

Local Government in Scotland Act 2003

2003 asp 1

PART 2

COMMUNITY PLANNING

19 Establishment of corporate bodies to co-ordinate and further community planning etc.

(1) The Scottish Ministers may—

- (a) on the application of the local authority together with one or more of the bodies, office-holders and other persons participating in community planning in the area of the local authority; and
- (b) after considering a report on the matters specified in subsection (2) below made to them by one or more of all the persons mentioned in paragraph (a) above, by order establish a body corporate having the constitution and functions specified in the order.

(2) The matters referred to in subsection (1)(b) above are—

- (a) what consultations were conducted on the question whether to apply for an order under that subsection;
- (b) what were the views on that question of the persons participating in community planning in the area of the local authority;
- (c) what were the views of persons (other than those referred to in paragraph (b) above) consulted on that question;
- (d) what functions should be specified in the order made under that subsection; and
- (e) such other matters as may by regulations be prescribed by the Scottish Ministers.

(3) An order made under subsection (1) above may include provision about—

- (a) the membership of the body established under it;
- (b) the proceedings of the body;
- (c) the transfer of property, rights and liabilities to and from the body;
- (d) the appointment and employment by the body of staff;
