

Crown Appointments Act 1661

1661 CHAPTER 6

The Estates of Parliament Considering the great obligations that doe ly vpon them from the law of God the lawes of Nations the municipall lawes of the land and their oaths of alledgeance to mantaine and defend the Soverane power and authority of the Kings Maiestie and the sad consequences that doe accompany any incroachments thervpon or diminutions thair of Doe therfor from their sense of humble duetie Declare That it is an inherent Priveledge of the Croun and ane vndoubted parte of the Royall prerogative of the Kings of this Kingdome to have the sole choise and appointment of the Officers of Estate and privy Councillors and the nomination of the Lords of the Session as in former times preceeding the yeer 1637 And that the Kings sacred Maiestie and his aires and successors are for ever be vertew of that Royall power which they hold from God Almichtie over this Kingdome To enjoy and have the full exercise of that right . . . ^{F1}

Textual Amendments

F1 Words repealed by Statute Law Revision \(Scotland\) Act 1906 \(c. 38\)

Changes to legislation:

There are currently no known outstanding effects for the Crown Appointments Act 1661.