PART II

ACQUISITION OF FOYLE FISHERY RIGHTS

8 Power to acquire fishing rights, etc.

- (1) The Ministry is hereby authorised to enter into an agreement (in this Act referred to as the vesting agreement) with the Minister and the Irish Society in the terms of the draft set out in the Second Schedule to this Act.
- (2) On the date of execution of the vesting agreement this sub-section shall operate to vest in the Ministry and the Minister an absolute and indefeasible title to the fee simple in possession of all rights of fishing in the tidal portions of the Lough and River Foyle and of its tributary, the River Faughan, freed and discharged from all estates, titles, interests, incumbrances, rights, liberties and privileges whatsoever by whomsoever held, used, exercised or enjoyed, except the rentcharges referred to in the vesting agreement but indemnified therefrom as therein provided.
- (3) Sub-section (2) of this section shall not apply to a right vested, immediately before the date of execution of the vesting agreement, in any person, other than the Irish Society, to use a fixed engine under certificate granted under section six of the Salmon Fishery (Ireland) Act, 1863 .
- (4) On the date of execution of the vesting agreement this sub-section shall operate to extinguish all the estate, right, title and interest of the Irish Society in and to the tidal portions of the Lough and River Foyle and of its tributary, the River Faughan, and the ground, soil and foreshore of those tidal portions.
- (5) The vesting agreement shall operate, without further assurance, to convey, assign and transfer, on the date of the making thereof, to the Ministry and the Minister all the property thereby agreed to be sold, other than rights of fishing to which sub-section (2) of this section applies.
- (6) The Irish Society shall, notwithstanding any limitations on its powers, have power to enter into the vesting agreement without the consent of any person.
- (7) It shall be the duty of the Ministry and the Irish Society, and each such party is hereby empowered, to carry out the vesting agreement so far as the provisions thereof are to be performed by such party.

Subs. (8)(9) spent

9 Exemption from stamp duties.

- (1) Section twelve of the Finance Act, 1895 , shall not operate to require the delivery to the Ministry of Finance of a copy of this Act or the payment of stamp duty under that section on any copy of this Act.
- (2) Stamp duty shall not be chargeable on the vesting agreement or on any instrument executed in pursuance thereof.
- (3) Section nine of the Finance Act (Northern Ireland), 1936 , shall not apply to the vesting agreement or to any instrument executed in pursuance thereof.

Status: Point in time view as at 01/04/2007. This version of this Act contains provisions that are not valid for this point in time.

(2) Nothing in this section shall apply to lawful fishing with rod and line.

31 Removal of fixed engines during close season and close time.

- (1) The occupier of any fixed engine for taking salmon or trout shall forthwith, after the commencement of the annual close season and until the end of that season, and also during the weekly close time, cause the fixed engine to be removed or rendered incapable of taking or obstructing the passage of salmon and trout.
- (2) If any person fails to comply with this section, he shall be guilty of an offence against this Act.
- (3) In this section “fixed engine” means any net, implement, engine or device, fixed to the soil or secured by anchors or held by hand or made stationary in any other way and used solely for the purpose of taking or facilitating the taking of fish.

32 Removal of nets from banks of rivers during close season.

If any person engaged in fishing for salmon or trout by means of nets of any kind or description omits or neglects to remove and carry away from any strand or from the banks of any river or from the vicinity thereof such nets during the annual close season such person shall be guilty of an offence against this Act.

33 Use of nets during close season or close time.

If any person does any of the following things during the annual close season or weekly close time—

- (a) places, affixes or attaches any net to any stake, bridge, sluice or lock gates of a canal or other such fixed erections, or
- (b) lays, draws or fishes with any net whatsoever,

he shall be guilty of an offence against this Act.

34 Prohibition of sale, etc., of salmon and trout unlawfully captured.

- (1) If any person buys, sells, exposes for sale or has in his possession any salmon or trout unlawfully captured, such person shall be guilty of an offence against this Act and shall be liable on summary conviction thereof to a fine not exceeding^[F20] level 2 on the standard scale], together with a further fine not exceeding two pounds for each salmon or trout so bought, sold, exposed for sale or found in his possession.
- (2) In any proceedings under this section, the onus of proving that the salmon or trout, the subject of the proceedings, was lawfully captured shall lie on the defendant.
- (3) Where a person, being a common carrier, is charged with the offence of having in his possession any salmon or trout unlawfully captured, it shall be a good defence to the charge for him to prove—
 - (a) that he had the salmon or trout in his possession as a common carrier and not otherwise, and
 - (b) that at the time at which the salmon or trout was accepted by him for carriage, the consignor delivered to him a certificate in writing signed by the consignor to the effect that the salmon or trout was lawfully captured.

Status: Point in time view as at 01/04/2007. This version of this Act contains provisions that are not valid for this point in time.

PART VI

PROTECTION OF FISHERIES

REGULATIONS AS TO NETS

36 Restrictions on use of nets.

If any person—

- (a) makes use of or fishes with any net formed with a false bottom (except nets for the taking of eels), or
 - (b) places two or more nets one behind the other, or
 - (c) uses any nets covered with canvas, hide, or other substance for the purpose of taking small fish, or
 - (d) affixes or keeps up continued nets stretched across any river,
- he shall be guilty of an offence against this Act.

37 Mesh of nets for the taking of salmon in the sea and tideways.

- (1) If, on any part of the coast or within any bay, estuary or tideway thereof, any person uses any net to which this section applies with a mesh of less size than one and three-quarter inches from knot to knot, to be measured along the side of the square, or seven inches to be measured all round each such mesh, such measurement being taken in the clear when the net is wet, then, subject to sub-section (2) of this section, he shall be guilty of an offence against this Act.
- (2) The Commission may by regulation under section thirteen permit the use of nets to which this section applies having meshes of a less size than that specified in sub-section (1) of this section.
- (3) In this section the expression “net to which this section applies” means any net or other engine which is not formed of a rigid material and which is used for the taking of salmon.

Status: Point in time view as at 01/04/2007. This version of this Act contains provisions that are not valid for this point in time.

38 Use of salmon nets near mouths of rivers.

- (1) If any person (other than the owner of a several fishery within the limits thereof) shoots, draws, or uses any net for taking salmon at the mouth of any river or within half a mile seaward or half a mile inwards or along the coast from the mouth of any river, he shall be guilty of an offence against this Act.
- (2) If any person shoots, draws, or stretches any net entirely across the mouth or across any other part of a river, he shall be guilty of an offence against this Act.
- (3) Where regulations under this Act define the mouth of any tributary river, references in this section to the mouth of any river shall be construed as including references to the mouth of that tributary river.

