

Human Tissue (Scotland) Act 2006

2006 asp 4

PART 1 S

TRANSPLANTATION ETC.

General functions of the Scottish Ministers

1 Duties of the Scottish Ministers as respects transplantation, donation of body parts etc. S

[^{F1}(1)] It is the duty of the Scottish Ministers to—

- (a) promote, support and develop programmes of transplantation;
- (b) promote information and awareness about the donation for transplantation of parts of a human body;
- (c) promote the taking of any necessary measures relating to the quality and safety, storage and use of any such part donated for that purpose [^{F2};
- (d) promote information and awareness about how transplantation may be authorised (including, in particular, how authorisation of transplantation may be deemed to be given);
- (e) promote information and awareness about the nature of pre-death procedures, when they may be carried out and how they may be authorised].

[^{F3}(2) The duty under subsection (1)(d) must be carried out at least once in every calendar year.

(3) The Scottish Ministers must, in carrying out the duty under subsection (1)(d), have regard to the need to—

- (a) provide information to the public about—
 - (i) how authorisation of transplantation may be deemed to be given,
 - (ii) how to give an express authorisation or make an opt-out declaration,
- (b) provide information in health care settings about—
 - (i) how authorisation of transplantation may be deemed to be given,
 - (ii) how to give an express authorisation or make an opt-out declaration.

Changes to legislation: There are currently no known outstanding effects for the Human Tissue (Scotland) Act 2006, Part 1. (See end of Document for details)

- (4) In subsection (3)(b), “health care settings” means any place where a service is provided for or in connection with the prevention, detection or treatment of illness, other than an independent health care service (within the meaning of section 10F of the National Health Service (Scotland) Act 1978).]

2A Establishment and maintenance of register S

- (1) The Scottish Ministers must make arrangements for the establishment and maintenance of a register (referred to in this Part as “the Register”) for the purposes of facilitating—
- (a) the carrying out of their duty under section 1(a),
 - (b) the removal and use of part of the body of a deceased person for transplantation that is authorised by virtue of section 6, 6D, 6E, 6F, 6G, 8, 8D, 10 or, as the case may be, 10A.
- (2) The Register must include information relating to—

Changes to legislation: There are currently no known outstanding effects for the Human Tissue (Scotland) Act 2006, Part 1. (See end of Document for details)

- (a) persons who authorise the removal and use of a part of the person's body after the person's death for transplantation,
 - (b) persons who do not authorise the removal and use of a part of the person's body after the person's death for transplantation.
- (3) The Register is not to be open to public inspection or search.
- (4) Information may be kept in the Register in any form the Scottish Ministers consider appropriate.

2B Delegation of function of establishing and maintaining Register S

- (1) Arrangements made by the Scottish Ministers under section 2A(1) may in particular authorise a person to establish and maintain the Register.
- (2) In this Part, “register organisation” means—
- (a) the Scottish Ministers, or
 - (b) where a person is authorised as mentioned in subsection (1), that person.
- (3) The Scottish Ministers must publish information about arrangements under section 2A(1) so far as they authorise a person as mentioned in subsection (1).

2C Disclosure of information S

- (1) The register organisation may disclose information about a person from the Register to—
- (a) a person listed in subsection (3) for the purpose of enabling or assisting a person listed in subsection (3) to carry out functions under this Part that relate to the removal and use of a part of the body for transplantation,
 - (b) a person operating outwith Scotland for the purpose of enabling or assisting that person to carry out functions that relate to the removal and use of a part of the body for transplantation.
- (2) The power to disclose information about a person from the Register conferred by subsection (1) includes the power to disclose that there is no information kept in the Register about the person.
- (3) The persons are—
- (a) a registered medical practitioner,
 - (b) a person (or person within a description) authorised under section 11(1)(b),
 - (c) a health worker who is acting in accordance with section 16H or 16I.
- (4) A person who receives information under subsection (1)(a) may, for the purpose of enabling or assisting a person listed in subsection (3) to carry out functions under this Part that relate to the removal and use of a part of the body for transplantation, disclose that information to a person listed in subsection (3) or (5).
- (5) The persons are—
- (a) in relation to a person who at the relevant time is an adult—
 - (i) the adult's nearest relative,
 - (ii) any other person who is consulted under section 16H(2)(d) in relation to the adult,
 - (b) in relation to a person who at the relevant time is a child—

