5 Fundable further and higher education S

- (1) In this Act (subject to subsection (2)), “fundable further education” means any programme of learning (which is not school education within the meaning of the 1980 Act) which—
 - (a) prepares a person for a vocational qualification;
 - (b) prepares a person for—
 - (i) a qualification awarded by the Scottish Qualifications Authority; or
 - (ii) a General Certificate of Education qualification of England and Wales or Northern Ireland;
 - (c) prepares a person for access to a course of fundable higher education;
 - (d) is designed to assist persons whose first language is not English to achieve any level of competence in English language;
 - (e) provides instruction for persons who are participating in a programme of learning referred to in this subsection and who have support needs; or
 - (f) prepares a person for participation in any programme of learning referred to in this subsection.
- (2) In this Act, “fundable further education” also includes education of a type described in subsection (5)(b)(ii) to (iv) of section 1 (duty of education authorities to secure provision of education) of the 1980 Act.
- (3) In this Act, “fundable higher education” means any course of education which—
 - (a) is a course at a higher level in preparation for a higher diploma or certificate;
 - (b) is a first degree course;
 - (c) is a course for the education and training of teachers;
 - (d) is a course of post-graduate studies (including a higher degree course);
 - (e) is a course at a higher level in preparation for a qualification from a professional body;
 - (f) is a course at a higher level not referred to in any of paragraphs (a) to (e);
 - (g) provides instruction for persons who are participating in a course of education referred to in this subsection and who have support needs; or
 - (h) is designed predominantly to prepare a person for participation in any course of education referred to in this subsection.
- (4) For the purposes of subsection (3)(a), (e) and (f), a course is to be regarded as providing education at a higher level if its standard is higher than the standard of courses in preparation for examinations for—
 - (a) the Scottish Vocational Qualification Level 3;
 - (b) the Scottish Certificate of Education at Advanced Higher;
 - (c) the General Certificate of Education of England and Wales or Northern Ireland at advanced level; or
 - (d) the Scottish Qualifications Authority national certificate.
- (5) For the purposes of subsection (3)(d), post-graduate studies includes a course following the award of a higher diploma or certificate.

Status: Point in time view as at 03/03/2014.

Changes to legislation: There are currently no known outstanding effects for the Further and Higher Education (Scotland) Act 2005. (See end of Document for details)

- (6) The Scottish Ministers may by order modify subsections (1) to (5).
- (7) Before making an order under subsection (6), the Scottish Ministers must consult the Council.

[^{F13}7D Orders under sections 7A to 7C: supplemental S

- (1) This subsection applies to—
 - (a) any order under section 7A(1) which designates a regional college (or which revokes such a designation); and
 - (b) any order under section 7C(1) which assigns a college of further education to a regional strategic body (or which revokes such an assignation).
- (2) An order to which subsection (1) applies may—
 - (a) make provision about the membership of the board of management of the college of further education concerned;
 - (b) make such additional provision (not being provision mentioned in paragraph (a)) as is considered appropriate in relation to the change of status of the college concerned.
- (3) Subsection (2)(a) applies only where the college of further education concerned is one whose board of management is established in pursuance of Part 1 of the 1992 Act.
- (4) Provision under subsection (2)(a) may include provision—
 - (a) authorising the Scottish Ministers to make arrangements for, or otherwise providing for, the continuing in office, or the removal from office, of persons who are members of the board immediately before the day on which the designation or assignation has, or ceases to have, effect;
 - (b) for the appointment by the Scottish Ministers, on terms and conditions determined by them, of persons who are to be members of the board from that day;
 - (c) deeming persons who continue in office, or who are appointed in pursuance of paragraph (b), to hold office from that day as if appointed under such provision of paragraph 3 or, as the case may be, 3A of Schedule 2 to the 1992 Act as may be specified in the order.
- (5) But such an order may not make provision in pursuance of subsection (4)(b) under which a person appointed to a board of management is to hold office otherwise than as if appointed under paragraph 3(2)(a) or (f) or, as the case may be, 3A(2)(a) or (f) of Schedule 2 to the 1992 Act.
- (6) Subsections (1) to (5) do not prejudice the generality of powers conferred by section 34(2).
- (7) The Scottish Ministers must, in pursuance of sections 7A to 7C, seek to ensure—
 - (a) that every college of further education whose governing body is established in pursuance of Part 1 of the 1992 Act is either—
 - (i) designated as a regional college; or
 - (ii) assigned to a regional strategic body; and
 - (b) that at least two colleges of further education are assigned to each regional board.

