

Local Government Act (Northern Ireland) 1972

1972 CHAPTER 9

PART I

DISTRICTS AND COUNCILS

1 District councils.

- (1) For every local government district established in pursuance of the Local Government (Boundaries) Act (Northern Ireland) 1971 or the succeeding provisions of this Act there shall be a district council which—
 - (a) shall consist of members—
 - [^{F1}(i) elected by the local electors (within the meaning of section 130(1) of the Electoral Law Act (Northern Ireland) 1962) in each district electoral area in the district in accordance with the provisions of the Electoral Law Acts (Northern Ireland) 1962 to 1971 and the provisions of the Local Elections (Northern Ireland) Order 1985;]
 - (ii) of whom one shall be chairman and another may be vice-chairman; and
 - (b) shall have such functions as are conferred on the council by any statutory provision.
- (2) A council shall be a body corporate with perpetual succession, and, subject to the provisions of this Act,—
 - (a) the name of the council shall be the name of the district with the addition of words “district council” ; and
 - (b) section 19 of the Interpretation Act (Northern Ireland) 1954 shall apply to the council.
- (3) In this Act—

“district” means a local government district such as is mentioned in subsection (1);

Status: Point in time view as at 01/01/2006.

2 Boroughs.

- (1) A council may, in pursuance of a special resolution of the council, submit a petition to the Governor praying for the grant of a charter designating the district of the council a borough.
- (2) Where a petition is submitted under subsection (1)—
 - (a) the Privy Council shall cause notice of the petition, and of the time when it pleases the Governor to order that the petition be taken into consideration, to be published in the Belfast Gazette at least one month before that time;
 - (b) the Governor, if by the advice of the Privy Council he thinks fit to do so, may grant a charter designating the district a borough.
- (3) The designation of a district as a borough shall not affect the entity of the council for the district or derogate from its functions, but the charter shall have effect for such ceremonial and other purposes (including the designation of aldermen, who shall number not more than one-quarter of the whole number of the councillors, and the conferment of the freedom of the borough) as may be specified in the charter.
- (4) Where a charter is granted under this Act before [^{F2} 1st October 1974], designating a district a borough, the roll of honorary freemen of any borough existing in the district immediately before [^{F3} 1st October 1973] shall become and form part of the roll of honorary freemen of the borough designated by the charter.
- (5) A copy of every charter granted under this Act shall be laid before Parliament.
- (6) All expenses in connection with a petition, or the grant of a charter, under this Act shall be paid by the council for the district.
- (7) Subject to subsection (8), where a charter (whether granted under this Act or continuing to have effect by virtue of section 132(3)) has effect in relation to a district—
 - (a) the district shall be known as a borough;
 - (b) the council shall be known as the council of the borough;
 - (c) the chairman, and the vice-chairman, if any, of the council shall be known as, respectively, the mayor and the deputy mayor of the borough;
 - (d) those of the councillors who are designated as aldermen, in accordance with the charter, shall be known as the aldermen of the borough.
- (8) Where a borough is a city, for any reference in subsection (7) to the borough there shall be substituted a reference to the city; and, where the mayor of a city is entitled to bear the title of lord mayor, for the reference in paragraph (c) of subsection (7) to the mayor there shall be substituted a reference to the lord mayor, and for the reference in that paragraph to the deputy mayor there shall be substituted a reference to the deputy lord mayor.
- (9) In this Act references to a district, council, chairman or vice-chairman include references to, respectively, a borough, borough council, mayor or deputy mayor,

Status: Point in time view as at 01/01/2006.

Changes to legislation: Local Government Act (Northern Ireland) 1972 is up to date with all changes known to be in force on or before 29 March 2024. COMMITTEES

18 Power to appoint committees and sub-committees.

- (1) A council may appoint a committee for any such general or special purpose as in the opinion of the council would be better regulated and managed by means of a committee, and may delegate to a committee so appointed, with or without restrictions or conditions, as the council thinks fit, any functions exercisable by the council with respect to either the whole or a part of the district of the council, except the power of making a rate, or of borrowing money or of acquiring, holding or disposing of land, and any transferred provision regulating the exercise of a function by a council shall also apply to regulate the exercise of that function by a committee.
- (2) The number of members of a committee appointed under this section, their term of office, and the area, if any, with respect to which the committee is to exercise its functions shall be fixed by the council.
- (3) A committee appointed under this section may include persons who are not councillors, but at least two-thirds of the members of every committee shall be councillors.
- (4) A committee appointed under this section may, subject to any directions of the council, appoint a sub-committee for the exercise of any function which in the opinion of the council or the committee would be better exercised by a sub-committee, and may if so authorised by the council delegate to such sub-committee with or without restrictions or conditions as the committee think fit any functions of the council delegated to the committee under subsection (1).
- (5) A sub-committee appointed under subsection (4) may include persons who are not councillors, but the majority of the members of every sub-committee shall be councillors.
- (6) Every member of a committee or sub-committee appointed under this section who was a councillor at the time of his appointment shall, upon ceasing to be a councillor, cease to be a member of the committee or sub-committee.
- (7) A council which appoints a committee, or a committee which appoints a sub-committee, may revoke any appointment made under this section and, in the case of a council, may revoke or vary anything delegated, or any restriction or condition imposed, under subsection (1) or anything fixed under subsection (2).
- (8) A member of a committee or sub-committee who is not a councillor shall have the same exemption from personal liability as if he were a councillor.

PROCEDURE OF COUNCIL AND COMMITTEES

22 Meetings and proceedings.

[^{F22}(1) Subject to the following provisions of this section,] the provisions of Schedule 2 shall have effect as respects meetings and proceedings of councils and their committees.

[^{F22}(2) Regulations may require councils, subject to such variations as may be authorised by the regulations—

- (a) to incorporate such provision as may be prescribed by the regulations in standing orders for regulating their proceedings and business; and
- (b) to make or refrain from making such other modifications of any such standing orders as may be so prescribed.

(3) Without prejudice to the generality of subsection (2), regulations under that subsection may require such standing orders as are mentioned in that subsection to contain provision which, notwithstanding any statutory provision or the decision of any council or committee or sub-committee of a council, authorises persons who are members of such a council, committee or sub-committee—

- (a) to requisition meetings of the council or of any of its committees or sub-committees;
- (b) to require a decision of a committee or sub-committee of the council to be referred to and reviewed by the council itself or by a committee of the council;
- (c) to require that a vote with respect to a matter falling to be decided by the council or by any of its committees or sub-committees is to be taken in a particular manner.

(4) Regulations under subsection (2) may contain such incidental provision and such supplemental, consequential and transitional provision in connection with their other provisions as the Department considers appropriate.]

F22 1992 NI 6

ADMISSION TO MEETINGS

23 Admission of public to meetings.

(1) Subject to the provisions of this section and section 27 every meeting of a council shall be open to the public.

(2) A council may by resolution exclude the public from a meeting of the council (whether during the whole or part of the proceedings at the meeting) whenever publicity would be prejudicial to the public interest—

- (a) by reason of the confidential nature of the business to be transacted at the meeting; or
- (b) for such special reasons as may be specified in the resolution being reasons arising from the nature of the business to be transacted or of the proceedings at the meeting.

Status: Point in time view as at 01/01/2006.

Changes to legislation: Local Government Act (Northern Ireland) 1972 is up to date with all changes known to be in force on or before 29 March 2024. There are changes that may be brought into force at a future date. Changes that have been made appear in the content and are referenced with annotations. (See end of Document for details)

- (3) Without prejudice to the generality of subsection (2), a council may treat the need to receive or consider recommendations or advice from sources other than councillors, or committees or sub-committees of the council, or joint committees as a special reason for the purposes of subsection (2)(b) without regard to the subject or purport of the recommendations or advice.
- (4) Where at a meeting of a council the council resolves itself into committee, the proceedings in committee shall for the purposes of this Act be treated as forming part of the proceedings of the council at the meeting.

