

Education (Additional Support for Learning) (Scotland) Act 2004

2004 asp 4

Main definitions

1 Additional support needs

(1) A child or young person has additional support needs for the purposes of this Act where, for whatever reason, the child or young person is, or is likely to be, unable without the provision of additional support to benefit from school education provided or to be provided for the child or young person.

[^{F1}(1A) Without prejudice to the generality of subsection (1), a child or young person has additional support needs if the child or young person is looked after by a local authority (within the meaning of section 17(6) of the Children (Scotland) Act 1995 (c. 36)).

(1B) But where, in the course of identifying (in accordance with the arrangements made by them under section 6(1)(b)) the particular additional support needs of a child or young person who is looked after by a local authority (within the meaning of section 17(6) of the Children (Scotland) Act 1995 (c. 36)), an education authority form the view that the child or young person is, or is likely to be, able without the provision of additional support to benefit from school education provided to or to be provided for the child or young person, subsection (1A) ceases to apply.]

(2) In subsection (1), the reference to school education includes, in particular, such education directed to the development of the personality, talents and mental and physical abilities of the child or young person to their fullest potential.

(3) In this Act, “additional support” means—

- (a) in relation to [^{F2}an eligible] pre-school child, a child of school age or a young person receiving school education, provision [^{F3}(whether or not educational provision)] which is additional to, or otherwise different from, the educational provision made generally for children or, as the case may be, young persons of the same age in schools (other than special schools) under the management of the education authority [^{F4}responsible for the school education of the child or young person, or in the case where there is no such authority, the education authority],

12 Duties to seek and take account of views, advice and information

(1) In—

- (a) establishing in pursuance of any provision of this Act whether any child or young person—
 - (i) has additional support needs, or
 - (ii) requires, or would require, a co-ordinated support plan,
- (b) establishing in pursuance of a review carried out under section 10 whether any child or young person still requires a co-ordinated support plan,
- (c) preparing such a plan for any child or young person, or
- (d) determining in pursuance of section 4(1) what provision to make for such additional support as is required by any child or young person having additional support needs, the education authority must comply with the duty described in subsection (2).

(2) That duty is a duty to—

- (a) seek and take account of relevant advice and information from such appropriate agencies and other persons as the education authority think appropriate,
- (b) subject to subsection (3), seek and take account of the views of—
 - (i) in the case of a child, the child (unless the authority are satisfied that the child lacks capacity to express a view) and the child's parent, and
 - (ii) in the case of a young person, that young person or, if the authority are satisfied that the young person lacks capacity to express a view, the young person's parent,
- (c) take account of any relevant advice or information provided to the authority by or on behalf of the child or young person concerned, and
- (d) take account of any relevant advice and information in the authority's possession or control by virtue of any of their functions other than their functions relating to education.

(3) In the cases mentioned in subsection (1)(a)(i) and (d), the duty described in subsection (2)(b) applies only in relation to such children and young persons as the authority consider appropriate.

Status: Point in time view as at 01/08/2014. This version of this Act contains provisions that are prospective.

- [^{F16}(3A) Where any such co-ordinated support plan as is mentioned in section 10(1) is transferred to the education authority by virtue of regulations made in pursuance of section 11(8), the authority's duty under subsection (2)(a) includes a duty to seek and take account of information and advice (within such period as will enable the authority to comply with their duty under section 10(5A)) from the education authority from which the plan was transferred and any agencies or persons involved in providing support under the plan prior to its transfer.]
- (4) Advice or information is relevant for the purposes of subsection (2)(a), (c) or (d) if it is likely to assist the education authority in doing any of the things referred to in paragraphs (a) to (d) of subsection (1).
- (5) Every education authority must—
- (a) no later than 12 months before the date on which any child or young person—
 - (i) having additional support needs, and
 - (ii) for whose school education the authority are responsible, is expected to cease receiving school education, or
 - (b) where the education authority become aware that the child or young person is to cease receiving school education less than 12 months before that date, as soon as reasonably practicable after they become so aware,
- comply with the duty in subsection (6).
- (6) That duty is a duty to—
- (a) request from such appropriate agency or agencies as the authority think fit (if any) such information as the authority consider appropriate concerning any provision which the agency is or, as the case may be, the agencies are likely to make for the child or young person on ceasing to receive school education,
 - (b) where the authority make a request under paragraph (a), seek the views of—
 - (i) in the case of a child, that child (unless the authority are satisfied that the child lacks capacity to express a view) and the child's parent, or
 - (ii) in the case of a young person, that young person or, if the authority are satisfied that the young person lacks capacity to express a view, the young person's parent, and
 - (c) take account of—
 - (i) any information provided by any appropriate agency or agencies pursuant to a request under paragraph (a),
 - (ii) any views expressed by the child or young person or the child's or young person's parent pursuant to paragraph (b), and
 - (iii) any provision which the education authority themselves are, in the exercise of any of their functions other than their functions relating to education, likely to make for the child or young person on ceasing to receive school education,
- in considering the adequacy of the additional support to be provided for the child or young person during the period before the child or young person ceases to receive school education.
