2005 asp 16

PART 9

MISCELLANEOUS AND GENERAL

Procedures, forms etc.

134 Form etc. of applications, proposals, and notices

- (1) The Scottish Ministers may by regulations prescribe—
 - (a) the form of any application, proposal or notice under this Act,
 - (b) the manner in which it is to be made or given,
 - (c) the time by which it is to be made or given,
 - (d) requirements as to the publicising of the making or giving of the application, proposal or notice,
 - (e) the information to be contained in it (in addition to any required to be contained in it by virtue of any other provision of this Act), and
 - (f) the documents which are to accompany it (in addition to any required to accompany it by virtue of any other provision this Act).
- (2) Regulations under subsection (1) may provide that any application, proposal or notice made or given under this Act may be treated as not made or given if any requirement prescribed in the regulations in relation to it is not complied with.