Changes to legislation: There are currently no known outstanding effects for the Human Tissue (Scotland) Act 2006, Part 1. (See end of Document for details)

- (i) a person who has parental rights and parental responsibilities in relation to the child,
- (ii) a person mentioned in section 10A(4),
- (iii) any other person who is consulted under section 16I(2)(b) in relation to the child.

2D Power to make provision about Register S

- (1) The Scottish Ministers may by regulations make provision in relation to the Register.
- (2) Regulations under subsection (1) may, in particular—
 - (a) modify section 2A(1) to add the purpose of facilitating the removal and use of part of the body of a deceased person for a purpose referred to in paragraphs (b) to (d) of section 3(1),
 - (b) modify the list in section 2A(2),
 - (c) modify the list in section 2C(3) to—
 - (i) add a person (or description of person),
 - (ii) remove, or vary the description of, a person (or description of person),
 - (d) modify the purposes for which information may be disclosed under section 2C.]

Use of part of body of deceased person for transplantation, research etc.

3 Use of part of body of deceased person for transplantation, research etc. S

- (1) Part of the body of a deceased person may be removed from the body and used, for the purposes of—
 - (a) transplantation;
 - (b) research;
 - (c) education or training;
 - (d) audit [^{F5}or quality assurance],
 only if the requirements of subsection (2) are satisfied as respects the part.
- (2) The requirements are that—
 - (a) the removal and use for the purpose in question are authorised in accordance with section 6, [^{F6}6D, 6E, 6F, 6G, 6H, 8, 8D, 10 or, as the case may be, 10A]; and
 - (b) the removal is carried out in accordance with section 11.

[^{F15}6D Deemed authorisation for transplantation: adult S

- (1) An adult is deemed to have authorised the removal and use of a part of the adult's body after the adult's death for transplantation where there is in force at the relevant time—
 - (a) no express authorisation by the adult of removal and use of any part of the adult's body for transplantation, and
 - (b) no opt-out declaration by the adult as respects removal and use of the part of the adult's body for transplantation.
- (2) Subsection (1) does not apply in relation to—
 - (a) a person who was not ordinarily resident in Scotland for a period of at least 12 months ending immediately before the relevant time (a “non-resident adult”),
 - (b) an adult who is incapable of understanding the nature and consequences of deemed authorisation,
 - (c) an excepted body part,
 - (d) a part of the adult's body (that is not an excepted body part), if a person provides evidence to a health worker that would lead a reasonable person to conclude that—
 - (i) the adult's most recent view was that the adult was unwilling for the part to be used for transplantation, or
 - (ii) if the adult were capable of making a decision about removal and use of the part, the adult would be unwilling in the circumstances for the part to be used for transplantation.
- (3) In this Part, an adult is incapable of understanding the nature and consequences of deemed authorisation if, over a significant period ending immediately before the relevant time, the person was incapable of understanding—
 - (a) that an adult may be deemed to have authorised removal and use of a part of the adult's body after the adult's death for transplantation, and
 - (b) that if authorisation is so deemed, after the adult's death part of the adult's body may be removed from the body and used for transplantation.
- (4) An example of when an adult is to be considered “incapable of understanding the nature and consequences of deemed authorisation” is if there is evidence available to a health worker, including any evidence referred to in section 16H(4), that would lead a reasonable person to conclude that the adult is so incapable.
- (5) An “excepted body part” is a part of the body specified in regulations made by the Scottish Ministers.
- (6) Before laying draft regulations under subsection (5) before the Scottish Parliament, the Scottish Ministers must consult such persons as they consider appropriate.]

