Life Assurance Act 1774

CHAPTER 48

LIFE ASSURANCE ACT 1774

1. No Insurance to be made on the lives of persons having no interest, &c.
2. No policies on lives without inserting the persons names, &c.
3. How much may be recovered where the insured hath interest in lives.
4. Not to extend to insurances on ships, goods, &c.
Changes to legislation:
There are currently no known outstanding effects for the Life Assurance Act 1774.