PART 1

POLICE REFORM

CHAPTER 11

HER MAJESTY'S INSPECTORS OF CONSTABULARY IN SCOTLAND

74 Functions of inspectors

- (1) The Scottish Ministers may direct the inspectors of constabulary to make inquiries about any matter relating to the Authority or the Police Service as they consider appropriate.
- (2) The inspectors of constabulary may make such other inquiries as they think fit about—
 - (a) the state, efficiency and effectiveness of the Authority and the Police Service, and
 - (b) the arrangements made by the Authority and the chief constable under section 37(1) and (2).
