

Electoral Law Act (Northern Ireland) 1968

1968 CHAPTER 20

An Act to abolish the university constituency for the purposes of elections to the Parliament of Northern Ireland; to create four new constituencies and alter the areas of other constituencies; to abolish the occupation of business premises as a qualification for electors at such elections; to enable the age at which persons qualify to be registered as parliamentary electors to be altered; to establish a permanent Boundary Commission and to provide for the review of the distribution of seats at such elections; and for purposes connected with the matters aforesaid or any of them. [28th November 1968]

Changes to legislation:

There are currently no known outstanding effects for the Electoral Law Act (Northern Ireland) 1968, Introductory Text.