 - (b) a local authority with parental rights and parental responsibilities in relation to the child is consulted about the child's most recent views by a health worker by virtue of section 16I(2)(b).
- (2) The local authority must, in so far as it is reasonably practicable to do so, ascertain the child's most recent views by consulting—
- (a) the child's parents, and
 - (b) such other persons as the local authority considers appropriate.
- (3) Subsections (4) and (5) apply if a local authority with parental rights and parental responsibilities in relation to a child is deciding whether to give authorisation by virtue of section 8D or 10 as respects the child.
- (4) The local authority must, in so far as it is reasonably practicable to do so, ascertain the views of—
- (a) the child,
 - (b) the child's parents, and
 - (c) any other person whose views the local authority considers to be relevant.
- (5) The local authority must have regard to the views of—
- (a) the child,
 - (b) the child's parents, and
 - (c) any other person whose views the local authority considers to be relevant.]

11 Removal of part of body of deceased person: further requirements S

- (1) The removal of a part of the body of a deceased person for any of the purposes referred to in section 3(1) may be carried out only by—
- (a) a registered medical practitioner; or
 - (b) a person ^{F41}(or description of person)] authorised to do so in accordance with regulations made by the Scottish Ministers.
- (2) Regulations under subsection (1)(b) may in particular provide for a registered medical practitioner to authorise the carrying out of the removal by a person ^{F42}(or description of person)] who is not such a practitioner.
- (3) The removal of part of the body of a deceased person may not be—
- (a) carried out for any of the purposes referred to in section 3(1) unless the person who proposes to carry it out, before doing so, complies with the requirements specified in subsection (4);
 - ^{F43}(b)
- (4) The requirements are that the person ^{F44}... must be satisfied—
- (a) ^{F45}[if the person is a registered medical practitioner,] either—
 - (i) by personal examination of the body, that life is extinct; or
 - (ii) that another registered medical practitioner, by such personal examination, is so satisfied;
 - ^{F46}(ab) if the person is not a registered medical practitioner, that a registered medical practitioner, by personal examination of the body, is satisfied that life is extinct,]
 - (b) that, if the consent of the procurator fiscal to the carrying out of the removal is required by section 5(1), the consent has been given; and
 - (c) that the removal ^{F47}[and use for the purpose in question] is authorised in accordance with section 6, ^{F48}[6D, 6E, 6F, 6G, 6H, 8, 8D, 10 or, as the case may be, 10A].
- ^{F49}(4A) For the purposes of subsection (4)(c), the person who proposes to carry out the removal is entitled to be satisfied that the removal and use for the purpose in question is authorised in accordance with the section in question if subsections (4B) and (4C) apply.
- (4B) This subsection applies if the person who proposes to carry out the removal considers there to be an appropriate record that—
- (a) there is in force an authorisation by virtue of section 6, 6D, 6E, 6F, 6G, 6H, 8, 8D, 10 or, as the case may be, 10A as respects—
 - (i) the deceased person, and
 - (ii) the removal and use of the part for the purpose in question,
 - (b) the authorisation was given in accordance with the section in question,
 - (c) there is in force—
 - (i) in the case of a deceased adult, no opt-out declaration by the adult as respects removal and use of the part for the purpose in question,
 - (ii) in the case of a deceased child, no declaration by virtue of section 8B(1) by the child as respects removal and use of the part for the purpose in question,

Changes to legislation: There are currently no known outstanding effects for the Human Tissue (Scotland) Act 2006, Part 1. (See end of Document for details)

- (d) in the case of a deceased adult who is deemed to have authorised the removal and use of a part of the adult's body for transplantation by virtue of section 6D, the deceased adult was not—
 - (i) a non-resident adult, or
 - (ii) an adult incapable of understanding the nature and consequences of deemed authorisation,
 - (e) a health worker has carried out inquiries—
 - (i) in the case of a deceased adult, in accordance with section 16H(2), and
 - (ii) in the case of a deceased child, in accordance with section 16I(2).
- (4C) This subsection applies if the person who proposes to carry out the removal has no reason to believe that—
- (a) there is in force no authorisation by virtue of section 6, 6D, 6E, 6F, 6G, 6H, 8, 8D, 10 or, as the case may be, 10A as respects—
 - (i) the deceased person, or
 - (ii) the removal and use of the part for the purpose in question,
 - (b) the authorisation was not given in accordance with the section in question,
 - (c) in the case of an authorisation given by a person other than the deceased person, the person who gave the authorisation was not entitled to do so,
 - (d) the deceased person would be unwilling in the circumstances for the part to be removed and used for the purpose in question.]

