

Frustrated Contracts Act (Northern Ireland) 1947

1947 CHAPTER 2

2 Provisions as to application of this Act.

- (1) This Act shall apply to contracts, whether made before or after the commencement of this Act, as respects which the time of discharge is on or after the first day of March, nineteen hundred and forty-seven, but not to contracts as respect which the time of discharge is before the said date.
- (2) Contracts to which a Ministry of Northern Ireland is a party shall not for that reason be excluded from the operation of this Act.
- (3) ^{F1} Where any contract to which this Act applies contains any provision which, upon the true construction of the contract, is intended to have effect in the event of circumstances arising which operate, or would but for the said provision operate, to frustrate the contract, or is intended to have effect whether such circumstances arise or not, the court shall give effect to the said provision and shall only give effect to the foregoing section of this Act to such extent, if any, as appears to the court to be consistent with the said provision.
- (4) Where it appears to the court that a part of any contract to which this Act applies can properly be severed from the remainder of the contract, being a part wholly performed before the time of discharge, or so performed except for the payment in respect of that part of the contract of sums which are or can be ascertained under the contract, the court shall treat that part of the contract as if it were a separate contract and had not been frustrated and shall treat the foregoing section of this Act as only applicable to the remainder of that contract.
- (5) This Act shall not apply—
 - (a) to any voyage charterparty, or to any contract (other than a charterparty) for the carriage of goods by sea; or
 - (b) to any contract of insurance, save as is provided by sub-section (5) of the foregoing section; or
