

Queen Anne's Bounty Act 1714 (repealed)

1714 CHAPTER 10 1 Geo 1 St 2

21 Lands, &c. allotted to any church, &c. by deed under the governors seal, shall go in succession, &c.

And to the end that churches and chapels may at all times be capable of receiving augmentations for the maintenance of the ministers thereof, if the [^{F1}Church Commissioners], shall by any deed or instrument in writing under their common seal, allot or apply to any church or chapel any lands, tythes, or hereditaments, arising from the said bounty of her said late Majesty, or from private contribution or benefaction, or from all or any the ways aforesaid, and shall declare that the same shall be for ever annexed to such church or chapel, then such lands, tythes, and hereditaments shall from thenceforth be held and enjoyed, and go in succession with such church and chapel for ever; and such augmentation so made shall be good and effectual, to all intents and purposes whatsoever, whether such church or chapel, for which such augmentation is intended, be then full or vacant of an incumbent or minister, . . . ^{F2}