Status: Point in time view as at 03/03/2014.

Changes to legislation: There are currently no known outstanding effects for the Further and Higher Education (Scotland) Act 2005. (See end of Document for details)

- (8) Where, despite subsection (7)(a), a college of further education whose governing body is so established is not so designated or assigned, the college is (subject to any contrary provision made under section 33 or 34(2) of this Act or section 22 of the Post-16 Education (Scotland) Act 2013) to be treated for the purposes of this Act, the 1992 Act and any other enactment as having been designated as a regional college.
- (9) Nothing in subsections (7) and (8) affects the power to make an order under section 7C(1) in relation to a college of further education whose governing body is not so established.]

23A Regional colleges: general duty S

- (1) It is the duty of a regional college to exercise its functions with a view to securing the coherent provision of a high quality of fundable further education and fundable higher education in the locality of the regional college.
- (2) In doing so, the regional college must have regard to any fundable further education and fundable higher education provided by other post-16 education bodies in the locality of the regional college.

23B Regional colleges: planning, consultation and collaboration S

- (1) A regional college must plan for—
 - (a) how it proposes to provide fundable further education and fundable higher education; and
 - (b) how it intends to exercise its other functions.

Status: Point in time view as at 03/03/2014.

Changes to legislation: There are currently no known outstanding effects for the Further and Higher Education (Scotland) Act 2005. (See end of Document for details)

- (2) When making plans, a regional college must have regard to the importance of ensuring that funds made available to it under section 12 are used as economically, efficiently and effectively as possible.
- (3) A regional college must, where it considers it appropriate to do so in the exercise of its functions, consult—
 - (a) the representatives of any trade union which it recognises or which otherwise appears to it to be representative of its staff;
 - (b) its students' association;
 - (c) the local authority for the area in which the regional college is situated;
 - (d) the governing body of any other post-16 education body which provides fundable further education or fundable higher education in the locality of the regional college;
 - (e) any other regional college or regional strategic body whom it considers likely to have an interest in the matter concerned;
 - (f) any person who appears to it to be representative of employers in the locality of the regional college;
 - (g) any person who appears to it to be representative of the interests of any sector for which the regional college provides specialist education or training;
 - (h) The Open University;
 - (i) The Skills Development Scotland Co. Limited;
 - (j) the Scottish Qualifications Authority; and
 - (k) Scottish Enterprise or Highlands and Islands Enterprise (as appropriate).
- (4) Any particular requirement for consultation imposed on a regional college by virtue of this or any other enactment is without prejudice to subsection (3).
- (5) A regional college must, so far as is consistent with the proper exercise of its functions, seek to secure the collaboration with the regional college of the following persons—
 - (a) the representatives of any trade union which the regional college recognises or which otherwise appears to it to be representative of its staff;
 - (b) the regional college's students' association;
 - (c) the local authority for the area in which the regional college is situated;
 - (d) the governing body of any other post-16 education body which provides fundable further education or fundable higher education in the locality of the regional college;
 - (e) any other regional college or regional strategic body whom it considers it appropriate to collaborate with;
 - (f) The Open University;
 - (g) The Skills Development Scotland Co. Limited;
 - (h) the Scottish Qualifications Authority; and
 - (i) Scottish Enterprise or Highlands and Islands Enterprise (as appropriate).
- (6) The Scottish Ministers may by order modify subsection (3) or (5) by—
 - (a) adding or removing persons, or types of persons, to which those provisions apply; or
 - (b) varying the description of any such person or type of person.
- (7) But such an order may not modify paragraph (a) or (b) of subsection (3).

Status: Point in time view as at 03/03/2014.

Changes to legislation: There are currently no known outstanding effects for the Further and Higher Education (Scotland) Act 2005. (See end of Document for details)

23C Regional colleges: improvement of economic and social well-being S

- (1) A regional college is to exercise its functions with a view to improving the economic and social well-being of the locality of the regional college.
- (2) In doing so, the regional college is to have regard to—
 - (a) social and economic regeneration needs in the locality; and
 - (b) social cohesion and social inclusion issues in the locality.
- (3) For the purposes of subsection (2)(a), “needs” means needs which appear to the regional college—
 - (a) to exist for the time being or be likely to exist in the future; and
 - (b) to be capable of being addressed (wholly or partly) by the provision of fundable further education or fundable higher education.
- (4) For the purposes of subsection (2)(b), “issues” means issues which appear to the regional college—
 - (a) to exist for the time being or be likely to exist in the future; and
 - (b) to be capable of being addressed (wholly or partly) by the provision of fundable further education or fundable higher education.

