applicable day.
- (6) In determining the amount the tribunal must have regard to—

  - (b) any benefits to the person of not complying with it, and
  - (c) any benefits to anyone else resulting from the person's non-compliance.
- (7) If a person becomes liable to a penalty under this section, WRA must issue to the person notice of that fact.
- (8) The notice must state the first day on which the increased penalty is to apply.
- (9) That day and any subsequent day on which the failure continues is an “applicable day” for the purposes of this section and section 153(4).

  - (b) the failure or obstruction continues after the day on which a penalty notice is issued under section 153(1)(b) in respect of the penalty,
  - (c) WRA has reason to believe that, as a result of the failure or obstruction,
    - [<sup>F63</sup>(i)] the amount of devolved tax that the person has paid, or is likely to pay, [<sup>F64</sup>or
    - (ii) the amount that the person has paid, or is likely to pay in respect of a tax credit,] is significantly less than it would otherwise have been,
  - (d) before the end of the period of 12 months beginning with the relevant date, WRA makes an application to the Upper Tribunal for an additional penalty to be imposed on the person (see subsection (6)) and gives notice of the application to the person, and
  - (e) the Upper Tribunal decides that it is appropriate for an additional penalty to be imposed.
- (2) The person is liable to a penalty of an amount determined by the Upper Tribunal.

Changes to legislation: There are currently no known outstanding effects for the Tax Collection and Management (Wales) Act 2016, PART 5. (See end of Document for details)

  - (ii) the amount in respect of a tax credit,]
- which has not been, or is not likely to be, paid by the person.
- (4) Any penalty under this section is in addition to the penalty or penalties under section 146 or 147.
- (5) In subsection (1)(d), the “relevant date” means—
- (a) in a case involving an information notice against which a person may appeal, the latest of—
    - (i) the day on which the person became liable to the penalty under section 146,
    - (ii) if no appeal against the information notice is made, the end of the period in which such an appeal could have been made, and
    - (iii) if such an appeal is made, the day on which the appeal is finally determined or withdrawn, and
  - (b) in any other case, the day on which the person became liable to the penalty under section 146.
- (6) WRA may not make an application of the kind mentioned in subsection (1)(d) if a decision relating to a penalty under section 146, 147 or 150 in respect of the failure or obstruction is the subject of—
- (a) a review for which notice of the conclusions has not yet been issued, or
  - (b) an appeal which has not yet been finally determined or withdrawn.