^{F60}Pre-death procedures relating to transplantation

Textual Amendments

F60 S. 16A-16G and cross-heading inserted (11.10.2019 for specified purposes, 26.3.2021 in so far as not already in force) by Human Tissue \(Authorisation\) \(Scotland\) Act 2019 \(asp 11\), ss. 23\(1\), 29\(2\); S.S.I. 2019/305, reg. 2\(c\); S.S.I. 2021/108, reg. 2

16A Meaning of “pre-death procedure”, “Type A procedure” and “Type B procedure” S

- (1) In this Part, a “pre-death procedure” means a medical procedure—
 - (a) which is carried out on a person for the purpose of increasing the likelihood of successful transplantation of a part of the person's body after the person's death, and
 - (b) which is not for the primary purpose of safeguarding or promoting the physical or mental health of the person.
- (2) In this Part, a pre-death procedure is—
 - (a) a “Type A procedure” if it is a pre-death procedure or category of pre-death procedure specified in regulations made by the Scottish Ministers under section 16B(1),
 - (b) a “Type B procedure” if it is a pre-death procedure or category of pre-death procedure specified in regulations made by the Scottish Ministers under section 16C(1).

16B Type A procedures S

- (1) The Scottish Ministers may by regulations specify a pre-death procedure or category of pre-death procedure as a Type A procedure for the purposes of sections 16D to 16F.
- (2) Regulations under subsection (1) may make different provision for different procedures or categories of procedure and in particular may specify that a pre-death procedure or category of pre-death procedure is a Type A procedure only where that procedure is carried out in a particular way.
- (3) Regulations under subsection (1) may specify a pre-death procedure (or category of pre-death procedure) as a Type A procedure only if the Scottish Ministers consider that it is appropriate that the carrying out of the procedure or, as the case may be, the category of procedure should be in accordance with section 16E.
- (4) Before laying draft regulations under subsection (1) before the Scottish Parliament, the Scottish Ministers must consult such persons as they consider appropriate.

Changes to legislation: There are currently no known outstanding effects for the Human Tissue (Scotland) Act 2006, Part 1. (See end of Document for details)

16C Type B procedures S

- (1) The Scottish Ministers may by regulations specify a pre-death procedure or category of pre-death procedure (other than one specified in regulations under section 16B(1)) as a Type B procedure for the purposes of section 16D and 16E.
- (2) Regulations under subsection (1)—
 - (a) may also make provision about—
 - (i) the circumstances in which Type B procedures may be carried out,
 - (ii) the way in which the carrying out of Type B procedures may be authorised,
 - (iii) the process for authorisation of Type B procedures, and
 - (iv) the carrying out of Type B procedures, and
 - (b) may make different provision for different procedures or categories of procedure.
- (3) Regulations under subsection (1) may specify a pre-death procedure (or category of pre-death procedure) as a Type B procedure only if the Scottish Ministers consider that it is appropriate that the procedure or, as the case may be, the category of procedure should be subject to provision mentioned in subsection (2)(a)(i) to (iv).
- (4) Before laying draft regulations under subsection (1) before the Scottish Parliament, the Scottish Ministers must consult such persons as they consider appropriate.

16D Restrictions on carrying out of pre-death procedures S

- (1) A pre-death procedure may be carried out only if it is a Type A procedure or Type B procedure.
- (2) A Type A procedure may be carried out only in accordance with section 16E.
- (3) A Type B procedure may be carried out only in accordance with—
 - (a) section 16E, and
 - (b) any provision made in regulations under section 16C(1) in relation to that procedure (or category of procedure).

