

Caravans Act (Northern Ireland) 1963

1963 CHAPTER 17

LICENSING OF CARAVAN SITES

1 Prohibition of use of land as caravan site without site licence.

- (1) Subject to the provisions of this Act, an occupier of any land shall not after the commencement of this Act cause or permit any part of the land to be used as a caravan site unless he is the holder of a site licence (that is to say, a licence under this Act authorising the use of land as a caravan site) for the time being in force as respects the land so used.
- (2) If the occupier of any land contravenes sub-section (1) he shall be guilty of an offence and liable on summary conviction^{F1} . . . to a fine not exceeding^{F1} level 4 on the standard scale].
- (3) In this Act “occupier” means, in relation to any land, the person who, by virtue of an estate or interest therein held by him, is entitled to possession thereof or would be so entitled except for the rights of any other person under any licence (not amounting to a contract of tenancy) granted in respect of the land, but where land of not more than four hundred square yards in area is let under a tenancy entered into with a view to the use of the land as a caravan site, “occupier” means in relation to that land the person who would be entitled to possession of the land except for the rights of any person under that tenancy.
- (4) In this Act “caravan site” means land on which a caravan is stationed for the purposes of human habitation and land which is used in conjunction with land on which a caravan is so stationed.

2 Exemptions from licensing requirements.

A site licence shall not be required for the use of land as a caravan site in the circumstances specified in the Schedule, and the Schedule shall have effect accordingly.

3 Issue of site licences by district councils.

- (1) An application for the issue of a site licence in respect of any land may be made by the occupier thereof to the [F2 district council] in whose [F2 district] the land is situated.
- (2) An application under this section shall be in writing and shall specify the land in respect of which the application is made; and the applicant shall, either at the time of making the application or within such period as the [F2 district council] may determine, give to the [F2 district council] such[F3 other information as they may reasonably require].
- (3) A [F2 district council] may on an application under this section issue a site licence in respect of the land if, and only if, the applicant is, at the time when the site licence is issued, entitled to the benefit of a permission for the use of the land as a caravan site[F4 granted under the Planning Order].
- (4) If at the date when the applicant duly gives the[F3 information required by virtue of] sub-section (2) he is entitled to the benefit of such a permission as aforesaid, the [F2 district council] shall, on the payment by the applicant of a fee of ten pounds, issue a site licence in respect of the land within two months of that date or, if the applicant and the [F2 district council] agree in writing that the [F2 district council] shall be afforded a longer period within which to grant a site licence, within the period so agreed.
- (5) If the applicant becomes entitled to the benefit of such a permission as aforesaid at some time after duly giving the[F3 information required by virtue of] sub-section (2) the [F2 district council] shall, on the payment by the applicant of a fee of ten pounds, issue a site licence in respect of the land within six weeks of the date on which he becomes so entitled or, if the applicant and the [F2 district council] agree in writing that the [F2 district council] shall be afforded a longer period within which to grant a site licence, within the period so agreed.
- (6) Notwithstanding anything in sub-sections (1) to (5), a [F2 district council] shall not at any time issue a site licence to a person who to their knowledge has held a site licence which has been revoked in pursuance of this Act less than three years before that time.

4 Duration of site licences.

- (1) Where permission for the use of any land as a caravan site has been granted[F5 under the Planning Order in terms] such that it will expire at the end of a specified period, any site licence issued in respect of the land by virtue of the existence of that permission shall expire, and shall be stated to expire, at the end of that period; but, subject thereto, a site licence shall not be issued for a limited period.

Status: Point in time view as at 17/09/2011.

Changes to legislation: There are currently no known outstanding effects for the Caravans Act (Northern Ireland) 1963. (See end of Document for details)

- (2) If, after a site licence is issued, the terms of the said permission are^{F5} varied by the planning appeals commission on an appeal under Article 32 of the Planning Order, the district] council] who issued the licence shall make in the site licence any alteration required to secure that its terms comply with sub-section (1).

