

International Criminal Court (Scotland) Act 2001

2001 asp 13

PART 1

OFFENCES

Offences

6 Proceedings against persons becoming resident in the United Kingdom

- (1) This section applies in relation to a person who—
 - (a) commits acts outwith the United Kingdom at a time when that person is neither a United Kingdom national nor a United Kingdom resident; and
 - (b) subsequently becomes a United Kingdom resident.
- (2) Proceedings may be brought against such a person in Scotland for a substantive offence if—
 - (a) that person is a United Kingdom resident at the time the proceedings are brought; and
 - (b) the acts in respect of which the proceedings are brought would have constituted that offence if they had been committed in Scotland.
- (3) Proceedings may be brought against such a person in Scotland for an offence ancillary to a substantive offence (or what would be such a substantive offence if committed in Scotland) if—
 - (a) that person is a United Kingdom resident at the time the proceedings are brought; and
 - (b) the acts in respect of which the proceedings are brought would have constituted that ancillary offence if they had been committed in Scotland.
- (4) In this section a “substantive offence” means an offence under this Part of this Act other than an ancillary offence.
- (5) Nothing in this section shall be read as restricting the operation of any other provision of this Part of this Act.
