SCHEDULE 1 SCOTTISH PARLIAMENTARY PENSION SCHEME

PART I

ILL-HEALTH

Serious ill-health pension

47 An individual is entitled to a serious ill-health pension if the Fund trustees are satisfied that the following conditions are met—

Condition 1	The individual resigns as or otherwise stops being an MSP or, as the case may be, the holder of a pensionable office as a direct consequence of a health condition.
Condition 2	At that time, the individual would be entitled to a scheme pension but for the fact that the individual is not yet 65 years old.
Condition 3	The individual applies to the Fund trustees for a serious ill-health pension.
Condition 4	The health condition prevents the individual from doing any gainful work.
Condition 5	The health condition is expected to be permanent and to continue to prevent the individual from doing gainful work.
Condition 6	The application is accompanied by evidence that a doctor is satisfied that conditions 4 and 5 are met.