F5 1991 NI 11

5 Power of district council to attach conditions to site licences.

- (1) A site licence issued by a [^{F6} district council] in respect of any land may be so issued subject to such conditions as the [^{F6} council] may think it necessary or desirable to impose on the occupier of the land in the interests of persons dwelling thereon in caravans, or of any other class of persons, or of the public at large; and in particular, but without prejudice to the generality of the foregoing, a site licence may be issued subject to conditions—
- (a) for restricting the occasions on which caravans are stationed on the land for the purposes of human habitation, whether by reference to any date or dates or by limiting the period or periods for which caravans may be so stationed in successive periods of one year or by a combination of both those methods;
 - (b) for restricting the total number of caravans which are stationed on the land for the purposes of human habitation at any one time;
 - (c) for controlling (whether by reference to their size, the state of their repair or, subject to sub-section (2), any other feature) the types of caravan on the land;
 - (d) for regulating the positions in which caravans are stationed on the land for the purposes of human habitation and for prohibiting, restricting, or otherwise regulating, the placing or erection on the land, at any time when caravans are so stationed, of structures and vehicles of any description whatsoever and of tents;
 - (e) for preserving or enhancing the amenity of the land, including the planting and replanting thereof with trees and bushes;
 - (f) for securing that, at all times when caravans are stationed on the land, proper measures are taken for preventing and detecting the outbreak of fire and adequate means of fighting fire are provided and maintained;
 - (g) for securing that adequate sanitary facilities, and such other facilities, services or equipment as may be specified, are provided for the use of persons dwelling on the land in caravans and that, at all times when caravans are stationed thereon for the purposes of human habitation, any facilities and equipment so provided are properly maintained.
- (2) A condition shall not be attached to a site licence controlling the types of caravans which are stationed on the land by reference to the materials used in their construction.
- (3) A condition may be attached, under sub-section (1) to a site licence issued in respect of any land, corresponding to any condition (in whatever words expressed) for the time being in force^{F7} subject to which planning permission has been granted under the Planning Order for the use of that land as a caravan site.]
- (4) A site licence issued in respect of any land shall, unless it is issued subject to a condition restricting to three or less the total number of caravans which may be stationed on the land at any one time, contain an express condition that, at all times when caravans are stationed on the land for the purposes of human habitation, a copy of the licence as for the time being in force shall be displayed on the land in some conspicuous position.

Changes to legislation: There are currently no known outstanding effects for the Caravans Act (Northern Ireland) 1963. (See end of Document for details)

- (5) A condition attached to a site licence may, if it requires the carrying out of any works on the land in respect of which the licence is issued, prohibit or restrict the bringing of caravans on to the land for the purposes of human habitation until such time as the [^{F6} district council] have certified in writing that the works have been completed to their satisfaction; and where the land to which the site licence relates is at the time in use as a caravan site, the condition may, whether or not it contains any such prohibition or restriction as aforesaid, require the works to be completed to the satisfaction of the [^{F6} council] within a stated period.
- (6) For the avoidance of doubt, it is hereby declared that a condition attached to a site licence shall be valid notwithstanding that it can be complied with only by the carrying out of works which the holder of the site licence is not entitled to carry out as of right.
- (7) The Ministry may from time to time specify for the purposes of this section model conditions regulating the layout of, and the provision of facilities, services and equipment for, caravan sites or particular types of caravan site; and in deciding what, if any, conditions to attach to a site licence, a [^{F6} district council] shall have regard to any model conditions so specified.

6 Failure by district council to issue site licence.

Where a [^{F8} district council], being required under section 3 to issue a site licence in respect of any land, fail to do so within the period within which they are required to issue a site licence by that section, an offence is not committed under section 1 in respect of the land by the person by whom the application for the site licence was made at any time after the expiration of the said period and before a site licence is issued in pursuance of the said application.

F8 SRO (NI) 1973/285

7 Appeal to court of summary jurisdiction or Ministry against conditions attached to site licence.

- (1) Any person aggrieved by any condition (other than any such condition as is referred to in section 5(1)(a) or (3) or the condition referred to in section 5(4)) subject to which a site licence has been issued to him in respect of any land may, within twenty-eight days of the date on which the licence was so issued, serve on the [^{F9} district council] who issued the licence a notice of appeal to the court of summary jurisdiction acting for the petty sessions district in which the land is situated; and the court, if satisfied (having regard amongst other things to any model conditions which may have been specified by the Ministry under section 5(7)) that the condition is unduly burdensome, may vary or cancel the condition.
- (2) Any person aggrieved by any such condition as is referred to in section 5(1)(a) subject to which a site licence has been issued to him in respect of any land may, within twenty-eight days of the date on which the licence was so issued, appeal against that condition

Status: Point in time view as at 17/09/2011.

