

Civil Evidence Act (Northern Ireland) 1971

1971 CHAPTER 36

PART II

MISCELLANEOUS AND GENERAL

PRIVILEGE

13 Consequential amendments relating to privilege.

- (1) ^{F1} . . . any^{F1} . . . existing statutory provision, however framed or worded, which in relation to any tribunal, investigation or inquiry (however described) confers on persons required to answer questions or give evidence any privilege described by reference to the privileges of witnesses in proceedings before any court shall, unless the contrary intention appears, be construed as referring to the privileges of witnesses in civil proceedings before that court.

Subs. (2) rep. by 1975 c. 34

- (3) Without prejudice to the generality of section 10(2) to (4), the enactments mentioned in the Schedule shall have effect subject to the amendments provided for by that Schedule (being verbal amendments to bring those enactments into conformity with the provisions of that section).
- (4) Section 10(5) shall apply for the purposes of this section as it applies for the purposes of that section.

F1 2005 c.12

Changes to legislation:

There are currently no known outstanding effects for the Civil Evidence Act (Northern Ireland) 1971, Section 13.