(2) Schedule 1 makes further provision about the Commission.

General functions

(a) the Convention rights, and

(b) human rights of those groups in society whose human rights are not, in the Commission’s opinion, otherwise being sufficiently promoted.
3 Information, guidance, education etc.

   (a) publish or otherwise disseminate information or ideas,
   (b) provide advice or guidance,
   (c) conduct research,
   (d) provide education or training.

(2) The Commission may charge reasonable fees in connection with anything done by it or on its behalf under subsection (1).

(3) Sums paid to the Commission in respect of fees charged under subsection (2) are to be retained by it and applied to meet expenses incurred by it in doing anything under subsection (1).

4 Monitoring of law, policies and practices

(1) For the purposes of its general duty, the Commission may review and recommend changes to—
   (a) any area of the law of Scotland, or
   (b) any policies or practices of any Scottish public authorities.

(2) The Commission must consult the Scottish Law Commission before undertaking a review of any area of the law under subsection (1)(a).

   (a) consult,
   (b) act jointly with,
   (c) co-operate with, or any other person.

(2) The Commission must seek to ensure, so far as practicable, that any activity undertaken by it under this Act does not duplicate unnecessarily any activity undertaken by any other person under any other enactment.

6 No power to assist in claims or legal proceedings

(1) The Commission may not provide assistance to or in respect of any person in connection with any claim or legal proceedings to which that person is or may become a party.

(2) In subsection (1), “assistance” includes advice, guidance and grants.