Changes to legislation: There are currently no known outstanding effects for the Caravans Act (Northern Ireland) 1963. (See end of Document for details) to the Ministry; and the Ministry if satisfied that the condition is unduly burdensome, may vary or cancel that condition.

- (3) Before determining an appeal under sub-section (2), the Ministry shall, if the appellant so desires, afford to him an opportunity of appearing before and being heard by an independent person appointed by the Ministry for the purpose; and where the Ministry affords such an opportunity to the appellant the Ministry shall afford the like opportunity to the [F9 district council] who imposed the condition which is the subject of the appeal.
- (4) An independent person appointed under sub-section (3) shall report to the Ministry on any hearing held by him.
- (5) In so far as the effect of a condition (in whatever words expressed) subject to which a site licence is issued in respect of any land is to require the carrying out on the land of any works, the condition shall not have effect during the period within which the person to whom the site licence is issued is entitled by virtue of sub-section (1) to serve a notice of appeal against the condition nor, thereafter, whilst an appeal against the condition is pending.

F9 SRO (NI) 1973/285

8 Power of district council to alter conditions attached to site licences.

- (1) The conditions attached to a site licence may be altered at any time (whether by the variation or cancellation of existing conditions, or by the addition of new conditions, or by a combination of any such methods) by the [F10 district council], but before exercising their powers under this sub-section the [F10 district council] shall afford to the holder of the licence an opportunity of making representations.
- (2) Subject to sub-section (3), where the holder of a site licence is aggrieved by any alteration of the conditions attached thereto or by the refusal of the [F10 district council] of an application by him for the alteration of any conditions attached to a site licence, he may, within twenty-eight days of the date on which written notification of the alteration or refusal is given to him, serve on the [F10 district council] a notice of appeal to the court of summary jurisdiction acting for the petty sessions district in which the land to which the site licence relates is situated; and the court may, if it allows the appeal, give to the [F10 district council] such directions as may be necessary to give effect to its decision.
- (3) Sub-section (2) shall not apply in relation to any such condition as is referred to in section 5(1)(a), but where the holder of a site licence is aggrieved by any alteration of any such condition attached to a site licence or by the refusal of the [F10 district council] of an application by him for the alteration of that condition, he may within twenty-eight days of the date on which written notification of the alteration or refusal is given to him appeal against the alteration or refusal to the Ministry; and the Ministry may, if it allows the appeal, give to the [F10 district council] such directions as may be necessary to give effect to its decision.
- (4) Before determining an appeal under sub-section (3), the Ministry shall, if the appellant so desires, afford to him an opportunity of appearing before and being heard by an independent person appointed by the Ministry for the purpose; and where the Ministry affords such an opportunity to the appellant the Ministry shall afford the like

Status: Point in time view as at 17/09/2011.

Changes to legislation: There are currently no known outstanding effects for the Caravans Act (Northern Ireland) 1963. (See end of Document for details) opportunity to the [F10 district council] who imposed the condition which is the subject of the appeal.

- (5) An independent person appointed under sub-section (4) shall report to the Ministry on any hearing held by him.
- (6) Where the holder of a site licence applies to a [F10 district council] for the alteration of any condition attached thereto, the application shall be deemed to be refused at the expiration of the period of two months from the date on which the [F10 council] receive the application unless within that period the [F10 council] notify the holder of the determination of the application.
- (7) Where a [F10 district council] alter the conditions attached to a site licence in pursuance of an application made in that behalf by the holder of a site licence, that holder shall pay a fee of one pound to the [F10 council].
- (8) The alteration by a [F10 district council] of the conditions attached to any site licence shall not have effect until written notification thereof has been served on the holder of the licence, and in so far as any such alteration imposes a requirement on the holder of the licence to carry out on the land to which the licence relates any works which he would not otherwise be required to carry out, the alteration shall not have effect during the period within which the said holder is entitled by virtue of sub-section (2) to serve a notice of appeal against the alteration nor, thereafter, whilst an appeal against the alteration is pending.
- (9) In exercising the powers conferred by sub-section (1) and sub-section (2) respectively, a [F10 district council] and a court of summary jurisdiction shall have regard amongst other things to any model conditions which may have been specified by the Ministry under section 5(7).
- (10) A court of summary jurisdiction shall not have power under this section to give to a [F10 district council] any direction requiring any alteration in any condition attached to a site licence issued in respect of any land which corresponds to any condition (in whatever words expressed) for the time being in force[F11 subject to which planning permission has been granted under the Planning Order for the use of that land as a caravan site.]

