

Mental Health (Care and Treatment) (Scotland) Act 2003

2003 asp 13

VALID FROM 05/10/2005

PART 1

INTRODUCTORY

1 Principles for discharging certain functions

- (1) Subsections (2) to (4) below apply whenever a person who does not fall within subsection (7) below is discharging a function by virtue of this Act in relation to a patient who has attained the age of 18 years.
- (2) In discharging the function the person shall, subject to subsection (9) below, have regard to the matters mentioned in subsection (3) below in so far as they are relevant to the function being discharged.
- (3) The matters referred to in subsection (2) above are—
 - (a) the present and past wishes and feelings of the patient which are relevant to the discharge of the function;
 - (b) the views of—
 - (i) the patient's named person;
 - (ii) any carer of the patient;
 - (iii) any guardian of the patient; and
 - (iv) any welfare attorney of the patient,which are relevant to the discharge of the function;
 - (c) the importance of the patient participating as fully as possible in the discharge of the function;
 - (d) the importance of providing such information and support to the patient as is necessary to enable the patient to participate in accordance with paragraph (c) above;
 - (e) the range of options available in the patient's case;

Status: Point in time view as at 01/07/2003. This version of this Act contains provisions that are not valid for this point in time.

Changes to legislation: Mental Health (Care and Treatment) (Scotland) Act 2003 is up to date with all changes known to be in force on or before 23 January 2024. There are changes that may be brought into force at a future date. Changes that have been made appear in the content and are referenced with annotations. (See end of Document for details)

- (f) the importance of providing the maximum benefit to the patient;
 - (g) the need to ensure that, unless it can be shown that it is justified in the circumstances, the patient is not treated in a way that is less favourable than the way in which a person who is not a patient might be treated in a comparable situation;
 - (h) the patient’s abilities, background and characteristics, including, without prejudice to that generality, the patient’s age, sex, sexual orientation, religious persuasion, racial origin, cultural and linguistic background and membership of any ethnic group.
- (4) After having regard to—
- (a) the matters mentioned in subsection (3) above;
 - (b) if subsections (5) and (6) below apply, the matters mentioned there; and
 - (c) such other matters as are relevant in the circumstances,
- the person shall discharge the function in the manner that appears to the person to be the manner that involves the minimum restriction on the freedom of the patient that is necessary in the circumstances.
- (5) Whenever a person who does not fall within subsection (7) below is discharging a function by virtue of this Act (other than the making of a decision about medical treatment) in relation to a patient, the person shall have regard, in so far as it is reasonable and practicable to do so, to—
- (a) the needs and circumstances of any carer of the patient which are relevant to the discharge of the function and of which the person is aware; and
 - (b) the importance of providing such information to any carer of the patient as might assist the carer to care for the patient.
- (6) Whenever a person who does not fall within subsection (7) below is discharging a function by virtue of this Act in relation to a person who is, or has been, subject to—
- (a) detention in hospital authorised by a certificate granted under section 36(1) of this Act (any such certificate being referred to in this Act as an “emergency detention certificate”);
 - (b) detention in hospital authorised by a certificate granted under section 44(1) of this Act (any such certificate being referred to in this Act as a “short-term detention certificate”);
 - (c) an order made under section 64(4)(a) of this Act (any such order being referred to in this Act as a “compulsory treatment order”); or
 - (d) an order made under section 57A(2) of the 1995 Act (any such order being referred to in this Act as a “compulsion order”),
- the person who is discharging the function shall have regard to the importance of the provision of appropriate services to the person who is, or has been, subject to the certificate or order concerned (including, without prejudice to that generality, the provision of continuing care when the person is no longer subject to the certificate or order).
- (7) A person falls within this subsection if the person is discharging the function by virtue of being—
- (a) the patient;
 - (b) the patient’s named person;
 - (c) the patient’s primary carer;

Status: Point in time view as at 01/07/2003. This version of this Act contains provisions that are not valid for this point in time.

Changes to legislation: Mental Health (Care and Treatment) (Scotland) Act 2003 is up to date with all changes known to be in force on or before 23 January 2024. There are changes that may be brought into force at a future date. Changes that have been made appear in the content and are referenced with annotations. (See end of Document for details)

- (d) a person providing independent advocacy services to the patient under section 259 of this Act;
 - (e) the patient's legal representative;
 - (f) a curator ad litem appointed by the Tribunal in respect of the patient;
 - (g) a guardian of the patient; or
 - (h) a welfare attorney of the patient.
- (8) In subsection (3)(a) above, the reference to wishes and feelings of the patient is a reference to those wishes and feelings in so far as they can be ascertained by any means of communication, whether human or by mechanical aid (whether of an interpretative nature or otherwise), appropriate to the patient.
- (9) The person need not have regard to the views of a person mentioned in subsection (3) (b) above in so far as it is unreasonable or impracticable to do so.
- (10) In subsection (3)(d) above, the reference to information is to information in the form that is mostly likely to be understood by the patient.
- (11) In this section, a reference to “discharging”, in relation to a power, includes a reference to exercising the power by taking no action; and “discharge” shall be construed accordingly.

2 Welfare of the child

- (1) This section applies whenever a person who does not fall within section 1(7) of this Act is discharging a function, by virtue of this Act, to which subsection (2) or (3) below applies in relation to a patient who is under the age of 18 years.
- (2) This subsection applies to any duty which may be discharged in more than one manner.
- (3) This subsection applies to any power.
- (4) The person shall discharge the function in the manner that appears to the person to be the manner that best secures the welfare of the patient.
- (5) In determining the manner of discharging the function that best secures the welfare of the patient, the person shall have regard to—
- (a) the matters mentioned in section 1(3) of this Act;
 - (b) the matters mentioned in section 1(5) and (6) of this Act (where those subsections apply); and
 - (c) the importance of the function being discharged in the manner that appears to the person to be the manner that involves the minimum restriction on the freedom of the patient that is necessary in the circumstances.
- (6) Subsections (8) to (10) of section 1 of this Act shall apply for the purpose of subsection (5)(a) above as they apply in relation to subsection (3) of that section.
- (7) In this section, a reference to “discharging”, in relation to a power, includes a reference to exercising the power by taking no action; and “discharge” shall be construed accordingly.

Status: Point in time view as at 01/07/2003. This version of this Act contains provisions that are not valid for this point in time.

Changes to legislation: *Mental Health (Care and Treatment) (Scotland) Act 2003 is up to date with all changes known to be in force on or before 23 January 2024. 3 Equal opportunities

- (1) Subsection (2) below applies whenever a person mentioned in subsection (3) below is discharging a function by virtue of this Act.
- (2) The person shall discharge the function in a manner that encourages equal opportunities and in particular the observance of the equal opportunity requirements.
- (3) The persons referred to in subsection (1) above are—
 - (a) the Scottish Ministers;
 - (b) the Commission;
 - (c) a local authority;
 - (d) a Health Board;
 - (e) a Special Health Board;
 - (f) a National Health Service trust;
 - (g) the managers of a hospital;
 - (h) a mental health officer;
 - (i) a patient’s responsible medical officer;
 - (j) a medical practitioner; and
 - (k) a nurse.
- (4) In this section “equal opportunities” and “equal opportunity requirements” have the same meanings as in Section L2 of Part II of Schedule 5 to the Scotland Act 1998 (c. 46).

Changes to legislation: Mental Health (Care and Treatment) (Scotland) Act 2003 is up to date with all changes known to be in force on or before 23 January 2024. There are changes that may be brought into force at a future date. Changes that have been made appear in the content and are referenced with annotations. (See end of Document for details)

- (i) provide, for persons who are not in hospital and who have or have had a mental disorder, services which provide care and support; or
- (ii) secure the provision of such services for such persons; and
- (b) may—
 - (i) provide such services for persons who are in hospital and who have or have had a mental disorder; or
 - (ii) secure the provision of such services for such persons.
- (2) Services provided by virtue of subsection (1) above shall be designed to—
 - (a) minimise the effect of the mental disorder on such persons; and
 - (b) give such persons the opportunity to lead lives which are as normal as possible.
- (3) In subsection (1) above, “care and support”—
 - (a) includes, without prejudice to the generality of that expression—
 - (i) residential accommodation; and
 - (ii) personal care and personal support (each of those expressions having the meaning given by section 2(28) of the Regulation of Care (Scotland) Act 2001 (asp 8)); but
 - (b) does not include nursing care.
- (4) In section 59(1) of the Social Work (Scotland) Act 1968 (c. 49) (duty of local authorities as respects provision and maintenance of residential or other establishments), for the words “or under” there shall be substituted “sections 25 and 26 of the Mental Health (Care and Treatment) (Scotland) Act 2003 (asp 13) or”.

26 Services designed to promote well-being and social development

- (1) A local authority—
 - (a) shall—
 - (i) provide, for persons who are not in hospital and who have or have had a mental disorder, services which are designed to promote the well-being and social development of those persons; or
 - (ii) secure the provision of such services for such persons; and
 - (b) may—
 - (i) provide such services for persons who are in hospital and who have or have had a mental disorder; or
 - (ii) secure the provision of such services for such persons.
- (2) Services provided by virtue of subsection (1) above shall include, without prejudice to the generality of that subsection, services which provide—
 - (a) social, cultural and recreational activities;
 - (b) training for such of those persons as are over school age; and
 - (c) assistance for such of those persons as are over school age in obtaining and in undertaking employment.
- (3) Subsection (1) above is without prejudice to the operation of—
 - (a) section 1 of the Education (Scotland) Act 1980 (c. 44) (duties and powers of education authorities in relation to the provision of social, cultural and recreative activities and vocational and industrial training); and

VALID FROM 05/10/2005

Co-operation and assistance

30 Co-operation with Health Boards and others

- (1) In providing services for a person under any of sections 25 to 27 of this Act, a local authority shall co-operate with any—
- (a) Health Boards;
 - (b) Special Health Boards;
 - (c) National Health Service trusts; or
 - (d) voluntary organisations,
- that appear to the authority to have an interest, power or duty mentioned in subsection (2) below.
- (2) Such an interest, power or duty is—
- (a) an interest in the provision of services by the local authority under any of sections 25 to 27 of this Act; or
 - (b) a power or duty to provide or secure the provision of services, or an interest in the provision of services,
- for the person.

31 Assistance from Health Boards and others

- (1) Where it appears to a local authority that the assistance of a Health Board, a Special Health Board or a National Health Service trust—
- (a) is necessary to enable the authority to perform any of their duties under section 25 or 26 of this Act; or
 - (b) would help the authority to perform any of those duties,
- the authority may request the Health Board, Special Health Board or National Health Service trust to co-operate by providing the assistance specified in the request.
- (2) A Health Board, a Special Health Board or a National Health Service trust receiving a request under subsection (1) above shall, if complying with the request—
- (a) would be compatible with the discharge of its own functions (whether under any enactment or otherwise); and
 - (b) would not prejudice unduly the discharge by it of any of those functions,
- comply with the request.
- (3) This section is without prejudice to section 21 of the Children (Scotland) Act 1995 (c. 36) (which enables a local authority to require assistance from a Health Board, a National Health Service trust or others in the exercise of the authority's functions under Part II of that Act).

Status: Point in time view as at 01/07/2003. This version of this Act contains provisions that are not valid for this point in time.

Appointment of mental health officers

32 Appointment of mental health officers

- (1) A local authority shall appoint a sufficient number of persons for the purpose of discharging, in relation to their area, the functions of mental health officers under—
 - (a) this Act;
 - (b) the 1995 Act; and
 - (c) the Adults with Incapacity (Scotland) Act 2000 (asp 4).
- (2) A local authority shall appoint under subsection (1) above only persons—
 - (a) who are officers of a local authority; and
 - (b) who satisfy such requirements as the Scottish Ministers may direct as to—
 - (i) registration;
 - (ii) education and training;
 - (iii) experience;
 - (iv) competence as respects persons who have or have had a mental disorder; and
 - (v) any other matters that may be specified in the direction.
- (3) A person duly appointed by a local authority before the day on which this section comes into force to discharge the functions of a mental health officer shall, for the purposes of this Act, be deemed to have been appointed under subsection (1) above; and references in subsections (4) and (5) below to a person appointed under subsection (1) above shall include references to a person deemed by virtue of this subsection to have been so appointed.
- (4) A local authority shall, in accordance with directions given by the Scottish Ministers, provide or secure the provision of training for persons appointed by them under subsection (1) above as respects requirements in directions under subsections (2) above and (5) below.
- (5) A local authority shall terminate the appointment of a person appointed under subsection (1) above if the person—
 - (a) ceases to be an officer of a local authority; or
 - (b) does not satisfy—
 - (i) any requirement in a direction under subsection (2) above; or
 - (ii) such other requirements as to any of the matters mentioned in paragraph (b) of that subsection as the Scottish Ministers may, from time to time, by direction specify.
- (6) The validity of any acts or omissions of a person appointed as a mental health officer in the discharge of the functions of such an officer prior to a termination of appointment by virtue of subsection (5) above is not affected by such termination.
- (7) Directions given by the Scottish Ministers under this section shall be given to local authorities collectively.

VALID FROM 05/10/2005

Duty to inquire into individual cases

33 Duty to inquire

- (1) Where it appears to a local authority that—
- (a) a person in their area who is aged 16 years or over has a mental disorder; and
 - (b) any of the circumstances mentioned in subsection (2) below apply,
- the authority shall cause inquiries to be made into the person's case.
- (2) Those circumstances are—
- (a) that the person may be, or may have been, subject, or exposed, at some place other than a hospital to—
 - (i) ill-treatment;
 - (ii) neglect; or
 - (iii) some other deficiency in care or treatment;
 - (b) that, because of the mental disorder, the person's property—
 - (i) may be suffering, or may have suffered, loss or damage; or
 - (ii) may be, or may have been, at risk of suffering loss or damage;
 - (c) that the person may be—
 - (i) living alone or without care; and
 - (ii) unable to look after himself or his property or financial affairs;
 - (d) that the person is not in hospital and, because of the mental disorder, the safety of some other person may be at risk.

34 Inquiries under section 33: co-operation

- (1) This section applies where a local authority are required by section 33(1) of this Act to cause inquiries to be made into a person's case.
- (2) Where it appears to the local authority that the assistance of any of the persons mentioned in subsection (3) below—
- (a) is necessary for the purposes of the inquiries; or
 - (b) would assist the inquiries,
- the authority may request that person to provide the assistance specified in the request.
- (3) Those persons are—
- (a) the Commission;
 - (b) the Public Guardian;
 - (c) the Scottish Commission for the Regulation of Care;
 - (d) a Health Board; and
 - (e) a National Health Service trust.
- (4) Where—
- (a) a person receives a request under subsection (2) above; and

- (b) complying with the request—
 - (i) would be compatible with the discharge of the person’s functions (whether under any enactment or otherwise); and
 - (ii) would not prejudice unduly the discharge by the person of any of those functions, the person shall comply with the request.

35 Inquiries under section 33: warrants

- (1) If a sheriff, or a justice of the peace, is satisfied by a relevant mental health officer’s evidence on oath—
 - (a) that, for the purposes of inquiries under section 33 of this Act, it is necessary to enter premises; and
 - (b) that the mental health officer—
 - (i) is unable to obtain entry to those premises; or
 - (ii) reasonably apprehends that the mental health officer will be unable to obtain entry to those premises, the sheriff or justice of the peace may grant a warrant under this subsection.
- (2) A warrant under subsection (1) above is a warrant—
 - (a) authorising—
 - (i) the mental health officer specified in the warrant;
 - (ii) any other persons so specified; and
 - (iii) any constable of the police force maintained for the area in which the premises are situated, before the expiry of the period of 8 days beginning with the day on which the warrant is granted, to enter, for the purposes of the inquiries, any premises so specified; and
 - (b) authorising any such constable, before the expiry of that period, for the purpose of exercising the power mentioned in paragraph (a) above, to open lockfast places on premises so specified.
- (3) An application for a warrant under subsection (1) above shall—
 - (a) if made to the sheriff, be made to the sheriff of the sheriffdom; or
 - (b) if made to a justice of the peace, be made to a justice for the commission area, in which the premises to which the application relates are situated.
- (4) If a sheriff, or a justice of the peace, is satisfied by a relevant mental health officer’s evidence on oath—
 - (a) that, for the purposes of inquiries under section 33 of this Act, it is necessary that a medical practitioner carry out a medical examination of the person who is the subject of the inquiries; and
 - (b) that the mental health officer is unable to obtain the consent of that person to that matter,
 the sheriff, or justice of the peace, may grant a warrant under this subsection.
- (5) A warrant under subsection (4) above is a warrant authorising the detention of the person who is the subject of the inquiries for a period of 3 hours for the purposes of enabling a medical examination of the person to be carried out by the medical practitioner specified in the warrant.

- (6) An application for a warrant under subsection (4) above shall—
- (a) if made to the sheriff, be made to the sheriff of the sheriffdom; or
 - (b) if made to a justice of the peace, be made to a justice for the commission area,
- in which the person who is the subject of the inquiries for the time being is.
- (7) If a sheriff, or a justice of the peace, is satisfied by a relevant mental health officer's evidence on oath—
- (a) that, for the purposes of inquiries under section 33 of this Act, it is necessary that a medical practitioner have access to the person's medical records; and
 - (b) that the mental health officer is unable to obtain the consent of that person to that matter,
- the sheriff, or justice of the peace, may grant a warrant under this subsection.
- (8) A warrant under subsection (7) above is a warrant requiring any person holding medical records of the person subject to the inquiries to produce them for inspection by the medical practitioner specified in the warrant on being required to do so by the practitioner.
- (9) An application for a warrant under subsection (7) above shall—
- (a) if made to the sheriff, be made to the sheriff of the sheriffdom; or
 - (b) if made to a justice, be made to a justice for the commission area,
- in which the person who is the subject of the inquiries for the time being is.
- (10) A mental health officer shall as soon as practicable after the sheriff, or justice of the peace, decides to grant or refuse an application for a warrant under subsection (1), (4) or (7) above, give notice to the Commission as to whether a warrant was granted or refused.
- (11) No appeal shall be competent against a decision of a sheriff, or a justice of the peace, under this section granting, or refusing to grant, a warrant.
- (12) References to a relevant mental health officer—
- (a) in subsection (1) above are to a mental health officer appointed by the local authority for the area in which the premises to which the application relates are situated;
 - (b) in subsections (4) and (7) above are to a mental health officer appointed by the local authority which is causing inquiries to be made.

VALID FROM 21/03/2005

EMERGENCY DETENTION

Emergency detention certificate

36 Emergency detention in hospital

(1) Where—

- (a) a medical practitioner carries out a medical examination of a patient;
- (b) the patient does not fall within subsection (2) below; and
- (c) subsection (3) below applies,

the medical practitioner may, before the expiry of the appropriate period, grant an emergency detention certificate authorising, if the condition mentioned in subsection (7) below is satisfied, the measures mentioned in subsection (8) below.

(2) The patient falls within this subsection if, immediately before the medical examination mentioned in subsection (1)(a) above is carried out, the patient is detained in hospital under authority of—

- (a) an emergency detention certificate;
- (b) a short-term detention certificate;
- (c) an extension certificate;
- (d) section 68 of this Act; or
- (e) a certificate granted under section 114(2) or 115(2) of this Act.

(3) Subject to subsection (6) below, this subsection applies where—

- (a) there is no conflict of interest in relation to the medical examination;
- (b) the medical practitioner considers that it is likely that the conditions mentioned in subsection (4) below are met in respect of the patient;
- (c) the medical practitioner is satisfied that the conditions mentioned in subsection (5) below are met in respect of the patient; and
- (d) the medical practitioner has consulted a mental health officer and that mental health officer has consented to the grant of an emergency detention certificate.

(4) The conditions referred to in subsection (3)(b) above are—

- (a) that the patient has a mental disorder; and
- (b) that, because of the mental disorder, the patient's ability to make decisions about the provision of medical treatment is significantly impaired.

(5) The conditions referred to in subsection (3)(c) above are—

- (a) that it is necessary as a matter of urgency to detain the patient in hospital for the purpose of determining what medical treatment requires to be provided to the patient;
- (b) that if the patient were not detained in hospital there would be a significant risk—

Status: Point in time view as at 01/07/2003. This version of this Act contains provisions that are not valid for this point in time.

Changes to legislation: Mental Health (Care and Treatment) (Scotland) Act 2003 is up to date with all changes known to be in force on or before 23 January 2024. - (i) to the health, safety or welfare of the patient; or
 - (ii) to the safety of any other person; and
 - (c) that making arrangements with a view to the grant of a short-term detention certificate would involve undesirable delay.
- (6) If it is impracticable for the medical practitioner to consult or seek consent under paragraph (d) of subsection (3) above, that paragraph need not be satisfied for the subsection to apply.
- (7) The condition referred to in subsection (1) above is that the measure mentioned in subsection (8)(b)(i) below is authorised by the certificate only if, before the patient is admitted under authority of the certificate to a hospital, the certificate is given to the managers of that hospital.
- (8) The measures referred to in subsection (1) above are—
 - (a) the removal, before the expiry of the period of 72 hours beginning with the granting of the emergency detention certificate, of the patient to a hospital or to a different hospital; and
 - (b) the detention of the patient in hospital for the period of 72 hours beginning with—
 - (i) if, immediately before the certificate is granted, the patient is not in hospital, the first admission under authority of the certificate of the patient to hospital;
 - (ii) if, immediately before the certificate is granted, the patient is in hospital, the granting of the certificate.
- (9) Regulations may specify—
 - (a) the circumstances in which there is to be taken to be; and
 - (b) the circumstances in which there is not to be taken to be, a conflict of interest in relation to the medical examination.
- (10) The emergency detention certificate—
 - (a) shall state the medical practitioner’s reasons for believing the conditions mentioned in subsections (4) and (5) above to be met in respect of the patient; and
 - (b) shall be signed by the medical practitioner.
- (11) If a medical practitioner grants an emergency detention certificate in respect of a patient who, immediately before the certificate is granted, is in hospital, the medical practitioner shall, as soon as practicable after granting the certificate, give the certificate to the managers of that hospital.
- (12) In subsection (1) above “appropriate period” means—
 - (a) in a case where the medical examination of the patient is completed at least 4 hours before the end of the day (or, if it takes place on two days, the later of the days) on which it is carried out, the period beginning with completion of the examination and ending with the end of that day;

PART 6

SHORT-TERM DETENTION

Short-term detention certificate

44 Short-term detention in hospital

(1) Where—

- (a) an approved medical practitioner carries out a medical examination of a patient;
- (b) the patient does not fall within subsection (2) below; and
- (c) subsection (3) below applies,

the approved medical practitioner may, before the expiry of the period of 3 days beginning with the completion of the medical examination, grant a short-term detention certificate authorising, if the condition mentioned in subsection (6) below is satisfied, the measures mentioned in subsection (5) below.

(2) The patient falls within this subsection if, immediately before the medical examination mentioned in subsection (1)(a) above is carried out, the patient is detained in hospital under authority of—

- (a) a short-term detention certificate;
- (b) an extension certificate;
- (c) section 68 of this Act; or
- (d) a certificate granted under section 114(2) or 115(2) of this Act.

(3) This subsection applies where—

- (a) there is no conflict of interest in relation to the medical examination;
- (b) the approved medical practitioner considers that it is likely that the conditions mentioned in subsection (4) below are met in respect of the patient;
- (c) the approved medical practitioner consults a mental health officer; and
- (d) the mental health officer consents to the grant of a short-term detention certificate.

(4) The conditions referred to subsection (3)(b) above are—

- (a) that the patient has a mental disorder;
- (b) that, because of the mental disorder, the patient's ability to make decisions about the provision of medical treatment is significantly impaired;
- (c) that it is necessary to detain the patient in hospital for the purpose of—
 - (i) determining what medical treatment should be given to the patient;
 - or
 - (ii) giving medical treatment to the patient;
- (d) that if the patient were not detained in hospital there would be a significant risk—
 - (i) to the health, safety or welfare of the patient; or

- (ii) to the safety of any other person; and
 - (e) that the granting of a short-term detention certificate is necessary.
- (5) The measures referred to in subsection (1) above are—
- (a) the removal, before the expiry of the period of 3 days beginning with the granting of the short-term detention certificate, of the patient to a hospital or to a different hospital;
 - (b) the detention of the patient in hospital for the period of 28 days beginning with—
 - (i) if, immediately before the certificate is granted, the patient is not in hospital, the beginning of the day on which admission under authority of the certificate of the patient to hospital first takes place;
 - (ii) if, immediately before the certificate is granted, the patient is in hospital, the beginning of the day on which the certificate is granted;
 - (c) the giving to the patient, in accordance with Part 16 of this Act, of medical treatment.
- (6) The condition referred to in subsection (1) above is that the measure mentioned in subsection (5)(b)(i) above is authorised by the certificate only if, before the patient is admitted to hospital under authority of the certificate, the certificate is given to the managers of that hospital.
- (7) If an approved medical practitioner grants a short-term detention certificate in respect of a patient who, immediately before the certificate is granted, is in hospital, the approved medical practitioner shall, as soon as practicable after granting the certificate, give the certificate to the managers of that hospital.
- (8) Regulations may specify—
- (a) the circumstances in which there is to be taken to be; and
 - (b) the circumstances in which there is not to be taken to be, a conflict of interest in relation to the medical examination.
- (9) The short-term detention certificate—
- (a) shall state the approved medical practitioner’s reasons for believing the conditions mentioned in subsection (4) above to be met in respect of the patient; and
 - (b) shall be signed by the approved medical practitioner.
- (10) Before granting the short-term detention certificate, the approved medical practitioner shall, subject to subsection (11) below, consult the patient’s named person about the proposed grant of the certificate; and the approved medical practitioner shall have regard to any views expressed by the named person.
- (11) The approved medical practitioner need not consult a named person as mentioned in subsection (10) above in any case where it is impracticable to do so.

Extension certificate

47 Extension of detention pending application for compulsory treatment order

(1) Where—

- (a) a patient is detained in hospital under authority of a short-term detention certificate;
- (b) an approved medical practitioner carries out a medical examination of the patient; and
- (c) subsections (2) and (3) below apply, the approved medical practitioner may, before the expiry of the period of 24 hours beginning with the completion of that medical examination, grant a certificate (any such certificate being referred to in this Act as an “extension certificate”) authorising the measures mentioned in subsection (4) below.

(2) This subsection applies where—

- (a) there is no conflict of interest in relation to the medical examination; and
- (b) the approved medical practitioner considers—
 - (i) that the conditions mentioned in paragraphs (a) to (d) of section 44(4) of this Act are met in respect of the patient; and
 - (ii) that because of a change in the mental health of the patient, an application should be made under section 63 of this Act for a compulsory treatment order.

(3) This subsection applies where—

- (a) no application has been made under section 63 of this Act;
- (b) it would not be reasonably practicable to make an application under that section before the expiry of the period of detention authorised by the short-term detention certificate; and
- (c) subject to subsection (6) below—
 - (i) the approved medical practitioner consults a mental health officer about the proposed grant of an extension certificate; and
 - (ii) the mental health officer consents to the granting of the extension certificate.

(4) The measures referred to in subsection (1) above are—

- (a) the detention in hospital of the patient for the period of 3 days beginning with the expiry of the period for which the short-term detention certificate authorises the detention of the patient in hospital; and
- (b) the giving to the patient, in accordance with Part 16 of this Act, of medical treatment.

(5) Regulations may specify—

(b) the circumstances in which there is not to be taken to be, a conflict of interest in relation to the medical examination.

(6) An approved medical practitioner need not consult or seek consent under subsection (3)(c) above in any case where it is impracticable to do so.

(7) In reckoning the period of days mentioned in subsection (4)(a) above, there shall be left out of account any day which is not a working day.

(8) In this section “working day” means a day which is not—

- (a) Saturday;
- (b) Sunday; or
- (c) a day which is a bank holiday under the Banking and Financial Dealings Act 1971 (c. 80) in Scotland.

VALID FROM 05/10/2005

48 Extension certificate: notification

(1) An approved medical practitioner who grants an extension certificate shall, before the expiry of the period of 24 hours beginning with the granting of the certificate, give the certificate to the managers of the hospital in which the patient is detained and give notice to the persons mentioned in subsection (2) below—

- (a) of the granting of the extension certificate;
- (b) of the approved medical practitioner’s reasons for believing the conditions mentioned in paragraphs (a) to (d) of section 44(4) of this Act to be met in respect of the patient;
- (c) as to whether consent of a mental health officer was obtained to the granting of the certificate; and
- (d) if the certificate was granted without consent to its granting having been obtained from a mental health officer, the reason why it was impracticable to consult a mental health officer.

(2) Those persons are—

- (a) the patient;
- (b) the patient’s named person;
- (c) the Tribunal;
- (d) the Commission;
- (e) any guardian of the patient;
- (f) any welfare attorney of the patient; and

PART 7

COMPULSORY TREATMENT ORDERS

CHAPTER 1

APPLICATION FOR, AND MAKING OF, ORDERS

Pre-application procedures

VALID FROM 05/10/2005

57 Mental health officer's duty to apply for compulsory treatment order

- (1) Where subsections (2) to (5) below apply in relation to a patient, a mental health officer shall apply to the Tribunal under section 63 of this Act for a compulsory treatment order in respect of that patient.
- (2) This subsection applies where two medical practitioners carry out medical examinations of the patient in accordance with the requirements of section 58 of this Act.
- (3) This subsection applies where each of the medical practitioners who carries out a medical examination mentioned in subsection (2) above is satisfied—
 - (a) that the patient has a mental disorder;
 - (b) that medical treatment which would be likely to—
 - (i) prevent the mental disorder worsening; or
 - (ii) alleviate any of the symptoms, or effects, of the disorder, is available for the patient;
 - (c) that if the patient were not provided with such medical treatment there would be a significant risk—
 - (i) to the health, safety or welfare of the patient; or
 - (ii) to the safety of any other person;
 - (d) that because of the mental disorder the patient's ability to make decisions about the provision of such medical treatment is significantly impaired; and
 - (e) that the making of a compulsory treatment order is necessary.
- (4) This subsection applies where each of the medical practitioners who carries out a medical examination mentioned in subsection (2) above submits to the mental health officer a report (any such report being referred to in this Act as a "mental health report")—
 - (a) stating that the medical practitioner submitting the report is satisfied that the conditions mentioned in paragraphs (a) to (e) of subsection (3) above are met in respect of the patient;

Status: Point in time view as at 01/07/2003. This version of this Act contains provisions that are not valid for this point in time.

Changes to legislation: Mental Health (Care and Treatment) (Scotland) Act 2003 is up to date with all changes known to be in force on or before 23 January 2024. There are changes that may be brought into force at a future date. Changes that have been made appear in the content and are referenced with annotations. (See end of Document for details)

- (b) stating, in relation to each of the conditions mentioned in paragraphs (b) to (e) of subsection (3) above, the medical practitioner’s reasons for believing the condition to be met in respect of the patient;
 - (c) specifying (by reference to the appropriate paragraph (or paragraphs) of the definition of “mental disorder” in section 328(1) of this Act) the type (or types) of mental disorder that the patient has;
 - (d) setting out a description of—
 - (i) the symptoms that the patient has of the mental disorder; and
 - (ii) the ways in which the patient is affected by the mental disorder;
 - (e) specifying the measures that should, in the medical practitioner’s opinion, be authorised by the compulsory treatment order;
 - (f) specifying the date or dates on which the medical practitioner carried out the medical examination mentioned in subsection (2) above; and
 - (g) setting out any other information that the medical practitioner considers to be relevant.
- (5) This subsection applies where—
- (a) for the purposes of subsection (4)(c) above each of the mental health reports specifies at least one type of mental disorder that is also specified in the other report;
 - (b) for the purposes of subsection (4)(e) above each of the mental health reports specifies the same measures; and
 - (c) one of the mental health reports (being a report by an approved medical practitioner) states the views of that medical practitioner as to—
 - (i) subject to subsection (6) below, whether notice should be given to the patient under section 60(1)(a) of this Act; and
 - (ii) whether the patient is capable of arranging for a person to represent the patient in connection with the application under section 63 of this Act.
- (6) A medical practitioner may state the view that notice should not be given under section 60(1)(a) of this Act only if, in the opinion of that medical practitioner, the giving of notice would be likely to cause significant harm to the patient or any other person.
- (7) Where a mental health officer is required by subsection (1) above to make an application for a compulsory treatment order, the mental health officer shall make the application before the expiry of the period of 14 days beginning with—
- (a) in the case where each of the mental health reports specifies the same date (or dates) for the purposes of subsection (4)(f) above, that date (or the later, or latest, of those dates); or
 - (b) in the case where each of those reports specifies for those purposes a different date (or different dates), the later (or latest) of those dates.