39 Restriction on possession of unlawful net, etc.

- (1) No person shall have in his possession or control in any river or on or near the banks of any river any net or other instrument or lure or bait the use of which for the purpose of taking salmon, trout or other fish is unlawful.
- (2) Any person who has in his possession or control any net or other instrument or lure or bait in contravention of this section shall be guilty of an offence against this Act.
- (3) Where—
 - (a) a person is found in possession of or has in his control any net in the vicinity of the boundary between the tidal and freshwater portions of any river, and
 - (b) by reason thereof such person is charged with an offence under this section, it shall be a good defence to such charge for such person to prove that he is the holder of a licence to use such net and that such net is intended for use in such tidal portion.

PROHIBITION OF CERTAIN METHODS OF FISHING FOR, AND OF PRACTICES LIABLE TO DESTROY, SALMON AND OTHER FISH [^{F21}40 Penalty for use or possession of deleterious matter.

- (1) If any person uses in any waters any deleterious matter for the capture, destruction or injury of fish he shall be guilty of an offence against this Act.
- (2) If any person being on the bank of or near any waters has in his possession or under his control any deleterious matter he shall be guilty of an offence against this Act.
- (3) It shall be a good defence to a charge under sub-section (2) for the defendant to prove that the deleterious matter was in his possession or under his control for an innocent purpose.
- (4) Every person guilty of an offence under this section shall be liable—
 - (a) on summary conviction, to a fine not exceeding[^{F22} £100], or to imprisonment for a term not exceeding six months or to both such fine and such imprisonment;
 - (b) on conviction on indictment to[^{F22} an unlimited fine] or to imprisonment for a term not exceeding two years or to both such fine and such imprisonment.

[^{F23}41 Penalty for pollution.

(1) ^{F24} . . . If any person causes or knowingly permits any deleterious matter to enter any river he shall be guilty of an offence against this Act and shall be liable

[^{F25}(a) on summary conviction, to a fine not exceeding the statutory maximum;

(b) on conviction on indictment, to a fine or to imprisonment for a term not exceeding 2 years or to both.]

[^{F25}(1A) If in the case of a continuing offence under subsection (1), the offender continues to contravene that subsection, he shall be guilty of a further offence and shall be liable on summary conviction to an additional fine not exceeding one-twentieth of level 5 on the standard scale for each day on which the offence is continued.]

(2) ^{F26}

[^{F27}(3) Where a person (in this section referred to as “the person convicted”) has been convicted of an offence under subsection (1), the Commission]

(a) after consulting the owner of the fishing rights in the waters affected by the pollution; or

(b) without such consultation if the [^{F27} Commission], upon making reasonable enquiries, is unable to ascertain the name and address of the owner, may—

(i) carry out such restocking to restore the fish population of the waters as is reasonable in the circumstances, and

(ii) recover the cost thereof from the person convicted.

(4) Any question as to—

(a) the reasonableness of any restocking to be undertaken under paragraph (i) of subsection (3); or

(b) the costs to be recoverable under paragraph (ii) of that subsection, shall be referred to arbitration under and in accordance with the provisions of the Arbitration Act (Northern Ireland) 1937.

(5) Nothing in this section shall affect any right of the owner of fishing rights in the waters affected by the pollution to bring civil proceedings against the person convicted; but in assessing damages in any such proceedings the court shall take into account the value of any restocking carried out by the [^{F27} Commission] under subsection (3).

Aquaculture licences

PROSPECTIVE

52A Aquaculture licences

- (1) The Commission may, in accordance with the provisions of this Part, grant a licence (“an aquaculture licence”) to any person authorising that person to engage in aquaculture within any area specified in the licence (the “licensed area”).
- (2) An aquaculture licence may be granted notwithstanding any public right to fish in the area which, on the granting of the licence, becomes the licensed area.
- (3) Subject to subsection (4) the licensed area may include any part of the foreshore or any part of the bed of the sea or an estuary.
- (4) An aquaculture licence shall not specify any area—
 - (a) which forms either part of the foreshore or part of the bed of the sea or an estuary owned or lawfully occupied by any person, unless the licence is granted to, or with the consent in writing of, the owner or lawful occupier of that part of the foreshore or that part of the bed of the sea or the estuary; or
 - (b) which is within the limits of a several fishery, unless the licence is granted to, or with the consent in writing of, the owner or lawful occupier of that fishery.
- (5) A person shall not engage in aquaculture in the Foyle Area or the Carlingford Area except under, and in accordance with the conditions of, an aquaculture licence.
- (6) A person who contravenes subsection (5) shall be guilty of an offence and liable—
 - (a) on summary conviction, to a fine not exceeding the statutory maximum or to imprisonment for a term not exceeding 6 months, or to both;
 - (b) on conviction on indictment, to a fine or to imprisonment for a term not exceeding 2 years, or to both.

52B Applications for aquaculture licences

- (1) An application for an aquaculture licence shall be made to the Commission and shall—

- (a) contain such information and be made in such form and in such manner as may be prescribed;
 - (b) be advertised, at the expense of the applicant, in such form and in such manner as may be prescribed; and
 - (c) be accompanied by—
 - (i) any consent required by section 52A(4); and
 - (ii) the prescribed fee.
- (2) Without prejudice to any other provision of this Part, regulations under subsection (1) (a) may contain provisions similar to the provisions of Directive 85/337/EEC and may, in particular, require the Commission, when considering whether to grant an aquaculture licence, to take account of any information received by, or representations made to, the Commission which relate to the impact of aquaculture on the environment.
- (3) The Commission may, by giving notice to the applicant, require him to furnish such further information as may be specified in the notice, within the period so specified, as the Commission may require for the purpose of determining the application.
- (4) If a person fails to furnish any information—
 - (a) required under subsection (1)(a); or
 - (b) specified in a notice under subsection (3) within the period specified in the notice,the Commission may refuse to proceed with the application.

