

Local Governance (Scotland) Act 2004

2004 asp 9

PART 1

LOCAL GOVERNMENT ELECTIONS

VALID FROM 02/05/2007

1 Electoral wards

- (1) Each local government area shall be divided into electoral wards; and there shall be a separate election for each electoral ward.
- (2) The number of councillors to be returned in an electoral ward shall be either three or four, as determined by order made under section 17 (order giving effect to proposals made by Boundary Commission) of the Local Government (Scotland) Act 1973 (c. 65) (“the 1973 Act”).
- (3) Different numbers may be determined in relation to different electoral wards.

VALID FROM 02/05/2007

2 Single transferable vote

In each electoral ward in which there is a contested election, a poll shall be held at which each person entitled to vote as an elector may vote by marking on the ballot paper—

- (a) the voter’s first preference from among the candidates to be councillor, and
- (b) if there are three or more candidates and the voter wishes to express a further preference for one or more of those candidates, the voter’s second and, if the voter wishes, subsequent preferences from among those candidates.

Status: Point in time view as at 20/08/2004. This version of this part contains provisions that are not valid for this point in time.

Changes to legislation: There are currently no known outstanding effects for the Local Governance (Scotland) Act 2004, Part 1. (See end of Document for details)

VALID FROM 14/09/2006

3 Power to make further provision about local government elections

- (1) The Scottish Ministers must by order make provision as to—
 - (a) the conduct of elections of councillors,
 - (b) the questioning of such an election and the consequences of irregularities.
- (2) Such an order must, in particular—
 - (a) specify the manner in which the number of votes which will secure the return of a candidate as a councillor is to be calculated,
 - (b) provide for any candidate with a number of votes which equals or exceeds the number so calculated to be deemed to be elected as a councillor,
 - (c) make provision as to circumstances in which one or more of the candidates is to be excluded from the election on the basis of the number of votes then credited to those candidates,
 - (d) make provision as to the transfer of ballot papers from candidates deemed to be elected as councillors or excluded from the election,
 - (e) specify the value, or the method for calculating the value, to be given to a vote on a transferred ballot paper.
- (3) Such an order may, in particular—
 - (a) make provision about the limitation of the election expenses of candidates,
 - (b) apply, with or without modifications or exceptions, any provision made by or under any enactment.
- (4) Provision made by such an order by virtue of subsection (1)(b) must include provision applying Part III of the Representation of the People Act 1983 (c. 2) (“the 1983 Act”) (with such modifications or exceptions as the order may specify).
- (5) The return of a councillor may be questioned only under Part III of the 1983 Act as applied by an order under subsection (1).

4 Reviews of electoral arrangements

- (1) As soon as practicable after the commencement of this section the Boundary Commission shall—
 - (a) review the electoral arrangements for all local government areas for the purpose of considering future electoral arrangements for those areas, and
 - (b) formulate proposals for those arrangements.
- (2) Part II of the 1973 Act applies to a review under subsection (1) as it applies to a review under section 16 of that Act except that section 17 of that Act has effect as if it required—
 - (a) the Boundary Commission to submit a report on any review before such date as the Scottish Ministers may direct, and
 - (b) the Scottish Ministers to make an order under section 17 giving effect to the proposals of the Commission under subsection (1) (whether as submitted to them or with modifications).

Status: Point in time view as at 20/08/2004. This version of this part contains provisions that are not valid for this point in time.

Changes to legislation: There are currently no known outstanding effects for the Local Governance (Scotland) Act 2004, Part 1. (See end of Document for details)

- (3) The Boundary Commission shall, when complying with section 18(2)(aa) of the 1973 Act on a review under subsection (1), also inform the council of the reasons for any differences between—
- (a) their draft proposals, and
 - (b) the draft proposals which would have been made had they been formulated on the basis that each electoral ward of a local government area is to consist of a combination of existing electoral wards (the rules set out in Schedule 6 to that Act having been disregarded in so far as those rules conflicted with that basis).
- (4) The Boundary Commission shall disregard subsection (3) when formulating proposals for future electoral arrangements under subsection (1).
- (5) The 1973 Act is amended as follows—
- (a) in section 16(2) (duty of Boundary Commission to carry out periodic reviews of electoral arrangements), for “Schedule 5 to this Act” substitute “section 4(1) of the Local Governance (Scotland) Act 2004 (asp 9)”,
 - (b) in section 18 (procedure for reviews)—
 - (i) in subsection (2), after paragraph (a) insert—
 - “(aa) at least two months before taking any steps under paragraph (b) below to inform other persons of any draft proposals or any interim decision not to make proposals, inform the council of any local government area affected by the review of those proposals or that decision;
 - (ab) before taking any such steps, take into consideration any representation made to them by such a council during the period of two months beginning on the day on which the council is informed under paragraph (aa);”
 - (ii) after subsection (2) insert—

“(2A) The Scottish Ministers may give directions to—

 - (a) the Boundary Commission,
 - (b) the council of any local government area affected by a review, in relation to consultation under subsection (2)(a) above.

(2B) Such directions may be given generally or in relation to particular reviews or particular aspects of reviews.”
 - (c) section 20 is repealed,
 - (d) in subsection (1) (interpretation) of section 28, in the definition of “electoral arrangements”, after “councillors”, where second occurring, insert “ , the number of councillors for each electoral ward ”,
 - (e) in subsection (2) (review of electoral arrangements to be carried out in compliance with certain enactments) of that section—
 - (i) after “Act”, where first occurring, insert “or section 4(1) of the Local Governance (Scotland) Act 2004 (asp 9)”, and
 - (ii) for “section 5 of the Local Government etc. (Scotland) Act 1994” substitute “ section 1 of the Local Governance (Scotland) Act 2004 (asp 9) ”,
 - (f) Schedule 5 is repealed,

Status: Point in time view as at 20/08/2004. This version of this part contains provisions that are not valid for this point in time.

Changes to legislation: There are currently no known outstanding effects for the Local Governance (Scotland) Act 2004, Part 1. (See end of Document for details)

- (g) in sub-paragraph (2) of paragraph 1 of Schedule 6, for the words from “of”, where fourth occurring, to the end of that sub-paragraph substitute “calculated by dividing the number of local government electors in each electoral ward of that local government area by the number of councillors to be returned in that ward shall be, as nearly as may be, the same.”, and
- (h) at the end of sub-paragraph (3) of that paragraph insert— “but if, in any case, there is a conflict between those criteria, greater weight shall be given to the latter.”