PECUNIARY INTERESTS

28 Disclosure of councillors' pecuniary interests and disability from voting on account thereof.

- ^{F23}(1) Except as provided by section 29 and subject to subsection (2), it shall be the duty of every councillor who has any pecuniary interest, direct or indirect, in any contract or proposed contract or other matter and is present at any meeting of the council at which that contract, proposed contract or other matter is, or is to be, considered to disclose openly to the meeting and as soon as practicable after the commencement thereof the nature of his interest and—
- (a) not to preside over or take any part in the consideration or discussion of, or to vote on any question with respect to, that contract, proposed contract, or other matter; and
 - (b) unless the contract, proposed contract or other matter is under consideration by the council merely as part of a report of a committee or sub-committee thereof and does not itself become the subject of separate debate, to withdraw from the meeting while that matter is being considered.
- (2) Where the councillor in question is treated as having a pecuniary interest by reason only of his beneficial ownership of shares in a company or other body to which section 146(1)(b) applies and the total nominal value of those shares does not exceed the lesser of—
- (a) five hundred pounds; or
 - (b) one-hundredth of the total nominal value of either the issued share capital of the company or body or, where that capital is issued in shares of more than one class, of the issued share capital of the class or classes of shares in which he has an interest;
- subsection (1) shall not have effect in relation to that pecuniary interest.
- (3) It shall be the duty of every council to record in the minutes of a meeting particulars of any disclosure made to that meeting under subsection (1) and of any subsequent withdrawal from the meeting pursuant to that subsection.
- (4) In addition, the clerk of the council shall enter in a separate book to be kept by him for the purpose, a record of every such disclosure or withdrawal and of every disclosure or withdrawal required to be made under section 30 or 46 and that book shall be available at all reasonable hours for inspection by any councillor or^{F24} by any person].
- (5) Subject to subsection (6) and without prejudice to section 31, any person who acts in contravention of subsection (1) shall be guilty of an offence and shall be liable—
- (a) on conviction on indictment, to imprisonment for a term not exceeding one year or to a fine or to both; or
 - (b) on summary conviction, to a fine not exceeding^{F25} level 3 on the standard scale].
- (6) It shall be a defence for the person charged with an offence under subsection (5) to prove that at the time of the offence—
- (a) he did not know and had no reason to believe that the contract, proposed contract or other matter in which he had a pecuniary interest was being considered at the meeting; or

 - (c) order that any relevant transaction shall be null and void or shall be rescinded either in whole or in part;
 - (d) order the payment (whether to that council or otherwise) by that councillor or by any other person directly or indirectly deriving gain from and having knowledge of, the reprehensible conduct of that councillor, of such sums by way of rectification, adjustment, compensation, restitution or restoration of unjust gain as the Court thinks just;
 - (e) order the payment—
 - (i) by that councillor; or
 - (ii) by any other person such as is referred to in paragraph (d); or
 - (iii) by that council out of any amount received by it pursuant to any order made under this section; of sums by way of compensation for any loss or damage suffered by any innocent person as a result of the reprehensible conduct of the councillor; and
 - (f) make such further or other orders (including orders for costs or for the payment of the remuneration of a referee or inspector appointed under section 32) as the Court thinks proper.
- (4) The High Court shall not, in proceedings under this section, make an order under subsection (3)(a), (d), (e) or (f) for the payment of any sum or the handing over of any property by any person not a party to those proceedings unless and until the Court has given to such person an opportunity of being heard (whether in person or by counsel) and has taken into consideration any representation made to it by or on behalf of such person.
- (5) In this section—
- “gain” includes any form of enrichment, benefit or advantage whatsoever which may have accrued to or been acquired by or which may accrue to or be acquired by a councillor or any other person whatsoever;
- “relevant transaction” includes any contract, grant, subsidy, licence, right, permission, use, authority, privilege, benefit, certificate, consent, approval, decision or determination made, granted, paid, issued or given or refused by or on behalf of any council or any person acting on behalf of any council.
- (6) A reference in this section to a person being a councillor shall include a reference to his sitting or voting or otherwise acting as a councillor.

32 Ancillary powers of the High Court in exercising jurisdiction under section 31.

- ^{F31}(1) Without prejudice to anything contained in section 31, a judge of the High Court exercising jurisdiction under that section may—
- (a) refer to a special referee for inquiry or report any question arising in the exercise of such jurisdiction;
 - (b) appoint one or more inspectors to investigate and report on any relevant transaction within the meaning of section 31 or the affairs of any council or, in connection with any such transaction, the membership of any company or otherwise with respect to a company for the purposes of determining the true persons who are or have been financially interested in the company or able to control or materially to influence the policy of the company.
- (2) A referee or inspector holding any inquiry or conducting any investigation under subsection (1) may for the purposes thereof—
- (a) by notice require any person to attend at the time and place set forth in the notice to give evidence or to produce any books or documents in his custody or under his control which appear to relate to any matter in question at the inquiry or investigation;
 - (b) by notice require any person to furnish within such reasonable period as is specified in the notice such information relating to any such matter as the person holding the inquiry or conducting the investigation thinks fit and as the person so required is able to furnish; and
 - (c) administer oaths and examine witnesses on oath.
- (3) Any person who refuses or fails to attend in obedience to a notice under subsection (2) or to give evidence, or who wilfully alters, suppresses, conceals, destroys or refuses or fails to produce any book or document which he is required by any such notice to produce or who refuses or fails to furnish any information which he is required to furnish under subsection (2)(b) shall be deemed to be guilty of contempt of the High Court.
- (4) Without prejudice to subsection (2), an inspector appointed under subsection (1)(b) to investigate the affairs of a council or the membership of a company may exercise in relation to that council or company all the powers of an inspector appointed by the Ministry of Commerce under^{F32} Article 424 of the Companies (Northern Ireland) Order 1986 and accordingly Articles 426 (inspectors' powers during investigations) and 427 to 429 (production of documents and evidence) of that Order] shall have effect for the purposes of an investigation by an inspector appointed under subsection (1)(b) as they have effect for the purposes of an investigation by an inspector appointed under^{F32} the said Article 424].
- (5) The finding or report of a referee or inspector acting under subsection (1) may be accepted and acted upon by a judge of the High Court either in whole or in part.

- (6) The remuneration of a referee or inspector under this section shall be determined by a judge of the High Court.
- (7) Where in the course of proceedings under section 31 it appears to the High Court that the conduct of any councillor or officer of a council, other than the councillor against whom those proceedings were instituted, may have been reprehensible within the meaning of that section, the Court may direct that such councillor or officer be made a party to the proceedings and that a notice be served on him informing him that he has been made such a party and that it appears to the Court that his conduct may have been reprehensible as aforesaid and requiring him—
- (a) to furnish to the Court such documents or information in his possession or control as may relate to any relevant transaction within the meaning of section 31 or to any matter arising out of such a transaction or as may be specified in the notice; and
 - (b) to attend and be examined on oath before the Court regarding any such transaction or matter.
- (8) If, upon such examination and after giving such councillor or officer an opportunity of being heard (whether in person or by counsel), the High Court is satisfied that such councillor or officer has been guilty of conduct which was reprehensible within the meaning of section 31, the Court may make a declaration accordingly and may also make any order which could have been made if proceedings had been instituted against that councillor under section 31 or against that officer under that section as applied by section 46(9).
- (9) A reference in this section to a person being a councillor shall include a reference to his sitting or voting or otherwise acting as a councillor.