9 Provisions as to breaches of condition.

- (1) If an occupier of land fails to comply with any condition for the time being attached to a site licence held by him in respect of the land, he shall be guilty of an offence and liable on summary conviction^{F12} . . . to a fine not exceeding[F12 level 4 on the standard scale].
- (2) Where a person convicted under this section for failing to comply with a condition attached to a site licence has on two or more previous occasions been convicted thereunder for failing to comply with a condition attached to that licence, the court before which he is convicted may, if an application in that behalf is made at the hearing by the [F13 district council] in whose [F13 district] the land is situated, make an order for the revocation of the said site licence to come into force on such date as the court may specify in the order, being a date after the end of a period of seven days beginning with the day on which he is convicted; and if an appeal is brought before the date so specified the order shall be of no effect pending the final determination or withdrawal of the appeal.

- (3) A person convicted under this section or the [F13 district council] who issued the site licence to him may apply to the court of summary jurisdiction which has made an order revoking a site licence for an order extending the period at the end of which the revocation is to come into force, and the court may, if satisfied that adequate notice of the application has been given to the [F13 district council] or, as the case may be, the person convicted, make an order extending that period.
- (4) Where an occupier of land fails within the time specified in a condition attached to a site licence held by him to complete to the satisfaction of the [F13 district council] in whose [F13 district] the land is situated any works required by the condition to be so completed, the [F13 district council] may carry out those works, and may recover as a civil debt in any court of competent jurisdiction from that person any expenses reasonably incurred by them in that behalf.

10 Transfer of site licences and transmission on death, etc.

- (1) Subject to sub-section (3), when the holder of a site licence in respect of any land ceases to be the occupier of the land, he may, on giving notice of the transfer to the [F14 district council] in whose [F14 district] the land is situated and on payment of a fee of [F15 50p] to the [F14 council], transfer the licence to the person who then becomes the occupier of the land.
- (2) Where a [F14 district council] receive notice of a transfer of a site licence together with the fee of [F15 50p], they shall endorse on the licence the name of the person to whom it is to be transferred and the date agreed between the parties to the transfer as the date on which that person is, for the purposes of this Act, to be treated as having become the holder of the licence.
- (3) Notwithstanding anything contained in sub-section (2), a [F14 district council] shall not at any time endorse on a site licence the name of any person who has held a site licence which has been revoked under this Act less than three years before that time.
- (4) Where any person becomes, by operation of law, entitled to an estate or interest in land in respect of which a site licence is in force and is, by virtue of his holding that estate or interest, the occupier of the land within the meaning of this Act he shall, for the purposes of this Act, be treated as having become the holder of the licence on the day on which he became the occupier of the land, and the [F14 district council] in whose [F14 district] the land is situated shall, if an application in that behalf is made to them, endorse his name and the said date on the licence.

PROVISION OF CARAVAN SITES BY [^{F18} DISTRICT COUNCILS]

21 Power of district council to provide sites for caravans.

- (1) A [^{F19} district council] shall, with the consent of the Ministry, have power within their [^{F19} district] to provide sites where caravans may be brought, and to manage the sites or lease them to some other person.

Status: Point in time view as at 17/09/2011.

Changes to legislation: There are currently no known outstanding effects for the Caravans Act (Northern Ireland) 1963. (See end of Document for details)