52C Determination of applications for aquaculture licences

- (1) The Commission shall consider an application for an aquaculture licence and either—
 - (a) grant the licence; or
 - (b) refuse to grant the licence.
- (2) In determining an application for an aquaculture licence, the Commission shall consider any written representations relating to the application (including any representations made to the Commission which relate to the impact of aquaculture on the environment) which are received by the Commission within the period of 28 days beginning with the date on which the application was last advertised in accordance with section 52B(1)(b).
- (3) As soon as practicable after determining an application for an aquaculture licence the Commission shall give—
 - (a) the applicant; and
 - (b) each person who made representations considered under subsection (2), notice of the determination.
- (4) Where the Commission grants an aquaculture licence, the Commission shall, in such form and in such manner as may be prescribed, publish a notice stating that the licence has been granted.
- (5) Where the Commission grants an aquaculture licence, the licence—
 - (a) shall, if no appeal is brought under section 52P, take effect on the expiration of 28 days from the date on which the Commission, in accordance with

Status: Point in time view as at 01/04/2007. This version of this Act contains provisions that are not valid for this point in time.

subsection (4), last published a notice stating that the licence had been granted;

- (b) shall, if an appeal is brought under section 52P, take effect—
 - (i) if and so far as the licence is confirmed on appeal, from the date on which the appeal is determined;
 - (ii) if the appeal is withdrawn, on the date of the withdrawal of the appeal.

PROSPECTIVE

52D Form and conditions of aquaculture licences

- (1) An aquaculture licence shall define the position and limits of the licensed area by reference to a map or chart, either with or without descriptive matter (which, in the case of any discrepancy with the map or chart, shall prevail except in so far as may otherwise be provided by the licence).
- (2) Where any consent mentioned in section 52A(4) was given subject to any conditions or limitations, the licence shall be subject to such conditions or limitations and such fact shall be stated in the licence.
- (3) An aquaculture licence may contain such other conditions as the Commission shall determine.
- (4) Without prejudice to the generality of subsection (3), conditions contained in an aquaculture licence may relate to any of the following—
 - (a) operational practices;
 - (b) monitoring and protection of the health of fish, aquatic invertebrate animals or aquatic plants and the reporting of incidences of disease and the presence of parasites;
 - (c) monitoring and inspection of the activities carried on pursuant to the licence;
 - (d) the type of ropes, trestles, fish cages or other equipment or structures which may be located within the licensed area;
 - (e) the marking, by buoys or otherwise, of the limits of the licensed area or any part of it, or of the location of ropes, trestles, fish cages or other structures within the licensed area;
 - (f) the keeping of records by the holder of the licence;
 - (g) the making of returns and the giving of other information to the Commission in relation to activities in the licensed area;
 - (h) the protection of the environment (including the man-made environment of heritage value) and the control of discharges from the licensed area;
 - (i) appropriate environmental, water quality and biological monitoring and, in particular, the provision of samples, or of facilities for taking samples in the licensed area;
 - (j) in relation to the farming or culture of fish—
 - (i) the amount of feed inputs;
 - (ii) annual or seasonal limits on stock inputs and outputs and the amount of stock in the licensed area or in any part of it;
 - (iii) the disposal of dead fish;

There are changes that may be brought into force at a future date. Changes that have been made appear in the content and are referenced with annotations. (See end of Document for details)

- (iv) measures for preventing the escape of fish and arrangements for reporting any such escape;
 - (v) the movement of fish within, and in to or out of, the licensed area;
 - (k) the payment of any prescribed fee in relation to the licence.
- (5) An aquaculture licence may, in so far as is expedient for the purpose of giving effect to any conditions attached to it, exempt—
- (a) the holder of the aquaculture licence and any person acting under his directions; and
 - (b) a person who acquires fish of any kind taken in accordance with such conditions,
- from the restrictions imposed by section 34 or regulations made under section 13(gg) in so far as those restrictions apply to fish of that kind.

PROSPECTIVE

52E Duration of aquaculture licences

- (1) Subject to subsections (2) and (3), an aquaculture licence—
- (a) shall in the first instance be limited to a period specified by the Commission in writing, being a period of not less than 10 years and not exceeding 20 years, and
 - (b) on the expiration of that period shall, on the Commission being satisfied that reasonable progress has been, and is likely to continue to be, made in developing the licensed site, be renewed for a further period specified by the Commission in writing, not exceeding 20 years, and
 - (c) on the expiration of that period, on the Commission being satisfied as aforesaid, may be further renewed from time to time for such period specified by the Commission in writing but not, on any occasion, for a period exceeding 20 years.
- (2) Where an aquaculture licence has been granted—
- (a) to the occupier (not being the owner) of a several fishery or of any land included in the licensed area; or
 - (b) to any person with the consent of such an occupier,
- and the owner of the several fishery or land did not consent in writing to the grant of the licence, the licence shall remain in force only during the continuance in occupation of that occupier.
- (3) Where an aquaculture licence is granted with the consent in writing of any owner or occupier and a period is specified in the consent, the licence shall remain in force only for that period.

Status: Point in time view as at 01/04/2007. This version of this Act contains provisions that are not valid for this point in time.

There are changes that may be brought into force at a future date. Changes that have been made appear in the content and are referenced with annotations. (See end of Document for details)

PROSPECTIVE

52F Effect of aquaculture licence

- (1) An aquaculture licence shall confer on the holder of the licence the exclusive right, in the licensed area, to deposit, introduce, propagate, dredge, harvest and take any fish, aquatic invertebrate animal or aquatic plant which is farmed or cultivated in accordance with the licence.
- (2) An aquaculture licence shall not—
 - (a) except for the purpose of the farming or cultivation of fish, animals or plants of a kind specified in the licence, affect any right in or over the foreshore or the bed of the sea or any estuary, or any right of several fishery;
 - (b) for any purpose, affect any such right of any person which he enjoys under a local or personal Act or under Royal Charter, letters patent, prescription or immemorial usage, without the consent of that person.
- (3) Notwithstanding anything contained in this Act or any regulations made under this Act, the holder of an aquaculture licence and any person acting under his directions may, subject to the conditions contained in the licence, do anything authorised by the licence or anything that is necessary or expedient for doing anything authorised by the licence.
- (4) The ownership of any fish, aquatic invertebrate animal or aquatic plant the farming or cultivation of which is authorised by an aquaculture licence and which is farmed or cultivated in accordance with that licence vests in the holder of the licence and his executors, administrators or assigns.
- (5) Subject to section 52K, an aquaculture licence is not transferable by the holder, but the Commission may transfer it to another person in accordance with section 52L.
- (6) Except as permitted by or under this Act, if a person, by trespass, fishing or otherwise, interferes with anything done or being done pursuant to an aquaculture licence and the interference is carried on without the permission of the holder of the licence, then, notwithstanding the existence of any public right to fish, the person so interfering shall be guilty of an offence and liable—
 - (a) on summary conviction, to a fine not exceeding the statutory maximum or to imprisonment for a term not exceeding 6 months, or to both;
 - (b) on conviction on indictment, to a fine or to imprisonment for a term not exceeding 2 years, or to both.