PART III

OFFICERS

40 The Staff Commission.

- (1) There shall be established a body to be known as the Local Government Staff Commission for Northern Ireland (in this Act referred to as “the Staff Commission”) for the purpose of exercising general oversight of matters connected with the recruitment, training and terms and conditions of employment of officers of councils [^{F37} and of the Northern Ireland Housing Executive (in this Act referred to as “the Executive”)] and of making recommendations to councils [^{F37} and to the Executive] on such matters.
- (2) The Staff Commission shall be a body corporate with perpetual succession, and section 19 of the Interpretation Act (Northern Ireland) 1954 shall apply to it.
- (3) The Staff Commission shall consist of—
 - (a) a chairman, and
 - (b) not more than [^{F38} fourteen] or less than six other members, appointed by the Minister after consultation with—
 - (i) such [^{F38} councils and] associations representative of councils or their staffs as appear to the Minister to be concerned, and [^{F37} the Executive and such associations representative of the staff of the Executive as appear to the Department to be concerned, and]
 - (ii) any other association or any public body with whom consultation appears to the Minister to be desirable.
- (4) Without prejudice to the generality of subsection (1), the functions of the Staff Commission shall include—
 - (a) establishing, in such manner as the Staff Commission thinks fit, bodies (to be known as “advisory appointment panels”) for the purpose of giving advice to councils on the suitability of applicants for appointment to the office of clerk and to other offices for which qualifications are [^{F39} determined] under section 41 (including the making of a selection of persons who may be treated as eligible for such appointments);
 - ^{F37}(aa) establishing, in such manner as the Staff Commission thinks fit, bodies (to be known as “advisory appointment panels”) for the purpose of giving advice to the Executive on the suitability of applicants for appointment to such offices under the Executive as the Department may determine (including the making of a selection of persons who may be treated as eligible for such appointments);]

- employed by them as officers, and fair and equal treatment of persons who are so employed;
- [^{F38}(bb) monitoring the fair employment practices of councils and their compliance with statutory requirements in relation to fair employment;]
- (c) assessing the probable future requirements of councils [^{F37} and of the Executive] for the recruitment of officers and securing publicity for the opportunities that are available to persons who may seek employment as such officers;
- [^{F38}(cc) establishing and issuing a code of recommended practice as regards the conduct of officers of councils;]
- (d) promoting co-operation between councils, [^{F37} the Executive,] public bodies, government departments and educational institutions in matters connected with the recruitment, training and terms and conditions of employment of officers, and promoting the temporary transfer of officers (with their consent) in pursuance of arrangements made between councils, [^{F37} between councils and the Executive,] or between councils [^{F37} or the Executive], and any such bodies, departments or institutions;
- (e) promoting or assisting the development of, or providing, facilities for the training of officers;
- (f) promoting or assisting the establishment of, or establishing, procedures for the negotiation between councils [^{F37} the Executive] and officers of councils, [^{F37} or of the Executive] or associations representing [^{F40} any] of them, of standard rates of remuneration, or other terms and conditions of employment, for officers of councils, [^{F37} or of the Executive] and recommending the adoption by councils [^{F37} and the Executive] of rates, terms and conditions so negotiated.
- (5) Where the Staff Commission makes a recommendation to a council [^{F37} or, as the case may be, to the Executive] and the council [^{F37} or the Executive] does not comply with the recommendation within such reasonable period as the Staff Commission requires, the Ministry, after consulting the council [^{F37} or the Executive] and considering any representations made by it, may give to the council [^{F37} or to the Executive] any directions that the Ministry considers necessary or expedient for the implementation of the recommendation, and the council [^{F37} or the Executive] shall comply with any such direction within a period of one month or such longer period as the Ministry may allow.
- (6) A council [^{F37} and the Executive] shall—
- (a) make such reports and returns with respect to its officers and their terms and conditions of employment;
- (b) furnish such estimates of its probable future requirements for the recruitment of officers; and
- (c) give such information with respect to matters connected with the employment of any officer or officers;
- to the Staff Commission, within such reasonable period, as the Staff Commission requires.
- (7) The provisions of Schedule 3 shall have effect with respect to the Staff Commission.
- (8) The Ministry may, by order made subject to affirmative resolution, make provision for modifying the functions of the Staff Commission, and such an order may modify or repeal any provision of this section or Schedule 3.

- (b) if the person making the disclosure is present at any meeting of the council at which the contract in respect of which the disclosure was made is under consideration he shall withdraw from that meeting while the contract is being considered and his withdrawal shall be duly recorded in the minutes of the proceedings of that meeting.
- (3) For the purposes of this section subsections (2) and (4) of section 28 shall (without prejudice to any provision of those subsections) apply in relation to the officers of a council as they apply in relation to councillors.
- (4) Subject to subsection (5) and without prejudice to section 31 as applied by subsection (9), any person who acts in contravention of subsection (1) shall be guilty of an offence and shall be liable—
- (a) on conviction on indictment, to imprisonment for a term not exceeding one year or to a fine or to both; or
- (b) on summary conviction to a fine not exceeding^{F49} level 3 on the standard scale].
- (5) It shall be a defence for the person charged with an offence under subsection (4) to prove that at the time of the offence—
- (a) he did not know and had no reason to believe that the contract or proposed contract in which he had a pecuniary interest was being considered at the meeting; or
- (b) that he believed, in good faith and upon reasonable grounds, that he had no pecuniary interest which he would be required to disclose under subsection (1).
- (6) A prosecution for an offence under this section shall not be instituted except by or with the consent of the Attorney-General, and the bringing of, or the failure to bring, such a prosecution shall not affect any proceedings instituted by the Attorney-General under section 31, as applied by subsection (9), with respect to any transaction to which that section applies.
- (7) Notwithstanding any other transferred provision, a summary prosecution for an offence under subsection (4) may be commenced at any time within the period of one year from the date on which evidence, sufficient in the opinion of the Attorney-General to justify that prosecution, comes to the knowledge of the Attorney-General.
- (8) For the purposes of subsection (7), a certificate purporting to be signed by the Attorney-General as to the date on which the evidence referred to in that subsection came to his knowledge shall be evidence of that date.
- (9) Sections 31, 32 and (so far as is applicable for the purposes of those sections) 33 shall apply with respect to officers of a council as they apply with respect to councillors and as if any reference in those sections to a councillor (except the references in subsection (6) of section 31 and, in section 32, the first and third references in subsection (7), and the references in subsections (8) and (9)) included a reference to an officer of the council.

ALTERATIONS OF DISTRICTS

50 Alteration of boundaries, etc.

(1) The Governor shall in the year^{F56} 1990 and thereafter in accordance with subsection (1A)] appoint a Local Government Boundaries Commissioner whose function shall be to review the number, boundaries and names of the districts and the number, boundaries and names of the wards into which each district is divided.

^{F56}(1A) A Local Government Boundary Commissioner shall be appointed under subsection (1) during the period not less than ten or more than fifteen years from the date of the submission under subsection (4) of the final report on the last previous review under subsection (1).]

(2) Where, otherwise than in the course of a review under subsection (1),—

- (a) proposals are made to the Ministry by a council—
 - (i) for altering the boundaries of the district of that council, or

- (ii) for altering the number of wards into which any such district is divided or the boundaries of any of those wards; or
 - (b) proposals are made to the Ministry by more than one council for the union of the districts of those councils; or
 - (c) the Ministry has itself prepared any such proposal as is mentioned in paragraph (a) or (b);
- the Minister may recommend the Governor to appoint a Local Government Boundaries Commissioner to consider the proposals.
- (3) Part I of Schedule 4 shall have effect with respect to a Local Government Boundaries Commissioner, and such a Commissioner shall regulate his procedure in accordance with Part II of that Schedule and shall make his recommendations in accordance with Part III of that Schedule.
 - (4) A Local Government Boundaries Commissioner conducting a review under subsection (1) or considering proposals under subsection (2) shall submit a report to the Minister within such period as the Minister directs; and if the report recommends any alteration in the number, boundaries or names of any districts or wards, the Minister shall, as soon as may be after receiving the report, lay the recommendations before Parliament together with a draft of an order to give effect, whether with or without modifications, to the recommendations.
 - (5) Where a draft order proposes to give effect to any such recommendations with modifications, the Minister shall lay before Parliament, together with the draft order, a statement of the reasons for the modifications.
 - (6) On the approval of the draft order by a resolution of each House of Parliament, the Minister shall make an order in terms of the draft as so approved.
 - (7) Nothing in this section shall prejudice or affect any provision of the Boundary Survey (Ireland) Act 1854, the Boundary Survey (Ireland) Act 1857, the Boundary Survey (Ireland) Act 1859 or the County Boundaries (Ireland) Act 1872.

F56 SI 1990/2149

51 Change of name of district.

- (1) The Ministry may, by order made on the application of a council, change the name of the district of the council.
- (2) Every change of name made under this section shall be published by the council in such manner as the Ministry directs.

