

Education (Additional Support for Learning) (Scotland) Act 2004

2004 asp 4

General powers and duties

5 General functions of education authority in relation to additional support needs

- (1) Every education authority must in exercising any of their functions in connection with the provision of school education, take account of the additional support needs of children and young persons having such needs.
- (2) Every education authority must, subject to subsection (3), provide such additional support as is appropriate for each child—
  - (a) under school age (other than a prescribed pre-school child),
  - (b) belonging to the authority's area, and
  - (c) who has additional support needs arising from a disability (within the meaning of the Disability Discrimination Act 1995 (c. 50)) which the child has.
- (3) The duty in subsection (2) applies only where the authority has established, in pursuance of section 7(5) of this Act, that the child has the additional support needs referred to in subsection (2)(c) following the child having been brought to the authority's attention as having or appearing to have such needs by a Health Board.
- (4) An education authority may provide such additional support as is appropriate for children (other than children to whom the education authority have a duty under subsection (2)) and young persons belonging to the area of the authority—
  - (a) having additional support needs, but
  - (b) for whose school education the authority are not responsible.