52G Variation of aquaculture licences by Commission

- (1) Subject to subsection (2), the Commission may, on its own initiative, vary an aquaculture licence (but not so as to extend the licensed area) if it considers that it is in the public interest to do so.
- (2) An aquaculture licence shall not be varied so as to affect any conditions or limitations subject to which a consent under section 52A(4) was given, or any period mentioned in such a consent, otherwise than with the consent in writing of the person or authority who gave the consent or his or its successor in title.

Status: Point in time view as at 01/04/2007. This version of this Act contains provisions that are not valid for this point in time.

There are changes that may be brought into force at a future date. Changes that have been made appear in the content and are referenced with annotations. (See end of Document for details)

- (3) Where the Commission proposes to vary an aquaculture licence under this section, the Commission shall—
 - (a) give to the holder of the licence at least 28 days' notice of its proposal to do so and of the grounds upon which the variation is proposed to be made; and
 - (b) advertise, in such form and in such manner as may be prescribed, notice of its proposal to vary the licence.
- (4) Before varying the licence the Commission shall consider any written representations which are received by the Commission within the period of 28 days from—
 - (a) the date on which the Commission gave notice to the holder of the licence of the proposed variation; or
 - (b) the date on which notice of the proposal to vary the licence was last advertised in accordance with subsection (3)(b),whichever is the later.
- (5) Where the Commission varies a licence under this section the Commission shall give notice of the variation to the holder of the licence and the notice shall specify—
 - (a) the variation of the licence which the Commission has decided to make; and
 - (b) the date or dates on which the variation is to take effect.
- (6) Where the Commission varies a licence under this section, the Commission shall, in such form and in such manner as may be prescribed, publish a notice stating that the licence has been varied.
- (7) The Commission shall be liable to pay compensation to the holder of an aquaculture licence in respect of any loss or damage sustained by him as a result of any action taken by the Commission in relation to an aquaculture licence by virtue of subsection (1) and any dispute as to a person's entitlement to such compensation or as to the amount of it shall be referred to and determined by the Appeals Board.

52H Variation of aquaculture licences: applications by holder of licence

- (1) Subject to subsection (2), the holder of an aquaculture licence may, at any time after the expiration of 2 years from the granting of the licence, apply to the Commission, in such manner as may be prescribed, for the variation of the licence specified in the application.
- (2) An aquaculture licence shall not be varied so as to affect any conditions or limitations subject to which a consent under section 52A(4) was given, or any period mentioned in such a consent, otherwise than with the consent in writing of the person or authority who gave the consent or his or its successor in title.
- (3) Where an application is made under subsection (1) for the variation of a licence (otherwise than solely by reducing the licensed area) sections 52A(3) and (4), 52B and 52C shall apply as they apply to the grant, or an application for the grant, of an aquaculture licence.

PROSPECTIVE

52I Revocation of aquaculture licences

- (1) The Commission may revoke an aquaculture licence if it is satisfied that the holder of the licence has not engaged in aquaculture in the licensed area for a continuous period of 2 years.
- (2) The Commission may revoke an aquaculture licence if—
 - (a) it is satisfied that there has been a breach of a condition specified in the licence; or
 - (b) it considers that it is in the public interest to do so.
- (3) Where the Commission proposes to revoke an aquaculture licence, the Commission shall give the holder of the licence at least 28 days' notice of—
 - (a) its intention to do so; and
 - (b) the grounds upon which the revocation is proposed to be made;
 and before revoking the licence the Commission shall consider any representations made by the holder of the licence before the expiration of the notice.
- (4) Where the Commission revokes an aquaculture licence the Commission shall give notice of the revocation to the person whose licence has been revoked, and the notice shall inform that person of his right of appeal under section 52P, and of the time within which the appeal may be brought.
- (5) The revocation of an aquaculture licence in accordance with this section shall not take effect until—
 - (a) the expiry of the time allowed for making an appeal under section 52P; or
 - (b) if an appeal is made under section 52P—
 - (i) if and so far as the revocation of the licence is confirmed on appeal, the date on which the appeal is determined; or
 - (ii) if the appeal is withdrawn, on the date of the withdrawal of the appeal, whichever is the later.
- (6) The Commission shall be liable to pay compensation to a person who was the holder of an aquaculture licence in respect of any loss or damage sustained by that person as a result of any action taken by the Commission by virtue of subsection (2)(b) and any dispute as to a person's entitlement to such compensation or as to the amount of it shall be referred to and determined by the Appeals Board.

PROSPECTIVE

52J Surrender of aquaculture licences

- (1) An aquaculture licence may, in accordance with subsections (2) to (5), be surrendered by its holder to the Commission if the Commission accepts the surrender.
- (2) The holder of an aquaculture licence who wishes to surrender it shall make an application for that purpose to the Commission on a form provided by the Commission for the purpose, giving such information and accompanied by such documentation as the Commission reasonably requires and accompanied by the fee payable in accordance with section 52N.

- (3) On receiving an application for the surrender of an aquaculture licence the Commission—
 - (a) shall inspect the licensed area, and
 - (b) may require the holder of the aquaculture licence to—
 - (i) provide the Commission with further information;
 - (ii) carry out such works in relation to the licensed area as the Commission may specify in writing.
- (4) Where the surrender of a licence is accepted by the Commission under this section the Commission shall issue a certificate (a “certificate of completion”) to the applicant and, on the issue of that certificate, the aquaculture licence shall cease to have effect.
- (5) If within the period of 3 months from the date on which the Commission receives an application to surrender a licence, or within such longer period as the Commission and the applicant may at any time agree in writing, the Commission has neither issued a certificate of completion nor given notice to the applicant that the Commission has refused the application, the Commission shall be deemed to have refused the application.

PROSPECTIVE

52K Vesting of aquaculture licences on death or bankruptcy of holder

- (1) On the death of the holder of an aquaculture licence, the licence shall be regarded as property forming part of the deceased's personal estate, whether or not it would be so regarded apart from this subsection, and shall accordingly vest in his personal representatives.
- (2) If a bankruptcy order is made against the holder of an aquaculture licence, the licence shall be regarded for the purposes of Parts VIII to X of the Insolvency (Northern Ireland) Order 1989 (insolvency of individuals; bankruptcy) as property forming part of the bankrupt's estate, whether or not it would be so regarded apart from this subsection, and shall accordingly vest as such in the trustee in bankruptcy.
- (3) A person in whom an aquaculture licence vests under this section shall become the holder of the aquaculture licence, in place of the prior holder, from the date of the vesting.
- (4) Where an aquaculture licence vests in any person under this section, that person shall give notice of that fact to the Commission not later than the end of the period of 90 days, or such longer period as may be agreed with the Commission, beginning with the date of the vesting.