58 Medical examination: requirements

- (1) The requirements referred to in section 57(2) of this Act are set out in subsections (2) to (6) below.
- (2) Subject to subsection (4) below and to regulations under subsection (5) below—

Status: Point in time view as at 01/07/2003. This version of this Act contains provisions that are not valid for this point in time.

Changes to legislation: Mental Health (Care and Treatment) (Scotland) Act 2003 is up to date with all changes known to be in force on or before 23 January 2024. There are changes that may be brought into force at a future date. Changes that have been made appear in the content and are referenced with annotations. (See end of Document for details)

- (a) each medical examination of the patient shall be carried out by an approved medical practitioner; and
 - (b) subject to subsection (6) below, each such examination shall be carried out separately.
- (3) Where the medical examinations are carried out separately, the second shall be completed no more than five days after the first.
- (4) The patient's general medical practitioner may carry out one of the medical examinations of the patient although not an approved medical practitioner.
- (5) Except in circumstances specified in regulations, there must not be a conflict of interest in relation to the medical examination; and regulations shall specify the circumstances in which there is to be taken to be such a conflict of interest.
- (6) The medical examinations need not be carried out separately if—
- (a) where the patient is capable of consenting to the examinations, the patient consents to the examinations being carried out at the same time; or
 - (b) where the patient is incapable of consenting to the examinations—
 - (i) the patient's named person;
 - (ii) any guardian of the patient; or
 - (iii) any welfare attorney of the patient, consents to the examinations being carried out at the same time.

VALID FROM 05/10/2005

59 Mental health officer's duty to identify named person

Where a mental health officer is required by 57(1) of this Act to make an application under section 63 of this Act in respect of a patient, the mental health officer shall, as soon as practicable after the duty to make the application arises, take such steps as are reasonably practicable to ascertain the name and address of the patient's named person.

60 Application for compulsory treatment order: notification

- (1) Where a mental health officer is required by section 57(1) of this Act to make an application under section 63 of this Act in respect of a patient, the mental health officer shall, as soon as practicable after the duty to make the application arises (and, in any event, before making the application) give notice that the application is to be made—
- (a) subject to subsection (2) below, to the patient in respect of whom the application is to be made;
 - (b) to the patient's named person; and
 - (c) to the Commission.

Status: Point in time view as at 01/07/2003. This version of this Act contains provisions that are not valid for this point in time.

Changes to legislation: Mental Health (Care and Treatment) (Scotland) Act 2003 is up to date with all changes known to be in force on or before 23 January 2024. There are changes that may be brought into force at a future date. Changes that have been made appear in the content and are referenced with annotations. (See end of Document for details)

- (2) If the view set out in one of the mental health reports by virtue of section 57(5)(c) of this Act is that notice should not be given under paragraph (a) of subsection (1) above, the mental health officer—
- (a) need not give such notice; but
 - (b) may, if the mental health officer considers it appropriate to do so, give such notice.

VALID FROM 05/10/2005

61 Mental health officer's duty to prepare report

- (1) This section applies where a mental health officer is required by section 57(1) of this Act to make an application under section 63 of this Act in respect of a patient.
- (2) The mental health officer shall, before the date on which, by virtue of section 57(7) of this Act, the application is to be made—
 - (a) subject to subsection (3) below, interview the patient;
 - (b) if the patient has not been given notice under section 60(1)(a) of this Act, inform the patient that the application is to be made;
 - (c) inform the patient of—
 - (i) the patient's rights in relation to the application; and
 - (ii) the availability of independent advocacy services under section 259 of this Act;
 - (d) take appropriate steps to ensure that the patient has the opportunity of making use of those services; and
 - (e) prepare in relation to the patient a report in accordance with subsection (4) below.
- (3) If it is impracticable for the mental health officer to comply with the requirement in subsection (2)(a) above, the mental health officer need not do so.
- (4) The report shall state—
 - (a) the name and address of the patient;
 - (b) if known by the mental health officer, the name and address of—
 - (i) the patient's named person; and
 - (ii) the patient's primary carer;
 - (c) the steps that the mental health officer has taken in pursuance of the requirements imposed by subsection (2) above;
 - (d) if it was impracticable for the mental health officer to comply with the requirement in subsection (2)(a) above, the reason for that being the case;
 - (e) in so far as relevant for the purposes of the application, details of the personal circumstances of the patient;
 - (f) the mental health officer's views on the mental health reports relating to the patient;
 - (g) if known by the mental health officer, details of any advance statement that the patient has made (and not withdrawn); and
 - (h) any other information that the mental health officer considers relevant to the determination by the Tribunal of the application.

Status: Point in time view as at 01/07/2003. This version of this Act contains provisions that are not valid for this point in time.

Changes to legislation: Mental Health (Care and Treatment) (Scotland) Act 2003 is up to date with all changes known to be in force on or before 23 January 2024. 62 Mental health officer's duty to prepare proposed care plan

- (1) This section applies where a mental health officer is required by section 57(1) of this Act to make an application under section 63 of this Act in respect of a patient.
- (2) The mental health officer shall, before the date on which, by virtue of section 57(7) of this Act, the application is to be made, prepare a plan (a “proposed care plan”) relating to the patient.
- (3) Before preparing the proposed care plan, the mental health officer shall consult—
 - (a) the medical practitioners who provided the mental health reports relating to the patient;
 - (b) subject to subsection (7) below, the persons mentioned in subsection (4) below; and
 - (c) such other persons as the mental health officer considers appropriate.
- (4) The persons referred to in subsection (3)(b) above are persons who appear to the mental health officer to provide—
 - (a) medical treatment of the kind that it is proposed to specify, by virtue of paragraph (d) of subsection (5) below, in the proposed care plan;
 - (b) community care services, or relevant services, of the kind that it is proposed to specify, by virtue of paragraph (e) of that subsection, in that plan; or
 - (c) other treatment, care or services of the kind that it is proposed to specify, by virtue of paragraph (f) of that subsection, in that plan.
- (5) The proposed care plan shall specify—
 - (a) (by reference to the appropriate paragraph (or paragraphs) of the definition of “mental disorder” in section 328(1) of this Act), the type (or types) of mental disorder which the patient has;
 - (b) the needs of the patient for medical treatment that have been assessed by the medical practitioners who submitted the mental health reports relating to the patient;
 - (c) in so far as relevant for the purposes of the application—
 - (i) where the patient is a child, the needs of the patient that have been assessed under section 23(3) of the Children (Scotland) Act 1995 (c. 36);
 - (ii) where the patient is not a child, the needs of the patient that have been assessed under section 12A(1)(a) of the Social Work (Scotland) Act 1968 (c. 49);
 - (d) the medical treatment which it is proposed to give to the patient in relation to each of the needs specified by virtue of paragraph (b) above (including the names of the persons who would give the treatment and the addresses at which the treatment would be given);
 - (e) any community care services or relevant services which it is proposed to provide to the patient in relation to each of the needs specified by virtue of paragraph (c) above (including the names of the persons who would provide such services and the addresses at which such services would be provided);
 - (f) in so far as relevant for the purposes of the application—

Status: Point in time view as at 01/07/2003. This version of this Act contains provisions that are not valid for this point in time.

Changes to legislation: Mental Health (Care and Treatment) (Scotland) Act 2003 is up to date with all changes known to be in force on or before 23 January 2024. - (i) any treatment or care (other than treatment or care specified, by virtue of paragraph (d) above, in the proposed care plan); or
 - (ii) any service (other than a service specified, by virtue of paragraph (e) above, in the proposed care plan),
- which it is proposed to provide to the patient (including the names of the persons who would provide such treatment, care or service and the addresses at which such treatment, care or service would be provided);
- (g) which of the measures mentioned in section 66(1) of this Act it is proposed that the compulsory treatment order should authorise;
 - (h) where it is proposed that the compulsory treatment order should authorise the detention of the patient in hospital, the name and address of the hospital;
 - (i) where it is proposed that the compulsory treatment order should authorise any of the measures mentioned in section 66(1)(c) to (h) of this Act, details of the measure (or measures);
 - (j) where it is proposed that the compulsory treatment order should specify—
 - (i) any medical treatment specified, by virtue of paragraph (d) above, in the proposed care plan;
 - (ii) any community care services, or relevant services, specified, by virtue of paragraph (e) above, in the proposed care plan; or
 - (iii) any treatment, care or service specified, by virtue of paragraph (f) above, in the proposed care plan, that medical treatment, those services or that treatment, care, or service, as the case may be;
 - (k) where it is proposed that the compulsory treatment order should authorise measures other than the detention of the patient in hospital, the name of the hospital the managers of which should have responsibility for appointing the patient’s responsible medical officer; and
 - (l) the objectives of—
 - (i) the medical treatment which it is proposed, by virtue of paragraph (d) above, to give to the patient;
 - (ii) any community care services or relevant services which it is proposed, by virtue of paragraph (e) above, to provide to the patient;
 - (iii) any treatment, care or service which, by virtue of paragraph (f) above, it is proposed to provide to the patient; and
 - (iv) the measures (other than detention of the patient in hospital) that it is proposed that the compulsory treatment order should authorise.
- (6) The proposed care plan shall be signed by the mental health officer.
- (7) The mental health officer need not consult any person such as is mentioned in subsection (4) above in any case where it is impracticable to do so.
- (8) In this section “child” has the same meaning as in section 23(3) of the Children (Scotland) Act 1995 (c. 36).

Application for order

63 Application for compulsory treatment order

- (1) An application to the Tribunal for a compulsory treatment order may be made by, and only by, a mental health officer.
- (2) An application—
 - (a) shall specify—
 - (i) the measures that are sought in relation to the patient in respect of whom the application is made;
 - (ii) any medical treatment, community care services, relevant services or other treatment, care or service specified in the proposed care plan by virtue of section 62(5)(j) of this Act; and
 - (iii) where it is proposed that the order should authorise measures other than the detention of the patient in hospital, the name of the hospital the managers of which should have responsibility for appointing the patient's responsible medical officer; and
 - (b) shall be accompanied by the documents that are mentioned in subsection (3) below.
- (3) Those documents are—
 - (a) the mental health reports;
 - (b) the report prepared under section 61 of this Act; and
 - (c) the proposed care plan,
relating to the patient.

Making of order etc.

64 Powers of Tribunal on application under section 63: compulsory treatment order

- (1) This section applies where an application is made under section 63 of this Act.
- (2) Before determining the application, the Tribunal shall afford the persons mentioned in subsection (3) below the opportunity—
 - (a) of making representations (whether orally or in writing); and
 - (b) of leading, or producing, evidence.
- (3) Those persons are—
 - (a) the patient;
 - (b) the patient's named person;
 - (c) any guardian of the patient;
 - (d) any welfare attorney of the patient;
 - (e) the mental health officer;

Status: Point in time view as at 01/07/2003. This version of this Act contains provisions that are not valid for this point in time.

Changes to legislation: Mental Health (Care and Treatment) (Scotland) Act 2003 is up to date with all changes known to be in force on or before 23 January 2024. - (f) the medical practitioners who submitted the mental health reports which accompany the application;
 - (g) if the patient has a responsible medical officer, that officer;
 - (h) the patient’s primary carer;
 - (i) any curator ad litem appointed in respect of the patient by the Tribunal; and
 - (j) any other person appearing to the Tribunal to have an interest in the application.
- (4) The Tribunal may—
- (a) if satisfied that all of the conditions mentioned in subsection (5) below are met, make an order—
 - (i) authorising, for the period of 6 months beginning with the day on which the order is made, such of the measures mentioned in section 66(1) of this Act as may be specified in the order;
 - (ii) specifying such medical treatment, community care services, relevant services, other treatment, care or service as the Tribunal considers appropriate (any such medical treatment, community care services, relevant services, other treatment, care or service so specified being referred to in this Act as a “recorded matter”);
 - (iii) recording (by reference to the appropriate paragraph (or paragraphs) of the definition of “mental disorder” in section 328(1) of this Act) the type (or types) of mental disorder that the patient has; and
 - (iv) if the order does not authorise the detention of the patient in hospital, specifying the name of the hospital the managers of which are to have responsibility for appointing the patient’s responsible medical officer; or
 - (b) refuse the application.
- (5) The conditions referred to in subsection (4)(a) above are—
- (a) that the patient has a mental disorder;
 - (b) that medical treatment which would be likely to—
 - (i) prevent the mental disorder worsening; or
 - (ii) alleviate any of the symptoms, or effects, of the disorder,is available for the patient;
 - (c) that if the patient were not provided with such medical treatment there would be a significant risk—
 - (i) to the health, safety or welfare of the patient; or
 - (ii) to the safety of any other person;
 - (d) that because of the mental disorder the patient’s ability to make decisions about the provision of such medical treatment is significantly impaired;
 - (e) that the making of a compulsory treatment order in respect of the patient is necessary; and
 - (f) where the Tribunal does not consider it necessary for the patient to be detained in hospital, such other conditions as may be specified in regulations.
- (6) Subject to subsection (7) below, an order under subsection (4)(a) above may, in addition to, or instead of, specifying some or all of the measures sought in the application to which the order relates, specify measures other than those set out in that application.

Status: Point in time view as at 01/07/2003. This version of this Act contains provisions that are not valid for this point in time.

Changes to legislation: Mental Health (Care and Treatment) (Scotland) Act 2003 is up to date with all changes known to be in force on or before 23 January 2024. There are changes that may be brought into force at a future date. Changes that have been made appear in the content and are referenced with annotations. (See end of Document for details)

- (7) The Tribunal may specify in the order under subsection (4)(a) above measures other than those set out in the application only if, before making the order—
- (a) subject to subsection (8) below, the Tribunal gives notice to the persons mentioned in subsection (3) above—
 - (i) stating what it is proposing to do; and
 - (ii) setting out what those measures are;
 - (b) the Tribunal affords those persons the opportunity—
 - (i) of making representations (whether orally or in writing) in relation to the proposal; and
 - (ii) of leading, or producing, evidence.
- (8) Where the duty under subsection (7)(a) above arises during a hearing of the application, notice need not be given under that subsection to any person mentioned in subsection (3) above who is present at the hearing.
- (9) Before making regulations under subsection (5)(f) above, the Scottish Ministers shall consult such persons as they consider appropriate.

VALID FROM 05/10/2005

65 Powers of Tribunal on application under section 63: interim compulsory treatment order

- (1) This section applies where an application is made under section 63 of this Act.
- (2) Subject to subsections (3) and (4) below and to section 69 of this Act, on the application of any person having an interest in the proceedings, or ex proprio motu, the Tribunal may, if satisfied as to the matters mentioned in subsection (6) below, make an order (an “interim compulsory treatment order”)—
- (a) authorising for such period not exceeding 28 days as may be specified in the order such of the measures mentioned in section 66(1) of this Act as may be so specified; and
 - (b) if the order does not authorise the detention of the patient in hospital, specifying the name of the hospital the managers of which are to have responsibility for appointing the patient’s responsible medical officer.
- (3) The Tribunal may not make an interim compulsory treatment order if its effect, when taken with any other interim compulsory treatment order made in respect of the patient, would be to authorise measures in respect of the patient for a continuous period of more than 56 days.
- (4) Before making an interim compulsory treatment order, the Tribunal shall afford the persons mentioned in subsection (5) below the opportunity—
- (a) of making representations (whether orally or in writing); and
 - (b) of leading, or producing, evidence.
- (5) Those persons are—
- (a) the persons referred to in section 64(3)(a) to (e) and (g) to (i) of this Act;
 - (b) the medical practitioners who submitted the mental health reports which accompany the application under section 63 of this Act; and

Status: Point in time view as at 01/07/2003. This version of this Act contains provisions that are not valid for this point in time.

Changes to legislation: Mental Health (Care and Treatment) (Scotland) Act 2003 is up to date with all changes known to be in force on or before 23 January 2024. There are changes that may be brought into force at a future date. Changes that have been made appear in the content and are referenced with annotations. (See end of Document for details)

(c) any other person appearing to the Tribunal to have an interest in that application.

(6) The matters referred to in subsection (2) above are—

- (a) that the conditions mentioned in paragraphs (a) to (d) of section 64(5) of this Act are met in respect of the patient; and
- (b) that it is necessary to make an interim compulsory treatment order.

66 Measures that may be authorised

(1) Subject to subsection (2) below, the measures referred to in sections 64(4)(a)(i) and 65(2)(a) of this Act are—

- (a) the detention of the patient in the specified hospital;
- (b) the giving to the patient, in accordance with Part 16 of this Act, of medical treatment;
- (c) the imposition of a requirement on the patient to attend—
 - (i) on specified or directed dates; or
 - (ii) at specified or directed intervals,
 specified or directed places with a view to receiving medical treatment;
- (d) the imposition of a requirement on the patient to attend—
 - (i) on specified or directed dates; or
 - (ii) at specified or directed intervals,
 specified or directed places with a view to receiving community care services, relevant services or any treatment, care or service;
- (e) the imposition of a requirement on the patient to reside at a specified place;
- (f) the imposition of a requirement on the patient to allow—
 - (i) the mental health officer;
 - (ii) the patient’s responsible medical officer; or
 - (iii) any person responsible for providing medical treatment, community care services, relevant services or any treatment, care or service to the patient who is authorised for the purposes of this paragraph by the patient’s responsible medical officer, to visit the patient in the place where the patient resides;
- (g) the imposition of a requirement on the patient to obtain the approval of the mental health officer to any proposed change of address; and
- (h) the imposition of a requirement on the patient to inform the mental health officer of any change of address before the change takes effect.

(2) Regulations may make provision for measures prescribed by the regulations to be treated as included among the measures mentioned in subsection (1) above.

(3) In this section—

“directed” means in accordance with directions given by the patient’s responsible medical officer; and “specified” means specified in the compulsory treatment order or, as the case may be, the interim compulsory treatment order.

VALID FROM 05/10/2005

67 Order authorising detention: ancillary authorisation

- (1) Where a compulsory treatment order or an interim compulsory treatment order—
 - (a) authorises the detention of a patient in a hospital specified in the order; or
 - (b) imposes a requirement on a patient to reside at a place specified in the order, this section authorises the removal, before the expiry of the period of 7 days beginning with the appropriate day, of the patient in respect of whom the order is made to that hospital or, as the case may be, place.
- (2) In subsection (1) above, “appropriate day” means the day on which—
 - (a) a compulsory treatment order or, as the case may be, an interim compulsory treatment order authorising detention of a patient in hospital is made; or
 - (b) a compulsory treatment order is varied so as to authorise the detention of a patient in the hospital specified in the order.

VALID FROM 05/10/2005

Extension of short-term detention: special case

68 Extension of short-term detention pending determination of application

- (1) Where—
 - (a) the detention of a patient in hospital is authorised by—
 - (i) a short-term detention certificate; or
 - (ii) an extension certificate; and
 - (b) before the expiry of the period of detention so authorised, an application is made under section 63 of this Act, the measures mentioned in subsection (2) below are authorised.
- (2) Those measures are—
 - (a) the detention in hospital of the patient for the period of 5 days beginning with the expiry of the period for which the certificate authorises the detention of the patient in hospital; and
 - (b) the giving to the patient, in accordance with Part 16 of this Act, of medical treatment.
- (3) In reckoning the period of days mentioned in subsection (2)(a) above, there shall be left out of account any day which is not a working day.
- (4) In this section “working day” has the meaning given by section 47(8) of this Act.

CHAPTER 2

INTERIM COMPULSORY TREATMENT ORDERS: REVIEW AND REVOCATION

72 Interim compulsory treatment order: responsible medical officer's duty to keep under review

- (1) Where a patient is subject to an interim compulsory treatment order, the patient's responsible medical officer shall from time to time consider—
 - (a) whether the conditions mentioned in paragraphs (a) to (d) of section 64(5) of this Act continue to apply in respect of the patient; and
 - (b) whether it continues to be necessary for the patient to be subject to an interim compulsory treatment order.
- (2) If, having considered the matters mentioned in paragraphs (a) and (b) of subsection (1) above, the responsible medical officer is not satisfied—
 - (a) that the conditions mentioned in paragraphs (a) to (d) of section 64(5) of this Act continue to apply in respect of the patient; or
 - (b) that it continues to be necessary for the patient to be subject to an interim compulsory treatment order, the responsible medical officer shall make a determination revoking the interim compulsory treatment order.
- (3) A determination under this section shall be made as soon as practicable after the duty to make it arises.

73 Commission's power to revoke interim compulsory treatment order

- (1) This section applies where a patient is subject to an interim compulsory treatment order.
- (2) If the Commission is satisfied—
 - (a) that not all of the conditions mentioned in paragraphs (a) to (d) of section 64(5) of this Act continue to apply in respect of the patient; or
 - (b) that it does not continue to be necessary for the patient to be subject to an interim compulsory treatment order, the Commission may revoke the interim compulsory treatment order.

74 Revocation under section 72 or 73: notification

- (1) Where a patient's responsible medical officer makes a determination under section 72 of this Act, the responsible medical officer shall, as soon as practicable after doing so—
 - (a) give notice of the determination; and
 - (b) send a statement of the reasons for it,
 to the Commission and to the persons mentioned in subsection (3) below.

Status: Point in time view as at 01/07/2003. This version of this Act contains provisions that are not valid for this point in time.

Changes to legislation: Mental Health (Care and Treatment) (Scotland) Act 2003 is up to date with all changes known to be in force on or before 23 January 2024. There are changes that may be brought into force at a future date. Changes that have been made appear in the content and are referenced with annotations. (See end of Document for details)

- (2) Where the Commission makes a determination under section 73 of this Act, it shall, as soon as practicable after doing so—
- (a) give notice of the determination; and
 - (b) send a statement of the reasons for it,
- to the patient’s responsible medical officer and to the persons mentioned in subsection (3) below.
- (3) The persons referred to in subsections (1) and (2) above are—
- (a) the patient;
 - (b) the patient’s named person;
 - (c) any guardian of the patient;
 - (d) any welfare attorney of the patient;
 - (e) the mental health officer; and
 - (f) the Tribunal.

75 Effect of subsequent compulsory treatment order on interim compulsory treatment order

If a compulsory treatment order is made in respect of a patient who is subject to an interim compulsory treatment order, the interim compulsory treatment order shall, on the making of the compulsory treatment order, be revoked.

CHAPTER 3

COMPULSORY TREATMENT ORDERS: CARE PLAN

76 Care plan: preparation, placing in medical records etc.

- (1) As soon as practicable after a patient’s responsible medical officer is appointed under section 230 of this Act, the responsible medical officer shall—
- (a) prepare a plan (any such plan being referred to in this Act as a “care plan”) relating to the patient; and
 - (b) ensure that the patient’s care plan is included in the patient’s medical records.
- (2) The care plan shall set out—
- (a) the medical treatment—
 - (i) which it is proposed to give; and
 - (ii) which is being given, to the patient while the patient is subject to the compulsory treatment order; and
 - (b) such other information relating to the care of the patient as may be prescribed by regulations.
- (3) Subject to subsection (4)(b) below, a patient’s responsible medical officer may from time to time amend the patient’s care plan.
- (4) Regulations may prescribe—
- (a) circumstances in which a patient’s responsible medical officer is required to amend the patient’s care plan;

Status: Point in time view as at 01/07/2003. This version of this Act contains provisions that are not valid for this point in time.

Changes to legislation: Mental Health (Care and Treatment) (Scotland) Act 2003 is up to date with all changes known to be in force on or before 23 January 2024. There are changes that may be brought into force at a future date. Changes that have been made appear in the content and are referenced with annotations. (See end of Document for details)

(b) information in a care plan which may not be amended.

(5) Where a patient’s responsible medical officer amends the patient’s care plan—

- (a) the responsible medical officer shall ensure that, as soon as practicable after it is amended, the amended care plan is included in the patient’s medical records; and
- (b) subsections (2) to (4) above and this subsection shall apply as if references to the care plan were references to the amended care plan.

CHAPTER 4

REVIEW OF ORDERS

VALID FROM 05/10/2005

Mandatory reviews by responsible medical officer

77 First mandatory review

- (1) This section applies where a compulsory treatment order is made in respect of a patient.
- (2) The patient’s responsible medical officer shall, during the appropriate period, carry out a review in respect of the order (such review being referred to in this Part of this Act as the “first review”) by complying with the requirements in subsection (3) below.
- (3) Those requirements are—
 - (a) to—
 - (i) carry out a medical examination of the patient; or
 - (ii) make arrangements for an approved medical practitioner to carry out such a medical examination;
 - (b) to consider—
 - (i) whether the conditions mentioned in paragraphs (a) to (d) of section 64(5) of this Act continue to apply in respect of the patient; and
 - (ii) whether it continues to be necessary for the patient to be subject to a compulsory treatment order; and
 - (c) to consult—
 - (i) the mental health officer;
 - (ii) such persons as are mentioned in subsection (4) below as the responsible medical officer considers appropriate; and
 - (iii) such other persons as the responsible medical officer considers appropriate.
- (4) The persons referred to in subsection (3)(c)(ii) above are—
 - (a) persons who appear to the responsible medical officer to provide medical treatment of the kind that is set out in the patient’s care plan;

Status: Point in time view as at 01/07/2003. This version of this Act contains provisions that are not valid for this point in time.

Changes to legislation: Mental Health (Care and Treatment) (Scotland) Act 2003 is up to date with all changes known to be in force on or before 23 January 2024. There are changes that may be brought into force at a future date. Changes that have been made appear in the content and are referenced with annotations. (See end of Document for details)

- (b) if any community care services or relevant services are set out in that plan, persons who appear to the responsible medical officer to provide services of that kind;
- (c) if any other treatment, care or service is set out in that plan, persons who appear to the responsible medical officer to provide treatment, care or a service of that kind.

(5) In subsection (2) above, “appropriate period” means the period of 2 months ending with the day on which the compulsory treatment order ceases to authorise the measures specified in it.

78 Further mandatory reviews

- (1) This section applies where a compulsory treatment order is extended—
 - (a) by a determination under section 86 of this Act; or
 - (b) by virtue of an order under section 103 of this Act.
- (2) The patient’s responsible medical officer shall, during the period mentioned in subsection (3) below, carry out a review in respect of the compulsory treatment order (such review being referred to in this Part of this Act as a “further review”) by complying with the requirements set out in section 77(3) of this Act.
- (3) The period referred to in subsection (2) above is the period of 2 months ending with the day on which the compulsory treatment order as extended by the determination, or by virtue of the order under section 103 of this Act, ceases to authorise the measures specified in it.

VALID FROM 05/10/2005

Revocation of order by responsible medical officer or Commission

79 Responsible medical officer’s duty to revoke order: mandatory reviews

- (1) This section applies where a patient’s responsible medical officer is carrying out—
 - (a) the first review of the compulsory treatment order to which the patient is subject; or
 - (b) a further review of that order.
- (2) If, having regard to any views expressed by persons consulted under section 77(3) (c) of this Act for the purpose of the review being carried out, the responsible medical officer is not satisfied—
 - (a) that the conditions mentioned in paragraphs (a) to (d) of section 64(5) of this Act continue to apply in respect of the patient; or
 - (b) that it continues to be necessary for the patient to be subject to a compulsory treatment order, the responsible medical officer shall make a determination revoking the compulsory treatment order.
- (3) A determination under this section shall be made as soon as practicable after the duty to make it arises.

Status: Point in time view as at 01/07/2003. This version of this Act contains provisions that are not valid for this point in time.

Changes to legislation: Mental Health (Care and Treatment) (Scotland) Act 2003 is up to date with all changes known to be in force on or before 23 January 2024. 80 Revocation of order: responsible medical officer's duty to keep under review

- (1) This section applies where a patient is subject to a compulsory treatment order.
- (2) Without prejudice to the duties imposed on the patient's responsible medical officer by sections 77(2), 78(2), 79(2) and 93(2) of this Act, the responsible medical officer shall from time to time consider—
 - (a) whether the conditions mentioned in paragraphs (a) to (d) of section 64(5) of this Act continue to apply in respect of the patient; and
 - (b) whether it continues to be necessary for the patient to be subject to a compulsory treatment order.
- (3) If, having considered the matters mentioned in paragraphs (a) and (b) of subsection (2) above, the responsible medical officer is not satisfied—
 - (a) that the conditions mentioned in paragraphs (a) to (d) of section 64(5) of this Act continue to apply in respect of the patient; or
 - (b) that it continues to be necessary for the patient to be subject to a compulsory treatment order, the responsible medical officer shall make a determination revoking the compulsory treatment order.
- (4) A determination under this section shall be made as soon as practicable after the duty to make it arises.

81 Commission's power to revoke order

- (1) This section applies where a patient is subject to a compulsory treatment order.
- (2) If the Commission is satisfied—
 - (a) that not all of the conditions mentioned in paragraphs (a) to (d) of section 64(5) of this Act continue to apply in respect of the patient; or
 - (b) that it does not continue to be necessary for the patient to be subject to a compulsory treatment order, it may make a determination revoking the compulsory treatment order.

82 Revocation of order: notification

- (1) Where a patient's responsible medical officer makes a determination under section 79 or 80 of this Act, that officer shall—
 - (a) give notice of the determination; and
 - (b) send a statement of the reasons for it,
 to the Commission and to the persons mentioned in subsection (3) below.
- (2) Where the Commission makes a determination under section 81 of this Act, it shall—
 - (a) give notice of the determination; and
 - (b) send a statement of the reasons for it,
 to the patient's responsible medical officer and to the persons mentioned in subsection (3) below.
- (3) The persons referred to in subsections (1) and (2) above are—

Status: Point in time view as at 01/07/2003. This version of this Act contains provisions that are not valid for this point in time.

Changes to legislation: Mental Health (Care and Treatment) (Scotland) Act 2003 is up to date with all changes known to be in force on or before 23 January 2024. There are changes that may be brought into force at a future date. Changes that have been made appear in the content and are referenced with annotations. (See end of Document for details)

- (a) the patient;
- (b) the patient's named person;
- (c) any guardian of the patient;
- (d) any welfare attorney of the patient;
- (e) the mental health officer; and
- (f) the Tribunal.

(4) Notice under subsection (1) or (2) above—

- (a) to the persons mentioned in paragraphs (a) to (d) of subsection (3) above shall be given as soon as practicable after the determination is made and, in any event, before the expiry of the period of 7 days beginning with the day on which the determination is made; and
- (b) to—
 - (i) the Commission;
 - (ii) the patient's responsible medical officer; and
 - (iii) the persons mentioned in paragraphs (e) and (f) of that subsection, shall be given before the expiry of the period of 7 days beginning with the day on which the determination is made.

VALID FROM 05/10/2005

Further steps to be taken where order not revoked

83 Mandatory reviews: further steps to be taken where order not revoked

- (1) This section applies where a patient's responsible medical officer is carrying out—
 - (a) the first review of the compulsory treatment order to which the patient is subject; or
 - (b) a further review of that order.
- (2) If, having regard to any views expressed by persons consulted under section 77(3)(c) of this Act for the purpose of the review being carried out, the patient's responsible medical officer is satisfied—
 - (a) that the conditions mentioned in paragraphs (a) to (d) of section 64(5) of this Act continue to apply in respect of the patient; and
 - (b) that it continues to be necessary for the patient to be subject to a compulsory treatment order, the responsible medical officer shall comply with the requirements in subsection (3) below.
- (3) Those requirements are—
 - (a) to consider whether it will continue to be necessary for the patient to be subject to a compulsory treatment order after the day on which the order to which the patient is subject will cease (unless extended) to authorise the measures specified in it;
 - (b) to assess the needs of the patient for medical treatment;
 - (c) to consider—

Status: Point in time view as at 01/07/2003. This version of this Act contains provisions that are not valid for this point in time.

Changes to legislation: Mental Health (Care and Treatment) (Scotland) Act 2003 is up to date with all changes known to be in force on or before 23 January 2024. There are changes that may be brought into force at a future date. Changes that have been made appear in the content and are referenced with annotations. (See end of Document for details)

- (i) whether the compulsory treatment order should be varied by modifying the measures, or any recorded matter, specified in it; and
- (ii) if the order should be varied, what modification is appropriate;
- (d) to consider any views expressed on the matters mentioned in paragraphs (a) to (c) above by persons consulted under section 77(3)(c) of this Act.

Extension of order by responsible medical officer

VALID FROM 05/10/2005

84 Responsible medical officer's duty where extension of order appears appropriate

- (1) This section applies where a patient's responsible medical officer is carrying out—
 - (a) the first review of the compulsory treatment order to which the patient is subject; or
 - (b) a further review of that order.
- (2) If, having regard to any views expressed by persons consulted under section 77(3)(c) of this Act for the purpose of the review being carried out, it appears to the responsible medical officer—
 - (a) that it will continue to be necessary for the patient to be subject to a compulsory treatment order after the day on which the order will cease (unless extended) to authorise the measures specified in it; and
 - (b) that the order should not be varied by modifying the measures, or any recorded matter, specified in it, the responsible medical officer shall give notice to the mental health officer that the responsible medical officer is proposing to make a determination under section 86 of this Act extending the order.

