75 Applicant's duty to notify Licensing Board of convictions

- (1) This section applies where, during the period beginning with the making of a personal licence application and ending with determination of the application, the applicant is convicted of a relevant offence or a foreign offence.
- (2) The applicant must, no later than one month after the date of the conviction, give notice of the conviction to the Licensing Board to which the personal licence application was made.
- (3) A notice under subsection (2) must specify—
 - (a) the nature of the offence, and
 - (b) the date of the conviction.
- (4) Where the Licensing Board receives a notice under subsection (2) at any time before they have determined the personal licence application, the Board must—
 - (a) suspend consideration of the application, and
 - (b) give notice of the conviction to the [^{F29}chief constable].
- (5) The [^{F30}chief constable] must, within 21 days of the date of receipt of a notice under subsection (4)(b), [^{F31}or within such longer period as the chief constable considers reasonable in the circumstances because of a reason relating to coronavirus,] respond to the notice by giving the Licensing Board one or other of the notices mentioned in subsection (6).
- [^{F32}(5A) Where the chief constable is not going to respond to a notice within the 21 day period referred to in subsection (5), the chief constable must inform the Licensing Board of—
 - (a) that fact, and
 - (b) the time period within which the chief constable expects to respond.]
- (6) Those notices are—
 - (a) a notice stating that the chief constable is unable to confirm the existence of the conviction or that the conviction does not relate to a relevant offence or foreign offence, or
 - (b) a notice confirming the existence of the conviction and that it relates to a relevant offence or foreign offence.
- (7) Where the chief constable—
 - (a) proposes to give a notice under subsection (6)(b), and
 - (b) considers that, having regard to the conviction specified in the notice, it is necessary for the purposes of [^{F33}any of the licensing objectives] that the personal licence application be refused, the chief constable may include in the notice a recommendation to that effect.
- (8) On receipt of the chief constable's notice under subsection (6), the Licensing Board must resume consideration of the personal licence application and determine it in accordance with section 74.
- (9) For that purpose, that section has effect as if—
 - (a) references in it to a notice under section 73(3)(a) included references to a notice under subsection (6)(a) of this section, [^{F34}...
 - (b) references in it to a notice under section 73(3)(b) included references to a notice under subsection (6)(b) of this section [^{F35}, and

78 Renewal of personal licence

- (1) The holder of a personal licence may, within the period specified in subsection (2), apply to the Licensing Board which issued the licence for renewal of the licence.

^{F40}(2) The period referred to in subsection (1) is—

- (a) the period of 9 months beginning 12 months before the expiry date of the licence, or
- (b) if the Licensing Board is satisfied that, for a reason relating to coronavirus, the holder of the personal licence is unable to apply within the period mentioned in paragraph (a), the period which begins 12 months before the expiry date of the licence and ends on the day before the expiry date of the licence.]
- (3) An application under subsection (1) must be accompanied by—
- (a) the personal licence to which it relates, or
- (b) if that is not practicable, a statement of the reasons for failure to produce the licence.
- (4) An application under subsection (1) which complies with subsection (3) is referred to in this Act as a “personal licence renewal application”.
- (5) Sections ^{F43}73, 73A and 74^{F44} (other than subsection (3)(ba)) apply to a personal licence renewal application as they apply to a personal licence application.
- (6) For that purpose, references in those sections to a personal licence application are to be read as if they included reference to a personal licence renewal application.