23D Regional college to have regard to particular matters S

- (1) In exercising its functions, a regional college is to have regard to—
 - (a) skills needs in the locality of the regional college;
 - (b) issues affecting the economy of the locality of the regional college;
 - (c) social and cultural issues in the locality of the regional college; and
 - (d) the needs and issues in relation to Scotland identified by the Council for the purposes of section 20(1).
- (2) In exercising its functions, a regional college is to have regard to the desirability of the achieving of sustainable development.
- (3) In exercising its functions, a regional college is to have regard to the—
 - (a) United Kingdom context; and
 - (b) international context,
 in which it carries on its activities.
- (4) In exercising its functions, a regional college is to have regard to the educational and related needs (including support needs) of persons who are, and the likely educational and related needs (including support needs) of persons who might wish to become, students of the college.
- (5) In exercising its functions, a regional college is to have regard to the desirability of enabling, encouraging and improving participation in fundable further education and fundable higher education by persons belonging to any socio-economic group which the regional college reasonably considers to be under-represented in such education.
- (6) For the purposes of subsection (1)(a), “skills needs” means any requirement or desirability for skills or knowledge which appears to the regional college—
 - (a) to exist for the time being or be likely to exist in the future; and
 - (b) to be capable of being addressed (wholly or partly) by the provision of fundable further education or fundable higher education.

Status: Point in time view as at 03/03/2014.

Changes to legislation: There are currently no known outstanding effects for the Further and Higher Education (Scotland) Act 2005. (See end of Document for details)

- (7) For the purposes of subsection (1)(b) and (c), “issues” means issues which appear to the regional college—
 - (a) to exist for the time being or be likely to exist in the future; and
 - (b) to be capable of being addressed (wholly or partly) by the provision of fundable further education or fundable higher education.
- (8) For the purposes of subsection (5), a socio-economic group is to be treated as under-represented in fundable further education or fundable higher education if participation in such education by persons in that group is disproportionately low.
- (9) A regional college may take into account any social or economic characteristics which it considers appropriate when determining which groups are to constitute “socio-economic groups” for the purposes of subsection (5).
- (10) A regional college is to have regard to the under-represented socio-economic groups identified by the Council for the purposes of section 20(4A) when determining—
 - (a) which groups are to constitute “socio-economic groups” for the purposes of subsection (5); and
 - (b) whether a socio-economic group so determined is under-represented in fundable further education or fundable higher education.]

[^{F70}23R Establishment and abolition of regional boards: supplemental S

- (1) The Scottish Ministers may make such arrangements as they consider appropriate in anticipation of the establishment of a regional board by virtue of an order under section 7B or the coming into force of section 8 of the Post-16 Education (Scotland) Act 2013.
- (2) They may, in particular, appoint on terms and conditions determined by them persons who are, from the day on which the board is established, to hold office as if appointed under paragraph 3(2)(a) or, as the case may be, (f) of schedule 2B.
- (3) An order under section 7B(2)(a) which abolishes a regional board may, in particular, make provision—
 - (a) for the transfer of the regional board's staff, property, rights, liabilities or obligations to such other person as may be specified in the order;
 - (b) for the Scottish Ministers to pay any expenses incurred in connection with the abolition;
 - (c) imposing such duties or conferring such additional powers in relation to the abolition as the Scottish Ministers consider appropriate;
 - (d) for the exercise of any of the regional board's functions by any member of the board specified in the order;
 - (e) appointing a person to administer the abolition (and giving that person such powers and duties as appear to the Scottish Ministers to be necessary or expedient for such purposes as are specified in the order).
- (4) Such an order—
 - (a) must ensure that any transferred property and rights which, before the transfer, were to be applied for the purpose of the advancement of education are to continue to be applied for that purpose after the transfer;

Status: Point in time view as at 03/03/2014.

Changes to legislation: There are currently no known outstanding effects for the Further and Higher Education (Scotland) Act 2005. (See end of Document for details)

- (b) may contain provision for the transfer of staff, property, rights, liabilities or obligations only if the person to whom the transfer is being made (apart from the Scottish Ministers) has consented to the transfer.
- (5) This section does not prejudice the generality of powers conferred by section 34(2) or by section 22 of the Post-16 Education (Scotland) Act 2013.]