VALID FROM 05/10/2005

85 Mental health officer's duties: extension of order

- (1) The mental health officer shall, as soon as practicable after receiving notice under section 84(2) of this Act, comply with the requirements in subsection (2) below.
- (2) Those requirements are—
 - (a) subject to subsection (3) below, to interview the patient;
 - (b) to inform the patient—
 - (i) that the patient's responsible medical officer is proposing to make a determination under section 86 of this Act extending the compulsory treatment order to which the patient is subject for the period mentioned in section 86(2) of this Act;
 - (ii) of the patient's rights in relation to such a determination; and

Status: Point in time view as at 01/07/2003. This version of this Act contains provisions that are not valid for this point in time.

Changes to legislation: Mental Health (Care and Treatment) (Scotland) Act 2003 is up to date with all changes known to be in force on or before 23 January 2024. There are changes that may be brought into force at a future date. Changes that have been made appear in the content and are referenced with annotations. (See end of Document for details)

- (iii) of the availability of independent advocacy services under section 259 of this Act;
 - (c) to take appropriate steps to ensure that the patient has the opportunity of making use of those services; and
 - (d) to inform the patient's responsible medical officer—
 - (i) of whether the mental health officer agrees, or disagrees, that the determination that is proposed should be made;
 - (ii) if the mental health officer disagrees, of the reason why that is the case; and
 - (iii) of any other matters that the mental health officer considers relevant.
- (3) If it is impracticable for the mental health officer to comply with the requirement in subsection (2)(a) above, the mental health officer need not do so.

VALID FROM 05/10/2005

86 Responsible medical officer's duty to extend order

- (1) If, having regard to—
- (a) any views expressed by persons consulted under section 77(3)(c) of this Act for the purpose of the review being carried out; and
 - (b) any views expressed by the mental health officer under section 85(2)(d) of this Act for the purpose of that review,
- the responsible medical officer is satisfied as to the matters mentioned in section 84(2)(a) and (b) of this Act, the responsible medical officer shall make a determination extending the compulsory treatment order for the period mentioned in subsection (2) below.
- (2) The period referred to in subsection (1) above is—
- (a) where a determination is made in respect of the first review, the period of 6 months beginning with the day on which the compulsory treatment order will cease (unless extended) to authorise the measures specified in it;
 - (b) where a determination is made in respect of the first further review, the period of 12 months beginning with the expiry of the period mentioned in paragraph (a) above;
 - (c) where a determination is made in respect of a subsequent further review, the period of 12 months beginning with the expiry of the period of 12 months for which the order is extended as a result of the immediately preceding further review.

87 Determination extending order: notification etc.

- (1) Where a patient's responsible medical officer makes a determination under section 86 of this Act, that officer shall, as soon as practicable after the determination is made and, in any event, before the day on which the compulsory treatment order will cease, if it is not extended by the determination, to authorise the measures specified in it, comply with the requirements in subsection (2) below.

Status: Point in time view as at 01/07/2003. This version of this Act contains provisions that are not valid for this point in time.

Changes to legislation: Mental Health (Care and Treatment) (Scotland) Act 2003 is up to date with all changes known to be in force on or before 23 January 2024. There are changes that may be brought into force at a future date. Changes that have been made appear in the content and are referenced with annotations. (See end of Document for details)

- (2) Those requirements are—
- (a) to prepare a record stating—
 - (i) the determination;
 - (ii) the reasons for it;
 - (iii) whether the mental health officer agrees, or disagrees, with the determination or has failed to comply with the duty imposed by section 85(2)(d)(i) of this Act;
 - (iv) if the mental health officer disagrees with the determination, the reasons for the disagreement;
 - (v) (by reference to the appropriate paragraph (or paragraphs) of the definition of “mental disorder” in section 328(1) of this Act) the type (or types) of mental disorder that the patient has; and if there is a difference between that type (or types) and the type (or types) of mental disorder recorded in the compulsory treatment order in respect of which the determination is made, what that difference is; and
 - (vi) such other matters as may be prescribed by regulations;
 - (b) to submit the record to the Tribunal; and
 - (c) at the same time as the responsible medical officer submits the record to the Tribunal, to give notice of the determination and send a copy of the record—
 - (i) subject to subsection (3) below, to the patient;
 - (ii) to the patient’s named person;
 - (iii) to the mental health officer; and
 - (iv) to the Commission.
- (3) If the responsible medical officer considers that there would be a risk of significant harm to the patient, or to others, if a copy of the record were sent to the patient, that officer need not send a copy to the patient.
- (4) At the same time as the responsible medical officer submits the record to the Tribunal, that officer shall send to the Tribunal, and to the persons mentioned in subsection (2) (c)(ii) to (iv) above, a statement of the matters mentioned in subsection (5) below.
- (5) Those matters are—
- (a) whether the responsible medical officer is sending a copy of the record to the patient; and
 - (b) if the responsible medical officer is not sending a copy of the record to the patient, the reason for not doing so.

Extension and variation of order: application by responsible medical officer

VALID FROM 05/10/2005

88 Responsible medical officer’s duty where extension and variation of order appear appropriate

- (1) This section applies where a patient’s responsible medical officer is carrying out—
- (a) the first review of the compulsory treatment order to which the patient is subject; or

Status: Point in time view as at 01/07/2003. This version of this Act contains provisions that are not valid for this point in time.

Changes to legislation: Mental Health (Care and Treatment) (Scotland) Act 2003 is up to date with all changes known to be in force on or before 23 January 2024. There are changes that may be brought into force at a future date. Changes that have been made appear in the content and are referenced with annotations. (See end of Document for details)

(b) a further review of that order.

(2) If, having regard to any views expressed by persons consulted under section 77(3) (c) of this Act for the purpose of the review being carried out, it appears to the responsible medical officer—

- (a) that it will continue to be necessary for the patient to be subject to a compulsory treatment order after the day on which the order will cease (unless extended) to authorise the measures specified in it; but
- (b) that the order should be varied by modifying the measures, or any recorded matter, specified in it, the responsible medical officer shall comply with the requirement in subsection (3) below.

(3) That requirement is to give notice to the mental health officer—

- (a) that the responsible medical officer is proposing to make an application to the Tribunal under section 92 of this Act for an order under section 103 of this Act—
 - (i) extending the compulsory treatment order for the period mentioned in subsection (4) below; and
 - (ii) varying that order by modifying the measures, or a recorded matter, specified in it; and
- (b) of the modification of the measures, or any recorded matter, specified in that order that the responsible medical officer is proposing.

(4) The period referred to in subsection (3) above is—

- (a) where the application is made in respect of the first review, the period of 6 months beginning with the day on which the compulsory treatment order will (unless extended) cease to authorise the measures specified in it;
- (b) where the application is made in respect of the first further review, the period of 12 months beginning with the expiry of the period mentioned in paragraph (a) above;
- (c) where the application is made in respect of a subsequent further review, the period of 12 months beginning with the expiry of the period of 12 months for which the order is extended as a result of the immediately preceding further review.

VALID FROM 05/10/2005

89 Mental health officer's duties: extension and variation of order

(1) The mental health officer shall, as soon as practicable after receiving notice under section 88(3) of this Act, comply with the requirements in subsection (2) below.

(2) Those requirements are—

- (a) subject to subsection (3) below, to interview the patient;
- (b) to inform the patient of the matters mentioned in subsection (4) below;
- (c) to inform the patient of the availability of independent advocacy services under section 259 of this Act;
- (d) to take appropriate steps to ensure that the patient has the opportunity of making use of those services; and

Status: Point in time view as at 01/07/2003. This version of this Act contains provisions that are not valid for this point in time.

Changes to legislation: Mental Health (Care and Treatment) (Scotland) Act 2003 is up to date with all changes known to be in force on or before 23 January 2024. There are changes that may be brought into force at a future date. Changes that have been made appear in the content and are referenced with annotations. (See end of Document for details)

- (e) to inform the patient's responsible medical officer—
 - (i) of whether the mental health officer agrees, or disagrees, that the application that is proposed should be made;
 - (ii) if the mental health officer disagrees, of the reason why that is the case; and
 - (iii) of any other matters that the mental health officer considers relevant.
- (3) If it is impracticable for the mental health officer to comply with the requirement in subsection (2)(a) above, the mental health officer need not do so.
- (4) The matters referred to in subsection (2)(b) above are—
 - (a) that the patient's responsible medical officer is proposing to make an application to the Tribunal under section 92 of this Act for an order—
 - (i) extending the compulsory treatment order to which the patient is subject for the period mentioned in section 88(4) of this Act; and
 - (ii) varying the compulsory treatment order by modifying the measures or a recorded matter specified in it;
 - (b) the modification of the measures or any recorded matter specified in that order that the responsible medical officer is proposing; and
 - (c) the patient's rights in relation to such an application.

VALID FROM 05/10/2005

90 Responsible medical officer's duty to apply for extension and variation of order

- (1) If, having regard to—
 - (a) any views expressed by persons consulted under section 77(3)(c) of this Act for the purpose of the review being carried out; and
 - (b) any views expressed by the mental health officer under section 89(2)(e) of this Act for the purpose of that review,
 the responsible medical officer is satisfied as to the matters mentioned in section 88(2)(a) and (b) of this Act, the responsible medical officer shall comply with the requirement in subsection (2) below.
- (2) That requirement is to make an application to the Tribunal under section 92 of this Act for an order—
 - (a) extending the compulsory treatment order for the period mentioned in section 88(4) of this Act; and
 - (b) varying that order by modifying the measures, or a recorded matter, specified in it.
- (3) An application made under section 92 of this Act, by virtue of subsection (1) above, for an order mentioned in subsection (2) above shall be made as soon as practicable after the duty to make it arises.

105 Interim extension etc. of order: application under section 92

- (1) This section applies where an application is made under section 92 of this Act.
- (2) Subject to section 107 of this Act, on the application of any person having an interest in the proceedings, or ex proprio motu, the Tribunal may, if it considers—
 - (a) that it will be unable to determine the application before the compulsory treatment order to which the application relates ceases to authorise the measures specified in it; and
 - (b) that it is appropriate, pending its determining the application, to—
 - (i) extend the order; or
 - (ii) extend and vary the order by modifying the measures, or any recorded matter, specified in it, make an interim order extending, or extending and varying, the compulsory treatment order for such period not exceeding 28 days as may be specified in the order of the Tribunal.

VALID FROM 05/10/2005

106 Interim variation of order: application, reference or review under Chapter

- (1) This section applies where—
 - (a) an application is made under section 92, 95, 99 or 100 of this Act;
 - (b) a reference is made under section 96 or 98 of this Act; or
 - (c) the Tribunal is reviewing a determination under section 101 of this Act.
- (2) Subject to section 107 of this Act, on the application of any person having an interest in the proceedings, or ex proprio motu, the Tribunal may, if it considers that it is appropriate to do so pending its—
 - (a) determining the application or reference; or
 - (b) making its decision on the review;

make an interim order varying the compulsory treatment order by modifying the measures, or any recorded matter, specified in it, for such period not exceeding 28 days as may be specified in the order of the Tribunal.

VALID FROM 05/10/2005

107 Limit on Tribunal's power to make interim orders

The Tribunal may not make an interim order under section 105 or 106 of this Act if the effect of making the order would be that interim orders under either, or both, of those sections would be in force for a continuous period of more than 56 days.

Status: Point in time view as at 01/07/2003. This version of this Act contains provisions that are not valid for this point in time.

108 Tribunal's order varying compulsory treatment order

Where the Tribunal makes—

- (a) an order under section 102, 103, 104 or 106 of this Act varying a compulsory treatment order; or
- (b) an order under section 103 or 105 of this Act extending and varying such an order, the Tribunal shall specify in its order the modifications made by its order to the measures, and any recorded matter, specified in the compulsory treatment order.

109 Ancillary powers of Tribunal

(1) This section applies where—

- (a) an application is made to the Tribunal under section 92, 95, 99 or 100 of this Act;
- (b) the Tribunal is, under section 101 of this Act, reviewing a determination; or
- (c) a reference is made to the Tribunal under section 96 or 98 of this Act.

(2) Regulations may prescribe circumstances in which the Tribunal may require—

- (a) the patient's responsible medical officer; or
- (b) the mental health officer, to prepare and submit to the Tribunal reports on such matters as may be prescribed.

VALID FROM 05/10/2005

Effect of interim orders on calculation of time periods in Chapter

110 Effect of interim orders on calculation of time periods in Chapter

(1) Subject to subsection (2) below, in calculating, for the purpose of this Chapter, the day on which a compulsory treatment order—

- (a) ceases;
- (b) will cease; or
- (c) would have ceased, to authorise the measures specified in it, there shall be left out of account any period for which the order is extended (or extended and varied) by an interim order under section 105 of this Act.

(2) Subsection (1) above does not apply as respects calculating that day for the purpose of that section.

Status: Point in time view as at 01/07/2003. This version of this Act contains provisions that are not valid for this point in time.

CHAPTER 5

BREACH OF ORDERS

Failure to attend for medical treatment

112 Failure to attend for medical treatment

- (1) Subject to subsection (2) below, where—
 - (a) a patient is subject to—
 - (i) a compulsory treatment order; or
 - (ii) an interim compulsory treatment order,that imposes on the patient a requirement mentioned in section 66(1)(c) of this Act (“the attendance requirement”); and
 - (b) the patient fails to comply with the attendance requirement,the patient’s responsible medical officer may exercise the power conferred by subsection (3) below.
- (2) The responsible medical officer may exercise the power conferred by subsection (3) below only if—
 - (a) the responsible medical officer has consulted a mental health officer; and
 - (b) the mental health officer consents to the power being exercised.
- (3) The responsible medical officer may take, or may cause a person authorised for the purpose by the responsible medical officer to take, the patient into custody and convey the patient—
 - (a) to the place the patient is required to attend by the attendance requirement; or
 - (b) to any hospital.

Status: Point in time view as at 01/07/2003. This version of this Act contains provisions that are not valid for this point in time.

Changes to legislation: Mental Health (Care and Treatment) (Scotland) Act 2003 is up to date with all changes known to be in force on or before 23 January 2024. There are changes that may be brought into force at a future date. Changes that have been made appear in the content and are referenced with annotations. (See end of Document for details)

- (4) Subject to subsection (5) below, where by virtue of subsection (3) above the patient is conveyed to the place the patient is required to attend or a hospital—
- (a) if the order to which the patient is subject authorises the measure mentioned in section 66(1)(b) of this Act, the patient may be detained there for so long as is necessary for the purpose of giving to the patient any medical treatment that could have been given to the patient had the patient complied with the attendance requirement;
 - (b) if the order to which the patient is subject does not authorise that measure, the patient may be detained there for so long as is necessary to determine whether the patient is capable of consenting to medical treatment and, if so, whether the patient consents to receive any medical treatment.
- (5) The patient may not be detained by virtue of subsection (4) above for more than a period of 6 hours beginning with the arrival of the patient in the place or hospital.

Non-compliance generally with order

113 Non-compliance generally with order

- (1) Where—
- (a) a patient is subject to—
 - (i) a compulsory treatment order; or
 - (ii) an interim compulsory treatment order, that does not authorise the detention of the patient in hospital;
 - (b) the patient fails to comply with any measure authorised by the order; and
 - (c) subsection (2) or (3) below applies,
- the power conferred by subsection (4) below may be exercised.
- (2) This subsection applies if the patient’s responsible medical officer considers that—
- (a) reasonable steps have been taken to contact the patient following the patient’s failure to comply with the measure;
 - (b) if contact has been made with the patient, the patient has been afforded a reasonable opportunity to comply with the measure; and
 - (c) if the patient were to continue to fail to comply with the measure, it is reasonably likely that there would be a significant deterioration in the patient’s mental health.
- (3) This subsection applies if the patient’s responsible medical officer considers that—
- (a) if the patient were to continue to fail to comply with the measure, it is reasonably likely that there would be a significant deterioration in the patient’s mental health; and
 - (b) it is necessary as a matter of urgency that the power conferred by subsection (4) below be exercised.
- (4) The patient’s responsible medical officer may take, or may cause a person authorised for the purpose by the responsible medical officer to take, the patient into custody and convey the patient to a hospital.
- (5) Where the power conferred by subsection (4) above is exercised in relation to a patient, the patient may be detained in hospital for the period of 72 hours beginning with the arrival by virtue of that subsection of the patient in hospital.

Status: Point in time view as at 01/07/2003. This version of this Act contains provisions that are not valid for this point in time.
Changes to legislation: Mental Health (Care and Treatment) (Scotland) Act 2003 is up to date with all changes known to be in force on or before 23 January 2024. There are changes that may be brought into force at a future date. Changes that have been made appear in the content and are referenced with annotations. (See end of Document for details)

- (6) As soon as reasonably practicable after the patient has been conveyed to a hospital, the responsible medical officer shall—
- (a) carry out a medical examination of the patient; or
 - (b) make arrangements for an approved medical practitioner to carry out such an examination.

114 Compulsory treatment order: detention pending review or application for variation

- (1) Subsection (2) below applies where—
- (a) a patient who is subject to an order such as is mentioned in subsection (1) (a)(i) of section 113 of this Act is detained in hospital by virtue of subsection (5) of that section;
 - (b) the patient has been examined under subsection (6) of that section;
 - (c) the patient's responsible medical officer—
 - (i) is considering under subsection (2) of section 93 of this Act whether that order should be varied by modifying the measures specified in it; or
 - (ii) by virtue of subsection (5) of that section, is required to make an application to the Tribunal; and
 - (d) the patient's responsible medical officer considers that if the patient does not continue to be detained in hospital it is reasonably likely that there will be a significant deterioration in the patient's mental health.
- (2) Subject to subsections (3) and (4) below, the responsible medical officer may grant a certificate authorising the continued detention in hospital of the patient for the period of 28 days beginning with the granting of the certificate.
- (3) The power in subsection (2) above may be exercised only if—
- (a) the responsible medical officer has consulted the mental health officer; and
 - (b) the mental health officer consents to the power being exercised.
- (4) Before granting a certificate under subsection (2) above the responsible medical officer shall, if it is practicable to do so, consult the patient's named person.
- (5) A certificate under subsection (2) above—
- (a) shall state the responsible medical officer's reasons for believing that paragraph (d) of subsection (1) applies in the patient's case; and
 - (b) shall be signed by the responsible medical officer.

115 Interim compulsory treatment order: detention pending further procedure

- (1) Subsection (2) below applies where—
- (a) a patient who is subject to an order such as is mentioned in subsection (1) (a)(ii) of section 113 of this Act is detained in hospital by virtue of subsection (5) of that section;
 - (b) the patient has been examined under subsection (6) of that section;
 - (c) the patient's responsible medical officer considers that if the patient does not continue to be detained in hospital it is reasonably likely that there will be a significant deterioration in the patient's mental health; and

Status: Point in time view as at 01/07/2003. This version of this Act contains provisions that are not valid for this point in time.

Changes to legislation: Mental Health (Care and Treatment) (Scotland) Act 2003 is up to date with all changes known to be in force on or before 23 January 2024. There are changes that may be brought into force at a future date. Changes that have been made appear in the content and are referenced with annotations. (See end of Document for details)

- (d) on the expiry of the period of detention authorised by subsection (5) of that section the period for which the order authorises the measures specified in it will not have expired.
- (2) Subject to subsections (3) and (4) below, the responsible medical officer may grant a certificate authorising the continued detention in hospital of the patient for the period beginning with the granting of the certificate and ending with the expiry of the period for which the order authorises the measures specified in it.
- (3) The power in subsection (2) above may be exercised only if—
 - (a) the patient’s responsible medical officer has consulted a mental health officer; and
 - (b) the mental health officer consents to the power being exercised.
- (4) Before granting a certificate the responsible medical officer shall, if it is practicable to do so, consult the patient’s named person.
- (5) A certificate under subsection (2) above—
 - (a) shall state the responsible medical officer’s reasons for believing that subsection (1)(c) above applies in the patient’s case; and
 - (b) shall be signed by the responsible medical officer.

116 Certificate under section 114(2) or 115(2): notification

- (1) This section applies where a certificate is granted under section 114(2) or 115(2) of this Act in respect of a patient.
- (2) The managers of the hospital in which the patient is detained shall, as soon as practicable after the granting of the certificate, give notice of its granting to—
 - (a) the patient;
 - (b) the patient’s named person;
 - (c) any guardian of the patient; and
 - (d) any welfare attorney of the patient.
- (3) The managers of the hospital in which the patient is detained shall, before the expiry of the period of 7 days beginning with the granting of the certificate, give notice of its granting, and send a copy of it, to—
 - (a) the Tribunal; and
 - (b) the Commission.

Revocation of certificates

117 Certificate under section 114(2): responsible medical officer’s duty to revoke

- (1) Where—
 - (a) a patient’s responsible medical officer grants, by virtue of subsection (1)(c)(i) of section 114 of this Act, a certificate under subsection (2) of that section; and
 - (b) the responsible medical officer determines that the order should not be varied as mentioned in section 93(2) of this Act, the responsible medical officer shall revoke the certificate.

Status: Point in time view as at 01/07/2003. This version of this Act contains provisions that are not valid for this point in time.

Changes to legislation: Mental Health (Care and Treatment) (Scotland) Act 2003 is up to date with all changes known to be in force on or before 23 January 2024. (2) Where—

- (a) a patient's responsible medical officer grants, by virtue of subsection (1) (c)(ii) of section 114 of this Act, a certificate under subsection (2) of that section; and
- (b) the responsible medical officer is not satisfied that if the patient does not continue to be detained in hospital it is reasonably likely that there will be a significant deterioration in the patient's mental health,

the responsible medical officer shall revoke the certificate.

118 Certificate under section 115(2): responsible medical officer's duty to revoke

Where—

- (a) a patient's responsible medical officer grants a certificate under section 115(2) of this Act; and
- (b) the responsible medical officer is not satisfied that if the patient does not continue to be detained in hospital it is reasonably likely that there will be a significant deterioration in the patient's mental health,

the responsible medical officer shall revoke the certificate.

119 Revocation of certificate granted under section 114(2) or 115(2): notification

Where a patient's responsible medical officer revokes, under section 117 or 118 of this Act, a certificate, the responsible medical officer shall—

- (a) as soon as practicable after the revocation, give notice of the revocation to the persons mentioned in subsection (2) of section 116 of this Act; and
- (b) before the expiry of the period of 7 days beginning with the revocation, give notice of the revocation to the persons mentioned in subsection (3) of that section.

120 Certificates under sections 114(2) and 115(2): patient's right to apply to Tribunal

- (1) This section applies where a certificate is granted under section 114(2) or 115(2) of this Act in respect of a patient.
- (2) On the application of the patient or the patient's named person, the Tribunal shall, if not satisfied that if the patient does not continue to be detained in hospital it is reasonably likely that there will be a significant deterioration in the patient's mental health, revoke the certificate.

Effect of section 113(5) on order

121 Effect of section 113(5) on order

- (1) Subject to subsection (2) below, where a patient is detained in hospital under section 113(5) of this Act, the compulsory treatment order or, as the case may be, interim compulsory treatment order to which the patient is subject shall cease, during the period mentioned in that section, to authorise the measures specified in it.

Status: Point in time view as at 01/07/2003. This version of this Act contains provisions that are not valid for this point in time.

Changes to legislation: Mental Health (Care and Treatment) (Scotland) Act 2003 is up to date with all changes known to be in force on or before 23 January 2024. There are changes that may be brought into force at a future date. Changes that have been made appear in the content and are referenced with annotations. (See end of Document for details)

- (2) If the measure mentioned in section 66(1)(b) of this Act is specified in the order, the order shall continue to authorise that measure during the period referred to in subsection (1) above.

Effect of certificate under section 114(2) on order

122 Effect of certificate under section 114(2) on order

- (1) Subject to subsection (2) below, where a certificate is granted under section 114(2) of this Act in respect of a patient, the compulsory treatment order to which the patient is subject shall cease, during the period mentioned in that section, to authorise the measures specified in it.
- (2) If the measure mentioned in section 66(1)(b) of this Act is specified in the order, the order shall continue to authorise that measure during the period referred to in subsection (1) above.

Effect of certificate under section 115(2) on order

123 Effect of certificate under section 115(2) on order

- (1) Subject to subsection (2) below, where a certificate is granted under section 115(2) of this Act in respect of a patient, the interim compulsory treatment order to which the patient is subject shall cease, during the period mentioned in that section, to authorise the measures specified in it.
- (2) If the measure mentioned in section 66(1)(b) of this Act is specified in the order, the order shall continue to authorise that measure during the period referred to in subsection (1) above.

CHAPTER 6

TRANSFERS

124 Transfer to other hospital

- (1) This section applies where the detention of a patient in hospital is authorised by a compulsory treatment order.
- (2) The managers of the hospital in which the patient is detained may, where the condition mentioned in subsection (3) below is satisfied, transfer the patient to another hospital.
- (3) The condition is that the managers of the hospital to which it is proposed to transfer the patient consent to the transfer.

Status: Point in time view as at 01/07/2003. This version of this Act contains provisions that are not valid for this point in time.

Changes to legislation: Mental Health (Care and Treatment) (Scotland) Act 2003 is up to date with all changes known to be in force on or before 23 January 2024. There are changes that may be brought into force at a future date. Changes that have been made appear in the content and are referenced with annotations. (See end of Document for details)

- (4) Where the managers of a hospital propose to transfer the patient under subsection (2) above, they shall, subject to subsections (5) and (7) below, give the persons mentioned in subsection (8) below at least 7 days' notice of the transfer.
- (5) The managers of a hospital need not give notice under subsection (4) above where it is necessary that the patient be transferred urgently.
- (6) Where, by virtue of subsection (5) above, notice is not given under subsection (4) above, the managers of the hospital shall, subject to subsection (7) below, give the persons mentioned in subsection (8) below notice—
 - (a) where the proposed transfer has not taken place, of the proposed transfer; or
 - (b) where the transfer has taken place, of the transfer,as soon as practicable before, on or, as the case may be, after the transfer.
- (7) The managers of the hospital need not give notice to the patient under subsection (4) or, as the case may be, (6) above where the patient consents to the transfer.
- (8) The persons referred to in subsections (4) and (6) above are—
 - (a) the patient;
 - (b) the patient's named person; and
 - (c) the patient's primary carer.
- (9) Where—
 - (a) notice is given under subsection (4) or (6)(a) above of a proposed transfer under subsection (2) above; and
 - (b) the proposed transfer does not take place before the end of the period of 3 months beginning with the day on which notice is given,the managers of the hospital may transfer the patient as proposed only if subsection (10) below applies.
- (10) This subsection applies where—
 - (a) the condition mentioned in subsection (3) above continues to be satisfied; and
 - (b) the persons mentioned in subsection (8) above are given at least 7 days' notice of the proposed transfer.
- (11) Subsections (5) to (7) above shall apply to the giving of notice under subsection (10) (b) above as they apply to the giving of notice under subsection (4) above.
- (12) Where the patient is transferred under subsection (2) above, the managers of the hospital from which the patient is transferred shall, before the expiry of the period of 7 days beginning with the transfer, give notice to the Commission of the matters mentioned in subsection (13) below.
- (13) Those matters are—
 - (a) the date on which the patient was transferred;
 - (b) the hospital to which the patient was transferred;
 - (c) that—
 - (i) notice was given under subsection (4) above; or
 - (ii) if no such notice was given, the reasons why it was necessary that the patient be transferred urgently; and
 - (d) whether notice was given under subsection (6) or (10)(b) above.

Status: Point in time view as at 01/07/2003. This version of this Act contains provisions that are not valid for this point in time.

Changes to legislation: Mental Health (Care and Treatment) (Scotland) Act 2003 is up to date with all changes known to be in force on or before 23 January 2024. There are changes that may be brought into force at a future date. Changes that have been made appear in the content and are referenced with annotations. (See end of Document for details)

- (14) Where the patient is transferred under subsection (2) above, the compulsory treatment order shall, for the purposes of this Act (other than sections 125 and 126), be taken to specify the hospital to which the patient is transferred.

125 Transfer to hospital other than state hospital: appeal to Tribunal

- (1) This section applies where a patient—
- (a) receives notice under subsection (4), (6)(a) or (10)(b) of section 124 of this Act that it is proposed to transfer the patient; or
 - (b) is transferred under subsection (2) of that section, to any hospital other than a state hospital.
- (2) The patient, or the patient's named person, may, during the period mentioned in subsection (3) below, appeal to the Tribunal against the proposed transfer or, as the case may be, the transfer.
- (3) That period is—
- (a) in the case of the patient—
 - (i) where notice is given to the patient before the proposed transfer, the period beginning with the day on which notice is given and ending 28 days after the transfer;
 - (ii) where notice is given to the patient on or after the transfer, the period beginning with the day on which the patient is transferred and ending 28 days after the day on which notice is given; or
 - (iii) where notice is not given to the patient, the period of 28 days beginning with the day on which the patient is transferred;
 - (b) in the case of the patient's named person—
 - (i) where notice is given to the patient's named person before the proposed transfer, the period beginning with the day on which notice is given and ending 28 days after the transfer; or
 - (ii) where notice is given to the patient's named person on or after the transfer, the period of 28 days beginning with the day on which notice is given.
- (4) If, when an appeal under subsection (2) above against a proposed transfer is made to the Tribunal, the proposed transfer has not taken place—
- (a) the managers of the hospital shall not transfer the patient as proposed; but
 - (b) the Tribunal may, if satisfied that, pending the determination of the appeal, the patient should be transferred as proposed, make an order that the patient be so transferred.
- (5) On an appeal under subsection (2) above, the Tribunal may make an order that the proposed transfer not take place or, as the case may be, that the patient be returned to the hospital from which the patient was transferred.

126 Transfer to state hospital: appeal to Tribunal

- (1) This section applies where a patient—
- (a) receives notice under subsection (4), (6)(a) or (10)(b) of section 124 of this Act that it is proposed to transfer the patient; or
 - (b) is transferred under subsection (2) of that section,

Status: Point in time view as at 01/07/2003. This version of this Act contains provisions that are not valid for this point in time.

to a state hospital.

- (2) The patient, or the patient's named person, may, during the period mentioned in subsection (3) below, appeal to the Tribunal against the proposed transfer or, as the case may be, the transfer.
- (3) That period is—
 - (a) in the case of the patient—
 - (i) where notice is given to the patient before the proposed transfer, the period beginning with the day on which notice is given and ending 12 weeks after the transfer;
 - (ii) where notice is given to the patient on or after the transfer, the period beginning with the day on which the patient is transferred and ending 12 weeks after the day on which notice is given; or
 - (iii) where notice is not given to the patient, the period of 12 weeks beginning with the day on which the patient is transferred;
 - (b) in the case of the patient's named person—
 - (i) where notice is given to the patient's named person before the proposed transfer, the period beginning with the day on which notice is given and ending 12 weeks after the transfer; or
 - (ii) where notice is given to the patient's named person on or after the transfer, the period of 12 weeks beginning with the day on which notice is given.
- (4) If, when an appeal under subsection (2) above against a proposed transfer is made to the Tribunal, the proposed transfer has not taken place—
 - (a) the managers of the hospital shall not transfer the patient as proposed; but
 - (b) the Tribunal may, if satisfied that, pending determination of the appeal, the patient should be transferred as proposed, make an order that the patient be so transferred.
- (5) On an appeal under subsection (2) above, the Tribunal may, if not satisfied as to the matter mentioned in subsection (6) below, make an order that the proposed transfer not take place or, as the case may be, that the patient be returned to the hospital from which the patient was transferred.
- (6) That matter is—
 - (a) that the patient requires to be detained in hospital under conditions of special security; and
 - (b) that those conditions of special security can be provided only in a state hospital.

Status: Point in time view as at 01/07/2003. This version of this Act contains provisions that are not valid for this point in time.

CHAPTER 7

SUSPENSION

VALID FROM 30/06/2017

127 Suspension of measure authorising detention

(1) Where—

- (a) a patient is subject to a compulsory treatment order that authorises the measure mentioned in section 66(1)(a) of this Act; and
- (b) subject to subsection (2) below, the patient's responsible medical officer grants a certificate specifying a period not exceeding 6 months during which the order shall not authorise that measure, the order does not authorise that measure during that period.

(2) If the sum of—

- (a) the period that the responsible medical officer proposes to specify in a certificate under subsection (1) above; and
- (b) the period specified in any other certificate granted under that subsection in respect of the same patient, would exceed 9 months in the period of 12 months ending with the expiry of the period mentioned in paragraph (a) above, the responsible medical officer may not grant a certificate under that subsection.

