

Forth Crossing Act 2011

2011 asp 2

PART 6

COMPENSATION

56 Compensation where notice to treat becomes invalid

- (1) Where a notice to treat is invalidated under section 34, any person to whom notice is to be given under subsection (3) of that section is entitled to compensation from Ministers for any loss arising as a result of the giving of the notice and its invalidation.
- (2) Any dispute about—
 - (a) a person's entitlement to compensation, or
 - (b) the amount of the compensation,is to be determined by the Lands Tribunal.
- (3) Interest is payable on any compensation due under this section, at the rate prescribed under section 40 of the 1963 Act, from the date on which the notice became invalid until the date of payment.