- (2) Subject to the provisions of this section, a [^{F19} district council] may make such provision as appears to them desirable in connection with such sites, and in particular may—
- (a) with the consent of the Ministry, acquire land which is in use as a caravan site, or which has been laid out as a caravan site; or
 - (b) provide for the use of those occupying caravan sites any services or facilities for their health or convenience;
- and in exercising their powers under this section or in exercising the like powers under any other enactment the [^{F19} district council] shall have regard to any model conditions which may have been specified by the Ministry under section 5(7).
- (3) The [^{F19} district council] shall make in respect of the use of sites provided or managed by them, and of any services or facilities provided or made available under this section, such reasonable charges as they may determine.
- (4) A [^{F19} district council] may make available the services and facilities provided under this section for those who do not normally reside in the [^{F19} district] of the [^{F19} district council] as freely as for those who do.
- (5) Where a [^{F19} district council] desire to acquire otherwise than by agreement any land because it appears to them that a caravan site, or an additional site is needed in their [^{F19} district], or that land which is in use as a caravan site should in the interests of the users of caravans be taken over by the [^{F19} district council], they may apply to the Ministry for an order vesting the land in them and the Ministry shall have power to make such an order and section 22(1) and (2) of and Schedule 2 to the Local Government Act (Northern Ireland) 1934 shall apply for the purposes of this sub-section as if—
- (a) the purposes for which a [^{F19} district council] may acquire land thereunder included the purposes of this sub-section; and
 - ^{F19}(b) “local authority” meant a district council].
- (6) A [^{F19} district council] have not power under this section to provide caravans.

23 Power of entry.

(1) Subject to the provisions of this section, [^{F21} a district council shall have] a right at all reasonable hours to enter any land which is used as a caravan site or in respect of which an application for a site licence has been made—

- (a) for the purpose of enabling the [^{F21} district council] to determine what conditions should be attached to a site licence or whether conditions attached to a site licence should be altered;
- (b) for the purpose of ascertaining whether there is, or has been, on or in connection with the land any contravention of the provisions of this Act;
- (c) for the purpose of ascertaining whether or not circumstances exist which would authorise the [^{F21} district council] to take any action, or execute any work, under this Act;
- (d) for the purpose of taking any action, or executing any work, authorised by this Act to be taken or executed by the [^{F21} district council];

so, however, that admission to any land shall not be demanded as of right under this section unless twenty-four hours notice of the intended entry has been given to the occupier.

(2) If it is shown to the satisfaction of a justice of the peace—

- (a) that admission to any land has been refused, or that refusal is apprehended, or that the occupier of the land is temporarily absent and the case is one of urgency, or that an application for admission would defeat the object of the entry; and
- (b) that there is reasonable ground for entering on the land for any such purpose as is mentioned in sub-section (1);

the justice may by warrant under his hand authorise the [^{F21} district council] ...^{F22} to enter the land, if need be by force, but such a warrant shall not be issued unless the justice is satisfied that notice of the intention to apply for the warrant has been given to the occupier, or that the occupier is temporarily absent and the case is one of urgency, or that the giving of such notice would defeat the object of the entry.

(3) [^{F21} A district council] entering any land by virtue of this section, or of a warrant issued thereunder, may take with [^{F21} them] such other persons as may be necessary.

(4) Every warrant granted under this section shall continue in force until the purpose for which the entry is necessary has been satisfied.

(5) A person who wilfully obstructs any [^{F21} district council] acting in the execution of this section, or of a warrant under this section, shall be liable on summary conviction to a fine not exceeding ten pounds.

[^{F23} (6) A district council may arrange for the discharge of any of their functions under this section by any of their officers and arrangements made under this sub-section shall include provision for any officer of the district council, seeking to exercise any power of entry on any land in pursuance of the arrangements, to exhibit the authority if required to do so.]

[^{F24}“caravan” has the meaning given by section 15 of the Caravans Act (Northern Ireland) 2011;]

“caravan site” has the meaning assigned to it by section 1(4);

“existing site” has the meaning assigned to it by section 13;

Definitions rep. by 1972 NI 17; SRO (NI) 1973/285

“the Ministry” means the Ministry of Health and Local Government^{F25};

“occupier” has the meaning assigned to it by section 1(3);

[^{F26}“the Planning Order” means the Planning (Northern Ireland) Order 1991;]

Definition rep. by 1991 NI 11

“site licence” has the meaning assigned to it by section 1(1).

(2) For the purposes of this Act, a person shall, except in a case to which section 10(4) applies, be treated as the holder of a site licence if, and only if, a [^{F27} district council] have entered or endorsed his name in or on a site licence as the holder of that licence.

(3) Any reference in this Act to the carrying out of works shall include a reference to the planting of trees and shrubs and the carrying out of other operations for preserving or enhancing the amenity of land.

(4) For the purposes of any provision of this Act relating to the expiration of permission [^{F26} granted under the Planning Order for any use] of land, permission granted for the use of land for intermittent periods shall not be regarded as expiring at any time so long as the permission authorises the use of the land for further intermittent periods.
