COMMENTARY ON SECTIONS

Part 10 – Proceedings before Sheriff

Review of sheriff's determination

Section 113 – Child and relevant person: representation at review hearing

167. This section provides that the child and relevant person have the same right to choose to be represented at a review of a grounds determination by a representative of their choice (who may or may not be a legal representative) as at the original hearing to establish the grounds. This right applies whether or not the person to whom the review relates to is still a child, and does not affect their right to legal representation.