PROSPECTIVE

52L Transfer, etc. of aquaculture licences

- (1) An aquaculture licence may be transferred to another person in accordance with the following provisions of this section.
- (2) Where the holder of an aquaculture licence desires that the licence be transferred to another person (“the proposed transferee”) the aquaculture licence holder and the proposed transferee shall jointly make an application to the Commission for a transfer of the licence.
- (3) An application under subsection (2) for the transfer of an aquaculture licence shall be made on a form provided by the Commission for the purpose, accompanied by—
 - (a) such information as the Commission may reasonably require;
 - (b) where the aquaculture licence has been granted subject to the consent of the owner or lawful occupier of the foreshore, bed of the sea, estuary or any fishery, the consent in writing of that owner or lawful occupier, as the case may be, to the proposed transfer of the licence;
 - (c) the fee payable in accordance with section 52N; and
 - (d) the licence.
- (4) If the Commission is not satisfied that the licence should be transferred to the proposed transferee, it shall give notice of its refusal to transfer the licence to the holder of the aquaculture licence and the proposed transferee.
- (5) If, on an application under subsection (2), the Commission is satisfied that the licence should be transferred to the proposed transferee, the Commission shall effect a transfer of the aquaculture licence to the proposed transferee.
- (6) The Commission shall effect a transfer of an aquaculture licence under subsection (5) by causing the licence to be endorsed with the name and other particulars of the proposed transferee as the holder of the licence from such date specified in the endorsement as may be agreed with the applicants.
- (7) Nothing in this section shall affect the liability of the holder of an aquaculture licence for any failure by him, before any transfer under subsection (5) took effect, to comply within any condition of that licence.

52M Register of aquaculture licences

- (1) The Commission shall, in such manner as may be prescribed, maintain a register containing prescribed particulars of, or relating to, aquaculture licences.
- (2) Without prejudice to the generality of subsection (1), a register under this section may be maintained in electronic form.
- (3) The Commission shall—
 - (a) ensure that the contents of a register maintained under this section are available, at all reasonable times, for inspection (including, where practicable, inspection by electronic means) by the public free of charge; and

- (b) afford members of the public reasonable facilities for obtaining from the Commission, on payment of reasonable charges, copies of entries in the register.
- (4) A register maintained under this section shall be conclusive evidence as to the terms of any aquaculture licence, or any condition to which such a licence is subject, as that licence, or that condition, as the case may be, has effect for the time being.

52N Fees in respect of applications for aquaculture licences, etc.

- (1) The Commission may in such manner as may be prescribed, provide for the payment to the Commission of fees in relation to—
 - (a) applications for aquaculture licences under section 52B;
 - (b) the subsistence of an aquaculture licence;
 - (c) applications for the variation of an aquaculture licence under section 52H;
 - (d) applications for the surrender of an aquaculture licence under section 52J;
 - (e) applications for the transfer of an aquaculture licence under section 52L.
- (2) Regulations under subsection (1) may provide for the refund (in whole or in part) of fees in prescribed circumstances.

Foyle and Carlingford Aquaculture Licensing Appeals Board

52O Foyle and Carlingford Aquaculture Licensing Appeals Board

- (1) There is hereby established a body to be known as the Foyle and Carlingford Aquaculture Licensing Appeals Board (“the Appeals Board”).
- (2) The Appeals Board shall consist of 8 members to be appointed by NSMC.
- (3) At least one of the members of the Appeals Board shall be a solicitor or barrister qualified to practice in any part of the Foyle Area or the Carlingford Area.
- (4) In appointing the other members of the Appeals Board, NSMC shall—
 - (a) have regard to the desirability of having as members of the Appeals Board persons with knowledge and experience of fisheries, aquaculture, financial matters or environmental protection; and
 - (b) to the extent practicable, endeavour to ensure that there is an equitable balance between men and women in the composition of the Appeals Board.
- (5) NSMC shall appoint a Chairperson from among the members of the Appeals Board.
- (6) The Department may make regulations providing for the payment to the Appeals Board of fees in relation to appeals under section 52P.
- (7) The Department may make grants to the Appeals Board out of money appropriated by Act of the Assembly.
- (8) Such grants shall be of such amounts and be made on such terms and conditions as the Department may determine.
- (9) Schedule 3A shall have effect in relation to the Board.

52P Appeals from decisions with respect to aquaculture licences

- (1) A person aggrieved by a decision of the Commission—
 - (a) to grant or to refuse to grant an aquaculture licence;
 - (b) to specify any condition in an aquaculture licence;
 - (c) to vary an aquaculture licence under section 52G;
 - (d) to vary or to refuse to vary an aquaculture licence under section 52H;
 - (e) to revoke an aquaculture licence under section 52I;
 - (f) to refuse to transfer an aquaculture licence under section 52L;
 - (g) to refuse to accept the surrender of an aquaculture licence under section 52J;
 may appeal to the Appeals Board.
- (2) An appeal to the Appeals Board shall be made by sending a notice of appeal to the Appeals Board so that it is received by the Appeals Board—
 - (a) in the case of a decision of the Commission to grant an aquaculture licence or specify any condition in an aquaculture licence, not later than 28 days after the date on which notice to grant the licence was last published in accordance with section 52C(4);
 - (b) in the case of a decision by the Commission to vary an aquaculture licence under section 52G or 52H, not later than 28 days after the date on which notice of the decision to vary the licence was last published in accordance with section 52G(6);
 - (c) in the case of a decision of the Commission—
 - (i) to refuse to grant an aquaculture licence;
 - (ii) to refuse to vary an aquaculture licence under section 52H;
 - (iii) to revoke an aquaculture licence; or
 - (iv) to refuse to transfer an aquaculture licence, not later than 28 days after the date on which notice of the disputed decision was received by the person aggrieved;
 - (d) in the case of a decision (or deemed decision) of the Commission to refuse to accept the surrender of an aquaculture licence under section 52J, not later than 28 days after the date on which in accordance with subsection (5) of that section, notice of the refusal was given to the applicant or, as the case may be, the Commission was deemed to have refused the application.
- (3) The Appeals Board may—
 - (a) confirm or set aside the decision which is the subject of the appeal, or any part of it; or
 - (b) substitute its decision on the matter for that of the Commission.
- (4) Where, on an appeal under subsection (1), the Appeals Board determines that the decision of the Commission should be altered, the Commission shall give effect to the determination and shall publish, in such manner and such form as may be prescribed, notice of the determination.
- (5) Schedule 3B shall have effect with respect to appeals under subsection (1).
- (6) The Department may make regulations providing for such additional, incidental, consequential or supplemental procedural matters in respect of appeals to the Appeals Board as appear to the Department to be necessary or expedient.

and the holder of an aquaculture licence shall afford to such an officer facilities for the exercise by him of any right conferred by this subsection.