(3) Where—

- (a) a patient is subject to^{F7}— (i) an interim compulsory treatment order that authorises the measure mentioned in section 66(1)(a) of this Act; or
(ii) ^{F8}an interim order made under section 105 or 106 of this Act, extending, extending and varying or varying, as the case may be, a compulsory treatment order that authorises that measure;]; and
- (b) the patient's responsible medical officer grants a certificate specifying a period during which the order shall not authorise that measure, the order does not authorise that measure during that period.

(4) A period specified in a certificate under subsection (1) or (3) above may be expressed as—

- (a) the duration of—
 - (i) an event; or
 - (ii) a series of events; or
- (b) the duration of—
 - (i) an event; or
 - (ii) a series of events,
 and any associated travel.

(5) If the responsible medical officer considers that it is necessary—

(a) in the interests of the patient; or
 (b) for the protection of any other person, a certificate under subsection (1) or (3) above may include conditions such as are mentioned in subsection (6) below; and any such conditions shall have effect.

(6) Those conditions are—

- (a) that, during the period specified in the certificate, the patient be kept in the charge of a person authorised in writing for the purpose by the patient's responsible medical officer; and
 (b) such other conditions as may be specified by the patient's responsible medical officer.

(7) Where a patient's responsible medical officer proposes to grant a certificate under subsection (1) above specifying—

- (a) a period of more than 28 days; or
 (b) a period which, when taken together with the period specified in any other certificate granted under that subsection, would exceed 28 days, the responsible medical officer shall, before granting such a certificate, give notice of the proposal to the persons mentioned in subsection (8) below.

(8) Those persons are—

- (a) the patient;
 (b) the patient's named person;
 (c) the patient's general medical practitioner; and
 (d) the mental health officer.

(9) Where a certificate is granted under subsection (1) above specifying a period of more than 28 days, the patient's responsible medical officer shall, before the expiry of the period of 14 days beginning with the day on which the certificate is granted, give notice of it to the Commission.

the order does not authorise the measures specified in the certificate during that period.

(2) If the sum of—

- (a) the period that the responsible medical officer proposes to specify in a certificate under subsection (1) above; and
- (b) the period specified in any other certificate granted under that subsection in respect of the same patient, would exceed 3 months, the responsible medical officer may not grant a certificate under that subsection.

(3) Where a patient's responsible medical officer proposes to grant a certificate under subsection (1) above, the responsible medical officer shall, before granting such a certificate, give notice to the persons mentioned in subsection (4) below of—

- (a) the measures and the period that the responsible medical officer proposes to specify in the certificate; and
- (b) the responsible medical officer's reasons for proposing to specify those measures.

(4) Those persons are—

- (a) the patient;
- (b) the patient's named person; and
- (c) the mental health officer.

(5) Where a certificate is granted under subsection (1) above, the patient's responsible medical officer shall, before the expiry of the period of 14 days beginning with the day on which the certificate is granted, give notice to the Commission of—

- (a) the granting of the certificate;
- (b) the measures and the period specified in the certificate; and
- (c) the responsible medical officer's reasons for specifying those measures.

129 Certificates under sections 127 and 128: revocation

(1) Subsection (2) below applies where a certificate is granted under section 127(1) or (3) or 128(1) of this Act.

(2) If the patient's responsible medical officer is satisfied that it is necessary—

- (a) in the interests of the patient; or
- (b) for the protection of any other person, that the certificate be revoked, the responsible medical officer may revoke the certificate.

(3) Where the responsible medical officer revokes under subsection (2) above a certificate granted under subsection (1) or (3) of section 127 of this Act, the responsible medical officer shall, as soon as practicable after the revocation, give notice of it to—

- (a) the patient;
- (b) the patient's named person;

(1) Where—

- (a) a person has been charged with an offence;
- (b) a relevant disposal has not been made in the proceedings in respect of the offence; and
- (c) it appears to the prosecutor that the person has a mental disorder, the prosecutor may apply to the court for an order under section 52D(2) of this Act (in this Act referred to as an “assessment order”) in respect of that person.

(2) Where the prosecutor applies for an assessment order under subsection (1) above, the prosecutor shall, as soon as reasonably practicable after making the application, inform the persons mentioned in subsection (3) below of the making of the application.

(3) Those persons are—

- (a) the person in respect of whom the application is made;
- (b) any solicitor acting for the person; and
- (c) in a case where the person is in custody, the Scottish Ministers.

(4) In this section—

“court” means any court, other than a district court, competent to deal with the case; and

“relevant disposal” means—

- (a) the liberation in due course of law of the person charged;
- (b) the desertion of summary proceedings pro loco et tempore or simpliciter;
- (c) the desertion of solemn proceedings simpliciter;
- (d) the acquittal of the person charged; or
- (e) the conviction of the person charged.

52C Scottish Ministers' power to apply for assessment order

(1) Where—

- (a) a person has been charged with an offence;
- (b) the person has not been sentenced;
- (c) the person is in custody; and
- (d) it appears to the Scottish Ministers that the person has a mental disorder, the Scottish Ministers may apply to the court for an assessment order in respect of that person.

Status: Point in time view as at 01/07/2003. This version of this Act contains provisions that are not valid for this point in time.

Changes to legislation: Mental Health (Care and Treatment) (Scotland) Act 2003 is up to date with all changes known to be in force on or before 23 January 2024. There are changes that may be brought into force at a future date. Changes that have been made appear in the content and are referenced with annotations. (See end of Document for details)

(2) Where the Scottish Ministers apply for an order under subsection (1) above, they shall, as soon as reasonably practicable after making the application, inform the persons mentioned in subsection (3) below of the making of the application.

(3) Those persons are—

- (a) the person in respect of whom the application is made;
- (b) any solicitor acting for the person; and
- (c) in a case where a relevant disposal has not been made in the proceedings in respect of the offence with which the person is charged, the prosecutor.

(4) In this section, “court” and “relevant disposal” have the same meanings as in section 52B of this Act.

52D Assessment order

(1) This section applies where an application for an assessment order is made under section 52B(1) or 52C(1) of this Act.

(2) If the court is satisfied—

- (a) on the written or oral evidence of a medical practitioner, as to the matters mentioned in subsection (3) below; and
- (b) that, having regard to the matters mentioned in subsection (4) below, it is appropriate, it may, subject to subsection (5) below, make an assessment order authorising the measures mentioned in subsection (6) below and specifying any matters to be included in the report under section 52G(1) of this Act.

(3) The matters referred to in subsection (2)(a) above are—

- (a) that there are reasonable grounds for believing—
 - (i) that the person in respect of whom the application is made has a mental disorder;
 - (ii) that it is necessary to detain the person in hospital to assess whether the conditions mentioned in subsection (7) below are met in respect of the person; and
 - (iii) that if the assessment order were not made there would be a significant risk to the health, safety or welfare of the person or a significant risk to the safety of any other person;
- (b) that the hospital proposed by the medical practitioner is suitable for the purpose of assessing whether the conditions mentioned in subsection (7) below are met in respect of the person;
- (c) that, if an assessment order were made, the person could be admitted to such hospital before the expiry of the period of 7 days beginning with the day on which the order is made; and
- (d) that it would not be reasonably practicable to carry out the assessment mentioned in paragraph (b) above unless an order were made.

Status: Point in time view as at 01/07/2003. This version of this Act contains provisions that are not valid for this point in time.

Changes to legislation: Mental Health (Care and Treatment) (Scotland) Act 2003 is up to date with all changes known to be in force on or before 23 January 2024. There are changes that may be brought into force at a future date. Changes that have been made appear in the content and are referenced with annotations. (See end of Document for details)

- (4) The matters referred to in subsection (2)(b) above are—
- (a) all the circumstances (including the nature of the offence with which the person in respect of whom the application is made is charged or, as the case may be, of which the person was convicted); and
 - (b) any alternative means of dealing with the person.
- (5) The court may make an assessment order only if the person in respect of whom the application is made has not been sentenced.
- (6) The measures are—
- (a) in the case of a person who, when the assessment order is made, has not been admitted to the specified hospital, the removal, before the expiry of the period of 7 days beginning with the day on which the order is made, of the person to the specified hospital by—
 - (i) a constable;
 - (ii) a person employed in, or contracted to provide services in or to, the specified hospital who is authorised by the managers of that hospital to remove persons to hospital for the purposes of this section; or
 - (iii) a specified person;
 - (b) the detention, for the period of 28 days beginning with the day on which the order is made, of the person in the specified hospital; and
 - (c) during the period of 28 days beginning with the day on which the order is made, the giving to the person, in accordance with Part 16 of the Mental Health (Care and Treatment) (Scotland) Act 2003 (asp 13), of medical treatment.
- (7) The conditions referred to in paragraphs (a)(ii) and (b) of subsection (3) above are—
- (a) that the person in respect of whom the application is made has a mental disorder;
 - (b) that medical treatment which would be likely to—
 - (i) prevent the mental disorder worsening; or
 - (ii) alleviate any of the symptoms, or effects, of the disorder,is available for the person; and
 - (c) that if the person were not provided with such medical treatment there would be a significant risk—
 - (i) to the health, safety or welfare of the person; or
 - (ii) to the safety of any other person.
- (8) The court may make an assessment order in the absence of the person in respect of whom the application is made only if—
- (a) the person is represented by counsel or a solicitor;
 - (b) that counsel or solicitor is given an opportunity of being heard; and
 - (c) the court is satisfied that it is—

- (i) impracticable; or
 - (ii) inappropriate,for the person to be brought before it.
- (9) An assessment order may include such directions as the court thinks fit for the removal of the person subject to the order to, and detention of the person in, a place of safety pending the person's admission to the specified hospital.
- (10) The court shall, as soon as reasonably practicable after making an assessment order, give notice of the making of the order to—
 - (a) the person subject to the order;
 - (b) any solicitor acting for the person;
 - (c) in a case where—
 - (i) the person has been charged with an offence; and
 - (ii) a relevant disposal has not been made in the proceedings in respect of the offence,the prosecutor;
 - (d) in a case where the person, immediately before the order was made, was in custody, the Scottish Ministers; and
 - (e) the Mental Welfare Commission.
- (11) In this section—
 - “court” has the same meaning as in section 52B of this Act;
 - “medical treatment” has the meaning given by section 329(1) of the Mental Health (Care and Treatment) (Scotland) Act 2003 (asp 13);
 - “relevant disposal” has the same meaning as in section 52B of this Act; and
 - “specified” means specified in the assessment order.

52E Assessment order made ex proprio motu: application of section 52D

- (1) Where—
 - (a) a person has been charged with an offence;
 - (b) the person has not been sentenced; and
 - (c) it appears to the court that the person has a mental disorder,the court may, subject to subsections (2) and (3) below, make an assessment order in respect of that person.
- (2) The court may make an assessment order under subsection (1) above only if it would make one under subsections (2) to (11) of section 52D of this Act; and those subsections shall apply for the purposes of subsection (1) above as they apply for the purposes of subsection (1) of that section, references in those subsections to the person in respect of whom the application is made being construed as references to the person in respect of whom it is proposed to make an assessment order.
- (3) An assessment order made under subsection (1) above shall, for the purposes of this Act and the Mental Health (Care and Treatment)

(Scotland) Act 2003 (asp 13), be treated as if made under section 52D(2) of this Act.

- (4) In this section, “court” has the same meaning as in section 52B of this Act.

52F Assessment order: supplementary

- (1) If, before the expiry of the period of 7 days beginning with the day on which an assessment order is made—
- (a) in the case of a person who, immediately before the order was made, was in custody, it appears to the Scottish Ministers; or
 - (b) in any other case, it appears to the court,
- that, by reason of emergency or other special circumstances, it is not reasonably practicable for the person to be admitted to the hospital specified in the order, the Scottish Ministers, or, as the case may be, the court, may direct that the person be admitted to the hospital specified in the direction.
- (2) Where the court makes a direction under subsection (1) above, it shall, as soon as reasonably practicable after making the direction, inform the person having custody of the person subject to the assessment order of the making of the direction.
- (3) Where the Scottish Ministers make a direction under subsection (1) above, they shall, as soon as reasonably practicable after making the direction, inform—
- (a) the court;
 - (b) the person having custody of the person subject to the assessment order; and
 - (c) in a case where—
 - (i) the person has been charged with an offence; and
 - (ii) a relevant disposal has not been made in the proceedings in respect of the offence,
 the prosecutor,
- of the making of the direction.
- (4) Where a direction is made under subsection (1) above, the assessment order shall have effect as if the hospital specified in the direction were the hospital specified in the order.
- (5) In this section—
- “court” means the court which made the assessment order; and
- “relevant disposal” has the same meaning as in section 52B of this Act.

52G Review of assessment order

- (1) The responsible medical officer shall, before the expiry of the period of 28 days beginning with the day on which the assessment order is made, submit a report in writing to the court—

Status: Point in time view as at 01/07/2003. This version of this Act contains provisions that are not valid for this point in time.

- (a) as to whether the conditions mentioned in section 52D(7) of this Act are met in respect of the person subject to the order; and
 - (b) as to any matters specified by the court under section 52D(2) of this Act.
- (2) The responsible medical officer shall, at the same time as such officer submits the report to the court, send a copy of such report—
- (a) to the person in respect of whom the report is made;
 - (b) to any solicitor acting for the person;
 - (c) in a case where—
 - (i) the person has been charged with an offence; and
 - (ii) a relevant disposal has not been made in the proceedings in respect of the offence,to the prosecutor; and
 - (d) to the Scottish Ministers.
- (3) Subject to subsection (4) below, the court shall, on receiving a report submitted under subsection (1) above, revoke the assessment order and—
- (a) subject to subsections (7) and (8) below, make a treatment order; or
 - (b) commit the person to prison or such other institution to which the person might have been committed had the assessment order not been made or otherwise deal with the person as the court considers appropriate.
- (4) If, on receiving a report submitted under subsection (1) above, the court is satisfied that further time is necessary to assess whether the conditions mentioned in section 52D(7) of this Act are met in respect of the person subject to the assessment order, it may, on one occasion only, make an order extending the assessment order for a period not exceeding 7 days beginning with the day on which the order otherwise would cease to authorise the detention of the person in hospital.
- (5) The court may, under subsection (4) above, extend an assessment order in the absence of the person subject to the order only if—
- (a) the person is represented by counsel or a solicitor;
 - (b) that counsel or solicitor is given an opportunity of being heard; and
 - (c) the court is satisfied that it is—
 - (i) impracticable; or
 - (ii) inappropriate,for the person to be brought before it.
- (6) Where the court makes an order under subsection (4) above, it shall, as soon as reasonably practicable after making the order, give notice of the making of the order to—
- (a) the persons mentioned in paragraphs (a) and (b) of subsection (2) above;
 - (b) in a case where—
 - (i) the person has been charged with an offence; and

- (ii) a relevant disposal has not been made in the proceedings in respect of the offence,
 - the prosecutor;
 - (c) the Scottish Ministers; and
 - (d) the person’s responsible medical officer.
- (7) The court shall make a treatment order under subsection (3)(a) above only if it would make one under subsections (2) to (10) of section 52M of this Act; and those subsections shall apply for the purposes of subsection (3)(a) above as they apply for the purposes of that section, references in those subsections to the person in respect of whom the application is made being construed as references to the person in respect of whom it is proposed to make a treatment order.
- (8) A treatment order made under subsection (3)(a) above shall, for the purposes of this Act and the Mental Health (Care and Treatment) (Scotland) Act 2003 (asp 13), be treated as if made under section 52M(2) of this Act.
- (9) The responsible medical officer shall, where that officer is satisfied that there has been a change of circumstances since the assessment order was made which justifies the variation of the order, submit a report to the court in writing.
- (10) Where a report is submitted under subsection (9) above, the court shall—
 - (a) if satisfied that the person need not be subject to an assessment order, revoke the order and take any action mentioned in subsection (3)(b) above; or
 - (b) if not so satisfied—
 - (i) confirm the order;
 - (ii) vary the order; or
 - (iii) revoke the order and take any action mentioned in subsection (3)(b) above.
- (11) Sections 52D, 52F, 52H and 52J of this Act and subsections (1) to (3) above apply to the variation of an order under subsection (10)(b)(ii) above as they apply to an assessment order.
- (12) In this section—
 - “court” means the court which made the assessment order;
 - “relevant disposal” has the same meaning as in section 52B of this Act; and
 - “responsible medical officer” means the person’s responsible medical officer appointed under section 230 of the Mental Health (Care and Treatment) (Scotland) Act 2003 (asp 13).

Interim compulsion orders

131 Mentally disordered offenders: interim compulsion orders

For section 53 of the 1995 Act (interim hospital orders), there shall be substituted—

“Interim compulsion orders

53 Interim compulsion order

- (1) This section applies where a person (referred to in this section and in sections 53A to 53D of this Act as an “offender”)—

Status: Point in time view as at 01/07/2003. This version of this Act contains provisions that are not valid for this point in time.

Changes to legislation: Mental Health (Care and Treatment) (Scotland) Act 2003 is up to date with all changes known to be in force on or before 23 January 2024. - (a) is convicted in the High Court or the sheriff court of an offence punishable by imprisonment (other than an offence the sentence for which is fixed by law); or
 - (b) is remitted to the High Court by the sheriff under any enactment for sentence for such an offence.
- (2) If the court is satisfied—
- (a) on the written or oral evidence of two medical practitioners—
 - (i) that the offender has a mental disorder; and
 - (ii) as to the matters mentioned in subsection (3) below; and
 - (b) that, having regard to the matters mentioned in subsection (4) below, it is appropriate,
- it may, subject to subsection (7) below, make an order (in this Act referred to as an “interim compulsion order”) authorising the measures mentioned in subsection (8) below and specifying any matters to be included in the report under section 53B(1) of this Act.
- (3) The matters referred to in subsection (2)(a)(ii) above are—
- (a) that there are reasonable grounds for believing—
 - (i) that the conditions mentioned in subsection (5) below are likely to be met in respect of the offender; and
 - (ii) that the offender’s mental disorder is such that it would be appropriate to make one of the disposals mentioned in subsection (6) below in relation to the offender;
 - (b) that the hospital to be specified in the order is suitable for the purpose of assessing whether the conditions mentioned in subsection (5) below are met in respect of the offender;
 - (c) that, were an interim compulsion order made, the offender could be admitted to such hospital before the expiry of the period of 7 days beginning with the day on which the order is made; and
 - (d) that it would not be reasonably practicable for the assessment mentioned in paragraph (b) above to be made unless an order were made.
- (4) The matters referred to in subsection (2)(b) above are—
- (a) all the circumstances (including the nature of the offence of which the offender is convicted); and
 - (b) any alternative means of dealing with the offender.
- (5) The conditions referred to in paragraphs (a)(i) and (b) of subsection (3) above are—
- (a) that medical treatment which would be likely to—
 - (i) prevent the mental disorder worsening; or
 - (ii) alleviate any of the symptoms, or effects, of the disorder, is available for the offender;
 - (b) that if the offender were not provided with such medical treatment there would be a significant risk—
 - (i) to the health, safety or welfare of the offender; or
 - (ii) to the safety of any other person; and

- (c) that the making of an interim compulsion order in respect of the offender is necessary.
- (6) The disposals are—
- (a) both a compulsion order that authorises detention in hospital by virtue of section 57A(8)(a) of this Act and a restriction order; or
 - (b) a hospital direction.
- (7) An interim compulsion order may authorise detention in a state hospital only if, on the written or oral evidence of the two medical practitioners mentioned in subsection (2)(a) above, it appears to the court—
- (a) that the offender requires to be detained in hospital under conditions of special security; and
 - (b) that such conditions of special security can be provided only in a state hospital.
- (8) The measures are—
- (a) in the case of an offender who, when the interim compulsion order is made, has not been admitted to the specified hospital, the removal, before the expiry of the period of 7 days beginning with the day on which the order is made, of the offender to the specified hospital by—
 - (i) a constable;
 - (ii) a person employed in, or contracted to provide services in or to, the specified hospital who is authorised by the managers of that hospital to remove persons to hospital for the purposes of this section; or
 - (iii) a specified person;
 - (b) the detention, for a period not exceeding 12 weeks beginning with the day on which the order is made, of the offender in the specified hospital; and
 - (c) during the period of 12 weeks beginning with the day on which the order is made, the giving to the offender, in accordance with Part 16 of the Mental Health (Care and Treatment) (Scotland) Act 2003 (asp 13), of medical treatment.
- (9) An interim compulsion order may include such directions as the court thinks fit for the removal of the offender to, and the detention of the offender in, a place of safety pending the offender's admission to the specified hospital.
- (10) The court may make an interim compulsion order in the absence of the offender only if—
- (a) the offender is represented by counsel or solicitor;
 - (b) that counsel or solicitor is given an opportunity of being heard; and
 - (c) the court is satisfied that it is—
 - (i) impracticable; or
 - (ii) inappropriate,for the offender to be brought before it.

- (11) The court shall, as soon as reasonably practicable after making an interim compulsion order, give notice of the making of the order—
- (a) the person subject to the order;
 - (b) any solicitor acting for that person;
 - (c) the Scottish Ministers; and
 - (d) the Mental Welfare Commission.
- (12) Where a court makes an interim compulsion order in relation to an offender, the court—
- (a) shall not, at the same time—
 - (i) make an order under section 200 of this Act;
 - (ii) impose a fine;
 - (iii) pass sentence of imprisonment;
 - (iv) make a compulsion order;
 - (v) make a guardianship order;
 - (vi) make a probation order; or
 - (vii) make a community service order, in relation of the offender;
 - (b) may make any other order which it has power to make apart from this section.
- (13) In this section—
- “medical treatment” has the same meaning as in section 52D of this Act;
- “sentence of imprisonment” includes any sentence or order for detention; and
- “specified” means specified in the interim compulsion order.

53A Interim compulsion order: supplementary

- (1) If, before the expiry of the period of 7 days beginning with the day on which the interim compulsion order is made, it appears to the court, or, as the case may be, the Scottish Ministers, that, by reason of emergency or other special circumstances, it is not reasonably practicable for the offender to be admitted to the hospital specified in the order, the court, or, as the case may be, the Scottish Ministers, may direct that the offender be admitted to the hospital specified in the direction.
- (2) Where—
- (a) the court makes a direction under subsection (1) above, it shall, as soon as reasonably practicable after making the direction, inform the person having custody of the offender; and
 - (b) the Scottish Ministers make such a direction, they shall, as soon as reasonably practicable after making the direction, inform—
 - (i) the court; and
 - (ii) the person having custody of the offender.
- (3) Where a direction is made under subsection (1) above, the interim compulsion order shall have effect as if the hospital specified in the direction were the hospital specified in the order.

- (4) In this section, “court” means the court which made the interim compulsion order.

53B Review and extension of interim compulsion order

- (1) The responsible medical officer shall, before the expiry of the period specified by the court under section 53(8)(b) of this Act, submit a report in writing to the court—
- (a) as to the matters mentioned in subsection (2) below; and
 - (b) as to any matters specified by the court under section 53(2) of this Act.
- (2) The matters are—
- (a) whether the conditions mentioned in section 53(5) of this Act are met in respect of the offender;
 - (b) the type (or types) of mental disorder that the offender has; and
 - (c) whether it is necessary to extend the interim compulsion order to allow further time for the assessment mentioned in section 53(3)(b) of this Act.
- (3) The responsible medical officer shall, at the same time as such officer submits the report to the court, send a copy of such report to—
- (a) the offender; and
 - (b) any solicitor acting for the offender.
- (4) The court may, on receiving the report submitted under subsection (1) above, if satisfied that the extension of the order is necessary, extend the order for such period (not exceeding 12 weeks beginning with the day on which the order would cease to have effect were such an extension not made) as the court may specify.
- (5) The court may extend an interim compulsion order under subsection (4) above for a period only if, by doing so, the total period for which the offender will be subject to the order does not exceed 12 months beginning with the day on which the order was first made.
- (6) The court may, under subsection (4) above, extend an interim compulsion order in the absence of the offender only if—
- (a) the offender is represented by counsel or a solicitor;
 - (b) that counsel or solicitor is given an opportunity of being heard; and
 - (c) the court is satisfied that it is—
 - (i) impracticable; or
 - (ii) inappropriate,for the offender to be brought before it.
- (7) Subsections (1) to (9) of this section shall apply for the purposes of an interim compulsion order extended under subsection (4) above as they apply for the purposes of an interim compulsion order, references in those subsections to the period specified by the court under section 53(8)(b) of this Act being construed as references to the period specified by the court under subsection (4) above.

Status: Point in time view as at 01/07/2003. This version of this Act contains provisions that are not valid for this point in time.

Changes to legislation: Mental Health (Care and Treatment) (Scotland) Act 2003 is up to date with all changes known to be in force on or before 23 January 2024. There are changes that may be brought into force at a future date. Changes that have been made appear in the content and are referenced with annotations. (See end of Document for details)

(8) Where a report is submitted under subsection (1) above, the court may, before the expiry of the period specified by the court under section 53(8)(b) of this Act—

- (a) revoke the interim compulsion order and make one of the disposals mentioned in section 53(6) of this Act; or
- (b) revoke the interim compulsion order and deal with the offender in any way (other than by making an interim compulsion order) in which the court could have dealt with the offender if no such order had been made.

(9) In this section—

“court” means the court which made the interim compulsion order; and “responsible medical officer” means the responsible medical officer appointed in respect of the offender under section 230 of the Mental Health (Care and Treatment) (Scotland) Act 2003 (asp 13).

53C Early termination of interim compulsion order

(1) An interim compulsion order shall cease to have effect if the court—

- (a) makes a compulsion order in relation to the offender;
- (b) makes a hospital direction in relation to the offender; or
- (c) deals with the offender in some other way, including the imposing of a sentence of imprisonment on the offender.

(2) In this section, “court” means the court which made the interim compulsion order.

53D Power of court on interim compulsion order ceasing to have effect

(1) Where, otherwise than by virtue of section 53B(8) or 53C of this Act, an interim compulsion order ceases to have effect the court may deal with the offender who was subject to the order in any way (other than the making of a new interim compulsion order) in which it could have dealt with the offender if no such order had been made.

(2) In this section, “court” means the court which made the interim compulsion order.”.

Remand for inquiry into mental condition

132 Remand for inquiry into mental condition: time-limit for appeals

In section 200 of the 1995 Act (remand for inquiry into physical or mental condition), in subsection (9)—

- (a) after the word “may”, where it first occurs, there shall be inserted “, before the expiry of the period of 24 hours beginning with his remand,”;
- (b) after the word “may”, where it second occurs, there shall be inserted “, at any time during the period when the order for his committal, or, as the case may be, renewal of such order, is in force,”; and

- (c) the words “within 24 hours of his remand or, as the case may be, committal,” shall cease to have effect.

CHAPTER 2

DISPOSALS ON CONVICTION AND ACQUITTAL

Compulsion orders

133 Mentally disordered offenders: compulsion orders

After section 57 of the 1995 Act there shall be inserted—

“Compulsion orders

57A Compulsion order

- (1) This section applies where a person (in this section and in sections 57C and 57D of this Act, referred to as the “offender”)—
- (a) is convicted in the High Court or the sheriff court of an offence punishable by imprisonment (other than an offence the sentence for which is fixed by law); or
 - (b) is remitted to the High Court by the sheriff under any enactment for sentence for such an offence.
- (2) If the court is satisfied—
- (a) on the written or oral evidence of two medical practitioners, that the conditions mentioned in subsection (3) below are met in respect of the offender; and
 - (b) that, having regard to the matters mentioned in subsection (4) below, it is appropriate,
- it may, subject to subsection (5) below, make an order (in this Act referred to as a “compulsion order”) authorising, subject to subsection (7) below, for the period of 6 months beginning with the day on which the order is made such of the measures mentioned in subsection (8) below as may be specified in the order.
- (3) The conditions referred to in subsection (2)(a) above are—
- (a) that the offender has a mental disorder;
 - (b) that medical treatment which would be likely to—
 - (i) prevent the mental disorder worsening; or
 - (ii) alleviate any of the symptoms, or effects, of the disorder, is available for the offender;
 - (c) that if the offender were not provided with such medical treatment there would be a significant risk—
 - (i) to the health, safety or welfare of the offender; or
 - (ii) to the safety of any other person; and

- (d) that the making of a compulsion order in respect of the offender is necessary.
- (4) The matters referred to in subsection (2)(b) above are—
- (a) the mental health officer’s report, prepared in accordance with section 57C of this Act, in respect of the offender;
 - (b) all the circumstances, including—
 - (i) the nature of the offence of which the offender was convicted; and
 - (ii) the antecedents of the offender; and
 - (c) any alternative means of dealing with the offender.
- (5) The court may, subject to subsection (6) below, make a compulsion order authorising the detention of the offender in a hospital by virtue of subsection (8)(a) below only if satisfied, on the written or oral evidence of the two medical practitioners mentioned in subsection (2)(a) above, that—
- (a) the medical treatment mentioned in subsection (3)(b) above can be provided only if the offender is detained in hospital;
 - (b) the offender could be admitted to the hospital to be specified in the order before the expiry of the period of 7 days beginning with the day on which the order is made; and
 - (c) the hospital to be so specified is suitable for the purpose of giving the medical treatment to the offender.
- (6) A compulsion order may authorise detention in a state hospital only if, on the written or oral evidence of the two medical practitioners mentioned in subsection (2)(a) above, it appears to the court—
- (a) that the offender requires to be detained in hospital under conditions of special security; and
 - (b) that such conditions of special security can be provided only in a state hospital.
- (7) Where the court—
- (a) makes a compulsion order in respect of an offender; and
 - (b) also makes a restriction order in respect of the offender,
- the compulsion order shall authorise the measures specified in it without limitation of time.
- (8) The measures mentioned in subsection (2) above are—
- (a) the detention of the offender in the specified hospital;
 - (b) the giving to the offender, in accordance with Part 16 of the Mental Health (Care and Treatment) (Scotland) Act 2003 (asp 13), of medical treatment;
 - (c) the imposition of a requirement on the offender to attend—
 - (i) on specified or directed dates; or
 - (ii) at specified or directed intervals,
 specified or directed places with a view to receiving medical treatment;
 - (d) the imposition of a requirement on the offender to attend—

57D Compulsion order: supplementary

- (1) If, before the expiry of the period of 7 days beginning with the day on which a compulsion order authorising detention of the offender in a hospital is made, it appears to the court, or, as the case may be, the Scottish Ministers, that, by reason of emergency or other special circumstances, it is not reasonably practicable for the offender to be admitted to the hospital specified in the order, the court, or, as the case may be, the Scottish Ministers, may direct that the offender be admitted to the hospital specified in the direction.
- (2) Where—
 - (a) the court makes a direction under subsection (1) above, it shall inform the person having custody of the offender; and
 - (b) the Scottish Ministers make such a direction, they shall inform—
 - (i) the court; and
 - (ii) the person having custody of the offender.
- (3) Where a direction is made under subsection (1) above, the compulsion order shall have effect as if the hospital specified in the direction were the hospital specified in the order.
- (4) In this section, “court” means the court which made the compulsion order.”.

Urgent detention of acquitted persons

134 Power of court to detain acquitted persons

After section 60B of the 1995 Act, there shall be inserted—

“60C Acquitted persons: detention for medical examination

- (1) Subject to subsection (7) below, this section applies where a person charged with an offence is acquitted.
- (2) If the court by or before which the person is acquitted is satisfied—
 - (a) on the written or oral evidence of two medical practitioners that the conditions mentioned in subsection (3) below are met in respect of the person; and
 - (b) that it is not practicable to secure the immediate examination of the person by a medical practitioner, the court may, immediately after the person is acquitted, make an order authorising the measures mentioned in subsection (4) below for the purpose of enabling arrangements to be made for a medical practitioner to carry out a medical examination of the person.
- (3) The conditions referred to in subsection (2)(a) above are—
 - (a) that the person has a mental disorder;
 - (b) that medical treatment which would be likely to—
 - (i) prevent the mental disorder worsening; or
 - (ii) alleviate any of the symptoms, or effects, of the disorder,

- is available for the person; and
- (c) that if the person were not provided with such medical treatment there would be a significant risk—
 - (i) to the health, safety or welfare of the person; or
 - (ii) to the safety of any other person.
- (4) The measures referred to in subsection (2) above are—
- (a) the removal of the person to a place of safety by—
 - (i) a constable; or
 - (ii) a person specified by the court; and
 - (b) the detention, subject to subsection (6) below, of the person in that place of safety for a period of 6 hours beginning with the time at which the order under subsection (2) above is made.
- (5) If the person absconds—
- (a) while being removed to a place of safety under subsection (4) above; or
 - (b) from the place of safety,
- a constable or the person specified by the court under paragraph (a) of that subsection may, at any time during the period mentioned in paragraph (b) of that subsection, take the person into custody and remove the person to a place of safety.
- (6) An order under this section ceases to authorise detention of a person if, following the medical examination of the person, a medical practitioner grants—
- (a) an emergency detention certificate under section 36 of the Mental Health (Care and Treatment) (Scotland) Act 2003 (asp 13); or
 - (b) a short-term detention certificate under section 44 of that Act.
- (7) This section does not apply—
- (a) in a case where a declaration is made by virtue of section 54(6) of this Act that the person is acquitted on account of the person's insanity at the time of doing the act or making the omission constituting the offence with which the person was charged; or
 - (b) in a case where the court states under section 55(4) of this Act that the person is so acquitted on the ground of such insanity.
- (8) In this section, “medical treatment” has the same meaning as in section 52D of this Act.

