PART 7

COMPULSORY TREATMENT ORDERS

CHAPTER 1

APPLICATION FOR, AND MAKING OF, ORDERS

Making of order etc.

67 Order authorising detention: ancillary authorisation

- (1) Where a compulsory treatment order or an interim compulsory treatment order—
 - (a) authorises the detention of a patient in a hospital specified in the order; or
 - (b) imposes a requirement on a patient to reside at a place specified in the order,this section authorises the removal, before the expiry of the period of 7 days beginning with the appropriate day, of the patient in respect of whom the order is made to that hospital or, as the case may be, place.
- (2) In subsection (1) above, “appropriate day” means the day on which—
 - (a) a compulsory treatment order or, as the case may be, an interim compulsory treatment order authorising detention of a patient in hospital is made; or
 - (b) a compulsory treatment order is varied so as to authorise the detention of a patient in the hospital specified in the order.