16E Carrying out of Type A and Type B procedures S

- (1) A Type A procedure or Type B procedure may be carried out only if—
 - (a) the health worker who is to carry out the procedure or who has authorised a person to carry out the procedure considers that the requirements of subsection (2) are met,
 - (b) that health worker—
 - (i) has no actual knowledge that the person was unwilling for the procedure to be carried out,
 - (ii) has had regard to the person's past wishes and feelings so far as reasonably ascertainable (having had regard to any evidence referred to in section 16H(6)(c) or 16I(4)(c)), and
 - (iii) is satisfied that if the person were capable of making a decision about authorisation of the procedure, the person would not be unwilling for the procedure to be carried out,

Changes to legislation: There are currently no known outstanding effects for the Human Tissue (Scotland) Act 2006, Part 1. (See end of Document for details)

- (c) the use of a part of the person's body for transplantation is authorised by virtue of section 6, 6D, 6E, 6F, 6G, 8, 9, 10 or, as the case may be, 10A,
 - (d) in the case of a Type A procedure, the carrying out of the procedure is authorised under section 16F, and
 - (e) in the case of a Type B procedure, the carrying out of the procedure is authorised in accordance with any provision made under section 16C(1) in relation to that procedure (or category of procedure).
- (2) The requirements mentioned in subsection (1)(a) are met if—
- (a) in the view of the health worker primarily responsible for the person's medical treatment, the person is likely to die imminently (including as a result of the withdrawal of life-sustaining treatment),
 - (b) where the person is receiving life-sustaining treatment, the decision to withdraw that treatment has been taken by that health worker,
 - (c) the carrying out of the procedure is necessary (see subsection (3)),
 - (d) the carrying out of the procedure is not likely to cause more than minimal discomfort to the person, and
 - (e) the carrying out of the procedure is not likely to harm the person.
- (3) For the purposes of subsection (2)(c), the carrying out of a procedure is necessary if either of the following apply—
- (a) it is necessary to carry it out for the purpose of ascertaining whether a part of the person's body is suitable for transplantation,
 - (b) it is necessary to carry it out for the purpose of increasing the likelihood of successful transplantation of a part of the person's body.

16F Authorisation of Type A procedures S

- (1) For the purposes of section 16E(1)(d), the carrying out of a Type A procedure is authorised in relation to a person if—
- (a) the person has expressly authorised the carrying out of the procedure,
 - (b) in the case of an adult who, at the relevant time, has not expressly authorised the carrying out of any procedure, if the adult's nearest relative is, at the relevant time, entitled to authorise the removal and use of a part of the adult's body by virtue of section 6E or 6F and the adult's nearest relative authorises the carrying out of the procedure,
 - (c) in the case of a child who, at the relevant time, has not expressly authorised the carrying out of any procedure—
 - (i) if a person who has parental rights and parental responsibilities in relation to the child is, at the relevant time, entitled to authorise the removal and use of a part of the child's body by virtue of section 8D or 10 and that person authorises the carrying out of the procedure,
 - (ii) if a person is, at the relevant time, entitled to authorise the removal and use of a part of the child's body by virtue of section 10A and that person authorises the carrying out of the procedure,