60D Notification of detention under section 60C

- (1) This section applies where a person has been removed to a place of safety under section 60C of this Act.
- (2) The court shall, before the expiry of the period of 14 days beginning with the day on which the order under section 60C(2) of this Act is made, ensure that the Mental Welfare Commission is given notice of the matters mentioned in subsection (3) below.

CHAPTER 3

MENTALLY DISORDERED PRISONERS

136 Transfer of prisoners for treatment for mental disorder

- (1) This section applies where a person (in this section referred to as the “prisoner”) is serving a sentence of imprisonment.
- (2) If the Scottish Ministers are satisfied, on the written reports of an approved medical practitioner and a medical practitioner as to the matters mentioned in subsection (3) below, they may, subject to subsection (5) below, make a direction (referred to in this Act as a “transfer for treatment direction”) authorising the measures mentioned in subsection (6) below.
- (3) The matters referred to in subsection (2) above are—
 - (a) that the conditions mentioned in subsection (4) below are met in respect of the prisoner;
 - (b) that the prisoner could be admitted to the hospital to be specified in the direction before the expiry of the period of 7 days beginning with the day on which the direction is made; and
 - (c) that the hospital to be so specified is suitable for the purpose of giving medical treatment to the prisoner.
- (4) The conditions referred to in subsection (3)(a) above are—
 - (a) that the prisoner has a mental disorder;
 - (b) that medical treatment which would be likely to—
 - (i) prevent the mental disorder worsening; or
 - (ii) alleviate any of the symptoms, or effects, of the disorder,is available for the prisoner;
 - (c) that if the prisoner were not provided with such medical treatment there would be a significant risk—
 - (i) to the health, safety or welfare of the prisoner; or
 - (ii) to the safety of any other person; and
 - (d) that the making of a transfer for treatment direction in respect of the prisoner is necessary.
- (5) A transfer for treatment direction may authorise detention in a state hospital only if, on the written reports of the approved medical practitioner and the medical practitioner mentioned in subsection (2) above, it appears to the Scottish Ministers—
 - (a) that the prisoner requires to be detained in hospital under conditions of special security; and
 - (b) that such conditions of special security can be provided only in a state hospital.
- (6) The measures are—

- (a) the removal, before the expiry of the period of 7 days beginning with the day on which the direction is made, of the prisoner to the specified hospital by—
- (i) a constable;
 - (ii) a person employed in, or contracted to provide services in or to, the specified hospital who is authorised by the managers of that hospital to remove persons to hospital for the purposes of this section; or
 - (iii) a specified person;
- (b) the detention of the prisoner in the specified hospital; and
- (c) the giving to the prisoner, in accordance with Part 16 of this Act, of medical treatment.
- (7) The Scottish Ministers shall be satisfied as to the condition mentioned in subsection (4)(a) above only if the descriptions of the prisoner’s mental disorder by each of the medical practitioners mentioned in subsection (2) above specifies, by reference to the appropriate paragraph (or paragraphs) of the definition of “mental disorder” in section 328(1) of this Act, at least one type of mental disorder that the prisoner has that is also specified by the other.
- (8) A transfer for treatment direction—
- (a) shall specify, by reference to the appropriate paragraph (or paragraphs) of the definition of “mental disorder” in section 328(1) of this Act, the type (or types) of mental disorder that each of the medical practitioners mentioned in subsection (2) above specifies that the prisoner has that is also specified by the other; and
 - (b) may include such directions as the Scottish Ministers think fit for the removal of the prisoner to, and the detention of the prisoner in, a place of safety pending the prisoner’s admission to the specified hospital.
- (9) In subsection (1) above, the reference to a prisoner serving a sentence of imprisonment includes a reference—
- (a) to a prisoner detained in pursuance of any sentence or order for detention made by a court (other than an order under section 52D(2), 52M(2), 53(2), 54, 57(2), 57A(2), 118(5) or 190 of the 1995 Act); and
 - (b) to a prisoner committed by a court to prison in default of payment of any fine to be paid on the prisoner’s conviction.
- (10) In this section—
- “place of safety” has the same meaning as in section 300 of this Act; and
- “specified” means specified in the transfer for treatment direction.

PART 9

CHAPTER 1

DUTIES FOLLOWING MAKING OF ORDER

137 Part 9 care plan

- (1) This section applies where a compulsion order authorising the measures specified in it for the period mentioned in section 57A(2) of the 1995 Act (any such compulsion order being referred to in this Part of this Act as a “relevant compulsion order”) is made in respect of a patient.
- (2) As soon as practicable after a patient’s responsible medical officer is appointed under section 230 of this Act the responsible medical officer shall—
 - (a) prepare a plan (any such plan being referred to in this Part of this Act as a “Part 9 care plan”) relating to the patient; and
 - (b) ensure that the patient’s Part 9 care plan is included in the patient’s medical records.
- (3) The Part 9 care plan shall record—
 - (a) the medical treatment—
 - (i) which it is proposed to give; and
 - (ii) which is being given,to the patient while the patient is subject to the compulsion order; and
 - (b) such other information relating to the care of the patient as may be prescribed by regulations.
- (4) Subject to subsection (5)(b) below, a patient’s responsible medical officer may from time to time amend the patient’s Part 9 care plan.
- (5) Regulations may prescribe—
 - (a) circumstances in which a patient’s responsible medical officer is required to amend the patient’s Part 9 care plan;
 - (b) information in a Part 9 care plan which may not be amended.
- (6) Where a patient’s responsible medical officer amends the patient’s Part 9 care plan—
 - (a) the responsible medical officer shall secure that, as soon as practicable after it is amended, the amended Part 9 care plan is included in the patient’s medical records; and
 - (b) subsections (3) to (5) above and this subsection shall apply as if references to the Part 9 care plan were references to the amended Part 9 care plan.

138 Mental health officer’s duty to identify named person

The mental health officer shall, as soon as practicable after a relevant compulsion order is made in respect of the patient, take such steps as are reasonably practicable to ascertain the name and address of the patient’s named person.

CHAPTER 2

REVIEW OF COMPULSION ORDERS

VALID FROM 05/10/2005

Mandatory reviews by responsible medical officer

139 First review of compulsion order

- (1) This section applies where a relevant compulsion order is made in respect of a patient.
- (2) The patient’s responsible medical officer shall, during the appropriate period, carry out a review in respect of the compulsion order (such review being referred to in this Part of this Act as the “first review”) by complying with the requirements in subsection (3) below.
- (3) Those requirements are—
 - (a) to—
 - (i) carry out a medical examination of the patient; or
 - (ii) make arrangements for an approved medical practitioner to carry out such a medical examination;
 - (b) to consider—
 - (i) whether the conditions mentioned in subsection (4) below continue to apply in respect of the patient; and
 - (ii) whether it continues to be necessary for the patient to be subject to the compulsion order; and
 - (c) to consult—
 - (i) the mental health officer;
 - (ii) such persons as are mentioned in subsection (5) below as the responsible medical officer considers appropriate; and
 - (iii) such other persons as the responsible medical officer considers appropriate.
- (4) Those conditions are—
 - (a) that the patient has a mental disorder;
 - (b) that medical treatment which would be likely to—

- (i) prevent the mental disorder worsening; or
 - (ii) alleviate any of the symptoms, or effects, of the disorder,
- is available for the patient; and
- (c) that if the patient were not provided with such medical treatment there would be a significant risk—
 - (i) to the health, safety or welfare of the patient; or
 - (ii) to the safety of any other person.
- (5) The persons referred to in subsection (3)(c)(ii) above are—
- (a) persons who appear to the responsible medical officer to provide medical treatment of the kind that is recorded in the Part 9 care plan;
 - (b) if any community care services or relevant services are set out in that plan, persons who appear to the responsible medical officer to provide services of that kind;
 - (c) if any other treatment, care or service is set out in that plan, persons who appear to the responsible medical officer to provide treatment, care or a service of that kind.
- (6) In subsection (2) above, “appropriate period” means the period of 2 months ending with the day on which the relevant compulsion order ceases to authorise the measures specified in it.

140 Further reviews of compulsion order

- (1) This section applies where a relevant compulsion order is extended by virtue of an order under section 167 of this Act.
- (2) The patient’s responsible medical officer shall, during the period mentioned in subsection (3) below, carry out a review in respect of the compulsion order (such review being referred to in this Part of this Act as a “further review”) by complying with the requirements in section 139(3) of this Act.
- (3) The period referred to in subsection (2) above is the period of 2 months ending with the day on which the compulsion order, as extended by virtue of the order, ceases to authorise the measures specified in it.

VALID FROM 05/10/2005

Revocation of order by responsible medical officer or Commission

141 Responsible medical officer’s duty to revoke compulsion order: mandatory reviews

- (1) This section applies where a patient’s responsible medical officer is carrying out—
 - (a) the first review of the relevant compulsion order to which the patient is subject; or
 - (b) a further review of that order.

Status: Point in time view as at 01/07/2003. This version of this Act contains provisions that are not valid for this point in time.

Changes to legislation: Mental Health (Care and Treatment) (Scotland) Act 2003 is up to date with all changes known to be in force on or before 23 January 2024. There are changes that may be brought into force at a future date. Changes that have been made appear in the content and are referenced with annotations. (See end of Document for details)

- (2) If, having regard to any views expressed by persons consulted under section 139(3) (c) of this Act for the purpose of the review being carried out, the responsible medical officer is not satisfied—
- (a) that the conditions mentioned in section 139(4) of this Act continue to apply in respect of the patient; or
 - (b) that it continues to be necessary for the patient to be subject to the compulsion order,
- the responsible medical officer shall make a determination revoking the compulsion order.
- (3) A determination under this section shall be made as soon as practicable after the duty to make it arises.

142 Revocation of compulsion order: responsible medical officer's duty to keep under review

- (1) This section applies where a patient is subject to a relevant compulsion order.
- (2) Without prejudice to the duties imposed on the patient's responsible medical officer by sections 139(2), 140(2), 141(2) and 159(2) of this Act, the responsible medical officer shall from time to time consider—
- (a) whether the conditions mentioned in section 139(4) of this Act continue to apply in respect of the patient; and
 - (b) whether it continues to be necessary for the patient to be subject to a compulsion order.
- (3) If, having considered the matters mentioned in paragraphs (a) and (b) of subsection (2) above, the responsible medical officer is not satisfied—
- (a) that the conditions mentioned in section 139(4) of this Act continue to apply in respect of the patient; or
 - (b) that it continues to be necessary for the patient to be subject to a compulsion order,
- the responsible medical officer shall make a determination revoking the compulsion order.

143 Commission's power to revoke compulsion order

- (1) This section applies where a patient is subject to a relevant compulsion order.
- (2) If the Commission is satisfied—
- (a) that not all of the conditions mentioned in section 139(4) of this Act continue to apply in respect of the patient; or
 - (b) that it does not continue to be necessary for the patient to be subject to a compulsion order,
- it may make a determination revoking the compulsion order.

144 Revocation of compulsion order: notification

- (1) Where a patient's responsible medical officer makes a determination under section 141 or 142 of this Act, the responsible medical officer shall—
- (a) give notice of the determination; and

Status: Point in time view as at 01/07/2003. This version of this Act contains provisions that are not valid for this point in time.

Further steps to be taken where order not revoked

145 Mandatory reviews: further steps to be taken where compulsion order not revoked

- (1) This section applies where a patient’s responsible medical officer is carrying out—
- (a) the first review of the relevant compulsion order to which the patient is subject; or
- (b) a further review of that order.
- (2) If, having regard to any views expressed by persons consulted under section 139(3) (c) of this Act for the purpose of the review being carried out, the patient’s responsible medical officer is satisfied—
- (a) that the conditions mentioned in section 139(4) of this Act continue to apply in respect of the patient; and

Status: Point in time view as at 01/07/2003. This version of this Act contains provisions that are not valid for this point in time.

Changes to legislation: Mental Health (Care and Treatment) (Scotland) Act 2003 is up to date with all changes known to be in force on or before 23 January 2024. There are changes that may be brought into force at a future date. Changes that have been made appear in the content and are referenced with annotations. (See end of Document for details)

(b) that it continues to be necessary for the patient to be subject to a compulsion order, the responsible medical officer shall comply with the requirements in subsection (3) below.

(3) Those requirements are—

- (a) to consider whether it will continue to be necessary for the patient to be subject to a compulsion order after the day on which the order to which the patient is subject will cease (unless extended) to authorise the measures specified in it;
- (b) to assess the needs of the patient for medical treatment;
- (c) to consider—
 - (i) whether the compulsion order should be varied by modifying the measures specified in it;
 - (ii) if the order should be varied, what modification is appropriate; and
- (d) to consider any views expressed on the matters mentioned in paragraphs (a) to (c) above by persons consulted under section 139(3)(c) of this Act.

Extension of order following first review

VALID FROM 05/10/2005

146 First review: responsible medical officer's duty where extension proposed

- (1) This section applies where a patient's responsible medical officer is carrying out the first review of the relevant compulsion order to which the patient is subject.
- (2) If, having regard to any views expressed by persons consulted under section 139(3) (c) of this Act, it appears to the responsible medical officer—
 - (a) that it will continue to be necessary for the patient to be subject to a compulsion order after the day on which the order will cease (unless extended) to authorise the measures specified in it; and
 - (b) that the compulsion order should not be varied by modifying the measures specified in it,

the responsible medical officer shall give notice to the mental health officer that the responsible medical officer is proposing to make an application under section 149 of this Act for an order under section 167 extending the compulsion order for the period of 6 months beginning with the day on which the compulsion order will cease (unless extended) to authorise the measures specified in it.

VALID FROM 05/10/2005

- (a) subject to subsection (3) below, to interview the patient;
- (b) to inform the patient—
 - (i) that the patient’s responsible medical officer is proposing to make an application under section 149 of this Act for an order under section 167 of this Act;
 - (ii) of the patient’s rights in relation to such an application; and
 - (iii) of the availability of independent advocacy services under section 259 of this Act;
- (c) to take appropriate steps to ensure that the patient has the opportunity of making use of those services; and
- (d) to inform the patient’s responsible medical officer—
 - (i) as to whether the mental health officer agrees, or disagrees, that the proposed application should be made;
 - (ii) if the mental health officer disagrees, of the reason why that is the case; and
 - (iii) of any other matters that the mental health officer considers relevant.

(3) If it is impracticable for the mental health officer to comply with the requirement in subsection (2)(a) above, the mental health officer need not do so.

VALID FROM 05/10/2005

148 First review: responsible medical officer’s duty to apply for extension of compulsion order

- (1) This section applies where a patient’s responsible medical officer is carrying out the first review of the relevant compulsion order to which the patient is subject.
- (2) If, having regard to—
 - (a) any views expressed by persons consulted under section 139(3)(c) of this Act; and
 - (b) any views expressed by the mental health officer under section 147(2)(d) of this Act, the responsible medical officer is satisfied as to the matters mentioned in section 146(2)(a) and (b) of this Act, the responsible medical officer shall comply with the requirement mentioned in subsection (3) below.
- (3) The requirement referred to in subsection (2) above is to make an application to the Tribunal under section 149 of this Act for an order extending the compulsion order for the period of 6 months beginning with the day on which the order to which the patient is subject will cease (unless extended) to authorise the measures specified in it.

149 Application to Tribunal for extension of order following first review

An application under this section to the Tribunal by a patient’s responsible medical officer—

- (a) shall state—

Status: Point in time view as at 01/07/2003. This version of this Act contains provisions that are not valid for this point in time.

- (i) the name and address of the patient;
 - (ii) the name and address of the patient's named person; and
 - (iii) whether the mental health officer agrees, or disagrees, that the application should be made, or has failed to comply with the duty imposed by section 147(2)(d)(i) of this Act; and
- (b) shall be accompanied by such documents as may be prescribed by regulations.

Extension of order following further review

VALID FROM 05/10/2005

150 Further review: responsible medical officer's duty where extension proposed

- (1) This section applies where a patient's responsible medical officer is carrying out a further review of the relevant compulsion order to which the patient is subject.
- (2) If, having regard to any views expressed by persons consulted under section 139(3) (c) of this Act for the purpose of the review being carried out, it appears to the responsible medical officer—
 - (a) that it will continue to be necessary for the patient to be subject to a compulsion order after the day on which the order will cease (unless extended) to authorise the measures specified in it; and
 - (b) that the compulsion order should not be varied by modifying the measures specified in it,

the responsible medical officer shall give notice to the mental health officer that the responsible medical officer is proposing to make a determination under section 152 of this Act extending the order.

VALID FROM 05/10/2005

151 Proposed extension of order on further review: mental health officer's duties

- (1) The mental health officer shall, as soon as practicable after receiving notice under section 150(2) of this Act, comply with the requirements in subsection (2) below.
- (2) Those requirements are—
 - (a) subject to subsection (3) below, to interview the patient;
 - (b) to inform the patient—
 - (i) that the patient's responsible medical officer is proposing to make a determination under section 152 of this Act extending the compulsion order to which the patient is subject for the period mentioned in section 152(3) of this Act that applies in the patient's case;
 - (ii) of the patient's rights in relation to such a determination; and

Status: Point in time view as at 01/07/2003. This version of this Act contains provisions that are not valid for this point in time.

Changes to legislation: Mental Health (Care and Treatment) (Scotland) Act 2003 is up to date with all changes known to be in force on or before 23 January 2024. - (iii) of the availability of independent advocacy services under section 259 of this Act;
 - (c) to take appropriate steps to ensure that the patient has the opportunity of making use of those services; and
 - (d) to inform the patient’s responsible medical officer—
 - (i) as to whether the mental health officer agrees, or disagrees, that the determination that is proposed should be made;
 - (ii) if the mental health officer disagrees, of the reason why that is the case; and
 - (iii) of any other matters that the mental health officer considers relevant.
- (3) If it is impracticable for the mental health officer to comply with the requirement in subsection (2)(a) above, the mental health officer need not do so.

VALID FROM 05/10/2005

152 Further review: responsible medical officer’s duty to extend compulsion order

- (1) This section applies where a patient’s responsible medical officer is carrying out a further review of the relevant compulsion order to which the patient is subject.
- (2) If, having regard to—
- (a) any views expressed by persons consulted under section 139(3)(c) of this Act for the purpose of the review being carried out; and
 - (b) any views expressed by the mental health officer under section 151(2)(d) of this Act for the purpose of that review,
- the responsible medical officer is satisfied as to the matters mentioned in section 150(2)(a) and (b) of this Act, the responsible medical officer shall make a determination extending the compulsion order for the period mentioned in subsection (3) below.
- (3) The period referred to in subsection (2) above is—
- (a) where a determination is made in respect of the first further review, the period of 12 months beginning with the expiry of the period for which the order is extended by virtue of an order under section 167 of this Act;
 - (b) where a determination is made in respect of a subsequent further review, the period of 12 months beginning with the expiry of the period of 12 months for which the order is extended as a result of the immediately preceding further review.

153 Determination extending compulsion order: notification

- (1) Where a patient’s responsible medical officer makes a determination under section 152 of this Act, the responsible medical officer shall, as soon as practicable after the determination is made and, in any event, before the day on which the compulsion order will cease (unless extended) to authorise the measures specified in it, comply with the requirements in subsection (2) below.

Status: Point in time view as at 01/07/2003. This version of this Act contains provisions that are not valid for this point in time.

Changes to legislation: Mental Health (Care and Treatment) (Scotland) Act 2003 is up to date with all changes known to be in force on or before 23 January 2024. There are changes that may be brought into force at a future date. Changes that have been made appear in the content and are referenced with annotations. (See end of Document for details)

- (2) Those requirements are—
- (a) to prepare a record stating—
 - (i) the determination;
 - (ii) the reasons for it;
 - (iii) whether the mental health officer agrees, or disagrees, with the determination or has failed to comply with the duty imposed by section 151(2)(d)(i) of this Act;
 - (iv) if the mental health officer disagrees with the determination, the reasons for the disagreement;
 - (v) (by reference to the appropriate paragraph (or paragraphs) of the definition of “mental disorder” in section 328(1) of this Act) the type (or types) of mental disorder that the patient has; and if there is a difference between that type (or types) and the type (or types) of mental disorder recorded in the compulsion order in respect of which the determination is made, what that difference is; and
 - (vi) such other matters as may be prescribed by regulations;
 - (b) to submit the record to the Tribunal; and
 - (c) at the same time as the responsible medical officer submits the record to the Tribunal, to give notice of the determination and send a copy of the record—
 - (i) subject to subsection (3) below, to the patient;
 - (ii) to the patient’s named person;
 - (iii) to the mental health officer; and
 - (iv) to the Commission.
- (3) Where the responsible medical officer considers that there would be a risk of significant harm to the patient, or to others, if a copy of the record were sent to the patient, that officer need not send a copy to the patient.
- (4) At the same time as the responsible medical officer submits the record to the Tribunal the responsible medical officer shall send to the Tribunal, and to the persons mentioned in subsection (2)(c)(ii) to (iv) above, a statement of the matters mentioned in subsection (5) below.
- (5) Those matters are—
- (a) whether the responsible medical officer is sending a copy of the record to the patient; and
 - (b) if the responsible medical officer is not sending a copy of the record to the patient, the reason for not doing so.

Extension and variation of order

VALID FROM 05/10/2005

154 Responsible medical officer’s duty where extension and variation proposed

- (1) This section applies where a patient’s responsible medical officer is carrying out—
- (a) the first review of the relevant compulsion order to which the patient is subject; or

Status: Point in time view as at 01/07/2003. This version of this Act contains provisions that are not valid for this point in time.

Changes to legislation: Mental Health (Care and Treatment) (Scotland) Act 2003 is up to date with all changes known to be in force on or before 23 January 2024. (b) a further review of that order.

(2) If, having regard to any views expressed by persons consulted under section 139(3) (c) of this Act for the purpose of the review being carried out, it appears to the responsible medical officer—

(a) that it will continue to be necessary for the patient to be subject to a compulsion order after the day on which the order will cease (unless extended) to authorise the measures specified in it; but

(b) that the compulsion order should be varied by modifying the measures specified in it, the responsible medical officer shall comply with the requirement in subsection (3) below.

(3) The requirement is to give notice to the mental health officer—

(a) that the responsible medical officer is proposing to make an application to the Tribunal under section 158 of this Act for an order under section 167 of this Act—

(i) extending the compulsion order for the period mentioned in subsection (4) below; and

(ii) varying the order by modifying the measures specified in it; and

(b) of the modification of the measures specified in that order that the responsible medical officer is proposing.

(4) The period referred to in subsection (3)(a)(i) above is—

(a) where the application is made in respect of the first review, the period of 6 months beginning with the day on which the compulsion order will cease (unless extended) to authorise the measures specified in it;

(b) where the application is made in respect of the first further review, the period of 12 months beginning with the expiry of the period mentioned in paragraph (a) above;

(c) where the application is made in respect of a subsequent further review, the period of 12 months beginning with the expiry of the period of 12 months for which the order is extended as a result of the immediately preceding further review.

VALID FROM 05/10/2005

155 Mental health officer's duties: extension and variation of compulsion order

(1) The mental health officer shall, as soon as practicable after receiving notice under section 154(3) of this Act, comply with the requirements in subsection (2) below.

(2) Those requirements are—

(a) subject to subsection (3) below, to interview the patient;

(b) to inform the patient of the matters mentioned in subsection (4) below;

(c) to inform the patient of the availability of independent advocacy services under section 259 of this Act;

- (e) to inform the patient's responsible medical officer—
 - (i) of whether the mental health officer agrees, or disagrees, that the application that is proposed should be made;
 - (ii) if the mental health officer disagrees, of the reason why that is the case; and
 - (iii) of any other matters that the mental health officer considers relevant.
- (3) If it is impracticable for the mental health officer to comply with the requirement in subsection (2)(a) above, the mental health officer need not do so.
- (4) The matters referred to in subsection (2)(b) above are—
 - (a) that the patient's responsible medical officer is proposing to make an application to the Tribunal under section 158 of this Act for an order—
 - (i) extending the compulsion order to which the patient is subject for the period mentioned in section 154(4) of this Act that applies in the patient's case; and
 - (ii) varying the compulsion order by modifying the measures specified in it;
 - (b) the modification of the measures specified in that order that the responsible medical officer is proposing; and
 - (c) the patient's rights in relation to such an application.

VALID FROM 05/10/2005

156 Responsible medical officer's duty to apply for extension and variation of compulsion order

- (1) If, having regard to—
 - (a) any views expressed by persons consulted under section 139(3)(c) of this Act for the purpose of the review being carried out; and
 - (b) any views expressed by the mental health officer under section 155(2)(e) of this Act for the purpose of that review,
 the responsible medical officer is satisfied as to the matters mentioned in section 154(2)(a) and (b) of this Act, the responsible medical officer shall comply with the requirement in subsection (2) below.
- (2) That requirement is to make an application to the Tribunal under section 158 of this Act for an order—
 - (a) extending the compulsion order for the period mentioned in section 154(4) of this Act that applies in the patient's case; and
 - (b) varying that order by modifying the measures specified in it.

COMPULSION ORDERS AND RESTRICTION ORDERS

CHAPTER 1

PRELIMINARY

181 Mental health officer's duty to identify named person

- (1) This section applies where a compulsion order and a restriction order are made in respect of a patient.
- (2) The mental health officer shall, as soon as practicable after the compulsion order is made, take such steps as are reasonably practicable to ascertain the name and address of the patient's named person.

CHAPTER 2

REVIEW OF ORDERS

VALID FROM 05/10/2005

Annual review of orders

182 Review of compulsion order and restriction order

- (1) This section applies where a patient is subject to a compulsion order and a restriction order.
- (2) The patient's responsible medical officer shall, during the period of 2 months ending with the relevant day, carry out a review in respect of both the compulsion order and restriction order by complying with the requirements set out in subsection (3) below.
- (3) Those requirements are—
 - (a) to—
 - (i) carry out a medical examination of the patient; or
 - (ii) make arrangements for an approved medical practitioner to carry out such a medical examination;
 - (b) to consider—

- (i) whether the conditions mentioned in subsection (4) below continue to apply in respect of the patient;
 - (ii) whether, as a result of the patient’s mental disorder, it is necessary, in order to protect any other person from serious harm, for the patient to be detained in hospital, whether or not for medical treatment;
 - (iii) whether it continues to be necessary for the patient to be subject to the compulsion order; and
 - (iv) whether it continues to be necessary for the patient to be subject to the restriction order; and
- (c) to consult the mental health officer.
- (4) Those conditions are—
- (a) that the patient has a mental disorder;
 - (b) that medical treatment which would be likely to—
 - (i) prevent the mental disorder worsening; or
 - (ii) alleviate any of the symptoms, or effects, of the disorder,
 is available for the patient; and
 - (c) that if the patient were not provided with such medical treatment there would be a significant risk—
 - (i) to the health, safety or welfare of the patient; or
 - (ii) to the safety of any other person.
- (5) In subsection (2) above, the “relevant day” means—
- (a) the day which falls 12 months after the day on which the compulsion order is made; or
 - (b) where that relevant day has passed, the day falling on the same day in every year thereafter.

VALID FROM 05/10/2005

Consequences of annual review

183 Responsible medical officer’s report and recommendation following review of compulsion order and restriction order

- (1) This section applies where a patient’s responsible medical officer carries out a review under section 182(2) of this Act.
- (2) The responsible medical officer shall, as soon as practicable after carrying out that review, submit a report in accordance with subsection (3) below to the Scottish Ministers.
- (3) That report shall record the responsible medical officer’s views as to—
 - (a) whether the conditions mentioned in section 182(4) of this Act continue to apply in respect of the patient;
 - (b) whether, as a result of the patient’s mental disorder, it is necessary, in order to protect any other person from serious harm, for the patient to be detained in hospital, whether or not for medical treatment;

- (a) a report under section 183(2) of this Act that includes a recommendation; or
 - (b) a report under section 184 of this Act,
- the Scottish Ministers shall make a reference to the Tribunal in respect of the compulsion order and restriction order to which the patient is subject.
- (2) Where a reference is made under subsection (1) above, the Scottish Ministers shall, as soon as practicable, give notice that a reference is to be made to—
- (a) the patient;
 - (b) the patient's named person;
 - (c) any guardian of the patient;
 - (d) any welfare attorney of the patient;
 - (e) the patient's responsible medical officer;
 - (f) the mental health officer; and
 - (g) the Commission.
- (3) A reference under subsection (1) above shall state—
- (a) the name and address of the patient;
 - (b) the name and address of the patient's named person; and
 - (c) the recommendation included in the report submitted by the responsible medical officer.

186 Commission's power to require Scottish Ministers to make reference to Tribunal

- (1) This section applies where a patient is subject to a compulsion order and a restriction order.
- (2) If it appears to the Commission that it is appropriate to do so, it may, by notice in writing to the Scottish Ministers, require them to make a reference to the Tribunal in respect of the compulsion order and the restriction order to which the patient is subject.
- (3) Where, under subsection (2), the Commission gives notice to the Scottish Ministers, the Commission shall include in that notice its reasons for requiring the Scottish Ministers to make the reference.

Status: Point in time view as at 01/07/2003. This version of this Act contains provisions that are not valid for this point in time.

188 Duty of Scottish Ministers to keep compulsion order and restriction order under review

- (1) This section applies where a patient is subject to a compulsion order and a restriction order.
- (2) Without prejudice to the duties imposed on the Scottish Ministers by sections 185(1), 187(2) and 189(2) of this Act, the Scottish Ministers shall from time to time consider—
 - (a) whether the conditions mentioned in section 182(4) of this Act continue to apply in respect of the patient;
 - (b) whether, as a result of the patient's mental disorder, it is necessary, in order to protect any other person from serious harm, for the patient to be detained in hospital, whether or not for medical treatment;
 - (c) whether it continues to be necessary for the patient to be subject to the compulsion order; and
 - (d) whether it continues to be necessary for the patient to be subject to the restriction order.
- (3) If, having considered the matters mentioned in paragraphs (a) to (d) of subsection (2) above, the Scottish Ministers are not satisfied that the patient has a mental disorder, they shall apply to the Tribunal under section 191 of this Act for an order under section 193 of this Act revoking the compulsion order.
- (4) If, having considered the matters mentioned in paragraphs (a) to (d) of subsection (2) above, the Scottish Ministers—
 - (a) are satisfied that the patient has a mental disorder; but

- (b) are not satisfied—
- (i) that, as a result of the patient’s mental disorder, it is necessary, in order to protect any other person from serious harm, for the patient to be detained in hospital, whether or not for medical treatment; and
 - (ii) that the conditions mentioned in paragraphs (b) and (c) of section 182(4) of this Act continue to apply in respect of the patient,
- they shall, as soon as practicable after considering those matters, apply to the Tribunal under section 191 of this Act for an order under section 193 of this Act revoking the compulsion order.
- (5) If, having considered the matters mentioned in paragraphs (a) to (d) of subsection (2) above, the Scottish Ministers—
- (a) are satisfied—
 - (i) that the conditions mentioned in section 182(4) of this Act continue to apply in respect of the patient; and
 - (ii) that it continues to be necessary for the patient to be subject to the compulsion order; but
 - (b) are not satisfied—
 - (i) that, as a result of the patient’s mental disorder, it is necessary, in order to protect any other person from serious harm, for the patient to be detained in hospital, whether or not for medical treatment; and
 - (ii) that it continues to be necessary for the patient to be subject to the restriction order,
- they shall apply to the Tribunal under section 191 of this Act for an order under section 193 of this Act revoking the restriction order.
- (6) Where the Scottish Ministers—
- (a) apply, by virtue of subsection (5) above, for an order revoking the restriction order; and
 - (b) are satisfied that the compulsion order should be varied by modifying the measures specified in it,
- they shall apply to the Tribunal under section 191 of this Act for an order under section 193 of this Act varying the compulsion order in that way.
- (7) If, having considered the matters mentioned in paragraphs (a) to (d) of subsection (2) above, the Scottish Ministers—
- (a) are satisfied—
 - (i) that the conditions mentioned in section 182(4) of this Act continue to apply in respect of the patient; and
 - (ii) that it continues to be necessary for the patient to be subject to the compulsion order and the restriction order; but
 - (b) are not satisfied that, as a result of the patient’s mental disorder, it is necessary, in order to protect any other person from serious harm, for the patient to be detained in hospital, whether or not for medical treatment,
- they may apply to the Tribunal under section 191 of this Act for an order under section 193 of this Act conditionally discharging the patient.