52 Supplemental provisions as to alterations of boundaries or names.

- (1) Where the Minister makes an order under section 50, the Ministry may make a supplemental order (in this section referred to as “the order”) which may contain such incidental, consequential, transitional or supplemental provisions as appear to be necessary or expedient for the general or any particular purposes of the order under section 50 or in consequence of any of the provisions thereof or for giving full effect thereto, and without prejudice to the generality of the foregoing provisions of this subsection may in particular include provision—

- (a) for modifying or repealing any transferred provision (including such a provision contained in or made under a local or personal Act or an Act confirming a provisional order);
 - (b) for the transfer, application, defrayal, apportionment or adjustment (by agreement or otherwise) of assets, liabilities, income and costs and for the continuance of, or of functions of, any council or public body, and the continuance in office of any councillor or officer (including the continuance in office of any member or officer of a dissolved council, as if the council had not been dissolved), for the purposes of such transfer, application, defrayal, apportionment or adjustment or for the purposes of the making up and audit of accounts and any proceedings in connection therewith or consequent thereupon;
 - (c) for the transfer of any writ, process, record or document relating to or to be executed in any part of a district affected by the order under section 50, and for determining questions arising from such transfer;
 - (d) for the determination of questions arising under the order.
- (2) The order may make provision for the transfer of existing officers affected by the order under section 50 and shall contain provisions for the protection of the interests of any such existing officers.
- (3) The order may make provision for the payment, on such terms and subject to such conditions as may be specified in the order, of compensation to or in respect of any officer of a council who suffers loss of employment or loss or diminution of emoluments (including superannuation rights) which is attributable to the order under section 50, and may in particular—
 - (a) include provision as to the funds out of which and the councils by which compensation is to be defrayed;
 - (b) include provision as to the manner in which and the time within which and the person to whom any claim for compensation is to be made;
 - (c) apply for the purposes of the order any transferred provision relating to the payment of compensation subject to the modifications (if any) specified in the order.
- (4) The order may make provision for the Minister to appoint the day or days on which the order, or any provision of it, is to come into operation.
- (5) Stamp duty shall not be chargeable on the order or on any instrument executed for the purposes of giving effect to the order.
- (6) A certificate issued by the Ministry that any property has been transferred by virtue of the order shall, until the contrary is shown, be accepted as evidence of that fact.
- (7) A change of name of a council shall not affect any rights or obligations of the council or any other person, or render defective any legal proceedings, and—
 - (a) any legal proceedings may be commenced or continued as if there had been no change of name;
 - (b) every reference in any transferred provision, record, document or map to the former name of the council shall be construed as a reference to the new name.
- (8) Where the name of a district which is a borough is changed, the charter of the borough shall have effect as if the new name were substituted for the old.

ANNUAL BUDGET AND FINANCIAL ARRANGEMENTS

53 Annual budget.

- (1) In each financial year a council shall cause to be submitted to it estimates of the income and expenditure of the council during the next-following financial year.
- (2) A council, before the prescribed date in each year,—
- (a) shall consider the estimates for the next-following financial year;
 - (b) may revise the estimates in such manner as the council thinks fit;
 - (c) shall approve the estimates, subject to any revision under paragraph (b);
 - (d) shall authorise the expenditure included in the estimates; and
 - (e) shall fix for the next-following financial year the amount estimated to be required to be raised by means of a rate made by the council.
- (3) No expenditure shall be incurred by or on behalf of a council unless—
- (a) previously authorised in accordance with the estimates approved by the council; or
 - (b) otherwise previously authorised by the council; or
 - (c) if not so authorised, necessarily incurred in circumstances of emergency;
- but any expenditure under paragraph (c) shall, as soon as reasonably practicable, be reported to the council with a view to being approved by the council.
- (4) A council may make standing orders for the purpose of giving effect to this section so long as such orders are not inconsistent with any statutory provision.

54 Arrangements for handling receipts and payments.

A council shall make safe and efficient arrangements for the receipt of money paid to it and the issue of money payable by it, and those arrangements shall be carried out under the supervision of such officer of the council as the council designates as its chief financial officer.

FUNDS

55 The district fund.

Subject to sections 56 to 58, all income of a council shall be carried to a fund to be called the “district fund”, and all expenditure falling to be discharged by the council shall be discharged out of that fund.

56 Power to establish capital fund and renewal and repairs fund.

- (1) Subject to the provisions of this Act, a council may, in addition to the district fund, establish either or both of the following funds—
 - (a) a capital fund, to be used either for defraying any expenditure of the council to which capital is properly applicable, or for providing money for repayment of loans (but not in making any annual payment required to be made in respect of loans);
 - (b) a renewal and repairs fund, to be used for the purpose of defraying expenditure to be incurred in repairing, maintaining, replacing and renewing any buildings, works, plant, equipment or articles belonging to the council.
- (2) A fund established by a council under this section shall not be used to meet, directly or indirectly, any expenditure incurred by the council for the purposes of a public utility undertaking.
- (3) Pending the application, for the purposes authorised by this section, of any fund established by a council under this section, the money in the fund shall (unless applied in any other manner authorised by section 73) be invested
 - ^{F57}(a) if regulations so provide, in such manner as may be prescribed;
 - (b) in any other case, in any investments in which trustees may invest under—
 - (i) the general power of investment in section 3 of the Trustee Act (Northern Ireland) 2001 (as restricted by sections 4 and 5 of that Act);
 - or
 - (ii) section 8(1)(a) of that Act (land).]
- ^{F57}(3A) Any money invested in accordance with subsection (3)(b) immediately before the coming into operation of regulations under subsection (3)(a) shall, for the period of 6 months from the coming into operation of those regulations, be taken to have been invested in accordance with those regulations.]
- (4) Any income arising from the investment of the money in any such fund, or otherwise from the application of the fund, shall be carried to the fund.

Status: Point in time view as at 01/01/2006.

57 Capital fund.

- (1) Subject to the provisions of this section, a council by which a capital fund is established under section 56 may, with the approval of the Ministry, pay into that fund—
 - (a) any sums derived from the sale of any asset held by the council, not being an asset held by it for the purposes of a public utility undertaking;
 - (b) the whole or any part of the surplus of the income of the district fund over the expenditure of that fund at the end of each financial year, except so far as required by law to be applied to or carried forward for any other purpose; and
 - (c) such other sums from the district fund as the council directs.
- (2) The aggregate amount paid by a council into the capital fund under subsection (1)(b) and (c) shall not exceed such sum as the Ministry determines in relation to that council.
- (3) Except as permitted by section 73, no money shall be applied by a council out of the capital fund without the approval of the Ministry.

58 Renewal and repairs fund.

- (1) Subject to the provisions of this section, a council by which a renewal and repairs fund is established under section 56 may with the approval of the Ministry pay into that fund from the district fund such sums as the council thinks fit.
- (2) No payment shall be made by a council into the renewal and repairs fund so as to make the fund exceed such sum as the Ministry in relation to that council determines.

59 Proceeds of sale of capital assets.

Any capital money derived from the sale of any asset held by a council shall be applied towards the repayment of any money borrowed by the council for the purpose of acquiring that asset or, with the approval of the Ministry, be applied for any purpose to which capital is properly applicable.

60 Limitation on application of funds.

A council shall not directly or indirectly apply any part of the district fund, or any money under its control, for any purpose not authorised specifically or generally by some statutory provision, or, in the case of money derived from trust funds, for any purpose not authorised by the specific trusts affecting those funds.

BORROWING

61 Purposes for which money may be borrowed.

- (1) Without prejudice to subsections (2) and (4) and section 68(1), where the Ministry is satisfied that, by reason of the nature of the expenditure incurred or to be incurred by a council in the exercise of any of its functions, the expenditure should be met by borrowing and repayment spread over a term of years, then the council may borrow on such terms and conditions (including conditions as to time and manner of repayment) as the Ministry approves.

Status: Point in time view as at 01/01/2006.

