

Inland Navigation Act (Northern Ireland) 1954

1954 CHAPTER 1

16 Regulations, orders and bye-laws.

- (1) Regulations, orders and bye-laws made under this Act may, without prejudice to the generality of the several provisions conferring power to make them, make provision for such consequential, supplemental and ancillary matters as appear to the Ministry to be necessary or expedient.
- (2) Any power conferred by this Act on the Ministry to make regulations, orders or bye-laws shall, if the Ministry of Finance so directs, be exercisable only in conjunction with that Ministry.
- (3) All regulations made under this Act shall, as soon as may be after they are made, be laid before each House of Parliament; and if either such House, within the statutory period after any such regulations have been so laid, resolves that the regulations be annulled, the regulations shall as from the date of the resolution cease to have effect, but without prejudice to anything previously done thereunder or to the making of fresh regulations.