189 Reference to Tribunal by Scottish Ministers

- (1) This section applies where a patient is subject to a compulsion order and a restriction order.
- (2) If—
 - (a) during the period of 2 years ending with the relevant day—
 - (i) no reference under section 185(1) or 187(2) of this Act has been made to the Tribunal; and
 - (ii) no application under section 191 or 192(2) of this Act has been made to the Tribunal; and
 - (b) during each period of 2 years ending with the anniversary, in every year thereafter, of the relevant day—
 - (i) no reference such as is mentioned in paragraph (a)(i) above or, subject to subsection (3) below, under this subsection has been made to the Tribunal; and
 - (ii) no application such as is mentioned in paragraph (a)(ii) above has been made to the Tribunal,

the Scottish Ministers shall make a reference to the Tribunal in respect of the compulsion order and restriction order to which the patient is subject.
- (3) The Scottish Ministers shall, in considering, under subsection (2)(b)(i) above, whether a reference has been made to the Tribunal during any 2 year period, leave out of account any reference made under subsection (2) above during the first year of that 2 year period.
- (4) Where a reference is made under subsection (2) above, the Scottish Ministers shall, as soon as practicable, give notice that a reference is to be or, as the case may be, has been made to the persons mentioned in paragraphs (a) to (g) of section 185(2) of this Act.
- (5) A reference under subsection (2) above shall state—
 - (a) the name and address of the patient;
 - (b) the name and address of the patient’s named person; and
 - (c) the reason for making the reference.
- (6) In subsection (2) above, the “relevant day” means the day which falls 2 years after the day on which the compulsion order is made.

(10) Nothing in section 102 (state hospitals) of the National Health Service (Scotland) Act 1978 (c. 29) prevents or restricts the detention of a patient in a state hospital as a result of a decision of the Tribunal not to make any order under this section.

194 Tribunal’s powers etc. when varying compulsion order

Where the Tribunal makes an order under section 193(6) of this Act varying a compulsion order, the Tribunal shall specify in its order the modifications made by its order to the measures specified in the compulsion order.

195 Deferral of conditional discharge

Where the Tribunal makes an order under section 193(7) of this Act conditionally discharging a patient, it may defer that discharge until such arrangements as appear to the Tribunal to be necessary for that purpose have been made.

VALID FROM 05/10/2005

Effect of modification or revocation of orders

196 General effect of orders under section 193

- (1) Where the Tribunal makes an order under section 193 of this Act—
 - (a) revoking a compulsion order;
 - (b) revoking a restriction order;
 - (c) conditionally discharging a patient; or
 - (d) varying a compulsion order by modifying the measures specified in it, the order shall not have effect until the occurrence of the first to occur of the events mentioned in subsection (2) below.
- (2) Those events are—
 - (a) the expiry of the appeal period, no appeal having been lodged within that period; and
 - (b) where an appeal has been lodged within the appeal period—
 - (i) the receipt by both the Court of Session and the managers of the hospital specified in the compulsion order of notice from the Scottish Ministers that they do not intend to move the Court of Session to make an order under section 323 of this Act;
 - (ii) the refusal by the Court of Session to make such an order; and
 - (iii) the recall of any such order or the expiry of its effect.
- (3) In subsection (2) above—

“appeal” means an appeal under section 322 of this Act; and “appeal period” means, in relation to an appeal, the period, prescribed by regulations made under section 324(7) of this Act, within which the appeal has to be lodged in order to be competent.

197 Effect of revocation of compulsion order

Where the Tribunal makes an order under section 193(3) or (4) of this Act revoking a compulsion order, the restriction order to which the patient is subject shall cease to have effect.

198 Effect of revocation of restriction order

- (1) This section applies where the Tribunal—
 - (a) makes an order under subsection (5) of section 193 of this Act revoking the restriction order to which the patient is subject; but
 - (b) does not make an order under subsection (3) or (4) of that section revoking the compulsion order to which the patient is subject.
- (2) Part 9 of this Act shall apply to the patient as if the compulsion order to which the patient is subject were a relevant compulsion order made on the day on which the Tribunal revoked the restriction order.
- (3) In this section, “relevant compulsion order” has the meaning given by section 137(1) of this Act.

VALID FROM 05/10/2005

Meaning of “modify”

199 Meaning of “modify”

In this Chapter, any reference to modifying the measures specified in a compulsion order includes a reference to—

- (a) amending those measures;
- (b) removing from the order any measure; or
- (c) adding to the order any measure.

CHAPTER 3

CONDITIONAL DISCHARGE

200 Variation of conditions imposed on conditional discharge

- (1) This section applies where—
 - (a) a patient has been conditionally discharged by the Tribunal under section 193(7) of this Act; and
 - (b) the Tribunal imposed conditions on that discharge under that section.

Status: Point in time view as at 01/07/2003. This version of this Act contains provisions that are not valid for this point in time.

Changes to legislation: Mental Health (Care and Treatment) (Scotland) Act 2003 is up to date with all changes known to be in force on or before 23 January 2024. There are changes that may be brought into force at a future date. Changes that have been made appear in the content and are referenced with annotations. (See end of Document for details)

- (2) The Scottish Ministers may, if satisfied that it is necessary, vary such of the conditions imposed by the Tribunal under section 193(7) of this Act as they think fit.
- (3) Where the Scottish Ministers vary, under subsection (2) above, conditions imposed by the Tribunal under section 193(7) of this Act, the Scottish Ministers shall, as soon as practicable, give notice of that variation to—
 - (a) the patient;
 - (b) the patient’s named person;
 - (c) the patient’s responsible medical officer; and
 - (d) the mental health officer.

201 Appeal to Tribunal against variation of conditions imposed on conditional discharge

- (1) Where the Scottish Ministers vary, under section 200(2) of this Act, conditions imposed by the Tribunal under section 193(7) of this Act on a patient who has been conditionally discharged under that section, the persons mentioned in subsection (2) below may, before the expiry of the period of 28 days beginning with the day on which notice is given under section 200(3) of this Act, appeal against the variation of those conditions to the Tribunal.
- (2) Those persons are—
 - (a) the patient; and
 - (b) the patient’s named person.
- (3) Where an appeal is made to the Tribunal under subsection (1) above, section 193 of this Act shall apply as if the patient had applied under section 192 of this Act for an order conditionally discharging the patient.

202 Recall of patients from conditional discharge

- (1) This section applies to a patient conditionally discharged by the Tribunal under section 193(7) of this Act.
- (2) If the Scottish Ministers are satisfied that it is necessary for the patient to be detained in hospital, they may, by warrant, recall the patient to hospital.

203 Effect of recall from conditional discharge

Where the Scottish Ministers recall a patient to hospital under section 202 of this Act, if the hospital specified in the warrant is not the hospital specified in the compulsion order to which the patient is subject, that order shall have effect as if the hospital specified in the warrant were the hospital specified in the order.

204 Appeal to Tribunal against recall from conditional discharge

- (1) Where a patient has been recalled to hospital under section 202 of this Act, each of the persons mentioned in subsection (2) below may, before the expiry of the period of 28 days beginning with the day on which the patient returns or is returned to hospital, appeal against that recall to the Tribunal.

Status: Point in time view as at 01/07/2003. This version of this Act contains provisions that are not valid for this point in time.

- (2) Those persons are—
 - (a) the patient; and
 - (b) the patient’s named person.
- (3) Where an appeal is made to the Tribunal under subsection (1) above, section 193 of this Act shall apply as if the patient had applied under section 192 of this Act for an order conditionally discharging the patient.

VALID FROM 05/10/2005

PART 11

HOSPITAL DIRECTIONS AND TRANSFER FOR TREATMENT DIRECTIONS

Preliminary

205 Mental health officer’s duty to identify named person

- (1) This section applies where—
 - (a) a hospital direction; or
 - (b) a transfer for treatment direction,is made in respect of a patient.
- (2) The mental health officer shall, as soon as practicable after the direction is made, take such steps as are reasonably practicable to ascertain the name and address of the patient’s named person.

Review of directions

206 Review of hospital direction and transfer for treatment direction

- (1) This section applies where a patient is subject to—
 - (a) a hospital direction; or
 - (b) a transfer for treatment direction.
- (2) The patient’s responsible medical officer shall, during the period of 2 months ending with the relevant day, carry out a review in respect of the direction by complying with the requirements set out in subsection (3) below.
- (3) Those requirements are—
 - (a) to—
 - (i) carry out a medical examination of the patient; or
 - (ii) make arrangements for an approved medical practitioner to carry out such a medical examination;
 - (b) to consider—
 - (i) whether the conditions mentioned in subsection (4) below continue to apply in respect of the patient;

Status: Point in time view as at 01/07/2003. This version of this Act contains provisions that are not valid for this point in time.

Changes to legislation: *Mental Health (Care and Treatment) (Scotland) Act 2003 is up to date with all changes known to be in force on or before 23 January 2024. - (ii) whether, as a result of the patient’s mental disorder, it is necessary, in order to protect any other person from serious harm, for the patient to be detained in hospital, whether or not for medical treatment; and
- (iii) whether it continues to be necessary for the patient to be subject to the direction; and
- (c) to consult—
 - (i) the mental health officer; and
 - (ii) such other persons as the responsible medical officer considers appropriate.
- (4) Those conditions are—
 - (a) that the patient has a mental disorder;
 - (b) that medical treatment which would be likely to—
 - (i) prevent the mental disorder worsening; or
 - (ii) alleviate any of the symptoms, or effects, of the disorder,
 is available for the patient; and
 - (c) that if the patient were not provided with such medical treatment there would be a significant risk—
 - (i) to the health, safety or welfare of the patient; or
 - (ii) to the safety of any other person.
- (5) In subsection (2) above, the “relevant day” means—
 - (a) the day which falls 12 months after the day on which the direction is made; or
 - (b) where that relevant day has passed, the day falling on the same day in every year thereafter.

Consequences of review

207 Responsible medical officer’s report following review of direction

- (1) This section applies where a patient’s responsible medical officer carries out a review under section 206(2) of this Act.
- (2) The responsible medical officer shall, as soon as practicable after carrying out that review, submit a report in accordance with subsection (3) below to the Scottish Ministers.
- (3) That report shall record the responsible medical officer’s views as to—
 - (a) whether the conditions mentioned in section 206(4) of this Act continue to apply in respect of the patient;
 - (b) whether, as a result of the patient’s mental disorder, it is necessary, in order to protect any other person from serious harm, for the patient to be detained in hospital, whether or not for medical treatment; and
 - (c) whether it continues to be necessary for the patient to be subject to the direction.
- (4) If, after having regard to any views expressed by persons consulted under section 206(3)(c) of this Act, the responsible medical officer is not satisfied that the patient has a mental disorder, the responsible medical officer shall include in the report submitted to the Scottish Ministers under subsection (2) above a recommendation that the direction be revoked.

the requirements set out in section 207(3) of this Act and including a recommendation that the direction be revoked.

Reference to Tribunal by Scottish Ministers

209 Commission’s power to require Scottish Ministers to make reference to Tribunal

- (1) This section applies where a patient is subject to—
 - (a) a hospital direction; or
 - (b) a transfer for treatment direction.
- (2) If it appears to the Commission that it is appropriate to do so, it may, by notice in writing to the Scottish Ministers, require them to make a reference to the Tribunal in respect of the direction to which the patient is subject.
- (3) Where, under subsection (2), the Commission gives notice to the Scottish Ministers, the Commission shall include in that notice its reasons for requiring the Scottish Ministers to make the reference.

210 Duty of Scottish Ministers on receiving report from responsible medical officer

- (1) This section applies where a patient’s responsible medical officer submits to the Scottish Ministers—
 - (a) a report under section 207(2) of this Act that includes a recommendation; or
 - (b) a report under section 208(3) or (4) of this Act.
- (2) If, having considered the matters mentioned in paragraphs (a) to (c) of section 212(2) of this Act, the Scottish Ministers—
 - (a) are not satisfied that the patient has a mental disorder; or
 - (b) are so satisfied but are not satisfied—
 - (i) that, as a result of the patient’s mental disorder, it is necessary, in order to protect any other person from serious harm, for the patient to be detained in hospital, whether or not for medical treatment; and
 - (ii) that the conditions mentioned in paragraphs (b) and (c) of section 206(4) of this Act continue to apply in respect of the patient, the Scottish Ministers shall revoke the direction to which the patient is subject.
- (3) Where the Scottish Ministers do not, under subsection (2) above, revoke the direction to which the patient is subject, they shall make a reference to the Tribunal in respect of the direction.
- (4) Where a reference is made under subsection (3) above, the Scottish Ministers shall, as soon as practicable, give notice that a reference is to be made to—
 - (a) the patient;
 - (b) the patient’s named person;
 - (c) any guardian of the patient;
 - (d) any welfare attorney of the patient;
 - (e) the patient’s responsible medical officer;

(g) the Commission.

(5) A reference under subsection (3) above shall state—

- (a) the name and address of the patient;
- (b) the name and address of the patient's named person; and
- (c) the recommendation made by the responsible medical officer.

(6) Nothing in section 102 (state hospitals) of the National Health Service (Scotland) Act 1978 (c. 29) prevents or restricts the detention of a patient in a state hospital as a result of a decision under this section by the Scottish Ministers not to revoke the direction to which the patient is subject.

211 Notice under section 209(2): reference to Tribunal

(1) This section applies where, under section 209(2) of this Act, the Commission gives notice to the Scottish Ministers.

(2) The Scottish Ministers shall, as soon as practicable after receiving notice under section 209(2) of this Act, make a reference to the Tribunal in respect of the direction to which the patient is subject.

(3) Where a reference is made under subsection (2) above, the Scottish Ministers shall, as soon as practicable, give notice that a reference is to be made to the persons mentioned in paragraphs (a) to (g) of section 210(4) of this Act.

(4) A reference under subsection (2) above shall state—

- (a) the name and address of the patient;
- (b) the name and address of the patient's named person; and
- (c) the reason given by the Commission in the notice under section 209(2) of this Act for requiring the Scottish Ministers to make the reference.

Scottish Ministers' duty to keep directions under review

212 Duty of Scottish Ministers to keep directions under review

(1) This section applies where a patient is subject to—

- (a) a hospital direction; or
- (b) a transfer for treatment direction.

(2) Without prejudice to the duties imposed on the Scottish Ministers by sections 210(2) and (3), 211(2) and 213(2) of this Act, the Scottish Ministers shall from time to time consider—

- (a) whether the conditions mentioned in section 206(4) of this Act continue to apply in respect of the patient;
- (b) whether, as a result of the patient's mental disorder, it is necessary, in order to protect any other person from serious harm, for the patient to be detained in hospital, whether or not for medical treatment; and
- (c) whether it continues to be necessary for the patient to be subject to the direction.

- (3) If, having considered the matters mentioned in paragraphs (a) to (c) of subsection (2) above, the Scottish Ministers are not satisfied that the patient has a mental disorder, they shall revoke the direction.
- (4) If, having considered the matters mentioned in paragraphs (a) to (c) of subsection (2) above, the Scottish Ministers—
 - (a) are satisfied that the patient has a mental disorder; but
 - (b) are not satisfied—
 - (i) that, as a result of the patient’s mental disorder, it is necessary, in order to protect any other person from serious harm, for the patient to be detained in hospital, whether or not for medical treatment; and
 - (ii) that the conditions mentioned in paragraphs (b) and (c) of section 206(4) of this Act continue to apply in respect of the patient, they shall revoke the direction.
- (5) Nothing in section 102 (state hospitals) of the National Health Service (Scotland) Act 1978 (c. 29) prevents or restricts the detention of a patient in a state hospital as a result of a decision under this section by the Scottish Ministers not to revoke the direction to which the patient is subject.

213 Reference to Tribunal by Scottish Ministers

- (1) This section applies where a patient is subject to—
 - (a) a hospital direction; or
 - (b) a transfer for treatment direction.
- (2) If—
 - (a) during the period of 2 years ending with the relevant day—
 - (i) no reference under section 210(3) or 211(2) of this Act has been made to the Tribunal; and
 - (ii) no application under section 214(2) of this Act has been made to the Tribunal; and
 - (b) during each period of 2 years ending with the anniversary, in every year thereafter, of the relevant day—
 - (i) no reference such as is mentioned in paragraph (a)(i) above or, subject to subsection (3) below, under this subsection has been made to the Tribunal; and
 - (ii) no application such as is mentioned in paragraph (a)(ii) above has been made to the Tribunal, the Scottish Ministers shall make a reference to the Tribunal in respect of the direction to which the patient is subject.
- (3) The Scottish Ministers shall, in considering, under subsection (2)(b)(i) above, whether a reference has been made to the Tribunal during any 2 year period, leave out of account any reference made under subsection (2) above during the first year of that 2 year period.
- (4) Where a reference is made under subsection (2) above, the Scottish Ministers shall, as soon as practicable, give notice that a reference is to be made to the persons mentioned in paragraphs (a) to (g) of section 210(4) of this Act.

Status: Point in time view as at 01/07/2003. This version of this Act contains provisions that are not valid for this point in time.

- (5) A reference under subsection (2) above shall state—
 - (a) the name and address of the patient;
 - (b) the name and address of the patient’s named person; and
 - (c) the reason for making the reference.
- (6) In subsection (2) above, the “relevant day” means the day which falls 2 years after the day on which the direction is made.

Application by patient etc.

214 Application to Tribunal by patient and named person

- (1) This section applies where a patient is subject to—
 - (a) a hospital direction; or
 - (b) a transfer for treatment direction.
- (2) Each of the persons mentioned in subsection (3) below may, subject to subsections (4) to (6) below, make an application under this section to the Tribunal for the revocation of the direction to which the patient is subject.
- (3) Those persons are—
 - (a) the patient; and
 - (b) the patient’s named person.
- (4) Where a patient is subject to a hospital direction, an application under this section may not be made before the expiry of the period of 6 months beginning with the day on which the direction was made.
- (5) Where a patient is subject to a transfer for treatment direction, an application under this section—
 - (a) may be made during the period of 12 weeks beginning with the day on which the direction is made; but
 - (b) otherwise may not be made before the expiry of the period of 6 months beginning with the day on which the direction was made.
- (6) Neither of the persons mentioned in subsection (3) above may make more than one application under this section during—
 - (a) the period of 12 months beginning with the day on which the direction was made; or
 - (b) any subsequent period of 12 months that begins with or with an anniversary of the expiry of the period of 12 months mentioned in paragraph (a) above.
- (7) Where a patient’s named person makes an application under subsection (2) above, the named person shall give notice to the patient of the making of the application.

- (a) a reference is made under section 210(3), 211(2) or 213(2) of this Act; or
 - (b) an application is made under section 214(2) of this Act.
- (2) If the Tribunal is satisfied—
- (a) that the patient has a mental disorder; and
 - (b) that, as a result of the patient’s mental disorder, it is necessary, in order to protect any other person from serious harm, for the patient to be detained in hospital, whether or not for medical treatment,
- it shall make no direction to the Scottish Ministers under this section.
- (3) If the Tribunal is not satisfied that the patient has a mental disorder, it shall direct the Scottish Ministers to revoke the direction to which the patient is subject.
- (4) If the Tribunal—
- (a) is satisfied that the patient has a mental disorder; but
 - (b) is not satisfied—
 - (i) that, as a result of the patient’s mental disorder, it is necessary, in order to protect any other person from serious harm, for the patient to be detained in hospital, whether or not for medical treatment; and
 - (ii) that the conditions mentioned in paragraphs (b) and (c) of section 206(4) of this Act continue to apply in respect of the patient, the Tribunal shall direct the Scottish Ministers to revoke the direction to which the patient is subject.
- (5) The Scottish Ministers shall, if directed to do so by the Tribunal under subsection (3) or (4) above, revoke the direction to which the patient is subject.
- (6) Before making a decision under this section, the Tribunal shall—
- (a) afford the persons mentioned in subsection (7) below the opportunity—
 - (i) of making representations (whether orally or in writing); and
 - (ii) of leading, or producing, evidence; and
 - (b) whether or not any such representations are made, hold a hearing.
- (7) Those persons are—

Effect of revocation of direction

216 Effect of revocation of direction

- (1) This section applies where, under section 210(2), 212(3) or (4) or 215(5) of this Act, the Scottish Ministers revoke—
 - (a) a hospital direction; or
 - (b) a transfer for treatment direction.
- (2) Where the Scottish Ministers revoke a direction they shall direct that the patient be admitted to a prison, institution or other place in which the patient might have been detained had the patient not been detained in hospital by virtue of the direction.
- (3) The direction shall cease to have effect on the patient's admission to the prison, institution or place to which the patient is admitted by virtue of the direction under subsection (2) above.

Termination of direction on release of patient

217 Termination of hospital direction on release of patient

- (1) This section applies where a patient is subject to—
 - (a) a hospital direction; or
 - (b) a transfer for treatment direction.
- (2) Where a patient is released under Part 1 of the Prisoners and Criminal Proceedings (Scotland) Act 1993 (c. 9) or otherwise the direction to which the patient is subject shall cease to have effect.

- (b) the Scottish Ministers, consent to the transfer.
- (4) Where the managers of a hospital propose to transfer a patient under subsection (2) above, they shall, subject to subsections (5) and (7) below, give the persons mentioned in subsection (8) below at least 7 days' notice of the transfer.
- (5) The managers of a hospital need not give notice under subsection (4) above where it is necessary that the patient be transferred urgently.
- (6) Where, by virtue of subsection (5) above, no notice is given under subsection (4) above, the managers of the hospital shall, subject to subsection (7) below, give the persons mentioned in subsection (8) below notice—
- (a) where the proposed transfer has not taken place, of the proposed transfer; or
 - (b) where the transfer has taken place, of the transfer,
- as soon as practicable before, on or, as the case may be, after the transfer.
- (7) The managers of the hospital need not give notice under subsection (4) or (6) above to the patient where the patient consents to the transfer.
- (8) The persons referred to in subsections (4) and (6) above and (10)(b) below are—
- (a) the patient; and
 - (b) the patient's named person.
- (9) Where—
- (a) notice is given under subsection (4) or (6)(a) above of a proposed transfer under subsection (2) above; and
 - (b) the proposed transfer does not take place before the end of the period of 3 months beginning with the day on which notice is given,
- the managers of the hospital may transfer the patient as proposed only if subsection (10) below applies.
- (10) This subsection applies where—
- (a) the conditions mentioned in subsection (3) above continue to be satisfied; and
 - (b) the persons mentioned in subsection (8) above are given at least 7 days' notice of the proposed transfer.
- (11) Subsections (5) to (7) above shall apply to the giving of notice under subsection (10) (b) above as they apply to the giving of notice under subsection (4) above.
- (12) Where the patient is transferred under subsection (2) above, the managers of the hospital from which the patient is transferred shall, before the expiry of the period of 7 days beginning with the transfer, give notice to the Commission of the matters mentioned in subsection (13) below.
- (13) Those matters are—
- (a) the date on which the patient was transferred;
 - (b) the hospital to which the patient was transferred;
 - (c) that—
 - (i) notice was given under subsection (4) above; or
 - (ii) if no such notice was given, the reasons why it was necessary that the patient be transferred urgently; and

(d) whether notice was given under subsection (6) or (10)(b) above.

(14) Where a patient is transferred under subsection (2) above, the compulsion order, hospital direction or, as the case may be, transfer for treatment direction to which the patient is subject shall, for the purposes of this Act (other than sections 219 and 220), be taken to specify the hospital to which the patient is transferred.

219 Appeal to Tribunal against transfer under section 218 to hospital other than state hospital

(1) This section applies where—

(a) a patient—

(i) receives notice under subsection (4), (6)(a) or (10)(b) of section 218 of this Act that it is proposed to transfer the patient; or

(ii) is transferred under subsection (2) of that section, to any hospital other than a state hospital; and

(b) the hospital to which the patient is, or is proposed to be, transferred is not specified in the compulsion order, hospital direction or, as the case may be, transfer for treatment direction to which the patient is subject.

(2) The patient, or the patient's named person, may, during the period mentioned in subsection (3) below, appeal to the Tribunal against the proposed transfer or, as the case may be, the transfer.

(3) That period is—

(a) in the case of the patient—

(i) where notice is given to the patient before the proposed transfer, the period beginning with the day on which notice is given and ending 28 days after the transfer;

(ii) where notice is given to the patient on or after the transfer, the period beginning with the day on which the patient is transferred and ending 28 days after the day on which notice is given; or

(iii) where notice is not given to the patient, the period of 28 days beginning with the day on which the patient is transferred;

(b) in the case of the patient's named person—

(i) where notice is given to the patient's named person before the proposed transfer, the period beginning with the day on which notice is given and ending 28 days after the transfer; or

(ii) where notice is given to the patient's named person on or after the transfer, the period of 28 days beginning with the day on which notice is given.

(4) If, when an appeal under subsection (2) above against a proposed transfer is made to the Tribunal, the proposed transfer has not taken place—

(a) the managers of the hospital shall not transfer the patient as proposed; but

(b) the Tribunal may, if satisfied that, pending the determination of the appeal, the patient should be transferred as proposed, make an order that the patient be so transferred.

(5) On an appeal under subsection (2) above, the Tribunal may make an order that the proposed transfer not take place or, as the case may be, that the patient be returned to the hospital from which the patient was transferred.

Status: Point in time view as at 01/07/2003. This version of this Act contains provisions that are not valid for this point in time.

220 Appeal to Tribunal against transfer under section 218 to state hospital

- (1) This section applies where—
 - (a) a patient—
 - (i) receives notice under subsection (4), (6)(a) or (10)(b) of section 218 of this Act that it is proposed to transfer the patient; or
 - (ii) is transferred under subsection (2) of that section, to a state hospital; and
 - (b) the state hospital to which the patient is, or is proposed to be, transferred is not specified in the compulsion order, hospital direction or, as the case may be, transfer for treatment direction to which the patient is subject.
- (2) The patient, or the patient’s named person, may, during the period mentioned in subsection (3) below, appeal to the Tribunal against the proposed transfer or, as the case may be, the transfer.
- (3) That period is—
 - (a) in the case of the patient—
 - (i) where notice is given to the patient before the proposed transfer, the period beginning with the day on which notice is given and ending 12 weeks after the transfer;
 - (ii) where notice is given to the patient on or after the transfer, the period beginning with the day on which the patient is transferred and ending 12 weeks after the day on which notice is given; or
 - (iii) where notice is not given to the patient, the period of 12 weeks beginning with the day on which the patient is transferred;
 - (b) in the case of the patient’s named person—
 - (i) where notice is given to the patient’s named person before the proposed transfer, the period beginning with the day on which notice is given and ending 12 weeks after the transfer; or
 - (ii) where notice is given to the patient’s named person on or after the transfer, the period of 12 weeks beginning with the day on which notice is given.
- (4) If, when an appeal under subsection (2) above against a proposed transfer is made to the Tribunal, the proposed transfer has not taken place—
 - (a) the managers of the hospital shall not transfer the patient as proposed; but
 - (b) the Tribunal may, if satisfied that, pending determination of the appeal, the patient should be transferred as proposed, make an order that the patient be so transferred.
- (5) On an appeal under subsection (2) above, the Tribunal may, if not satisfied as to the matter mentioned in subsection (6) below, make an order that the proposed transfer not take place or, as the case may be, that the patient be returned to the hospital from which the patient was transferred.
- (6) That matter is—
 - (a) that the patient requires to be detained in hospital under conditions of special security; and
 - (b) that those conditions of special security can be provided only in a state hospital.

PART 13

PARTS 8, 10 AND 11: SUSPENSION

Assessment orders

221 Assessment order: suspension of measure authorising detention

- (1) This section applies where a patient is subject to an assessment order.
- (2) Subject to subsection (3) below, where the patient's responsible medical officer grants a certificate specifying a period during which the assessment order to which the patient is subject shall not authorise the detention of the patient in hospital, the order does not authorise that detention during that period.
- (3) The patient's responsible medical officer may grant a certificate under subsection (2) above only with the consent of the Scottish Ministers.
- (4) A period specified in a certificate under subsection (2) above may be expressed as—
 - (a) the duration of—
 - (i) an event; or
 - (ii) a series of events; or
 - (b) the duration of—
 - (i) an event; or
 - (ii) a series of events,
and any associated travel.
- (5) If the responsible medical officer considers that it is necessary—
 - (a) in the interests of the patient; or
 - (b) for the protection of any other person,a certificate under subsection (2) above may include conditions such as are mentioned in subsection (6) below; and any such conditions shall have effect.
- (6) Those conditions are—
 - (a) that, during the period specified in the certificate, the patient be kept in the charge of a person authorised in writing for the purpose by the patient's responsible medical officer; and
 - (b) such other conditions as may be specified by the patient's responsible medical officer.

222 Certificate under section 221: revocation by responsible medical officer

- (1) Subsection (2) below applies where a certificate is granted under section 221(2) of this Act.

 - (a) interview a patient at any reasonable time and require any such interview to be conducted in private;
 - (b) carry out a medical examination of a patient in private at any reasonable time; and
 - (c) require any person holding medical records of a patient to produce such records for inspection by the designated medical practitioner.
- (5) A designated medical practitioner shall undertake such training as the Commission may require.
- (6) The Commission shall pay to designated medical practitioners for or in connection with the discharge of the functions conferred on them by virtue of this Part of this Act such fees, expenses and allowances as may be prescribed by regulations.

Safeguards for certain surgical operations etc.

234 Certain surgical operations etc.

- (1) The types of medical treatment mentioned in subsection (2) below may be given to a patient only in accordance with section 235 or 236 of this Act.
- (2) The types of medical treatment referred to in subsection (1) above are—
 - (a) any surgical operation for destroying—
 - (i) brain tissue; or
 - (ii) the functioning of brain tissue; and
 - (b) such other types of medical treatment as may be specified in regulations for the purposes of this section.
- (3) Before making regulations under subsection (2)(b) above the Scottish Ministers shall consult such persons as they consider appropriate.

VALID FROM 05/10/2005

235 Treatment mentioned in section 234(2): patients capable of consenting

- (1) Medical treatment mentioned in section 234(2) of this Act is given to a patient in accordance with this section if the requirements set out in subsections (2) and (3) below are satisfied.
- (2) Subject to subsection (6) below, the first requirement is that a designated medical practitioner who is not the patient's responsible medical officer certifies in writing that—
 - (a) the patient is capable of consenting to the treatment;
 - (b) the patient consents in writing to the treatment; and

Status: Point in time view as at 01/07/2003. This version of this Act contains provisions that are not valid for this point in time.

- (c) having regard to the likelihood of its alleviating, or preventing a deterioration in, the patient's condition, it is in the patient's best interests that the treatment should be given to the patient.
- (3) The second requirement is that two other persons (not being medical practitioners) appointed by the Commission for the purposes of this subsection certify in writing that—
- (a) the patient is capable of consenting to the treatment; and
 - (b) the patient consents in writing to the treatment.
- (4) A person appointed for the purposes of subsection (3) above may—
- (a) interview the patient at any reasonable time; and
 - (b) require any such interview to be conducted in private.
- (5) If the patient withdraws consent to the treatment (in writing or otherwise) at any time before its completion, this section shall then apply as if the remainder of the treatment were a separate treatment.
- (6) Where—
- (a) the patient is a child; and
 - (b) the patient's responsible medical officer is not a child specialist,
- the first requirement is that the matters mentioned in paragraphs (a) to (c) of subsection (2) above are certified in writing by a designated medical practitioner who is a child specialist.
- (7) References in subsections (2) and (6)(b) above to a patient's responsible medical officer include, in any case where a patient does not have a responsible medical officer, references to the medical practitioner primarily responsible for treating the patient.