[^{F61}16H Duty to inquire: adult S

- (1) A health worker must act in accordance with subsection (2) before the earlier of—
 - (a) the carrying out of a pre-death procedure in relation to an adult, or
 - (b) the removal of part of the body of a deceased adult for any of the purposes referred to in section 3(1).
- (2) The health worker must—
 - (a) take reasonable steps to inquire into whether there is in force—
 - (i) an express authorisation by the adult,
 - (ii) an opt-out declaration by the adult,
 - (b) if subsection (3) applies, inquire into whether the adult—
 - (i) is a non-resident adult (within the meaning given by section 6D(2)(a)),
 - (ii) is an adult who is incapable of understanding the nature and consequences of deemed authorisation (within the meaning given by section 6D(3)),
 - (c) in the case of an adult who is incapable of understanding the nature and consequences of deemed authorisation, inquire into the adult's past wishes and feelings so far as reasonably ascertainable, and
 - (d) in any case inquire, by consulting (so far as is reasonably practicable) the persons referred to in subsection (5), into the adult's most recent views in relation to—
 - (i) the carrying out of pre-death procedures in relation to the adult, and
 - (ii) the removal and use of a part of the adult's body for a purpose referred to in section 3(1).
- (3) This subsection applies in relation to an adult if there is in force at the relevant time—
 - (a) no express authorisation by the adult of removal and use of any part of the adult's body for transplantation, and
 - (b) no opt-out declaration by the adult as respects removal and use of the part of the adult's body for transplantation.
- (4) When acting in accordance with subsection (2)(b)(ii), the health worker must consult (so far as is reasonably practicable) any person who has indicated a wish to provide evidence that the adult is an adult who is incapable of understanding the nature and consequences of deemed authorisation.
- (5) The persons referred to in subsection (2)(d) are—
 - (a) the nearest relative of the adult,

[^{F63}16K Interpretation and meaning of “relevant time” S

- (1) In sections 1 to 16J and this section—
- “excepted body part” has the meaning given in section 6D(5),
 - “express authorisation” has the meaning given in section 6(1),
 - “Health Board” means a board constituted by order under section 2(1)(a) of the National Health Service (Scotland) Act 1978,
 - “health worker” has the meaning given in section 16J(1),
 - “incapable of understanding the nature and consequences of deemed authorisation” has the meaning given in section 6D(3),
 - “medical treatment”, in relation to a person, means any procedure or treatment that has the purpose of safeguarding or promoting the person's physical or mental health,
 - “non-resident adult” has the meaning given in section 6D(2)(a),
 - “opt-out declaration” has the meaning given in section 6B(1),
 - “pre-death procedure” has the meaning given in section 16A,
 - “register organisation” has the meaning given in section 2B(2),
 - “Special Health Board” means a board constituted by order under section 2(1)(b) of the National Health Service (Scotland) Act 1978,
 - “writing” includes representation of a character in visible form.
- (2) For the purposes of sections 1 to 16J, this section and section 50, “relevant time” means—
- (a) in relation to a living person, when—
 - (i) in the view of the health worker primarily responsible for the person's medical treatment, the person is likely to die imminently (including as a result of the withdrawal of life-sustaining treatment),
 - (ii) where the person is receiving life-sustaining treatment, the decision to withdraw that treatment has been taken by that health worker, and
 - (iii) in the case of a person who is 12 years of age or over, that health worker is of the view that the person is incapable by reason of ill health of making a decision about the removal and use of a part of the person's body for a purpose referred to in section 3(1),
 - (b) in relation to a deceased person, immediately before the person's death.]

Restrictions on transplants involving live donor

17 Restrictions on transplants involving live donor S

- (1) Subject to subsections (3) to (5) and (8), a person commits an offence—
 - (a) if—
 - (i) the person removes an organ, part of an organ, or any tissue from the body of a living child intending that it be used for transplantation; and
 - (ii) when the person removes the organ, part or tissue, the person knows, or might reasonably be expected to know, that the other person from whose body the person removes it is a living child;
 - (b) if—
 - (i) the person removes an organ or part of an organ from the body of a living adult intending that it be used for transplantation; and
 - (ii) when the person removes the organ or part, the person knows, or might reasonably be expected to know, that the adult from whose body the person removes it is alive; or
 - (c) if—
 - (i) the person removes any tissue from the body of a living adult with incapacity intending that it be used for transplantation; and
 - (ii) when the person removes the tissue the person knows, or might reasonably be expected to know, that the adult from whose body the person removes it is alive and an adult with incapacity.
- (2) Subject to subsections (3) to (5) and (8), a person commits an offence—
 - (a) if—
 - (i) the person uses for transplantation an organ, part of an organ or any tissue which has come from the body of a living child; and
 - (ii) when the person does so, the person knows, or might reasonably be expected to know, that it has come from the body of a living child;
 - (b) if—
 - (i) the person uses for transplantation an organ or part of an organ which has come from the body of a living adult; and
 - (ii) when the person does so, the person knows, or might reasonably be expected to know, that it has come from the body of a living adult; or
 - (c) if—