- (2) A council may borrow without the approval of the Ministry, by way of temporary loan or overdraft from a bank or otherwise, any sum which the council temporarily requires—
- (a) for the purpose of defraying expenses (including the payment of sums due by the council to meet the expenses of other bodies) pending the receipt of revenues receivable by the council in respect of the financial year in which those expenses are chargeable;
 - (b) for the purpose of defraying, pending the raising of a loan which the council has been authorised under subsection (1) to raise, expenses intended to be defrayed by means of the loan.
- (3) Where money is borrowed in pursuance of paragraph (b) of subsection (2) and subsequently a loan such as is mentioned in that paragraph is raised, then for the purposes of any approval regulating the period of the repayment of that loan, the loan shall, to the extent of the sum borrowed under that paragraph, be deemed to have been raised at the time when the borrowing under that paragraph took place.
- (4) A council may also borrow without the approval of the Ministry such sums as are necessary in order to provide working capital or to meet any other expenditure (not being expenditure of a capital nature) required for the purposes of any public utility undertaking carried on by the council; but—
- (a) the total sums borrowed under this subsection and for the time being outstanding shall not, except with the approval of the Ministry, exceed an amount representing one-half of the gross revenue of the undertaking for the immediately preceding financial year;
 - (b) any sum borrowed under this subsection to defray expenditure shall be repaid as soon as reasonably practicable and in any event not later than the expiration of two years from the date of borrowing, unless the approval of the Ministry is obtained to the repayment being spread over a longer period.

Para.(5) rep. by 1991 NI 6

62 Modes of borrowing.

Where, under section 61, a council has power to borrow money, it may, subject to the provisions of this Act, raise the money by any of the following methods—

- (a) by mortgage;
- (b) by the issue of stock;
- (c) by the issue of bonds;
- (d) by overdraft from a bank;
- (e) by temporary loan or deposit receipt;
- (f) by the use, in accordance with section 73, of any money forming part of a capital fund or renewal and repairs fund established by the council under section 56;
- (g) by means of an agreement with the Ministry of Finance for the advance of money out of the Government Loans Fund;
- (h) by any other method prescribed with the approval of the Ministry of Finance.

63 Security for borrowing.

- (1) Without prejudice to subsection (2) and subject to subsection (4), all money borrowed by a council and all interest payable in respect of such money shall be charged on all the funds, rates and revenues of, or applicable for the purposes of, the council.
- (2) Subsection (1) shall not affect any duty of a council, where money is borrowed for any purpose expenditure for which would, apart from that subsection, be debited against a particular account, to take care that sums payable in respect of that borrowing are so debited.
- (3) References in this section and sections 64, 65 and 68 to money borrowed by a council, and references in sections 66 and 67 to a sum so borrowed, include a reference to any sum which was borrowed by some other body and which the council, in consequence of a transfer of functions or otherwise, has become liable to repay to the lenders, but does not include a reference to any sum borrowed by the council where the liability for repayment to the lenders has, in consequence of a transfer of functions or otherwise, been transferred to some other body; and references in sections 64, 70 and 71 to securities created by a council shall be construed accordingly.
- (4) The foregoing provisions of this section shall not apply in respect of money borrowed by a council for the purposes of any trust under a deed, will or other document, nor shall the security created by those provisions include the funds held under any such trust.

64 Priority of securities.

- (1) Subject to subsection (2), all securities created by a council shall rank equally without any priority.
- (2) Nothing in this section shall affect any priority existing at, or any right to priority conferred by a security created before, 13th December 1949.
- (3) For the purposes of this section a right in respect of money borrowed by a council by any of the methods mentioned in section 62 shall be deemed to be a security, notwithstanding that it is not evidenced in writing.

65 Repayment of money borrowed.

- (1) Subject to section 66, money borrowed by a council (other than money borrowed under section 61(2)(a) pending the receipt of revenues) shall be paid off either—
 - (a) by equal yearly or half-yearly instalments of principal, or of principal and interest combined; or
 - (b) by means of a sinking fund;or partly by one of those methods and partly by another or others of them.
- (2) Where the money is to be paid off as mentioned in subsection (1)(a), the payment of the first instalment shall be made within twelve months or, where the money is repayable by half-yearly instalments, within six months from the date of borrowing.
- (3) The provisions of Schedule 5 shall apply with respect to sinking funds.

66 Power to suspend annual provision for repayment of, and to borrow for payment of interest on, certain borrowed money.

- (1) Where a sum is borrowed by a council for any of the following purposes—
- (a) meeting expenditure on the construction of new, or the extension or alteration of existing, works forming or to form part of an undertaking of a revenue-producing character;
 - (b) carrying out on any land any other operations, being operations of such kind as may be prescribed by the Ministry or operations specified in relation to that land by direction of the Ministry;
 - (c) acquiring land for the purpose of the construction thereon of new, or the extension or alteration of existing, works forming part of or to form part of an undertaking of a revenue-producing character, or for the purpose of the carrying out thereon of operations of a kind prescribed by virtue of paragraph (b), or operations specified in relation to that land by direction of the Ministry;

the council may in respect of such one period as it determines, not being longer than five years nor beginning five years or less before the expiration of the fixed period relevant to the sum borrowed, do either or both of the following things with the approval of the Ministry—

- (i) suspend, in whole or in part, any annual provision required to be made during the first-mentioned period for the repayment of the sum borrowed;
- (ii) borrow money for the payment of all or any of the interest due in respect of the first-mentioned period on the sum borrowed.

- (2) Where—

- (a) land is acquired by a council; and
- (b) a sum is borrowed by the council for the purpose of the acquisition; and
- (c) the acquisition is not for the purpose of the construction on the land of new, or for the extension or alteration of existing, works forming or to form part of an undertaking of a revenue-producing character, or for the purpose of carrying out on the land operations of a kind prescribed by virtue of subsection (1)(b) or operations specified in relation to that land by direction of the Ministry; and
- (d) the land is subsequently appropriated for a purpose mentioned in paragraph (c);

the council may in respect of such one period as it determines, not being longer than five years nor beginning five years or less before the expiration of the fixed period relevant to the sum borrowed, do either or both of the following things with the approval of the Ministry—

- (i) suspend, in whole or in part, any annual provision required to be made during the first-mentioned period for the repayment of the sum borrowed;
- (ii) borrow money for the payment of all or any of the interest due in respect of the first-mentioned period on the sum borrowed.

- (3) A sum borrowed by virtue of paragraph (ii) of subsection (1) or (2) for the payment of interest on a sum borrowed shall be repaid within the fixed period relevant to the last-mentioned sum.

- (4) In this section—

“the fixed period” means the period originally fixed as the period within which the money borrowed is to be repaid;

Status: Point in time view as at 01/01/2006.

Changes to legislation: Local Government Act (Northern Ireland) 1972 is up to date with all changes known to be in force on or before 29 March 2024. “undertaking” means an undertaking in the nature of a trading undertaking for the provision of any service which the council is authorised to undertake.

67 Application of unexpended portion of borrowed money.

The balance of any money borrowed by a council and not required for the purposes for which the money was borrowed may be applied—

- (a) in or towards the repayment of a sum borrowed by the council; or
- (b) with the approval of the Ministry, to any other purpose to which capital money may be applied.

68 Power to re-borrow.

(1) Subject to subsection (2), a council may, without the approval of the Ministry, borrow for the purpose of—

- (a) paying off any money previously borrowed by the council which is intended to be repaid forthwith; or
- (b) replacing money which, during the immediately preceding year, has been temporarily applied from other money of the council in repaying money previously borrowed and which, at the time of such repayment, it was intended to replace by borrowed money.

(2) A council shall not borrow under this section—

- (a) for the purpose of making any payment to a sinking fund or of paying any instalment which has or may become due in respect of borrowed money; or
- (b) for the purpose of replacing any money previously borrowed which has been repaid—
 - (i) by instalments; or
 - (ii) by means of a sinking fund; or
 - (iii) out of money derived from the sale of land; or
 - (iv) out of any capital money properly applicable to the purpose of the repayment, other than money borrowed for that purpose.

(3) Any money borrowed under this section shall, for the purposes of repayment be deemed to form part of the original loan, and shall be repaid within that portion of the fixed period which remains unexpired, and the provisions which are applicable to the original loan shall apply to the money borrowed under this section, so however that the Ministry may, upon application made to it for that purpose, extend the period for repayment of the money borrowed under this section so as to expire on such date as the Ministry thinks fit.

(4) In this section “the fixed period” has the same meaning as in section 66.

69 Lenders relieved from certain inquiries.

Without prejudice to section 19(1)(a)(ii) of the Interpretation Act (Northern Ireland) 1954, a person lending money to a council shall not be bound to inquire whether the borrowing of the money is or was legal or regular or whether the money was properly applied, and shall not be prejudiced by any illegality or irregularity in the matters aforesaid or by the misapplication or non-application of any such money.