VALID FROM 05/10/2005

236 Treatment mentioned in section 234(2): patients incapable of consenting

- (1) Medical treatment mentioned in section 234(2) of this Act is given to a patient in accordance with this section if—
- (a) the requirements set out in subsections (2) to (4) below are satisfied; and
 - (b) the patient does not resist or object to the treatment.
- (2) Subject to subsection (6) below, the first requirement is that a designated medical practitioner who is not the patient's responsible medical officer certifies in writing that—
- (a) the patient is incapable of consenting to the treatment;
 - (b) the patient does not object to the treatment; and
 - (c) having regard to the likelihood of its alleviating, or preventing a deterioration in, the patient's condition, it is in the patient's best interests that the treatment should be given to the patient.
- (3) The second requirement is that two persons (not being medical practitioners) appointed by the Commission for the purposes of this subsection certify in writing that—

- (a) the patient is incapable of consenting to the treatment; and
 - (b) the patient does not object to the treatment.
- (4) The third requirement is that on the application of the patient’s responsible medical officer, the Court of Session has made an order declaring that the treatment may lawfully be given.
- (5) The Court of Session may make an order such as is mentioned in subsection (4) above only if it is satisfied that—
- (a) having regard to the likelihood of its alleviating, or preventing a deterioration in, the patient’s condition, it is in the patient’s best interests that the treatment should be given to the patient; and
 - (b) the patient does not object to the treatment.
- (6) Where the patient is a child, the first requirement is that the matters mentioned in paragraphs (a) to (c) of subsection (2) above are certified—
- (a) where the patient’s responsible medical officer is a child specialist, by a medical practitioner approved for the purposes of this subsection by the Commission;
 - (b) where the patient’s responsible medical officer is not a child specialist, by a child specialist who is on the list maintained under section 233(1) of this Act.
- (7) References in subsections (2), (4) and (6) above to a patient’s responsible medical officer include, in any case where a patient does not have a responsible medical officer, references to the medical practitioner primarily responsible for treating the patient.

Safeguards for other medical treatment

237 Electro-convulsive therapy etc.

- (1) This section applies where the giving of medical treatment to a patient is authorised by virtue of this Act or the 1995 Act.
- (2) Subject to section 243 of this Act, the types of medical treatment mentioned in subsection (3) below may be given to the patient only in accordance with section 238 or 239 of this Act.
- (3) The types of medical treatment referred to in subsection (2) above are—
- (a) electro-convulsive therapy; and
 - (b) such other types of medical treatment as may be specified in regulations for the purposes of this section.
- (4) Before making regulations under subsection (3)(b) above the Scottish Ministers shall consult such persons as they consider appropriate.

238 Treatment mentioned in sections 237(3) and 240(3): patients capable of consenting and not refusing consent

- (1) Subject to subsection (3) below, medical treatment mentioned in section 237(3) or 240(3) of this Act is given to a patient in accordance with this section if the patient's responsible medical officer or a designated medical practitioner certifies in writing that—
 - (a) the patient is capable of consenting to the treatment;
 - (b) the patient consents in writing to the treatment;
 - (c) the giving of medical treatment to the patient is authorised by virtue of this Act or the 1995 Act; and
 - (d) having regard to the likelihood of its alleviating, or preventing a deterioration in, the patient's condition, it is in the patient's best interests that the treatment should be given.
- (2) If the patient withdraws consent to the treatment (in writing or otherwise) at any time before its completion, this section shall then apply as if the remainder of the treatment were a separate treatment.
- (3) Where the patient is a child, any certificate under subsection (1) above shall be given by a child specialist.

VALID FROM 05/10/2005

239 Treatment mentioned in section 237(3): patients incapable of consenting

- (1) Subject to subsections (2) to (4) below, medical treatment mentioned in section 237(3) of this Act is given to a patient in accordance with this section if a designated medical practitioner who is not the patient's responsible medical officer certifies in writing that—
 - (a) the patient is incapable of understanding the nature, purpose and likely effects of the treatment;
 - (b) the giving of medical treatment to the patient is authorised by virtue of this Act or the 1995 Act; and
 - (c) having regard to the likelihood of its alleviating, or preventing a deterioration in, the patient's condition, it is in the patient's best interests that the treatment should be given.
- (2) Where the patient resists or objects to the treatment, certification under subsection (1) above is effective only if, instead of certifying the matter mentioned in paragraph (c) of that subsection, the designated medical practitioner certifies that—
 - (a) the patient resists or objects to the treatment; but
 - (b) it is necessary to give the treatment to the patient for a purpose mentioned in any of paragraphs (a) to (c) of section 243(3) of this Act and specified in the certificate.

Status: Point in time view as at 01/07/2003. This version of this Act contains provisions that are not valid for this point in time.

Changes to legislation: Mental Health (Care and Treatment) (Scotland) Act 2003 is up to date with all changes known to be in force on or before 23 January 2024. There are changes that may be brought into force at a future date. Changes that have been made appear in the content and are referenced with annotations. (See end of Document for details)

- (3) Where the patient is a child, certification under subsection (1) above is effective only if done—
- (a) where the patient’s responsible medical officer is a child specialist, by a medical practitioner approved for the purposes of this subsection by the Commission;
 - (b) where the patient’s responsible medical officer is not a child specialist, by a child specialist who is on the list maintained under section 233(1) of this Act.
- (4) Where the patient is not in hospital, subsection (1) above does not authorise the giving of medical treatment by force to the patient.

240 Treatments given over period of time etc.

- (1) This section applies where the giving of medical treatment to a patient is authorised by virtue of this Act or the 1995 Act.
- (2) Subject to subsection (4) below and to section 243 of this Act, the types of treatment mentioned in subsection (3) below, when given as treatment for mental disorder or in consequence of the patient having a mental disorder, may be given to the patient only in accordance with section 238 or 241 of this Act.
- (3) The types of treatment referred to in subsection (2) above are—
- (a) any medicine (other than the surgical implantation of hormones) given for the purpose of reducing sex drive;
 - (b) any other medicine;
 - (c) provision, without the consent of the patient and by artificial means, of nutrition to the patient; and
 - (d) such other types of treatment as may be specified in regulations for the purposes of this section.
- (4) Subsection (2) above does not apply to the giving of medicine in a relevant period until 2 months have passed since the patient was first in the relevant period given any medicine that was not, when given, a treatment specified under subsection (3) (d) above or section 234(2)(b) or 237(3)(b) of this Act.
- (5) The Scottish Ministers may by order amend subsection (4) above for the purpose of substituting a period specified in the order for (as the case may be)—
- (a) the period of 2 months mentioned in that subsection; or
 - (b) the period that is for the time being mentioned in that subsection in place of that period of 2 months.
- (6) For the purposes of subsection (4) above—
- “medicine” does not include medicine such as is mentioned in paragraph (a) of subsection (3) above or any treatment specified in regulations under paragraph (d) of that subsection; and
- “relevant period”, in relation to a patient, means any period during which the giving of medical treatment to the patient is authorised by virtue of this Act or the 1995 Act.
- (7) Before making regulations under subsection (3)(d) above the Scottish Ministers shall consult such persons as they consider appropriate.

241 Treatment mentioned in section 240(3): patients refusing consent or incapable of consenting

- (1) Subject to subsections (3) and (4) below, medical treatment mentioned in section 240(3) of this Act is given in accordance with this section if a designated medical practitioner who is not the patient's responsible medical officer certifies in writing that—
 - (a) the patient—
 - (i) does not consent to the treatment; or
 - (ii) is incapable of consenting to the treatment;
 - (b) the giving of medical treatment to the patient is authorised by virtue of this Act or the 1995 Act; and
 - (c) having regard to the likelihood of its alleviating, or preventing a deterioration in, the patient's condition, it is in the patient's best interests that the treatment should be given.
- (2) If the condition mentioned in subsection (1)(a)(i) above applies, the designated medical practitioner shall—
 - (a) if the reason for refusal of consent is known, have regard to the reason for the refusal; and
 - (b) if the designated medical practitioner is of the opinion that the treatment should be given, include in any certificate under subsection (1) above a statement of the reason for that opinion.
- (3) Where the patient is a child, the certification of the matters mentioned in paragraphs (a) to (c) of subsection (1) above is effective only if done—
 - (a) where the patient's responsible medical officer is a child specialist, by a medical practitioner approved for the purposes of this subsection by the Commission;
 - (b) where the patient's responsible medical officer is not a child specialist, by a child specialist who is on the list maintained under section 233(1) of this Act.
- (4) Where the patient is not in hospital, subsection (1) above does not authorise the giving of medical treatment by force to the patient.

VALID FROM 05/10/2005

242 Treatment not mentioned in section 234(2), 237(3) or 240(3)

- (1) This section applies where the giving of medical treatment to a patient is authorised by virtue of this Act or the 1995 Act.
- (2) Subject to subsection (6) below and to sections 234(1), 237(2), 240(2) and 243 of this Act, medical treatment may be given to the patient only in accordance with subsection (3) or (4) below.
- (3) If the patient—

- (a) is capable of consenting to the treatment; and
- (b) consents in writing to the treatment, medical treatment is given to the patient in accordance with this subsection if the treatment is given by, or under the direction of, the patient's responsible medical officer.

(4) If the patient—

- (a) is capable of consenting to the treatment but—
 - (i) does not consent; or
 - (ii) consents otherwise than in writing; or
- (b) is incapable of consenting to the treatment, medical treatment is given to the patient in accordance with this subsection if the requirements in subsection (5) below are satisfied.

(5) Those requirements are—

- (a) after having regard—
 - (i) in a case where subsection (4)(a)(i) above applies, to the reason for not consenting (if it has been disclosed to the patient's responsible medical officer);
 - (ii) to any views expressed by the patient;
 - (iii) to any views expressed by the patient's named person;
 - (iv) to any advance statement made by the patient; and
 - (v) to the likelihood of the treatment's alleviating, or preventing a deterioration in, the patient's condition, the responsible medical officer determines that it is in the patient's best interests that the treatment be given;

- (b) in the case of a patient subject to an assessment order, an approved medical practitioner who is not the patient's responsible medical officer determines, after having regard to the matters mentioned in sub-paragraphs (i) to (v) of paragraph (a) above, that it is in the patient's best interests that the treatment be given;
- (c) the treatment is given by, or under the direction of, the patient's responsible medical officer;
- (d) the patient's responsible medical officer records in writing the reasons for giving the treatment; and
- (e) in the case of a patient subject to an assessment order, the approved medical practitioner who makes the determination referred to in paragraph (b) above records in writing the reasons for that determination.

(6) Where the patient is not in hospital, subsection (4) above does not authorise the giving of medical treatment by force to the patient.

Urgent medical treatment where patient detained in hospital

243 Urgent medical treatment

- (1) This section applies where the detention in hospital of a patient is authorised by virtue of—
 - (a) this Act; or
 - (b) the 1995 Act.
- (2) Where it is necessary as a matter of urgency for medical treatment to be given to the patient for any of the purposes mentioned in subsection (3) below, the treatment may, subject to subsections (4) and (5) below, be given notwithstanding that the patient—
 - (a) does not consent; or
 - (b) is incapable of consenting,to the treatment.
- (3) The purposes are—
 - (a) saving the patient's life;
 - (b) preventing serious deterioration in the patient's condition;
 - (c) alleviating serious suffering on the part of the patient; and
 - (d) preventing the patient from—
 - (i) behaving violently; or
 - (ii) being a danger to the patient or to others.
- (4) Subsection (2) above authorises the giving of medical treatment—
 - (a) for a purpose mentioned in any of paragraphs (b) to (d) of subsection (3) above only if the treatment is not likely to entail unfavourable, and irreversible, physical or psychological consequences;
 - (b) for a purpose mentioned in paragraph (c) or (d) of that subsection only if the treatment does not entail significant physical hazard to the patient.
- (5) Subsection (2) above does not authorise the giving of electro-convulsive therapy if the patient is capable of consenting but does not consent to the treatment.
- (6) Where the patient is given medical treatment by virtue of subsection (2) above, the patient's responsible medical officer shall, before the expiry of the period of 7 days beginning with the day on which such treatment is given (or first given), give notice to the Commission of—
 - (a) the type of treatment given; and
 - (b) the purpose mentioned in subsection (3) above for which it was given.

PART 17

PATIENT REPRESENTATION ETC.

VALID FROM 01/09/2004

CHAPTER 1

NAMED PERSON

Meaning of “named person”

250 Nomination of named person

- (1) Where a person who has attained the age of 16 years (a “nominator”) nominates in accordance with subsection (2) below another person who has attained that age to be the nominator’s named person, that person is, subject to subsections (3) and (6) below, the nominator’s named person.
- (2) A person is nominated in accordance with this subsection if—
 - (a) the nomination is signed by the nominator;
 - (b) the nominator’s signature is witnessed by a prescribed person;
 - (c) the prescribed person certifies that, in the opinion of the prescribed person, the nominator—
 - (i) understands the effect of nominating a person to be the nominator’s named person; and
 - (ii) has not been subjected to any undue influence in making the nomination.
- (3) A nomination under subsection (1) above may be revoked by the nominator in accordance with subsection (4) below.
- (4) The nomination of a named person is revoked in accordance with this subsection if—
 - (a) the revocation is signed by the nominator;
 - (b) the nominator’s signature is witnessed by a prescribed person;
 - (c) the prescribed person certifies that, in the opinion of the prescribed person, the nominator—
 - (i) understands the effect of revoking the appointment of a person as named person; and
 - (ii) has not been subjected to any undue influence in making the revocation.
- (5) The nomination of a named person shall be effective notwithstanding the nominator’s becoming, after making the nomination, incapable.

Status: Point in time view as at 01/07/2003. This version of this Act contains provisions that are not valid for this point in time.

Changes to legislation: Mental Health (Care and Treatment) (Scotland) Act 2003 is up to date with all changes known to be in force on or before 23 January 2024. - (6) A person nominated under subsection (1) above may decline to be the nominator's named person by giving notice to—
- (a) the nominator; and
 - (b) the local authority for the area in which the nominator resides, to that effect.
- (7) In this section—
- “incapable” means incapable by reason of mental disorder or of inability to communicate because of physical disability; but a person shall not fall within this definition by reason only of a lack or deficiency in a faculty of communication if that lack or deficiency can be made good by human or mechanical aid (whether of an interpretative nature or otherwise); and
- “prescribed person” means a person of a class prescribed by regulations.

251 Named person where no person nominated or nominated person declines to act

- (1) Subject to subsections (2) to (5) below, where, in the case of a person who has attained the age of 16 years, there is no person who is by virtue of section 250 of this Act the person's named person, the person's primary carer shall, unless the person's primary carer has not attained the age of 16 years, be the person's named person.
- (2) Where a person's primary carer has not attained the age of 16 years, but the person has a carer who has attained that age, that carer shall be the person's named person.
- (3) Where—
- (a) a person does not have a primary carer; or
 - (b) a person's primary carer has not attained the age of 16 years,
- but the person has two or more carers who have attained the age of 16 years, those carers may agree which of them is to be the named person of the person.
- (4) Where, by virtue of subsection (2) or (3) above, a carer is a person's named person, the references in subsections (5) and (6) below to a person's primary carer shall be construed as references to that carer.
- (5) If—
- (a) the person has no primary carer; or
 - (b) the person's primary carer declines in accordance with subsection (6) below to be the person's named person,
- the person's nearest relative shall be the person's named person.
- (6) A person's primary carer declines in accordance with this subsection to be the person's named person by giving notice to—
- (a) the person; and
 - (b) the local authority for the area in which the person resides, to that effect.

252 Named person in relation to child

- (1) The named person of a person who has not attained the age of 16 years (“the child”) shall be—
- (a) subject to subsection (2) below, in a case where [^{F20}a relevant person] has parental rights and parental responsibilities in relation to the child, that person;
 - (b) in a case where the child is in the care of a local authority by virtue of a care order made under section 31 of the Children Act 1989 (c. 41), that authority; or
 - (c) in any other case, where the child’s primary carer has attained the age of 16 years, that person.
- (2) Subject to subsection (3) below, where two or more [^{F21}relevant persons] have parental rights and parental responsibilities in relation to the child, the named person of the child shall be—
- (a) if those persons agree that one of them is to be the named person of the child, that person; or
 - (b) if those persons do not so agree, the one of them—
 - (i) who provides, on a regular basis, all, or most, of the care for, and support to, the child;
 - (ii) in a case where the child is in hospital, who provided all, or most, of that care for, and support to, the child before the child was admitted to hospital.
- (3) If—
- (a) one of the [^{F22}relevant] persons who has parental rights and parental responsibilities in relation to the child is a local authority; and
 - (b) the local authority has those rights and responsibilities by virtue of an order under section 86(1) of the Children (Scotland) Act 1995 (c. 36) (orders transferring parental rights and parental responsibilities),
- the local authority shall be the child’s named person.
- (4) In this section—
- “parental responsibilities”, in relation to a child, has the meaning given by section 1(3) of the Children (Scotland) Act 1995 (c. 36); ^{F23}...
- “parental rights”, in relation to a child, has the meaning given by section 2(4) of that Act.

CHAPTER 2

ADVOCACY ETC.

VALID FROM 05/10/2005

Advocacy

259 Advocacy

- (1) Every person with a mental disorder shall have a right of access to independent advocacy; and accordingly it is the duty of—
- (a) each local authority, in collaboration with the (or each) relevant Health Board; and
 - (b) each Health Board, in collaboration with the (or each) relevant local authority,
- to secure the availability, to persons in its area who have a mental disorder, of independent advocacy services and to take appropriate steps to ensure that those persons have the opportunity of making use of those services.
- (2) Each relevant Health Board and local authority shall, for the purposes of subsection (1) above, collaborate with the local authority or, as the case may be, Health Board in relation to which it is the relevant Board or authority.
- (3) For the purposes of subsections (1) and (2) above—

Status: Point in time view as at 01/07/2003. This version of this Act contains provisions that are not valid for this point in time.

Changes to legislation: Mental Health (Care and Treatment) (Scotland) Act 2003 is up to date with all changes known to be in force on or before 23 January 2024. There are changes that may be brought into force at a future date. Changes that have been made appear in the content and are referenced with annotations. (See end of Document for details)

- (a) a Health Board is, in relation to a local authority, a “relevant” Health Board if its area or part of its area is the same as or is included in the area of the local authority; and
 - (b) a local authority is, in relation to a Health Board, a “relevant” local authority if its area or part of its area is the same as or is included in the area of the Health Board.
- (4) In subsection (1) above, “advocacy services” are services of support and representation made available for the purpose of enabling the person to whom they are available to have as much control of, or capacity to influence, that person’s care and welfare as is, in the circumstances, appropriate.
- (5) For the purposes of subsection (1) above, advocacy services are “independent” if they are to be provided by a person who is none of the following—
- (a) a local authority;
 - (b) a Health Board;
 - (c) a National Health Service trust;
 - (d) a member of—
 - (i) the local authority;
 - (ii) the Health Board;
 - (iii) a National Health Service trust, in the area of which the person to whom those services are made available is to be provided with them;
 - (e) a person who—
 - (i) in pursuance of arrangements made between that person and a Health Board, is giving medical treatment to;
 - (ii) in pursuance of those arrangements, is providing, under the National Health Service (Scotland) Act 1978 (c. 29), treatment, care or services for; or
 - (iii) in pursuance of arrangements made between that person and a local authority, is providing, under Part II of the Social Work (Scotland) Act 1968 (c. 49) (promotion of social welfare) or any of the enactments specified in section 5(1B) of that Act, services for, the person to whom the advocacy services are made available;
 - (f) in relation to a patient detained in a state hospital or a person who (by virtue of any of the means specified in subsection (11)(b) below) is no longer detained there, the State Hospitals Board for Scotland or a member of that Board.
- (6) In subsection (5)(d) above the reference to the area of a National Health Service trust is a reference to the Health Board area in which the trust discharges its functions.
- (7) It is the duty of the State Hospitals Board for Scotland (the “State Hospitals Board”) to secure the availability to persons who are patients detained in a state hospital of the services referred to in subsection (1) above and, in relation to those persons, to take the steps there referred to.
- (8) It is the duty of—

- (4) Where the Tribunal makes an order under subsection (2) above in respect of a patient who is not a relevant patient, the relevant Health Board shall identify a hospital—
 - (a) which is not a state hospital;
 - (b) which the Board considers, and its managers if they are not the Board agree, is a hospital in which the patient could be detained in conditions that would not involve the patient being subject to a level of security that is excessive in the patient's case; and
 - (c) in which accommodation is available for the patient.
- (5) Where the Tribunal makes an order under subsection (2) above in respect of a patient, the relevant Health Board shall, as soon as practicable after identifying a hospital under subsection (3) or, as the case may be, (4) above, give notice to the managers of the qualifying hospital of the name of the hospital so identified.
- (6) The persons referred to in subsection (2) above are—
 - (a) the qualifying patient;
 - (b) the qualifying patient's named person;
 - (c) any guardian of the qualifying patient;
 - (d) any welfare attorney of the qualifying patient; and
 - (e) the Commission.
- (7) An application may not be made under subsection (2) above—
 - (a) if the compulsory treatment order that authorises the patient's detention in hospital has not been extended;
 - (b) during the period of 6 months beginning with the making of the compulsion order that authorises the patient's detention in hospital; or
 - (c) before the expiry of the period of 6 months beginning with the making of—
 - (i) the hospital direction; or
 - (ii) the transfer for treatment direction,that authorises the patient's detention in hospital.
- (8) No more than one application may be made under subsection (2) above in respect of the same patient—
 - (a) during the period of 12 months beginning with the day on which the order, or direction, authorising the patient's detention in hospital is made;
 - (b) during any subsequent period of 12 months that begins with, or with an anniversary of, the expiry of the period mentioned in paragraph (a) above.
- (9) Before determining an application under subsection (2) above, the Tribunal shall—
 - (a) afford the persons mentioned in subsection (10) below the opportunity—
 - (i) of making representations (whether orally or in writing); and
 - (ii) of leading, or producing, evidence; and
 - (b) whether or not any such representations are made, hold a hearing.
- (10) Those persons are—

PART 18

MISCELLANEOUS

Code of practice

274 Code of practice

- (1) The Scottish Ministers shall, in accordance with this section, draw up, give effect to and publish a code of practice giving guidance to any person discharging functions by virtue of this Act as to—
 - (a) the discharge of such of those functions; and
 - (b) such matters arising in connection with the discharge of those functions, as they think fit.
- (2) The Scottish Ministers shall, before giving effect to a code of practice drawn up under subsection (1) above—
 - (a) consult such persons as they think fit; and
 - (b) lay a draft of the code before the Scottish Parliament.
- (3) A code of practice drawn up under subsection (1) above shall be given effect by being—
 - (a) confirmed by order made; and
 - (b) brought into force on a day appointed, by the Scottish Ministers.
- (4) Any person discharging functions by virtue of this Act shall have regard (so far as they are applicable to the discharge of those functions by that person) to the provisions of any code of practice published under subsection (1) above for the time being in force.
- (5) The references in subsections (1) and (4) above to a person discharging functions by virtue of this Act do not include references to—
 - (a) any court;
 - (b) the Tribunal; and
 - (c) the Commission.
- (6) The Scottish Ministers may, from time to time, revise the whole or part of any code of practice published under subsection (1) above; and if a code is so revised, the Scottish Ministers shall publish the revised code.
- (7) Subsections (2) to (6) above apply to a code of practice revised under subsection (6) above as they apply to a code of practice published under subsection (1) above.

- (1) An “advance statement” is a statement complying with subsection (2) below and specifying—
 - (a) the ways the person making it wishes to be treated for mental disorder;
 - (b) the ways the person wishes not to be so treated,in the event of the person’s becoming mentally disordered and the person’s ability to make decisions about the matters referred to in paragraphs (a) and (b) above being, because of that, significantly impaired.
- (2) An advance statement complies with this subsection if—
 - (a) at the time of making it, the person has the capacity of properly intending the wishes specified in it;
 - (b) it is in writing;
 - (c) it is subscribed by the person making it;
 - (d) that person’s subscription of it is witnessed by a person (the “witness”) who is within the class of persons prescribed by regulations for the purposes of this paragraph and who signs the statement as a witness to that subscription; and
 - (e) the witness certifies in writing on the document which comprises the statement that, in the witness’s opinion, the person making the statement has the capacity referred to in paragraph (a) above.
- (3) An advance statement may be withdrawn by the person who made it by a withdrawal complying with this subsection; and a withdrawal so complies if—
 - (a) at the time of making it the person has the capacity properly to intend to withdraw the statement; and
 - (b) it is made by means of a document which, were it an advance statement, would comply with paragraphs (b) to (e) of subsection (2) above.

276 Advance statements: effect

- (1) If the Tribunal is satisfied as to the matters set out in subsection (2) below, it shall, in making any decision in respect of a patient who is a person who has made and not withdrawn an advance statement, have regard to the wishes specified in the statement.
- (2) Those matters are—
 - (a) that, because of mental disorder, the ability of the person who made the advance statement to make decisions about the matters referred to in paragraphs (a) and (b) of subsection (1) of section 275 of this Act is significantly impaired;
 - (b) that the statement complies with subsection (2) of that section;

Changes to legislation: Mental Health (Care and Treatment) (Scotland) Act 2003 is up to date with all changes known to be in force on or before 23 January 2024. There are changes that may be brought into force at a future date. Changes that have been made appear in the content and are referenced with annotations. (See end of Document for details)

- (c) that any measures or treatment which might or will be authorised by virtue of the decision referred to in subsection (1) above or might or will, by virtue of that decision, no longer be authorised correspond to any wishes specified in the statement; and
 - (d) that, since the person made the statement, there has been no change of circumstances which, were the person to have been considering making the statement at the time the Tribunal is making the decision referred to in subsection (1) above, would have been likely to cause the person not to make the statement or to make a substantially different one.
- (3) A person giving medical treatment authorised by virtue of this Act or the 1995 Act to a patient who is a person—
- (a) who has made and not withdrawn an advance statement; and
 - (b) whose ability to make decisions about the matters referred to in paragraphs (a) and (b) of subsection (1) of section 275 of this Act is, because of mental disorder, significantly impaired,
- shall have regard to the wishes specified in the advance statement.
- (4) Before making a decision under section 236(2)(c), 239(1)(c) or 241(1)(c) of this Act in relation to a patient who is a person who has made and not withdrawn an advance statement, a designated medical practitioner shall have regard to the wishes specified in the statement.
- (5) For the purposes of subsections (1) and (2) above and (in the case where medical treatment is to or might be given to a patient otherwise than by virtue of any such decision as is referred to in subsection (1) above or is to be given to the patient by virtue of such a decision which was made in ignorance of the existence or the withdrawal of an advance statement) of subsections (3) and (4) above—
- (a) an advance statement shall be taken to comply with subsection (2) of section 275 of this Act; and
 - (b) a withdrawal of an advance statement shall be taken to comply with subsection (3) of that section,
- unless the contrary appears.
- (6) For the purposes of subsections (3) and (4) above in the case where the medical treatment is authorised by virtue of a decision such as is referred to in subsection (1) above—
- (a) an advance statement shall be taken to comply with subsection (2) of section 275 of this Act; and
 - (b) a withdrawal of an advance statement shall be taken to comply with subsection (3) of that section,
- if the Tribunal was satisfied when making the decision that the statement or, as the case may be, the withdrawal so complies.
- (7) If, in respect of a patient who is a person who has made and not withdrawn an advance statement—
- (a) the Tribunal makes such a decision as is referred to in subsection (1) above authorising measures which conflict with the wishes specified in the statement;
 - (b) a person having functions under this Act gives medical treatment authorised by virtue of this Act or the 1995 Act to the person and that treatment conflicts with those wishes;

- (c) a designated medical practitioner makes such a decision as is referred to in subsection (4) above and it conflicts with those wishes; or
- (d) such measures, treatment or decision which could have been so authorised, given or, as the case may be, made are not so authorised or is not so given or made, with the consequence that there is a conflict with those wishes, then the Tribunal, person having those functions or, as the case may be, designated medical practitioner shall comply with the requirements set out in subsection (8) below.

(8) Those requirements are—

- (a) recording in writing the circumstances in which those measures were or treatment or decision was authorised, given or made or, as the case may be, not authorised, given or made, and the reasons why;
- (b) supplying—
 - (i) the person who made the statement;
 - (ii) that person’s named person;
 - (iii) that person’s welfare attorney;
 - (iv) that person’s guardian; and
 - (v) the Commission, with a copy of that record; and
- (c) placing a copy of that record with that person’s medical records.

the meaning given by section 33 of the Data Protection Act 1998 (c. 29) (research, history and statistics).

- (3) Information need not be provided under this section if, were it evidence which might be given in proceedings in any court in Scotland, the person having that evidence could not be compelled to give it in such proceedings.
- (4) Where information required under subsection (1) above—
- (a) is, or refers to, information about a natural person and would identify or enable the identification of the person; and
 - (b) can reasonably be provided under subsection (1) above so as not to identify or enable the identification of the person,
- it shall be so provided.
- (5) Where—
- (a) the person required under subsection (1) above to provide the information is under a duty of confidentiality in respect of that information; and
 - (b) the person cannot provide the information without breaching the duty,
- the information shall not be provided unless the person to whom the duty is owed has consented to its provision.
- (6) On receipt of information provided under this section, the Scottish Ministers (or any other person provided under this section with the information) may, for the purposes referred to in subsection (2) above, do any, or all, of the following—
- (a) process the information;
 - (b) collate it;
 - (c) publish it or reports based on it.
- (7) Regulations may provide as to the procedure to be followed in making requirements under this section for information and in providing it.
- (8) Where information recorded otherwise than in legible form is required to be provided under this section, it shall be provided in legible form.
- (9) For the purposes of this section—
- (a) information is “relevant” if it is information as to the operation of this Act; and
 - (b) a person is under a duty of confidentiality in respect of information although the person could notwithstanding that duty be compelled to give evidence as to that information in proceedings in a court in Scotland.

- (m) a National Health Service trust;
 - (n) any person who, to the knowledge of the managers of the hospital in which the specified person is detained, is providing independent advocacy services to the specified person under section 259 of this Act;
 - (o) any legally qualified person instructed by the specified person to act as the specified person’s legal adviser;
 - (p) the European Court of Human Rights; and
 - (q) such other persons as may be specified in regulations.
- (6) A postal packet which—
- (a) is addressed to a specified person; and
 - (b) is not sent by or on behalf of any person mentioned in subsection (5) above, may be withheld from the specified person by the managers of the hospital in which the specified person is detained if, in their opinion, it is necessary to do so in the interests of the health or safety of the specified person or for the protection of any other person.
- (7) The managers of a hospital may inspect and open any postal packet for the purposes of determining—
- (a) whether it is a postal packet to which subsection (1) or (6) above applies; and
 - (b) if it is, whether it should be withheld under the subsection in question.
- (8) The power to withhold a postal packet under subsection (1) or (6) above includes power to withhold anything contained in such packet.
- (9) In this section—
- “postal packet” has the meaning given by section 125 of the Postal Services Act 2000 (c. 26);
- “relevant carrier” means—
- (a) the postal operator (as defined in that section of that Act); or
 - (b) the person other than a person mentioned in paragraph (a) above, who is to receive or collect the postal packet for the purpose of its being conveyed and delivered; and
- “specified person” means a person who—
- (a) is detained in a hospital; and
 - (b) meets such other conditions, or in relation to whom such other conditions are met, as may be specified in regulations.

282 Correspondence: supplementary

- (1) If a postal packet or anything contained in it is withheld under subsection (1) or (6) of section 281 of this Act, the managers of the hospital shall record that fact in writing.
- (2) If a postal packet or anything contained in it is withheld under—
 - (a) subsection (1) of section 281 of this Act by virtue of subsection (3) of that section; or
 - (b) subsection (6) of that section,

the managers of the hospital shall, before the expiry of the period of 7 days beginning with the withholding of the packet or anything contained in it, give notice to the Commission of the matters mentioned in subsection (3) below.

(3) Those matters are—

- (a) the name of the specified person;
- (b) the nature of the postal packet or contents withheld; and
- (c) the reason for withholding the postal packet or contents.

(4) If a postal packet or anything contained in it is withheld under—

- (a) subsection (1) of section 281 of this Act by virtue of subsection (3) of that section; or
- (b) subsection (6) of that section,

the managers of the hospital shall, before the expiry of the period of 7 days beginning with the withholding of the packet or anything contained in it, give notice to the persons mentioned in subsection (5) below of the fact that the postal packet or anything contained in it has been withheld and the effect of section 283 of this Act.

(5) Those persons are—

- (a) the specified person; and
- (b) in a case where the packet is withheld as mentioned in paragraph (b) of subsection (4) above, the person by whom the packet was sent (if known).

(6) The functions under section 281 of this Act and this section of the managers of a hospital shall be discharged on their behalf by a person on the staff of the hospital appointed by them for that purpose; and different persons may be so appointed to discharge different functions.

(7) Regulations may—

- (a) make provision with respect to the exercise of the powers conferred by section 281 of this Act;
- (b) make provision for that section and this section to apply as if references to postal packets included references to written communications by the means specified in the regulations, with such modifications as may be so specified.

(8) In this section—

- “postal packet” has the same meaning as in section 281 of this Act; and
- “specified person” has the same meaning as in that section.

