2 Debt payment programmes

- (1) A debt payment programme is a programme which provides for the payment of money owed by a debtor.

[<sup>F2</sup>(1A) Subsection (1) above is subject to any provision in regulations made under section 7A(1) below.]

Changes to legislation: There are currently no known outstanding effects for the Debt Arrangement and Attachment (Scotland) Act 2002, Part 1. (See end of Document for details)

---

- (2) The Scottish Ministers may, on an application by a debtor, approve any debt payment programme set out in the application.
- (3) Such an application <sup>F3</sup> ... shall—
- (a) specify, to the best of the debtor’s knowledge and belief, in relation to each debt which the debtor is proposing to be paid under the debt payment programme—
    - (i) the amount outstanding;
    - (ii) the creditor to whom the debt is due; and
    - (iii) the period for which the debt has been due;
  - (b) set out the arrangements under which those debts are, in accordance with the provisions of the programme, to be paid, in particular specifying—
    - (i) the amounts which the debtor proposes to pay under the programme;
    - (ii) the proposed regularity of those payments;
    - (iii) the manner in which those payments are to be made; and
    - (iv) the manner in which, and period over which, each of the debts included in the programme is to be paid;
  - (c) specify the name and address of the person (the “payments distributor”) who is to—
    - (i) receive payments from the debtor; and
    - (ii) pay, on behalf of the debtor, the debts included in the programme, in accordance with the provisions of the programme; and
  - (d) contain such other information (including information relating to the debtor’s financial circumstances), and be in such form, as may be prescribed.
- (4) Such an application shall, subject to any contrary provision in regulations made under section 7(1) [<sup>F4</sup>or 7A(1)] below, incorporate the consent, indicated in the prescribed form, of all the debtor’s creditors.
- (5) A person’s name and address shall not be specified in an application for approval of a debt payment programme as a payments distributor unless that person has been approved by the Scottish Ministers as a person suitable to carry out the functions of a payments distributor.

7 Debt payment programmes: power to make further provision

- (1) The Scottish Ministers may, by regulations, make such further provision as they think fit in connection with—
- (a) applications for the approval, or for the variation, of debt payment programmes;
  - (b) the manner in which such programmes are to operate, including conditions with which debtors, creditors, payments distributors or money advisers must comply;
  - (c) the effect of such programmes; and
  - (d) the effect of the failure of an employer to comply with the duty under section 6(2) above.
- (2) The regulations may, in particular, make provision about—
- (a) the class of person who may or may not make an application for the approval, or the variation, of a debt payment programme;
  - (b) the class of debt in respect of which such an application may or may not be made;
  - [<sup>F15</sup>(ba) circumstances in which some or all of the functions of a money adviser under section 3 above may instead be carried out by an approved intermediary;
  - (bb) circumstances in which a debtor is entitled to make an application for the approval, or the variation, of a debt payment programme where the debtor has not obtained advice under section 3(1) above;
  - (bc) the manner in which—
    - (i) the seeking of the consent of creditors to applications for approval of debt payment programmes; or
    - (ii) the making of such applications, affects the rights and remedies of creditors or other third parties;]
  - [<sup>F16</sup>(bd) the method of assessing the amount of a debtor's assets, income, liabilities and expenditure in considering applications for the approval, or the variation, of a debt payment programme,]
  - (c) the matters to which the Scottish Ministers are to have regard in determining whether to approve such an application;
  - (d) the conditions which may or may not be attached to an approval of such an application;
  - (e) circumstances in which such an application will not be approved;
  - (f) appeals against determinations by the Scottish Ministers on such applications;
  - (g) circumstances in which the consent for the purposes of section 2(4) above of a creditor or creditors generally may be dispensed with;
  - (h) circumstances in which a creditor may object to—
    - (i) the dispensation of the creditor's consent; or
    - (ii) the approval of such an application,
 and the manner in which such objection may be made;
  - (i) the remitting of any such application in respect of which a creditor has made an objection to the sheriff for determination;
  - (j) the manner in which a debt payment programme may be varied;
  - (k) the priority in which debts are to be paid under a debt payment programme;
  - (l) the ingathering and sale or other disposal of assets and the distribution to creditors of amounts so realised;

Changes to legislation: There are currently no known outstanding effects for the Debt Arrangement and Attachment (Scotland) Act 2002, Part 1. (See end of Document for details)

---

- (m) the period for which a debt payment programme is to remain in operation;
  - (n) circumstances in which, and the procedure under which, any such period can, in relation to a particular debt payment programme, be shortened or extended;
  - (o) circumstances in which a debt payment programme is to cease to have effect;
  - (p) subject to section 4 above, the manner in which a debt payment programme affects the rights or remedies of a creditor or other third party;
  - (q) circumstances in which creditors are to notify debtors of the right to make such an application and the effect of the failure of a creditor to provide that notice;
  - (r) the class of person who may act as a payments distributor;
  - (s) the class of person who may act as a money adviser;
  - [<sup>F17</sup>(sa) the class of person who may act as an approved intermediary;]
  - (t) the functions of a payments distributor;
  - (u) the functions of a money adviser;
  - [<sup>F18</sup>(ua) the functions of an approved intermediary;]
  - [<sup>F19</sup>(ub) the remuneration of payments distributors and money advisers,]
  - (v) the establishment and maintenance by the Scottish Ministers of a register of debt payment programmes and applications for the approval, and variation, of such programmes;
  - (w) the information which is to be kept in such a register;
  - (x) the manner in which that information is to be kept and in which it, or any part of it, is to be made available to the public; and
  - (y) the determination, and charging, by the Scottish Ministers of fees in respect of—
    - (i) the consideration of applications for the approval, or the variation, of a debt payment programme; and
    - (ii) the provision of information recorded in the register of debt payment programmes.
- (3) The regulations may also—
- (a) make different provision in relation to such different types of debtors, debts or other matters as may be described by the Scottish Ministers;
  - (b) provide that such different provision is to have effect only for such period as is specified by the Scottish Ministers; and
  - (c) provide that, on the expiry of that period, the Scottish Ministers may determine that the different provision to which they relate is to—
    - (i) continue to have effect without limit of time;
    - (ii) continue to have effect for such further period as may be determined by the Scottish Ministers; or
    - (iii) cease to have effect.
- (4) The regulations may also modify any enactment (including this Act), instrument or document for the purposes of making such further provision as is mentioned in subsection (1) above.