70 Securities regulations.

- (1) For the purposes of any borrowing by a council by means of securities created by the council, the securities shall be created, issued, transferred, dealt with and redeemed upon such terms and in accordance with such provisions as may be prescribed.
- (2) Without prejudice to the generality of subsection (1), regulations may contain provisions with respect to—
 - (a) the form and terms of securities;
 - (b) the keeping of registers of securities, the form of the registers and the matters which must or must not be entered therein, the evidence which must be produced by persons seeking to have entries made in the registers, the form of transfer of securities, the rectification of the registers, rights of inspection and fees;
 - (c) the determination of questions affecting title to securities;
 - (d) the discharge of loans raised by means of securities;
 - (e) the extension or variation, with the consent of the holders of securities, of the times within which such loans may be discharged;
 - (f) the consent of owners under disability;
 - (g) the disposal of unclaimed interest;
 - (h) the duties of officers of the council in connection with the issue or discharge of securities or any register of securities;
 - ^{F58}(hh) the custody and, where appropriate, eventual destruction of documents relating to securities;
 - (i) the penalties, not exceeding a fine of ^{F59} level 3 on the standard scale] on summary conviction, which may be imposed for contraventions of the regulations.
- (3) In this section “security” means mortgage, stock or bond, or any prescribed security created in connection with the borrowing of money by a method prescribed under section 62(h).

- (4) In this section “security” means mortgage, stock or bond, or any prescribed security created in connection with the borrowing of money by a method prescribed under section 62(h).

72 Consolidated loans fund.

- (1) A council may, in accordance with a scheme made by the council and approved by the Ministry, establish and operate a consolidated loans fund for defraying any expenditure which may be met by borrowing under section 61 and for the repayment or redemption of debt.
- (2) A scheme under this section may make provision—
- (a) as to the purposes for which payments are to be authorised or required to be made out of the fund;
 - (b) as to the assets and liabilities which are to be authorised or required to be transferred to or paid into the fund;
 - (c) without prejudice to the generality of paragraphs (a) and (b), applying section 73 with the necessary modifications and for securing that payments will be made to the fund of such amounts and at such times as are necessary for fulfilling the obligations of the council to repay loans and to pay interest on loans and for defraying the management expenses of the fund;
 - (d) for the keeping of separate accounts of receipts and outgoings of the fund determined by the scheme to be of a capital and of an income nature respectively, and of expenditure in connection with the management of the fund;
 - (e) as to the investment of assets of the fund which are for the time being not required for other purposes, or their application in the repayment or redemption of debt.

73 Use of money forming part of capital fund or renewal and repairs fund.

- (1) Subject to the conditions set out in subsection (2), a council may use, for any purpose for which the council has power to borrow, any money forming part of, but not for the time being required for the purposes of, any capital fund or renewal and repairs fund established by the council.
- (2) The conditions on which money may be used as mentioned in subsection (1) are as follows—
- (a) where the power to borrow depends on the approval of the Ministry, the money shall be used only with that approval and subject to such conditions as are approved by the Ministry;
 - (b) where the money is used for a temporary purpose, it shall be used subject to any limitations which by virtue of paragraph (a) or (b) of section 61(2) affect temporary borrowing;
 - (c) the money shall be repaid to the fund as and when it is required for the purposes of the fund, if it is not required to be paid earlier by virtue of any conditions such as are mentioned in paragraph (a) or any limitations such as are mentioned in paragraph (b);
 - (d) the money shall be repaid to the fund out of the district fund, or out of money which would have been applicable to the repayment of a loan raised under

SURCHARGE, ETC.

^{F72}81 Declaration that item of account is unlawful.

- (1) Where it appears to a local government auditor at any audit held by him that any item of account is contrary to law he may apply to the court for a declaration that the item is contrary to law except where it is sanctioned by the Department.
- (2) On an application under this section the court may make or refuse to make the declaration asked for, and where the court makes that declaration, then, subject to subsection (3), it may also—
 - (a) order that any person responsible for incurring or authorising any expenditure declared unlawful shall repay it in whole or in part to the council concerned and, where two or more persons are found to be responsible, that they shall be jointly and severally liable to repay it as aforesaid;
 - (b) if any such expenditure exceeds £2,000 and the person responsible for incurring or authorising it is, or was at the time of his conduct in question, a member of the council concerned, order him to be disqualified for being elected or being a member of a council for a specified period; and
 - (c) order rectification of the accounts.
- (3) The court shall not make an order under subsection (2)(a) or (b) if the court is satisfied that the person responsible for incurring or authorising any such expenditure acted reasonably or in the belief that the expenditure was authorised by law, and in any other case shall have regard to all the circumstances, including that person's means and ability to repay that expenditure or any part of it.
- (4) Any person who has made an objection under section 79 and is aggrieved by a decision of an auditor not to apply for a declaration under this section may—
 - (a) not later than six weeks after he has been notified of the decision, require the auditor to state in writing the reasons for his decision; and
 - (b) appeal against the decision to the court,

[^{F73}82 Recovery of amount not accounted for, etc.

- (1) Where it appears to a local government auditor at any audit held by him—
- (a) that any person has failed to bring into account any sum which should have been so included and that the failure has not been sanctioned by the Department; or
 - (b) that a loss has been incurred or deficiency caused by the wilful misconduct of any person, he shall certify that the sum or, as the case may be, the amount of the loss or the deficiency is due from that person and, subject to subsections (3) and (5), both he and the council concerned may recover that sum or amount for the benefit of that council; and if the auditor certifies under this section that any sum or amount is due from two or more persons, they shall be jointly and severally liable for that sum or amount.

- (2) Any person who—
- (a) has made an objection under section 79 and is aggrieved by a decision of an auditor not to certify under this section that a sum or amount is due from another person; or
 - (b) is aggrieved by a decision of an auditor to certify under this section that a sum or amount is due from him, may not later than 6 weeks after he has been notified of the decision require the auditor to state in writing the reasons for his decision.

- (3) Any such person who is aggrieved by such a decision may appeal against the decision to the court and—
- (a) in the case of a decision to certify that any sum or amount is due from any person, the court may confirm, vary or quash the decision and give any certificate which the auditor could have given;
 - (b) in the case of a decision not to certify that any sum or amount is due from any person, the court may confirm the decision or quash it and give any certificate which the auditor could have given;

and any certificate given under this subsection shall be treated for the purposes of subsection (1) and the following provisions of this section as if it had been given by the auditor under subsection (1).

- (4) If a certificate under this section relates to a loss or deficiency caused by the wilful misconduct of a person who is, or was at the time of such misconduct, a member of the council concerned and the amount certified to be due from him exceeds £2,000, that person shall be disqualified for being elected or being a member of a council for the period of five years beginning on the ordinary date on which the period allowed for bringing an appeal against a decision to give the certificate expires or, if such an appeal is brought, the date on which the appeal is finally disposed of or abandoned or fails for non-prosecution.
- (5) A sum or other amount certified under this section to be due from any person shall be payable within fourteen days after the date of the issue of the certificate or, if an appeal is brought, within fourteen days after the appeal is finally disposed of or abandoned or fails for non-prosecution.
- (6) In any proceedings for the recovery of any sum or amount due from any person under this section a certificate signed by a local government auditor stating that that sum or amount is due from a person specified in the certificate to a council so specified shall be conclusive evidence of that fact; and any certificate purporting to be so signed shall be taken to have been so signed unless the contrary is proved.
- (7) On an appeal under this section relating to the accounts of a council the court may make such order as the court thinks fit for the payment by that council of expenses incurred in connection with the appeal by the auditor or the person to whom the appeal relates or by whom the appeal is brought, as the case may be.
- (8) Any expenses incurred by an auditor in recovering a sum or other amount certified under this section to be due in connection with the accounts of a council shall, so far as not recovered from any other source, be recoverable from that council unless the court otherwise directs.
- (9) The court having jurisdiction for the purposes of this section shall be the High Court except that, if the sum or amount alleged to be due does not exceed the amount over which county courts have jurisdiction in actions founded on contract, the county court shall have concurrent jurisdiction with the High Court.]

