

King George VI Memorial Youth Council Act (Northern Ireland) 1957 ^{F1}

1957 CHAPTER 23

An Act to provide for the establishment and functioning of the King George VI Northern Ireland Youth Council; to authorise and give effect to an agreement for conveying to that Council certain lands in May Street in the City of Belfast and for the erection thereon by that Council of a building as a memorial to His late Majesty King George the Sixth and for use as a Youth Centre; and for purposes connected with the matters aforesaid or any of them.

[12th December 1957]

F1 Functions transf., SR 1999/481

1 Establishment of the Council.

- (1) As from the passing of this Act there shall be established a body to be known as King George VI Northern Ireland Youth Council (in this Act referred to as “the Council”).
- (2) The provisions of the First Schedule shall apply to the Council.

2 Functions of the Council.

- (1) The general functions of the Council (to the extent only that such functions are charitable) shall be:—
 - (a) to encourage the development of body, mind and spirit through physical and cultural activities, and to inculcate qualities of leadership and, especially, to promote the well-being of young people through any form of physical or cultural activity;
 - (b) to provide or assist in the provision of facilities and services for, or in connection with, any form of physical or cultural activity and for encouraging social intercourse and well-being generally including the provision of facilities for training whole-time and voluntary coaches, leaders and instructors for youth organisations, institutions controlled or assisted by local education authorities and other institutions or bodies concerned with the well-being of young people;

- (c) to undertake trust business for the benefit of any such organisation, institution or body as aforesaid or any sports club or athletic or physical training or cultural association, including the holding of land as custodian or trustee; and
 - (d) to do all such other things as the Council may consider conducive to the carrying out of any one or more of its functions under this Act and which shall be consistent with the objects of the national memorial to His late Majesty King George the Sixth.
- (2) Without prejudice to sub-section (1) it shall be a specific function of the Council—
- (a) to enter into and carry into effect an agreement (in this Act referred to as “the vesting agreement”) with the Lord Mayor, Aldermen and Citizens of the City of Belfast acting by the Council as the Local Education Authority for the County Borough of Belfast (in this Act referred to as “the Corporation”) in terms of the draft set out in the Second Schedule; and
 - (b) to apply any sums made available to the Council, by the Council of the King George VI Foundation or otherwise, for the purposes of any of the functions of the Council.
- (3) The Council shall have and may exercise all such powers as are reasonably necessary for or incidental to the carrying out of its functions under this Act, including power to enter into and carry out agreements for the provision by any other person of any facility or service which the Council is authorised to provide.

3 Execution and operation of vesting agreement.

Subs. (1)(2) rep. by SLR 1980

- (3) On the date of execution of the vesting agreement this sub-section shall operate, without further assurance,—
- (a) to vest in the Council an absolute and indefeasible title to the fee simple in possession of the lands described in paragraph 1 of the vesting agreement (which are in that agreement and hereafter in this Act referred to as “the May Street site”) free from encumbrances and freed and discharged from all trusts, powers or conditions whatsoever to which the same are or may be subject under section thirty-one of, or under the agreement set out in the Schedule to, the Education Act (Northern Ireland), 1930 ^{M1}, or under the Indenture of Conveyance mentioned in the preceding sub-section or otherwise howsoever arising; and thereto the Council may by standing orders or otherwise, regulate the procedure and business of the management committee.

MINUTES

- 19 A minute book shall be kept by the Council and minutes of the proceedings at meetings of the Council shall be entered therein and shall be signed by the Chairman at the next ensuing meeting, after they have been duly confirmed as a true and correct record.

ACCOUNTS AND AUDIT

- 20 (1) Full accounts shall be kept, in proper books of account, by the Council of all moneys received and expended by it or on its behalf.
- (2) The Council shall prepare an annual statement of accounts in such form as the Council shall think proper.
- (3) The accounts for each year shall be audited by a person to be appointed by the Council.
- (4) The Council shall pay the fees of the auditor and the expenses of the audit.
- (5) The Ministry may at any time require that the Council shall submit to the Ministry the audited accounts for any year.
- (6) The accounts so submitted may be made available by the Ministry for inspection, during normal office hours, by any person who satisfies the Ministry that he has a bona fide interest in the affairs of the Council.
- (7) Such books and records of the Council as relate to the accounts of any year shall be open to inspection, at such times as the Ministry may direct, by an inspector of, or other person appointed by, the Ministry.

BANK ACCOUNT

- 21 A banking account for the purposes of the Council shall be kept with some bank to be from time to time selected by the Council having its head office in the United Kingdom. Every sum of money received by the Council or its officers on account of the Council shall forthwith be paid to the credit of that account unless otherwise expressly ordered by the Council. All cheques and orders for the payment of money shall be signed by two of the members of the Council and countersigned by the Secretary.

SEAL

- 22 (1) The seal of the Council shall, when applied to a document, be authenticated by the signature of two members of the Council and by the signature of the Secretary or other officer of the Council duly authorised by the Council to act in that behalf.

Status: Point in time view as at 01/01/2006.

Changes to legislation: There are currently no known outstanding effects for the King George VI Memorial Youth Council Act (Northern Ireland) 1957. (See end of Document for details)

- (2) Judicial notice shall be taken of the seal of the Council and every document purporting to be an instrument made by the Council and to be sealed with the seal of the Council and to be attested in accordance with this paragraph shall, unless the contrary is shown, be received in evidence and be deemed to be such an instrument without further proof.

SUPERANNUATION

- 23 The Council may with the approval of the Ministry^{F3} give or award pensions, annuities, gratuities and superannuation or other allowances or benefits, or charitable aid to any persons who are or have been employed by or who are serving or have served the Council, and to the wives, widows, children, and other relatives and dependants of such persons; and may make payments towards insurance for the provision of any such benefits; and may either alone or jointly with any other body or bodies set up, establish, support and maintain superannuation and other funds and schemes (whether contributory or non-contributory) for the benefit of any of such persons, and of their wives, widows, children, and other relatives and dependants.

F3 SR 1976/281

INVESTMENT

- 24 The Council may invest any money in its hands and not for the time being required for the furtherance of the objects of the Council, in any investment in which a trustee in England would by virtue of section one^{F4} of the Trustee Act, 1925^{M4}, as amended by section four of the Northern Ireland (Miscellaneous Provisions) Act, 1945^{M5}, be entitled to invest in the absence of any direction to the contrary in the trust instrument, or in any investments for the time being authorised for the investment of trust money by a trustee in Northern Ireland.
