An Act of the Scottish Parliament to make provision about the management of records by certain authorities; to amend the Public Records (Scotland) Act 1937 (c.43) in relation to the transmission of court records to the Keeper of the Records of Scotland; and for connected purposes.

PART 1

RECORDS MANAGEMENT PLANS

1 Records management plans

(1) Every authority to which this Part applies must—

(a) prepare a plan (a “records management plan”) setting out proper arrangements for the management of the authority's public records,
(b) submit the plan to the Keeper for agreement, and
(c) ensure that its public records are managed in accordance with the plan as agreed with the Keeper.

(2) An authority's records management plan must—

(a) identify—

(i) the individual who is responsible for management of the authority's public records, and
(ii) (if different) the individual who is responsible for ensuring compliance with the plan, and

(b) include, in particular, provision about—

(i) the procedures to be followed in managing the authority's public records,
(ii) maintaining the security of information contained in the authority's public records, and
(iii) the archiving and destruction or other disposal of the authority's public records.
(3) An authority’s records management plan may make different provision for the management of different kinds of public records (taking account, for example, of the different levels of risk associated with the management of different kinds of records).

(4) The Keeper must issue guidance to authorities about the form and content of records management plans.

(5) The Keeper may issue different guidance under subsection (4) in relation to different authorities.

(6) Before issuing guidance under subsection (4), the Keeper must—
   (a) consult the following on a draft of the guidance, namely—
      (i) such authorities as the Keeper considers will be affected by the guidance, and
      (ii) such other persons (if any) as the Keeper considers appropriate, and
   (b) have regard to any views expressed in response to the consultation.

(7) Authorities must have regard to the guidance issued by the Keeper in preparing their records management plans for agreement with the Keeper.

(8) An authority—
   (a) must, if the Keeper so requires, or
   (b) may, with the Keeper's agreement,
      have separate records management plans for public records relating to separate functions of the authority.

(9) A group of two or more authorities—
   (a) must, if the Keeper so requires, or
   (b) may, with the Keeper's agreement,
      have a common records management plan for both or, as the case may be, all of the authorities in the group.

(2) The proposed plan is to be submitted in such form and manner as the Keeper may determine.

(3) On receiving the proposed plan, the Keeper must—
   (a) agree it, or
   (b) if the Keeper considers that it does not set out proper arrangements for the management of the authority's public records, return it.

(4) What constitutes “proper arrangements” in any case is for the Keeper to determine.

(6) Where the Keeper is considering returning the proposed plan, before deciding whether to do so, the Keeper must—

(7) If the Keeper returns the proposed plan—

(2) The Keeper must not determine a review date under subsection (1)(b) which is earlier than five years after the date on which the authority's records management plan was last agreed.

(3) In subsection (2), reference to the plan being agreed includes—

      (i) a revised plan submitted by the authority under subsection (6), or
      (ii) if the authority has been required to carry out a review of the plan under section 6(3)(b), a revised or, as the case may be, resubmitted plan, the Keeper must determine a new review date and inform the authority of the new review date.

(5) After carrying out a review of its plan in accordance with subsection (1)(b), the authority must, by the review date, either—
   (a) revise its plan and submit the revised plan to the Keeper for agreement, or
   (b) if the authority decides not to revise its plan, resubmit its current plan to the Keeper for agreement.

(6) An authority may at any time revise its records management plan and submit the revised plan to the Keeper for agreement.

(7) Subsections (2) to (9) of section 4 apply, as they apply to a proposed records management plan submitted for agreement under that section, to—
   (a) a revised records management plan submitted to the Keeper for agreement under subsection (5)(a) or (6) of this section,
(b) a records management plan resubmitted to the Keeper for agreement under subsection (5)(b) of this section.

   (b) require the authority to carry out a review of its plan by such date as the Keeper may determine.

(4) Section 5(5) applies to a review of a plan carried out under subsection (3)(b) of this section as it applies to a review of a plan carried out under section 5, but as if the reference to the review date were a reference to the date determined under subsection (3)(b) of this section.

(5) Subsection (3) does not affect the Keeper’s powers under section 7.

(6) The Keeper may carry out a records management review in relation to—
   (a) a particular authority, or

(2) The Keeper may issue to the authority a notice (an “action notice”)—
   (a) specifying the details of the alleged failure, and
   (b) requiring the authority to take specified action by a specified date.
(3) Where the Keeper is considering issuing an action notice to an authority, before deciding whether to do so, the Keeper must—
   (a) notify the authority—
       (i) that the Keeper is considering issuing an action notice, and
       (ii) of the reasons for doing so,
   (b) give the authority an opportunity to make representations, and
   (c) have regard to any representations made by the authority.

(4) In subsection (2)(b), “specified” means specified in the action notice.

(5) If the authority fails to comply with any of the requirements of the action notice, the Keeper may take such steps as the Keeper considers appropriate to publicise the failure.
