

Education and Training (Scotland) Act 2000

2000 asp 8

2 Qualifying arrangements

- (1) Arrangements qualify under this section if they satisfy such conditions as the Scottish Ministers may by regulations made under this section specify.
- (2) Conditions specified in regulations under this section may include—
 - (a) conditions as to the description of individual who may enter into arrangements;
 - (b) conditions as to the employment or self-employment of individuals;
 - (c) conditions requiring that individuals—
 - (i) are not receiving; or
 - (ii) have not received,such benefits as may be specified in the regulations;
 - (d) conditions as to the description of body with which arrangements may be made;
 - (e) conditions as to the nature of the arrangements and the way they are to be made and conducted; and
 - (f) conditions requiring the arrangements to be identified by such name as may be specified in the regulations.
- (3) Conditions such as are mentioned in paragraph (d) of subsection (2) above may—
 - (a) specify the description; or
 - (b) allow the Scottish Ministers to specify it in such way as they think fit.
- (4) Conditions such as are mentioned in paragraph (d) of subsection (2) above may include a requirement that bodies shall have been given approvals by the Scottish Ministers (which have not been withdrawn).
- (5) Regulations under this section may provide that an individual who is a party to arrangements which qualify under this section may not at any time become a party to other such arrangements.

Changes to legislation:

There are currently no known outstanding effects for the Education and Training (Scotland) Act 2000, Section 2.