- (a) the Ministers are satisfied that—
 - (i) no reward has been or is to be given in contravention of section 20; and
 - (ii) such other conditions as may be specified in the regulations are satisfied; and
 - (b) such other requirements as may be specified in the regulations are complied with.
- (4) The Scottish Ministers may by regulations provide that subsection (1)(a) or (c) or (2)(a) or (c) does not apply in a case where—
- (a) a person—
 - (i) removes regenerative tissue; or
 - (ii) uses such tissue;
 - (b) the Ministers are satisfied that—
 - (i) no reward has been or is to be given in contravention of section 20;
 - (ii) such other conditions, as may be specified in the regulations are satisfied; and
 - (c) such other requirements as may be specified in the regulations are complied with.
- (5) The Scottish Ministers may by regulations provide that subsection (1)(a) or (b) or (2)(a) or (b) does not apply in a case where—
- (a) a person—
 - (i) removes an organ or part of an organ as described in subsection (6); or
 - (ii) uses such an organ or part so removed;
 - (b) the Ministers are satisfied that—
 - (i) no reward has been or is to be given in contravention of section 20;
 - (ii) such other conditions, as may be specified in the regulations are satisfied; and
 - (c) such other requirements as may be specified in the regulations are complied with.
- (6) The organ or part of an organ is one that—
- (a) during a domino organ transplant operation, is necessarily removed from—
 - (i) a child; or
 - (ii) an adult with incapacity; and
 - (b) is in turn intended to be used for transplantation in respect of another living person.
- (7) Regulations under subsection (3), (4) or (5) must include provision as to appeals against decisions made in relation to matters which fall to be decided under the regulations.
- (8) Where under—
- (a) subsection (3) an exception from subsection (1)(b) or (2)(b) is in force, a person does not commit an offence under subsection (1)(b) or, as the case may be, (2)(b) if the person reasonably believes that the exception applies;
 - (b) subsection (4) an exception from subsection (1)(a) or (c) or (2)(a) or (c) is in force, a person does not commit an offence under subsection (1)(a) or (c)

- (9) A person guilty of an offence under this section is liable on summary conviction to—
- (a) imprisonment for a term not exceeding 12 months;
- (b) a fine not exceeding level 5 on the standard scale; or
- (c) both.
- (10) In this section—
- “adult with incapacity” is—
- (a) for the purposes of subsections (1)(c) and (2)(c), an adult to whom section 18 applies;
- (b) for the purposes of subsection (6)(a)(ii), an adult in respect of whom section 47 of the Adults with Incapacity (Scotland) Act 2000 (asp 4) applies in relation to the domino organ transplant operation in question;
- “domino organ transplant operation” means a transplant operation performed on a living person by a registered medical practitioner—
- (a) which is designed to safeguard or promote the physical health of the person by transplanting organs or parts of organs into the person; and
- (b) by so doing, necessitates the removal of an organ or part of an organ from the person which in turn is intended to be used for transplantation in respect of another living person;
- “regenerative tissue” means tissue which is able to be replaced in the body of a living person by natural processes if the tissue is injured or removed;
- “reward” means any description of financial or other material advantage, but does not include any payment in money or money's worth for defraying or reimbursing—
- (a) the cost of removing, transporting, preparing, preserving or storing the organ (or part) or tissue;
- (b) any liability incurred in respect of expenses incurred by a third party in, or in connection with, any of the activities referred to in paragraph (a);
- (c) any expenses or loss of earnings incurred by the person from whose body the organ (or part) or tissue comes so far as reasonably and directly attributable to the person's supplying it from the person's body.