- (b) which specifies the paragraph of subsection (1) which is relevant and the decision, course of action or item of account to which the order relates;
 - (c) which specifies the date on which (subject to subsection (5)) the order is to take effect, being a date not earlier than the date of service of a copy of the order in accordance with paragraph (a) or, as the case may be, paragraphs (a) and (b) of subsection (4); and
 - (d) which requires the council or officer concerned to desist from making or implementing the decision, taking or continuing to take the course of action or, as the case may be, entering the item of account in question.
- (3) Where 2 or more local government auditors are appointed in relation to the accounts of any council, a prohibition order may be issued by the auditors acting jointly or by such one of them as they may determine; and, in relation to such an order, any reference in subsections (4) and (5) to the auditor is a reference to the auditor or auditors by whom the order is issued.
- (4) A copy of a prohibition order—
- (a) shall be served on the council to which, or to an officer of which, it is addressed; and
 - (b) in the case of an order addressed to an officer, shall also be served on him; and
 - (c) may be served on such other person or persons as appears to the local government auditor to be appropriate.
- (5) A prohibition order shall not have effect unless, not later than the expiration of 7 days from the date of service referred to in subsection (2)(c), the local government auditor serves on the council concerned and on any officer on whom a copy of the order was served under subsection (4)(b), a statement of the auditor's reasons for the belief referred to in subsection (1).
- (6) A prohibition order may at any time be revoked (but not varied) by the local government auditor.

F74 prosp. rep. by 2005 NI 18

^{F75}82B Effect of and appeals against prohibition orders.

- (1) So long as a prohibition order has effect, the council concerned or any officer of that council shall not make or implement the decision, take or continue to take the course of action or, as the case may be, enter the item of account to which the order relates.
- (2) A prohibition order—
 - (a) takes effect, subject to section 82A(5), on the date specified in the order in accordance with subsection (2)(c) of that section; and
 - (b) continues to have effect, subject to any order or decision of the High Court on an appeal under subsection (3), until revoked under section 82A(6).
- (3) Not later than 28 days from the service under section 82A(5) of a statement of reasons relating to a prohibition order, the council concerned (but not any officer of that council) may appeal against the order to the High Court in accordance with rules of court.

BYE-LAWS

F84 1965 c.13 (NI), 1981 NI 1

90 Bye-laws.

A council may make bye-laws in accordance with the succeeding provisions of this Part—

- (a) for the good rule and government of the whole or any part of its district;
- (b) for the prevention and suppression of nuisances in its district;
- (c) for any purpose for which bye-laws may be made by it under any other transferred provision.

91 Procedure, etc., for making bye-laws.

- (1) Bye-laws shall be made under the common seal of the council and shall not have effect until they are confirmed by the Ministry concerned.
- (2) At least one month before application for confirmation of bye-laws is made, notice of the intention to apply for confirmation shall be given in at least two newspapers circulating in the locality in which the area to which the bye-laws are to apply is situated.
- (3) For at least one month before application for confirmation is made, a copy of the bye-laws shall be deposited at the offices of the council by which the bye-laws are made, and shall at all reasonable hours be open to public inspection without payment.

96 Acquisition, etc., of land.

- (1) The purposes for which a council may acquire and hold land shall include—
 - (a) the benefit of the inhabitants of its district;
 - (b) the improvement, development or future development of its district;
 and for the purposes of section 19(1)(a)(iv) of the Interpretation Act (Northern Ireland) 1954 and any other transferred provision those purposes shall be deemed to be included among the purposes for which the council is constituted.
- (2) The right of a council to acquire land may be exercised, notwithstanding that the land is not immediately required for any of the purposes for which the council is constituted; but the council shall not exercise that right by virtue of this subsection otherwise than with the approval of the Ministry.
- (3) Section 127 (disposal of superfluous lands) of the Lands Clauses Consolidation Act 1845 shall not apply with respect to any acquisition of land by a council, and sections 128 to 131 of that Act (right of pre-emption of former owners) shall not apply with respect to any land acquired by a council by agreement.
- (4) Without prejudice to section 63(1), so much of section 19(1)(a)(iv) of the Interpretation Act (Northern Ireland) 1954 as confers a right to charge property shall not apply to a council.
- (5) ^{F90} The right of a council to dispose of land shall be subject to the following restrictions—
 - (a) except with the approval of the Ministry, any disposal of land shall be at the best price or for the best rent or otherwise on the best terms that can be reasonably obtained;

97 Acquisition of land otherwise than by agreement.

- (1) Where a council desires to acquire land otherwise than by agreement for any purpose for which it is authorised by a transferred provision so to acquire land, it may apply to the Ministry concerned for an order (in this Act referred to as a “vesting order”) vesting the land in the council, and that Ministry may make a vesting order.
- (2) The provisions of Schedule 6 shall apply with respect to the making and effect of vesting orders.
- (3)^{F92} The power to make a vesting order may be exercised over land—
- (a) which is the property of any public body which has power under any transferred provision to acquire land compulsorily; or
 - (b) which is declared by or under any transferred provision to be inalienable;
- but a vesting order shall not be made in relation to any such land, where representations objecting to the proposal for making the order have been duly made by the owner of the land and have not been withdrawn, unless the proposal has been approved by a resolution of each House of Parliament.
- (4) Nothing in this section shall authorise the acquisition, without the consent of the Ministry of Finance^{F93}, of any land on or in which there is, to the knowledge of that Ministry, any historic monument or archaeological object.
- (5) In subsection (4), “historic monument” and “archaeological object” have the same meanings as in^{F94} the Historic Monuments and Archaeological Objects (Northern Ireland) Order 1995].

There are changes that may be brought into force at a future date. Changes that have been made appear in the content and are referenced with annotations. (See end of Document for details)

117 Appearance in legal proceedings.

A council may authorise any officer of the council, either in respect of matters of any class or in respect of any particular matter, to institute on its behalf proceedings before any court of summary jurisdiction or to appear on its behalf before a court of summary jurisdiction in any proceedings instituted by the council or on its behalf, and any officer so authorised shall be entitled to conduct any such proceedings on behalf of the council although he is not a practising solicitor.

118 Name of council need not be proved.

- (1) Subject to subsection (2), in any proceedings instituted by or against a council it shall not be necessary to prove the corporate name of the council or the constitution or limits of its district.
- (2) Nothing in subsection (1) shall prejudice the right of a party to any such proceedings to take or avail himself of any objection which he might have taken or availed himself of if that subsection had not been passed.

119 Evidence of resolutions, etc.

Save as otherwise provided in any statutory provision, production of a copy of or of any part of—

- (a) any minute of a meeting of a council or of a committee of a council; or
- (b) any resolution passed by a council or by a committee of a council; or
- (c) any standing orders made by a council;

upon which is endorsed a certificate purporting to be signed by the clerk of the council stating that—

- (i) the copy of, or of part of, the minute of the meeting is a true copy; or
- (ii) the resolution was passed at a specified meeting of the council or, as the case may be, the committee, or was so passed as a special resolution; or
- (iii) the standing orders were made in accordance with any statutory provision applicable thereto; shall be evidence of the facts stated in the certificate and that in the case of a resolution passed by a committee, the committee had power to pass such a resolution, without proof of the handwriting or official position of any person purporting to sign a certificate in pursuance of this section.

ADMINISTRATIVE PROVISIONS

120 The seal.

- (1) Every council shall provide for the safe custody of its common seal (in this section referred to as “the seal”), which shall be used only—
 - (a) under the authority of a resolution of the council, or

132 Charters

- (1) On [^{F120} 1st October 1973] the charter of the corporation of every borough other than a county borough or a borough to whose corporation subsection (3)(b) applies shall be annulled.
- (2) The council for a district which includes the whole or the major part of a borough other than a county borough may, before [^{F120} 1st October 1973], resolve that the charter of the corporation of the borough shall have effect in relation to the district; and, if the borough bears a name other than the name of the district, the resolution shall provide for the name of the corporation of the borough to be changed to correspond to the name of the district.
- (3) On and after [^{F120} 1st October 1973] the charter of—
- (a) the corporation of each county borough; and
 - (b) the corporation of a borough with respect to whose charter a resolution has been passed under subsection (2);
- shall have effect in relation to the district which includes the whole or the major part of the borough as existing immediately before that date, but subject to any order made under section 134(2)(c).
- (4) Where a charter to which subsection (3) applies has effect subject to any adaptations or modifications by virtue of section 30(1A) of the New Towns Act (Northern Ireland) 1965, it shall, on [^{F120} 1st October 1973], cease to be subject thereto.

provision as appears to it to be necessary or expedient for the general or any particular purposes of this Act or of any other transferred provision passed in the same Session as this Act or in any subsequent Session (but before [^{F122} 1st October 1973]) [^{F123} or made by Order in Council under the Northern Ireland (Temporary Provisions) Act 1972 before that date] or in consequence of any of the provisions thereof or for giving full effect thereto, and nothing in any other provision of this Act or any other such transferred provision shall be construed as prejudicing the generality of this subsection.