- (3) Nothing in this section shall be construed as authorising any person to enter—
- (a) any enclosed garden;
 - (b) any dwelling-house or the curtilage thereof.

52U Regulations

- (1) Regulations made under this Part by the Commission shall be subject to the approval of NSMC.
- (2) As soon as practicable after it makes any regulations under this Part, the Commission or, as the case may be, the Department, shall publish in at least two newspapers circulating in the Foyle Area and the Carlingford Area notice—
 - (a) stating that the regulations have been made and giving a general description of their content;
 - (b) specifying a place at which, and the hours between which, a copy of the regulations may be inspected.
- (3) Regulations made under this Part by the Commission or by the Department may contain such supplementary, incidental and transitional provision as the Commission or, as the case may be, the Department, thinks necessary or appropriate.
- (4) The Commission or, as the case may be, the Department, shall cause regulations made under this Part to be laid before the Assembly as soon as may be after they are made, and regulations under this Part shall be subject to negative resolution.

PROSPECTIVE

52V Transitional provision – existing licences in the Foyle and Carlingford Areas

- (1) This section applies to a licence which—
 - (a) is granted under section 11, Part IX or Part IXA, as the case may be, of the Fisheries Act (Northern Ireland) 1966;
 - (b) is in force immediately before the coming into operation of Article 3 of the Foyle and Carlingford Fisheries (Northern Ireland) Order 2007; and
 - (c) authorises the doing of any act in any area of the Foyle Area or the Carlingford Area in respect of which the provisions contained in that Article are in operation.
- (2) On and after the coming into operation of Article 3 of the Foyle and Carlingford Fisheries (Northern Ireland) Order 2007, a licence to which this section applies shall, for so long as it would have continued in force apart from this section, have effect as an aquaculture licence granted under section 52A, subject to the same conditions as were attached to the licence immediately before that Article came into operation.

67 Application of penal provisions of Act.

The provisions of this Act relating to offences apply to—

- (a) acts and omissions in the Londonderry Area^{F53} or the Newry Area] by any person, and
- (b) acts and omissions in any part of the Foyle Area^{F53} or the Carlingford Area] by a person resident in Northern Ireland.

F53 SI 1999/859

68 Penalties for offences.

- (1) Any person who commits an offence against this Act for which a penalty is not provided by any other provision of this Act shall be liable on summary conviction to a fine not exceeding^{F54} level 2 on the standard scale] and, in the case of a continuing offence, to a further fine not exceeding five pounds for every day during which the offence is continued after conviction.
- (2) The Commission may prescribe lower money penalties for breach of a particular regulation than those provided under sub-section (1) of this section and that sub-section shall, in any such case, be construed as if such lower penalties were substituted for those so provided.

69 Saving for acts done for artificial propagation, scientific purposes or improvement of fisheries.

Nothing in this Act shall prohibit anything done by the Commission or by a person previously authorised in writing by the Commission in that behalf for the purpose of the artificial propagation of fish, for some scientific purpose or for the improvement of any fishery.

70 Residence of body corporate.

For the purposes of this Part a body corporate shall be deemed to be resident in Northern Ireland if it is incorporated under the law of Northern Ireland.

71 Offences by bodies corporate.

Where an offence against this Act was committed by a body corporate and is proved to have been so committed with the consent or approval of, or to have been facilitated by any neglect on the part of any person, being a director, manager, secretary or other officer of the body corporate, that person shall also be guilty of the offence and may be proceeded against and punished accordingly.

72 Trial of offences.

Notwithstanding anything contained in any other enactment, an offence against this Act may be heard and determined by a court of summary jurisdiction upon the complaint, oral or otherwise, of the Commission or an officer of the Commission or a member of the Royal Ulster Constabulary but not of any other person, except with the consent of the Commission.

73 Evidence of mouths of rivers, boundaries between tidal and freshwater portions of rivers, points of mouths of rivers to or from which distances are to be measured.

(1) Where any regulations define—

- (a) the mouth of a river, or
- (b) the mouth of any tributary river, or
- (c) the boundary between the tidal and freshwater portions of any river, or
- (d) the point or points to or from which distances are to be measured under this Act, such mouth, boundary, point or points shall for the purposes of any proceedings under this Act be as so defined.

(2) Where any regulations define the space within which it is by or under this Act prohibited to use certain fishing engines, the space so defined shall for the purposes of any proceedings under this Act be taken to be the area within which it is prohibited to use those fishing engines.

74 Forfeiture of licences.

(1)^{F55} (a) If the person who is the holder of a licence issued by the Commission is convicted of an offence to which this sub-section applies the court may direct the licence to be forfeited and declare that person to be disqualified for holding a licence of the Commission for such period, not exceeding one year, as the court may direct.

- (b) This sub-section applies to—
- (i) an offence under any section of this Act,
 - (ii) an offence under any section of the Fisheries Acts.

(2) Where a person who is the holder of a licence issued by the Commission is convicted by a court of justice in the Republic of Ireland of an offence under the law of the Republic of Ireland relating to fisheries, and as a result of such conviction, the licence is declared to be forfeited and that person is declared to be disqualified for a particular period for holding a licence of the Commission, the Commission shall direct the licence to be forfeited and that person shall be disqualified for holding a licence for that period.

(3) Where a licence is directed to be forfeited under this section, it shall thereupon cease to be in force.

Where a person is convicted of an offence against this Act, any fish illegally taken by him or in his possession at the time of the offence and also any [^{F58} boat or] fishing engine or thing by means or in respect of which the offence is committed shall, as a statutory consequence of conviction, stand forfeited.

F58 1962 c. 5 (NI)

76 Non-obligation of Court to pronounce or record forfeiture.

Where, as a statutory consequence of a conviction under this Act, a particular thing stands forfeited, then, notwithstanding any rule of law, it shall not be necessary for the court—

- (a) to pronounce the fact of such forfeiture at the time of adjudication, or
- (b) to record the fact of such forfeiture in the petty sessions Order Book or in the order of conviction.