283 Review of decision to withhold postal packet

- (i) the specified person; or
 - (ii) the person by whom the postal packet was sent,
- the Commission shall review the decision to withhold the relevant item.
- (3) Any application under subsection (2) above shall be made before the expiry of the period of 6 months beginning with the day on which the person making the application receives notice under section 282(4) of this Act.
- (4) On an application under subsection (2) above the Commission may direct that the relevant item should not be withheld; and the managers of the hospital concerned shall comply with any such direction.
- (5) Regulations may make provision with respect to the making of applications under subsection (2) above.
- (6) Regulations under subsection (5) above may in particular make provision as to the production to the Commission of relevant items.
- (7) In this section—
- “postal packet” has the same meaning as in section 281 of this Act;
 - “relevant item” means a postal packet or anything contained in it; and
 - “specified person” has the same meaning as in that section.

284 Certain persons detained in hospital: use of telephones

- (1) Regulations may make provision for or in connection with regulating the use of telephones by such persons detained in hospital as may be specified in the regulations (“specified persons”).
- (2) Provision under subsection (1) above may in particular—
- (a) confer rights on specified persons to use telephones;
 - (b) make the entitlement to, or exercise of, any such rights subject to conditions imposed by or under regulations;
 - (c) restrict, or prohibit, the use of telephones by specified persons;
 - (d) authorise the managers of a hospital to intercept, or arrange for the interception of, telephone calls—
 - (i) to specified persons; or
 - (ii) made by specified persons;
 - (e) require the managers of a hospital to make, and maintain, records of such matters as may be specified in the regulations;
 - (f) require the managers of a hospital to inform persons specified in the regulations of matters so specified;
 - (g) confer power on the Commission to give to the managers of a hospital directions as to matters of any description specified in the regulations;
 - (h) require the managers of a hospital to comply with any directions given to them by virtue of paragraph (g) above.
- (3) The conditions mentioned in subsection (2)(b) above include in particular conditions as to payment of call charges for calls made by or on behalf of specified persons.
- (4) Regulations under this section may not authorise the interception of a telephone call made by a specified person to a person mentioned in subsection (6) below unless—

- (a) the person has requested the interception of telephone calls made by the specified person to the person; or
 - (b) the telephone call is or would be unlawful for any reason other than one arising from provision made by virtue of this section.
- (5) Regulations under this section may not authorise the interception of a telephone call made to a specified person by a person mentioned in subsection (6) below unless the telephone call is or would be unlawful for any reason other than one arising from provision made by virtue of this section.
- (6) The persons referred to in subsections (4) and (5) above are—
- (a) any of the persons mentioned in paragraphs (a) to (i), (k) to (n) and (p) of section 281(5) of this Act;
 - (b) the managers of the hospital in which the specified person is detained;
 - (c) a legally qualified person instructed by the specified person to act as the specified person’s legal adviser; and
 - (d) such other person as may be specified by the regulations.
- (7) In this section “intercept”, in relation to a telephone call, includes—
- (a) listen to, record or otherwise monitor; and
 - (b) interrupt, cut short, divert or prevent from being connected.
- (8) For the purposes of this section, a telephone call is made when the telephone number of the person being called has been dialled.

285 Directions as to implementation of regulations under section 284(1)

- (1) The Scottish Ministers may give to the managers of a hospital directions as to the implementation by those managers of regulations made under section 284(1) of this Act; and the managers shall comply with any such directions.
- (2) The Scottish Ministers may require the managers of a hospital to provide them with a statement setting out such information as respects the implementation of the regulations by those managers as the Scottish Ministers may specify.

286 Safety and security in hospitals

- (1) Regulations may authorise—
 - (a) the search of such persons detained in hospital by virtue of this Act or the 1995 Act as may be specified in the regulations and of anything they have with them in the hospital in which they are detained;
 - (b) the taking, from external parts of the body of those persons and, by means of swabbing, from the mouth of those persons, of samples of body tissue, blood or other body fluid or other material, the taking hypodermically from those persons of samples of blood and the examination of those samples;
 - (c) the placing of restrictions on the kinds of things which those persons may have with them in the hospitals in which they are detained and the removal from them of articles kept in breach of such restrictions;
 - (d) the placing of prohibitions and restrictions on the entry into and the conduct while in those hospitals of persons (“visitors”) visiting those persons or otherwise entering or seeking to enter those hospitals and on the kinds of things which visitors may bring with them into those hospitals;

- (ii) where, in the case where the patient is not capable of giving that notification, the patient's named person has notified the responsible medical officer that that person considers that it is in the patient's best interests to be so removed;
 - (c) provide that the responsible medical officer may give that authority only if satisfied that there are in existence, in the place to which the patient is to go after being so removed, arrangements which will secure for the patient measures, treatment, care or services corresponding or similar to those which the patient is subject to or is receiving by virtue of this Act or, as the case may be, the 1995 Act;
 - (d) require a patient's responsible medical officer, before making a decision whether to authorise the removal of the patient, to notify—
 - (i) except where notification referred to in paragraph (b) above has been given by the patient's named person, that person;
 - (ii) the mental health officer; and
 - (iii) the Commission, of the circumstances of the case; and
 - (e) authorise a patient's responsible medical officer to give directions in connection with the removal of the patient.
- (3) References in this section to—
- (a) a relevant requirement are, as respects a patient, references to a requirement imposed in relation to the patient under section 66(1) of this Act or section 57A(8) of the 1995 Act, not being detention in a hospital;
 - (b) a patient subject to a relevant requirement include references to a patient in respect of whom section 128(1) (either as enacted or as applied by section 179 of this Act) is in operation.

290 Cross-border transfer: patients subject to detention requirement or otherwise in hospital

- (1) Regulations may make provision for or in connection with—
- (a) the removal, of a patient whose detention in hospital is authorised by virtue of this Act or the 1995 Act, from Scotland to a place outwith Scotland (whether or not a place in the United Kingdom);
 - (b) the removal, of a patient who for the purposes of being given treatment for mental disorder is in hospital otherwise than by virtue of this Act or the 1995 Act, from Scotland to a place outwith the United Kingdom;
 - (c) the reception in Scotland of a person subject to corresponding measures in England, Wales, Northern Ireland, the Isle of Man or the Channel Islands and removed from there.
- (2) Where provision is made by regulations under paragraph (a) or (b) of subsection (1) above, the regulations shall—
- (a) require a patient's removal from Scotland to be authorised by warrant issued by the Scottish Ministers;
 - (b) require that, among the factors to which the Scottish Ministers have regard in deciding whether to authorise that removal, there are included, as well as the best interests of the patient, the following—
 - (i) the existence, in the place to which a patient is to go after being removed from Scotland, of arrangements which will secure for

Informal patients

291 Application to Tribunal in relation to unlawful detention

- (1) This section applies where, otherwise than by virtue of this Act or the 1995 Act, a person (“the patient”)—
- (a) has been admitted to a hospital; and
 - (b) is being given treatment there primarily for mental disorder.
- (2) A person mentioned in subsection (4) below may apply to the Tribunal for an order requiring the managers of the hospital to cease to detain the patient.
- (3) On an application under subsection (2) above the Tribunal shall—
- (a) if satisfied that the patient is being unlawfully detained in the hospital, make the order mentioned in subsection (2) above; or
 - (b) if not satisfied about the matter mentioned in paragraph (a) above, refuse the application.
- (4) The persons referred to in subsection (2) above are—
- (a) the patient;
 - (b) the patient’s named person;
 - (c) if the patient is a child, any person who has parental responsibilities in relation to the patient;
 - (d) a mental health officer;
 - (e) the Commission;
 - (f) any guardian of the patient;
 - (g) any welfare attorney of the patient; and
 - (h) any other person having an interest in the welfare of the patient.

PART 19

ENTRY, REMOVAL AND DETENTION POWERS

VALID FROM 05/10/2005

Entry to premises

292 Warrant to enter premises for purposes of taking patient

- (1) If a sheriff or a justice of the peace is satisfied by an authorised person’s evidence on oath as to the matters mentioned in subsection (2) below, the sheriff or, as the case may be, justice of the peace may grant a warrant under this subsection.
- (2) Those matters are—
- (a) that for the purposes for which the authorised person is authorised it is necessary to enter premises; and
 - (b) that the authorised person—
 - (i) is unable to obtain entry to those premises; or
 - (ii) reasonably apprehends that the authorised person will be unable to obtain entry to those premises.
- (3) A warrant under subsection (1) above is a warrant—
- (a) authorising—
 - (i) the authorised person;
 - (ii) any mental health officer appointed by the local authority for the area in which the premises are situated; and
 - (iii) any constable of the police force maintained for the area in which the premises are situated, to enter the premises specified in the warrant; and
 - (b) authorising any constable of the police force for the area in which the premises are situated, for the purpose of exercising the power mentioned in paragraph (a) above, to open lockfast places on premises so specified.
- (4) In the execution of a warrant granted under subsection (1) above, the persons authorised for the purpose of subsection (3)(a) above may be accompanied by—
- (a) a medical practitioner;
 - (b) any other authorised person.

Status: Point in time view as at 01/07/2003. This version of this Act contains provisions that are not valid for this point in time.
Changes to legislation: Mental Health (Care and Treatment) (Scotland) Act 2003 is up to date with all changes known to be in force on or before 23 January 2024. There are changes that may be brought into force at a future date. Changes that have been made appear in the content and are referenced with annotations. (See end of Document for details)

- (5) In this section, references to an authorised person are to a person who, in relation to a patient, is authorised by virtue of this Act—
- (a) to take the patient to any place; or
 - (b) to take (or retake) into custody the patient where the patient is liable to be taken (or retaken).

Removal to place of safety

293 Removal order

- (1) If, on the application of a relevant mental health officer, a sheriff is satisfied that—
- (a) a person who is aged 16 years or over has a mental disorder;
 - (b) any of the circumstances mentioned in subsection (2) below apply in respect of that person; and
 - (c) that person is likely to suffer significant harm if not removed to a place of safety,
- the sheriff may make an order under this section (any such order being referred to in this Act as a “removal order”) in respect of that person.
- (2) The circumstances referred to in subsection (1)(b) above are—
- (a) that the person is subject, or exposed, to—
 - (i) ill-treatment;
 - (ii) neglect; or
 - (iii) some other deficiency in care or treatment;
 - (b) that, because of the mental disorder, the person’s property—
 - (i) is suffering loss or damage; or
 - (ii) is at risk of suffering loss or damage; and
 - (c) that the person is—
 - (i) living alone or without care; and
 - (ii) unable to look after himself or his property or financial affairs.
- (3) A removal order is an order—
- (a) authorising—
 - (i) the mental health officer specified in the order;
 - (ii) any other persons so specified; and
 - (iii) any constable of the police force maintained for the area in which the premises are situated,before the expiry of the period of 72 hours beginning with the granting of the order, to enter any premises so specified;
 - (b) authorising any such constable, before the expiry of that period, for the purpose of exercising the power mentioned in paragraph (a) above, to open lockfast places on premises so specified; and
 - (c) authorising—
 - (i) before the expiry of that period, the removal of the person who is the subject of the removal order to a place of safety specified in the order; and

- (ii) the detention of that person in that place for such period, not exceeding 7 days, as may be specified in the order.
- (4) An application for a removal order shall be made to the sheriff of the sheriffdom in which the premises to which the application relates are situated.
- (5) Before determining an application for a removal order, the sheriff shall, subject to subsection (7) below, afford the persons mentioned in subsection (6) below the opportunity—
- (a) of making representations (whether orally or in writing); and
 - (b) of leading, or producing, evidence.
- (6) Those persons are—
- (a) the person who is the subject of the application; and
 - (b) such other persons as may be prescribed by regulations.
- (7) If the sheriff considers that such delay as would result from compliance with the requirements of subsection (5) above would be likely to be prejudicial to the person who is the subject of the application, the sheriff may dispense with the requirements of that subsection.
- (8) In this section “relevant mental health officer” means a mental health officer appointed by the local authority for the area in which the premises to which the application relates are situated.

VALID FROM 05/10/2005

294 Removal order: urgent application to justice of the peace

Where—

- (a) the making of an application to the sheriff for a removal order is impracticable; and
- (b) the circumstances are such that any delay in obtaining a removal order is likely to be prejudicial to the person who would be the subject of the application, the application may be made instead to a justice of the peace for the commission area in which the premises to which the application relates are situated; and subsections (1) to (3) of section 293 of this Act shall apply in relation to an application made by virtue of this section as those subsections apply as respects an application to the sheriff.

295 Recall or variation of removal order

- (1) A person who is the subject of a removal order, or any person claiming an interest in the welfare of that person, may apply to the sheriff for an order under this section—
- (a) recalling the removal order; or
 - (b) varying that order by—
 - (i) specifying a different place of safety;

- (ii) authorising, before the expiry of the period mentioned in subsection (2) below, the removal of the person who is the subject of the removal order to that place of safety; and
 - (iii) authorising the detention of the person who is the subject of the removal order in that place of safety for the remainder of such period as may have been specified, by virtue of section 293(3)(c)(ii) of this Act, in the removal order.
- (2) The period referred to in subsection (1)(b)(ii) above is the period of 72 hours beginning with the granting of the order varying the removal order.
- (3) An application under section (1) above shall be made to the sheriff of the sheriffdom in which the premises to which the application for a removal order related are situated.
- (4) Before determining an application under subsection (1) above, the sheriff shall afford the persons mentioned in subsection (5) below the opportunity—
- (a) of making representations (whether orally or in writing); and
 - (b) of leading, or producing, evidence.
- (5) Those persons are—
- (a) the person who is the subject of the removal order to which the application relates; and
 - (b) such persons as may be prescribed by regulations.
- (6) Where a sheriff makes an order under this section recalling a removal order, the sheriff may, in addition, make such order as the sheriff thinks fit for the person who was the subject of the removal order—
- (a) to be returned to the premises from which that person was, by virtue of the removal order, removed; or
 - (b) to be taken to some appropriate place chosen by that person.

VALID FROM 05/10/2005

296 No appeal against decision under section 293 or 295

No appeal shall be competent against—

- (a) a decision of a sheriff under—
 - (i) section 293(1) of this Act making, or refusing to make, a removal order; or
 - (ii) section 295 of this Act making, or refusing to make, an order recalling or varying a removal order; or
- (b) a decision of a justice of the peace under section 293(1) of this Act making, or refusing to make, a removal order.

VALID FROM 05/10/2005

297 Removal from public place

(1) Where—

(a) a constable reasonably suspects—

(i) that a person (referred to in this section and in section 298 of this Act as a “relevant person”) who is in a public place has a mental disorder; and

(ii) that the relevant person is in immediate need of care or treatment; and

(b) the constable considers that it would be in the interests of the relevant person, or necessary for the protection of any other person, to remove the relevant person to a place of safety, the constable may remove the relevant person to a place of safety.

(2) A relevant person removed to a place of safety under subsection (1) above may, for the purposes of enabling—

(a) arrangements to be made for a medical practitioner to carry out a medical examination of the relevant person; and

(b) the making of such arrangements as the medical practitioner considers necessary for the relevant person’s care or treatment, be detained there for a period ending not later than 24 hours after the time at which the relevant person is removed from the public place by the constable.

(3) If a relevant person absconds—

(a) while being removed to a place of safety under subsection (1) above; or

(b) from the place of safety,

a constable may, at any time during the period mentioned in subsection (2) above, take the person into custody and remove the person to a place of safety.

(4) In this section, “public place” means a place to which the public, or any section of the public, has, or is permitted to have, access (whether on payment or otherwise); and includes the common parts of a building containing two or more separate dwellings.

(5) If no place of safety is immediately available, a constable may, under subsection (1) or (3) above, remove a relevant person to a police station; and in any such case, any reference in this section and in section 298 of this Act to a place of safety shall be construed as being a reference to a police station.

298 Removal under section 297: further provision

(1) This section applies where a constable removes a relevant person to a place of safety under section 297 of this Act.

(2) The constable shall—

(a) as soon as reasonably practicable after removing a relevant person to a place of safety, ensure—

- (i) that the local authority in whose area the place of safety is situated are informed of the matters mentioned in subsection (3) below; and
 - (ii) subject to subsection (4) below, that the nearest relative of the relevant person is informed of those matters; and
- (b) before the expiry of the period of 14 days beginning with the day on which the person is removed to the place of safety, ensure that the Commission is given notice of those matters.
- (3) The matters are—
- (a) the name and address of the relevant person;
 - (b) the date and time at which the relevant person was removed from the public place;
 - (c) the circumstances giving rise to the removal of the relevant person to the place of safety;
 - (d) the address of the place of safety;
 - (e) if the relevant person is removed to a police station, the reason why the relevant person was removed there; and
 - (f) any other matter prescribed by regulations.
- (4) Where—
- (a) it is impracticable to ensure that the relevant person’s nearest relative is informed of the matters mentioned in subsection (3) above; or
 - (b) the nearest relative is so informed but the nearest relative does not reside with the relevant person,
- the constable shall, as soon as reasonably practicable after removing the relevant person to the place of safety, ensure that, where reasonably practicable, a person falling within subsection (5) below is informed of those matters.
- (5) A person falls within this subsection if—
- (a) the person—
 - (i) resides with the relevant person; or
 - (ii) provides a care service to the relevant person; or
 - (b) the person is an individual who, otherwise than—
 - (i) by virtue of a contract of employment, or other contract, with any person; or
 - (ii) as a volunteer for a voluntary organisation, provides care for the relevant person.
- (6) In this section—
- “care service” has the meaning given by section 2(1) of the Regulation of Care (Scotland) Act 2001 (asp 8);
 - “nearest relative” has the meaning given by section 254 of this Act; and
 - “public place” has the meaning given by section 297 of this Act.

- (a) by virtue of an order under section 228(1) of the 1995 Act which includes—
- (i) by virtue of subsections (1) and (2)(a) of section 230 of that Act, a requirement that the patient submit to treatment as a resident patient in a hospital; or
 - (ii) by virtue of subsections (1) and (2)(b) of that section, a requirement that the patient submit to treatment as a non-resident patient at an institution or place specified in the order,
- a patient is in hospital and being given medical treatment; or
- (b) otherwise than by virtue of—
- (i) an order such as is mentioned in paragraph (a) above;
 - (ii) any other provision of the 1995 Act; or
 - (iii) this Act,
- a patient is in hospital and being given medical treatment.
- (2) Where—
- (a) a nurse of such class as may be prescribed by regulations considers that it is likely that the conditions mentioned in subsection (3) below are met in respect of the patient; and
 - (b) it is not practicable to secure the immediate medical examination of the patient by a medical practitioner,
- the patient may, subject to subsection (4) below, be detained in hospital for a period of 2 hours (the “holding period”) for the purpose of enabling arrangements to be made for a medical examination of the patient to be carried out.
- (3) The conditions referred to in subsection (2)(a) above are—
- (a) that the patient has a mental disorder;
 - (b) that it is necessary for the protection of—
 - (i) the health, safety or welfare of the patient; or
 - (ii) the safety of any other person, that the patient be immediately restrained from leaving the hospital; and
 - (c) that it is necessary to carry out a medical examination of the patient for the purpose of determining whether the granting of—
 - (i) an emergency detention certificate; or
 - (ii) a short-term detention certificate, is warranted.
- (4) If the medical practitioner who first arrives to carry out a medical examination of the patient within the holding period arrives after the expiry of the first hour of the holding period, the period for which the patient may be held shall be the period beginning with the commencement of the patient’s detention under subsection (2) above and ending one hour after the arrival of the medical practitioner.
- (5) Where the patient is detained under subsection (2) above the nurse shall, as soon as practicable after the holding period begins, take all reasonable steps to inform a mental health officer of the detention.
- (6) Where the patient is detained under subsection (2) above, the nurse shall, as soon as practicable after the holding period begins, record in writing—
- (a) the fact that the patient has been detained;
 - (b) the time at which the holding period began; and

- (c) the nurse’s reasons for believing that it is likely that the conditions mentioned in paragraphs (a) to (c) of subsection (3) are met in respect of the patient.
- (7) A record made under subsection (6) above shall, as soon as practicable after it is made, be delivered to the managers of the hospital in which the patient is detained by—
- (a) the nurse; or
 - (b) a person authorised for the purpose by the nurse.
- (8) Where the managers of a hospital receive a record by virtue of subsection (7) above, they shall, before the expiry of the period of 14 days beginning with the day on which they receive it, send a copy of it to the Commission.
- (9) Any subordinate legislation made under section 25 of the Mental Health (Scotland) Act 1984 (c. 36) (detention of patients already in hospital) shall, if in force immediately before the day on which this section comes into force, have effect on and after that day as if made under this section.

303 Taking into custody and return of absconding patients

- (1) A person specified in subsection (3)(a) below may, during the period specified in subsection (4) below—

- (a) take into custody any patient who, under sections 301 or 302 of this Act, is liable to be taken into custody;
- (b) return the patient to the hospital in which the patient was detained or, as the case may be, take the patient to the hospital in which the patient was to be detained or, if that is not appropriate or practicable, take the patient to any other place considered appropriate by the patient’s responsible medical officer;
- (c) return or take the patient to such other place as the patient absconded from or at which the patient failed to reside or, if that is not appropriate or practicable, take the patient to any other place considered appropriate by the patient’s responsible medical officer.

- (2) The person specified in subsection (3)(b) below may, during the period specified in subsection (4) below—

- (a) take into custody any patient in respect of whom a certificate under section 41(1), 53(1) or 127(1) of this Act has effect and a condition under section 41(4), 53(4) or, as the case may be, 127(6) of this Act requires that the patient be kept in charge of that person and who, under section 301 or 302 of this Act is liable to be taken into custody; and
- (b) resume the charge of the patient or, if that is not appropriate or practicable, take the patient to any place considered appropriate by the patient’s responsible medical officer.

- (3) The—

- (a) persons referred to in subsection (1) above are—
 - (i) a mental health officer;
 - (ii) a constable;
 - (iii) a member of staff of any hospital and, where the patient liable to be taken into custody is subject to a compulsory treatment order a condition of which requires the patient to reside in an establishment the address of which is specified in the order, a member of staff of that establishment; and
 - (iv) any other person authorised for the purposes of that subsection by the patient’s responsible medical officer;
- (b) person referred to in subsection (2) above is the person who is authorised under section 41(4), 53(4) or, as the case may be, 127(6) of this Act to have charge of the patient.

- (4) The period referred to in subsection (1) above is—

Status: Point in time view as at 01/07/2003. This version of this Act contains provisions that are not valid for this point in time.

Changes to legislation: Mental Health (Care and Treatment) (Scotland) Act 2003 is up to date with all changes known to be in force on or before 23 January 2024. - (a) in the case of a patient who is subject to a compulsory treatment order, the period of 3 months beginning with the day—
 - (i) when the patient absconded; or
 - (ii) when the patient’s conduct or failure first gave rise to liability to be taken into custody;
 - (b) in any other case, the period ending with the expiry of the order, certificate, report or, as the case may be, provision under or in pursuance of which the patient was to be detained.
- (5) The expiry, during the period referred to in subsection (1) above, of the authorised period in relation to the compulsory treatment order to which a patient is subject does not affect the powers conferred by this section.
- (6) The powers conferred by subsections (1) and (2) above include power to use reasonable force in their exercise.
- (7) A patient who is, under section 301 or 302 of this Act, liable to be taken into custody ceases to be so liable—
- (a) on returning to the hospital or other place from which the patient absconded or arriving at the hospital in which the patient was to be detained;
 - (b) on being returned or taken either there or to such other place as is considered appropriate by the patient’s responsible medical officer under subsection (1)(b) or (c) or (2)(b) above; or
 - (c) on being taken into custody under section 113 of this Act.

VALID FROM 05/10/2005

Effect of unauthorised absence

304 Effect of unauthorised absence

- (1) References in this section and sections 305 to 308 of this Act to a patient’s unauthorised absence are references to a patient’s being liable, under section 301 of this Act, to be taken into custody and dealt with under section 303 of this Act.
- (2) Subject to sections 305 to 308 of this Act, a patient’s unauthorised absence does not affect the continuity or measurement of any period of time fixed by, under or relative to any provision of this Act or requirement imposed by virtue of it, of which that absence is a breach.
- (3) Where, in the case of a patient who is subject to a compulsory treatment order, the patient’s unauthorised absence has continued for a period of 3 months, the order shall then cease to have effect.

305 Effect of long unauthorised absence ending more than 14 days before expiry of compulsory treatment order

- (1) Where the unauthorised absence of a patient who is subject to a compulsory treatment order—
 - (a) lasted longer than 28 consecutive days; and

Status: Point in time view as at 01/07/2003. This version of this Act contains provisions that are not valid for this point in time.

Changes to legislation: Mental Health (Care and Treatment) (Scotland) Act 2003 is up to date with all changes known to be in force on or before 23 January 2024. There are changes that may be brought into force at a future date. Changes that have been made appear in the content and are referenced with annotations. (See end of Document for details)

(b) ceased before the beginning of the period of 14 days ending with the day when the compulsory treatment would, apart from this subsection, cease to authorise the measures specified in it, the order shall cease to have effect at the expiry of the period of 14 days beginning with the day when the patient's unauthorised absence ceased.

- (2) The patient's responsible medical officer shall, during the period of 14 days secondly referred to in subsection (1) above, carry out a review in respect of the compulsory treatment order to which the patient is subject by complying with the requirements set out in section 77(3) of this Act.
- (3) Where any part of the period of 14 days referred to in subsection (2) above occurs within the period of 2 months mentioned in subsection (5) of section 77 or subsection (3) of section 78 of this Act, the review which would (apart from this subsection) have been carried out during that period of 2 months under that section shall not be carried out.
- (4) The other review provisions (that is to say, section 83(2) and (3) and the subsequent provisions of Chapter 4 of Part 7 of this Act) shall, in accordance with subsections (5) and (6) below, apply in respect and in consequence of a review under this section as they apply in respect and in consequence of the reviews for which that Chapter provides.
- (5) Where the compulsory treatment order to which the patient is subject has not been extended as mentioned in section 78(1) of this Act, those of the other review provisions which relate to a first review apply.
- (6) Where that order has been so extended, those of the other review provisions which relate to a further review apply.

306 Effect of unauthorised absence ending simultaneously with or within 14 days before expiry of compulsory treatment order

- (1) Where the unauthorised absence of a patient who is subject to a compulsory treatment order—
 - (a) ceases on the day that the order to which the patient is subject would, apart from this subsection, cease to authorise the measures specified in it; or
 - (b) ceased within a period of 14 days ending with that day,
 the order shall be treated as having continued in effect and, subject to subsection (4) below, as continuing in effect until the end of the period of 14 days beginning with the day on which the patient's unauthorised absence ceased.
- (2) The patient's responsible medical officer shall, during the period of 14 days secondly referred to in subsection (1) above, carry out a review in respect of the compulsory treatment order to which the patient is subject by complying with the requirements set out in section 77(3) of this Act.
- (3) Where any part of the period of 14 days referred to in subsection (2) above occurs within the period of 2 months mentioned in subsection (5) of section 77 or subsection (3) of section 78 of this Act, the review which would (apart from this subsection) have been carried out during that period of 2 months under that section shall not be carried out.

Status: Point in time view as at 01/07/2003. This version of this Act contains provisions that are not valid for this point in time.

Changes to legislation: Mental Health (Care and Treatment) (Scotland) Act 2003 is up to date with all changes known to be in force on or before 23 January 2024. There are changes that may be brought into force at a future date. Changes that have been made appear in the content and are referenced with annotations. (See end of Document for details)

(4) Subsections (4) to (6) of section 305 of this Act apply for the purposes of a review under subsection (2) above as they apply for the purposes of a review under subsection (2) of that section.

(5) Where—

- (a) the compulsory treatment order to which a patient is subject is, under this section, treated as continuing in effect; and
- (b) the patient’s unauthorised absence—
 - (i) began at a time when a review of the order was being carried out under section 77 or 78 of this Act; and
 - (ii) lasted for 28 consecutive days or any shorter period,
 then anything done by the patient’s responsible medical officer for the purposes of that review which (apart from this subsection) would fall to be done for the purposes of a review under this section need not, for those latter purposes, be done.

307 Effect of unauthorised absence ending after expiry of compulsory treatment order

(1) Where the unauthorised absence of a patient who is subject to a compulsory treatment order ceases—

- (a) within a period of 3 months beginning with the day on which it began; and
- (b) after the day when the compulsory treatment order to which the patient was subject would, but for this subsection, have ceased to authorise the measures specified in it, the order shall be treated as having continued in effect and, subject to subsection (3) below, as continuing in effect until the end of the period of 14 days beginning with the day on which the patient’s unauthorised absence ceased.

(2) The patient’s responsible medical officer shall, during the period of 14 days referred to in subsection (1) above, carry out a review of the compulsory treatment order to which the patient is subject by complying with the requirements set out in section 77(3) of this Act.

(3) Subsections (4) to (6) of section 305 of this Act apply for the purposes of a review under subsection (2) above as they apply for the purposes of a review under subsection (2) of that section.

(4) Where—

- (a) the compulsory treatment order to which a patient is subject is, under this section, treated as continuing in effect; and
- (b) the patient’s unauthorised absence—
 - (i) began at a time when a review of the order was being carried out under section 77 or 78 of this Act; and
 - (ii) lasted for 28 consecutive days or any shorter period,
 then anything done by the patient’s responsible medical officer for the purposes of that review which (apart from this subsection) would fall to be done for the purposes of a review under this section need not, for those latter purposes, be done.

Status: Point in time view as at 01/07/2003. This version of this Act contains provisions that are not valid for this point in time.

Changes to legislation: Mental Health (Care and Treatment) (Scotland) Act 2003 is up to date with all changes known to be in force on or before 23 January 2024. 323 Suspension of decision of Tribunal pending determination of certain appeals

- (1) Where the Scottish Ministers appeal under section 322(2) of this Act against any decision of the Tribunal under section 193 of this Act, or a decision of the Tribunal to make a direction under section 215(3) or (4) of this Act, the Court of Session may, on the motion of the Scottish Ministers, order—
- (a) that the patient in respect of whom the Tribunal’s decision was made shall continue, subject to subsection (2) below, to be detained; and

Status: Point in time view as at 01/07/2003. This version of this Act contains provisions that are not valid for this point in time.

Changes to legislation: Mental Health (Care and Treatment) (Scotland) Act 2003 is up to date with all changes known to be in force on or before 23 January 2024. There are changes that may be brought into force at a future date. Changes that have been made appear in the content and are referenced with annotations. (See end of Document for details)

- (b) that both the compulsion order and restriction order or, as the case may be, the hospital direction or transfer for treatment direction to which the patient is subject shall continue to have effect accordingly.
- (2) An order under subsection (1) above has the effect of continuing the patient's detention—
- (a) in a case where no appeal is made to the House of Lords against the decision of the Court of Session under section 322(2) of this Act, until the expiry of the time allowed to so appeal to the House of Lords; or
 - (b) in a case where such an appeal is made, until it is abandoned or finally determined.

324 Appeals: general provisions

- (1) An appeal—
- (a) to the sheriff principal under section 320(2) of this Act; or
 - (b) to the Court of Session under section 322(2) of this Act,
- may be made only on one or more of the grounds mentioned in subsection (2) below.
- (2) The grounds referred to in subsection (1) above are—
- (a) that the Tribunal's decision was based on an error of law;
 - (b) that there has been a procedural impropriety in the conduct of any hearing by the Tribunal on the application;
 - (c) that the Tribunal has acted unreasonably in the exercise of its discretion;
 - (d) that the Tribunal's decision was not supported by the facts found to be established by the Tribunal.
- (3) The Tribunal may be a party to an appeal under section 320(2) or 322(2) and in any appeal from the decision of the sheriff principal under section 321(1).
- (4) The court may, where it considers it appropriate, order the Tribunal to be represented at any hearing of an appeal under section 320(2), 321(1) or 322(2).
- (5) In allowing an appeal under section 320(2), 321(1) or 322(2) of this Act the court—
- (a) shall set aside the decision of the Tribunal; and
 - (b) shall—
 - (i) if it considers that it can properly do so on the facts found to be established by the Tribunal, substitute its own decision; or
 - (ii) remit the case to the Tribunal for consideration anew.
- (6) If the court remits a case under paragraph (b)(ii) of subsection (5) above, the court may—
- (a) direct that the Tribunal be differently constituted from when it made the decision; and
 - (b) issue such other directions to the Tribunal about the consideration of the case as it considers appropriate.
- (7) Regulations may specify the period within which an appeal under section 320(2), 321(1) or 322(2) of this Act shall be made.

Status: Point in time view as at 01/07/2003. This version of this Act contains provisions that are not valid for this point in time.