- (2) Any such order may in particular include provision—
- (a) with respect to the transfer and management or custody of property (whether real or personal) and the transfer of other assets and of liabilities;
 - (b) for temporary modifications of this Act or for modifying or repealing any transferred provision passed or made before [^{F122} 1st October 1973] (not including such a provision contained in this Act, but including such a provision contained in or made under a local or personal Act or an Act confirming a provisional order);
 - (c) for modifying a charter which continues to have effect by virtue of section 132(3) (including the making of provision for the designation of aldermen, who shall number not more than one-quarter of the whole number of the councillors, and the conferment of the freedom of the borough);
 - (d) with respect to the membership of any body so far as that membership consists of or includes persons elected by, or appointed by or on the nomination of,—
 - (i) any existing local authority;
 - (ii) any two or more bodies who include such an authority;
 - (iii) any association which is wholly or partly representative of such authorities;
 - (e) for anything done before the appointed day by any existing local authority in the exercise of functions which on that day become exercisable by any other authority to be deemed as from that day to have been duly done by that other authority, and for any instrument or document made before that day, if or so far as it was made in the exercise of those functions, to continue in force on and after that day until varied or revoked in the exercise of those functions by that other authority;
 - (f) for the carrying on and completion by or on behalf of one authority of any thing (including any legal or parliamentary proceeding) commenced by or on behalf of any other authority;
 - (g) for construing, so far as may be necessary for the purposes of or in consequence of the order, references in any transferred provision or in any judgment, decree, order or warrant of any court, or in any award, deed, contract, record or other document to any authority as references to any other authority;
 - (h) for the application, defrayal, apportionment or adjustment of assets, liabilities, income or costs, for the inclusion or exclusion for purposes of such application, defrayal, apportionment or adjustment of any item which the Ministry concerned may think proper to include or exclude, and for the continuance of, or of functions of, any existing local authority, and the continuance in office of any member or officer of an existing local authority, as if the authority had not been dissolved, for purposes of such application, defrayal, apportionment or adjustment or for purposes of the making up and

- (a) so long as he continues in the employment of the other authority or authorities by virtue of the transfer and until he is served with a statement in writing of his new terms and conditions of employment, he enjoys terms and conditions of employment (including conditions as to superannuation benefits) not less favourable than those he enjoyed immediately before 17th November 1971; and
 - (b) the said new terms and conditions are such that—
 - (i) so long as he is engaged in duties reasonably comparable to those in which he was engaged immediately before the date of the transfer, the scale of his remuneration; and
 - (ii) the other terms and conditions of his employment; are taken as a whole not less favourable than those he enjoyed immediately before 17th November 1971.
- (4) Where, in relation to a person to whom subsection (1) or (2) applies, the terms and conditions of his employment (including conditions as to superannuation benefits) were, before 17th November 1971 but not earlier than 1st October 1971, varied in any respect and the Ministry concerned considers that, in all the circumstances, the variation was not justified, that Ministry may direct that the variation shall be wholly or partially omitted from the terms and conditions on which he becomes employed by the other authority or authorities; and subsection (3) shall have effect in relation to him as if so much of the variation as is specified in the direction had not been included in the terms and conditions of his employment immediately before 17th November 1971.
- (5) Where, in relation to a person to whom subsection (1) or (2) applies, the terms and conditions of his employment (including conditions as to superannuation benefits) are on or after 17th November 1971 varied in any respect, the Ministry concerned may direct that the variation shall be wholly or partially included among the terms and conditions on which he becomes employed by the other authority or authorities; and subsection (3) shall have effect in relation to him as if so much of the variation as is specified in the direction had been included in the terms and conditions of his employment immediately before 17th November 1971.

136 Superannuation officers.

- (1) An order under section 134 may make provision with respect to the superannuation rights of any person who has been or is an officer of an existing local authority, or of any class of such persons, and may provide that the appropriate superannuation fund or scheme in relation to that officer or class shall be such fund or scheme as may be specified in or determined under the order; and the order may make such incidental, consequential, transitional or supplementary provision (including provision for the payment of accrued superannuation values or corresponding sums by any existing local authority or any council) as appears to the Ministry concerned to be necessary or proper for the purpose or in consequence of the order and for giving full effect thereto.
- (2) In this section “accrued superannuation value” has the same meaning as in the Local Government (Superannuation) Act (Northern Ireland) 1950 .

137 Compensation of officers

- (1) The Ministry shall by regulations made with the approval of the Ministry of Finance make provision for the payment, on such terms and subject to such conditions as may be specified in the regulations, of compensation to or in respect of a person employed by an existing local authority who is transferred under section 135(1), (2) or (9) and who subsequent to his transfer, suffers loss of employment or loss or diminution of emoluments (including superannuation rights) which is attributable to this Act or any other transferred provision such as is mentioned in section 134(1) and for whose compensation no provision is made by any other statutory provision.
- (2) Regulations under this section may—
- include provision as to the funds out of which and the authority or authorities by whom compensation is to be defrayed;
 - include provision as to the manner in which and the time within which and the person to whom any claim for compensation is to be made;
 - be framed so as to have effect from a date earlier than the making of the regulations but not so as to place any individual in a worse position than he would have been in if the regulations had been so framed as to have effect only from the date of their making;
 - apply for the purposes of this section any transferred provision relating to the payment of compensation, subject to the modifications (if any) specified in the regulations;
 - make provision for the determination of questions arising under the regulations.
- (3) Regulations under this section may also make provision in relation to persons who are employees of any such association of existing local authorities as may be prescribed and who suffer loss of employment or loss or diminution of emoluments (including superannuation rights) which is attributable to the reorganisation of local government

145 Payments due by councils to government departments, etc.

Where the payment of any sum by a council is required to comply with any statutory provision and is due—

- (a) to a government department or public body; or
- (b) to the Exchequer; or
- (c) to any public fund under the control of a government department or public body;

the amount of the sum may be abated from any contribution or grant payable to the council out of money provided by Parliament.

146 Interpretation: pecuniary interests.

^{F130}(1) Subject as hereafter provided in this section, a person shall be treated for the purposes of this Act as having a pecuniary interest in a contract or proposed contract or in any other matter if—

- (a) he has himself or by or with or through another, an interest in the outcome thereof or in any commission, advantage or benefit arising or accruing therefrom;
- (b) he or any nominee of his is a member of a company or other body with which that contract is made or is proposed to be made or which has a direct pecuniary interest in that other matter; or
- (c) he is a partner or is in the employment of a person with whom that contract is made or is proposed to be made or who has a direct pecuniary interest in that other matter;

but shall not be so treated—

- (i) if the pecuniary interest arises in relation to a contract or proposed contract for the supply of services, facilities or goods to the public and the terms of the contract are offered to the public at large and he has, fairly, openly and without qualification, accepted those terms upon the same conditions as those on which they are open to acceptance by any member of the public; or
- (ii) if the pecuniary interest is of such a general nature or is so insignificant or trivial, or is so indirectly or remotely related to that contract, proposed contract or other matter that the judgment of the person is not likely to be affected or influenced thereby; or
- (iii) by reason only of his being a member or an officer of any public body; or
- (iv) by reason only of his being a member of any company or other body if he proves he has no beneficial interest in the shares therein or in the profits thereof.

(2) For the purposes of this section and sections 28 to 33 and 46, the interest of one of two spouses^{F131} or civil partners] living together shall be deemed to be the interest of the other of those spouses^{F131} or civil partners] unless that other spouse^{F131} or civil