77 ^{F59} Disposal of fines.

- (1) Save as provided in sub-section (2) of this section, all fines imposed for offences under this Act shall, notwithstanding any other enactment, be paid to the Commission.
- (2) When a fine has been imposed for an offence under this Act and a member of the Royal Ulster Constabulary was the means of bringing to justice the person by whom the offence was committed, then—
 - (a) one-third of that fine shall be paid to the Ministry of Home Affairs^{F60} and shall be appropriated in aid of the moneys provided by [^{F61} the Parliament of the United Kingdom] for defraying the costs, charges and expenses of the said Constabulary; and
 - (b) the remainder of that fine shall be paid to the Commission.

SCHEDULE 3B

PROCEDURE IN RELATION TO APPEALS

NOTICE OF APPEAL

- 1 (1) A notice of appeal shall—
- (a) be made in writing;
 - (b) state—
 - (i) the name and address of the appellant;
 - (ii) the name and address of the appellant's legal representative, if appropriate; and
 - (iii) an address for service;
 - (c) contain—
 - (i) a brief statement of the facts;
 - (ii) a summary of the principal grounds for contesting the decision of the Commission and the arguments supporting those grounds;
 - (iii) a statement of the relief sought by the appellant and any directions sought pursuant to paragraph 14;
 - (iv) a schedule listing all the documents annexed to the notice of appeal; and
 - (d) be accompanied by such fee (if any) as may be prescribed.
- (2) If the appellant wishes to request confidential treatment for any part of his appeal, he shall indicate in the notice of appeal, or within 14 days of sending it to the Appeals Board, the relevant passages or documents, together with the reasons for the request, and, if so directed by the Appeals Board, supply a non-confidential version of the notice of appeal.
- (3) There shall be annexed to the notice of appeal a copy of every document on which the appellant intends to rely.
- 2 (1) If the Appeals Board considers that the notice of appeal does not comply with paragraph 1, or is incomplete, or is lacking in clarity, the Appeals Board may give such directions as may be necessary to ensure that the notice of appeal is put in order and dealt with justly.
- (2) The Appeals Board may, if satisfied that the efficient conduct of the proceedings so require, defer service of the notice of appeal on the Commission until after the directions referred to in sub-paragraph (1) have been complied with.
- 3 (1) The Appeals Board may strike out a notice of appeal at any stage in the proceedings if—

Status: Point in time view as at 01/04/2007. This version of this Act contains provisions that are not valid for this point in time.

Changes to legislation: Foyle Fisheries Act (Northern Ireland) 1952 is up to date with all changes known to be in force on or before 15 April 2024. There are changes that may be brought into force at a future date. Changes that have been made appear in the content and are referenced with annotations. (See end of Document for details)

- (a) having considered the grounds of appeal set out in the notice of appeal—
- (i) it considers that the notice of appeal discloses no valid ground of appeal; or
 - (ii) it is of the opinion that the appeal is vexatious, frivolous or without substance or foundation; or
- (b) the notice of appeal does not comply with paragraph 1 in a substantial respect, and the appellant has not remedied the defect pursuant to a direction under paragraph 2(1); or
- (c) the appellant fails to comply with a direction of the Appeals Board.
- (2) Where the Appeals Board strikes out a notice of appeal it may make any consequential order it considers appropriate.
- 4 (1) The appellant may amend the notice of appeal only with the permission of the Appeals Board.
- (2) Where the Appeals Board grants permission under sub-paragraph (1) it may do so on such terms as it thinks fit, and shall give such further or consequential directions as may be necessary.
- (3) The Appeals Board shall not grant permission to amend the notice of appeal in order to add a new ground for contesting the decision unless—
- (a) such ground is based on matters which have come to light since the notice of appeal was sent to the Appeals Board; or
 - (b) it was not practicable to include that ground in the notice of appeal; or
 - (c) the circumstances are, in the opinion of the Appeals Board, exceptional.

WITHDRAWAL OF APPEAL

- 5 (1) The appellant may withdraw his appeal only with the permission of the Appeals Board.
- (2) Where the Appeals Board gives permission under sub-paragraph (1) it may—
- (a) do so on such terms as it thinks fit;
 - (b) notify such parties to the appeal as the Board thinks fit in such manner as it thinks fit; and
 - (c) publish notice of the withdrawal in such manner as the Board thinks fit.

RESPONSE TO NOTICE OF APPEAL

- 6 On receiving a notice of appeal the Appeals Board shall—
- (a) send an acknowledgement of its receipt to the appellant; and
 - (b) subject to paragraphs 2(2) and 3, send a copy of the notice of appeal to the Commission.
- 7 (1) The Commission shall send a response to the Appeals Board in the form required by this paragraph so that the response is received within six weeks, or such further time as the Appeals Board may allow, of the date on which the Commission received a copy of the notice of appeal sent in accordance with paragraph 6(b).
- (2) The response shall contain—
- (a) a copy of the decision which is the subject of the appeal;
 - (b) a succinct presentation of the arguments upon which the Commission will rely in opposing the notice of appeal;

Status: Point in time view as at 01/04/2007. This version of this Act contains provisions that are not valid for this point in time.

Changes to legislation: Foyle Fisheries Act (Northern Ireland) 1952 is up to date with all changes known to be in force on or before 15 April 2024. There are changes that may be brought into force at a future date. Changes that have been made appear in the content and are referenced with annotations. (See end of Document for details)

- (c) the relief sought by the Commission and any directions sought pursuant to paragraph 14; and
 - (d) a copy of the documents on which the Commission intends to rely and a schedule listing those documents.
 - (3) On receiving the response, the Appeals Board shall send a copy of the response to the appellant.
 - 8 If the Commission wishes to request confidential treatment for any part of its response, it shall indicate in the response, or within 14 days of sending it to the Appeals Board, the relevant passages or documents, together with the reasons for the request, and, if so directed by the Appeals Board, supply a non-confidential version of the response.
 - 9 (1) If the Appeals Board considers that the response does not comply with paragraph 7, or is incomplete, or is lacking in clarity, the Appeals Board may give such directions as may be necessary to ensure that the response is put in order and dealt with justly.
 - (2) The Appeals Board may, if satisfied that the efficient conduct of the proceedings so require, defer service of the response on the appellant until after the directions referred to in sub-paragraph (1) have been complied with.
 - 10 (1) The Appeals Board may, after hearing the parties, strike out the response at any stage in the proceedings if—
 - (a) it considers that the response discloses no valid ground of defence;
 - (b) the response does not comply with paragraph 7 in a substantial respect, and the Commission has not remedied the defect pursuant to a direction under paragraph 9(1); or
 - (c) the Commission fails to comply with a direction of the Appeals Board.
 - (2) When the Appeals Board strikes out a response it may make any consequential order it considers appropriate.
 - 11 (1) The Commission may amend the response only with the permission of the Appeals Board.
 - (2) Where the Appeals Board grants permission under sub-paragraph (1) it may do so on such terms as it thinks fit, and shall give such further or consequential directions as may be necessary.
 - (3) The Appeals Board shall not grant permission to amend the response in order to add a new ground for contesting the decision unless—
 - (a) such ground is based on matters which have come to light since the response was sent to the Appeals Board; or
 - (b) it was not practicable to include that ground in the response; or
 - (c) the circumstances are exceptional.
- CONSOLIDATION, LOCATION AND CONDUCT OF PROCEEDINGS*
- 12 (1) Where two or more notices of appeal have been received in respect of the same decision or which involve the same or similar issues, the Appeals Board may, on the request of a party or of its own motion, direct that the appeals or any particular issue or matter raised in the notices of appeal be consolidated or heard together.

Status: Point in time view as at 01/04/2007. This version of this Act contains provisions that are not valid for this point in time.

Changes to legislation: Foyle Fisheries Act (Northern Ireland) 1952 is up to date with all changes known to be in force on or before 15 April 2024. There are changes that may be brought into force at a future date. Changes that have been made appear in the content and are referenced with annotations. (See end of Document for details)

- (2) Before giving a direction under this paragraph, the Appeals Board shall invite the parties to the relevant proceedings to submit their observations on the consolidation of the proceedings.
- 13 The Appeals Board may hold any meeting or hearing or give any directions in such place as it thinks fit having regard to the just, expeditious and economical conduct of the proceedings.

DIRECTIONS AND WITNESSES

- 14 (1) The Appeals Board may at any time, on the request of a party or of its own motion, give such directions as are provided for in sub-paragraph (2) or such other directions as it thinks fit to secure the just, expeditious and economical conduct of the proceedings.
- (2) The Appeals Board may give directions—
- (a) as to the manner in which the proceedings are to be conducted and, in particular, as to whether any part of the proceedings should take the form of an oral hearing;
 - (b) as to any time limits to be observed, including any time limits in respect of the conduct of any oral hearing;
 - (c) for any party to file a reply to the response or other pleadings;
 - (d) requiring persons to attend and give evidence or to produce documents;
 - (e) as to the evidence which may be required or admitted in proceedings before the Appeals Board and the extent to which it shall be oral or written, including, where a witness statement has been submitted, whether the witness is to be called to give oral evidence;
 - (f) as to the submission in advance of a hearing of any witness statements or expert reports;
 - (g) as to the examination or cross-examination of witnesses;
 - (h) as to the fixing of time limits with respect to any aspect of the proceedings;
 - (i) as to the abridgement or extension of any time limits, whether or not expired;
 - (j) for the disclosure between, or the production by, the parties of documents or classes of documents;
 - (k) in relation to the inspection of any area;
 - (l) for the appointment and instruction of experts, whether by the Board or by the parties and the manner in which expert evidence is to be given; and
 - (m) for the award of costs or expenses, including any allowances payable to persons in connection with their attendance before the Appeals Board;
 - (n) in relation to such other matters as it thinks fit.
- (3) The Appeals Board may, in particular, of its own motion—
- (a) put questions to any party to the appeal;
 - (b) invite any party to the appeal to make written or oral submissions on certain aspects of the proceedings;
 - (c) ask any party to the appeal for information or particulars;
 - (d) ask any party to the appeal to produce any documents or papers relating to the appeal.
- (4) A request by a party for directions shall be made, as far as practicable, in the notice of appeal or response.

Status: Point in time view as at 01/04/2007. This version of this Act contains provisions that are not valid for this point in time.

Changes to legislation: Foyle Fisheries Act (Northern Ireland) 1952 is up to date with all changes known to be in force on or before 15 April 2024. There are changes that may be brought into force at a future date. Changes that have been made appear in the content and are referenced with annotations. (See end of Document for details)

- (5) A request for directions made otherwise than in the notice of appeal or response shall be made in writing and shall be—
- (a) served by the Appeals Board on any party to the appeal who might be affected by such directions; and
 - (b) determined by the Appeals Board taking into account the observations of the parties.
- 15 (1) Subject to sub-paragraphs (2) and (3), the Appeals Board may at any time, either of its own motion or on the request of any party, issue a summons, requiring any person to do one or both of the following—
- (a) to attend as a witness before the Appeals Board at the time and place set out in the summons; and
 - (b) to answer any questions or produce any documents or other material in his possession or under his control which relate to any matter in question in the proceedings.
- (2) A request by a party for the issue of a summons under this paragraph shall specify—
- (a) upon which facts the witness is to be questioned and the reasons for the examination;
 - (b) the documents required to be produced.
- (3) No person may be required to attend in compliance with a summons under this paragraph unless—
- (a) he has been given at least 7 days notice of the hearing; and
 - (b) he is paid such sum as the Appeals Board may determine.
- (4) The Appeals Board may make the summoning of a witness on the request of a party conditional upon the deposit with the Appeals Board of a sum determined by the Appeals Board as sufficient to cover—
- (a) the costs of the summons;
 - (b) the sum referred to in sub-paragraph (3)(b).
- (5) The Appeals Board shall advance the funds necessary in connection with the examination of any witnesses summoned by the Appeals Board on its own motion.
- (6) If any person—
- (a) on being duly summoned to attend as a witness before the Appeals Board does not attend; or
 - (b) being in attendance, refuses to produce any document or other material in his possession or under his control which he is lawfully required to produce, or to answer any question which he is lawfully required to answer,
- he shall be guilty of an offence under this paragraph and shall be liable on summary conviction to a fine not exceeding level 3 on the standard scale or to imprisonment for a term not exceeding 3 months or to both.
- 16 If any party fails to comply with any direction given in accordance with this Schedule, the Appeals Board may, if it considers that the justice of the case so requires, order that such party be debarred from taking any further part in the proceedings without the permission of the Appeals Board.

Status: Point in time view as at 01/04/2007. This version of this Act contains provisions that are not valid for this point in time.
