LONG LEASES (SCOTLAND) ACT 2012

EXPLANATORY NOTES

PART 4: COMPENSATION FOR LOSS OF LANDLORD'S RIGHTS

Renewal premiums

Section 49: Calculation of notional annual renewal premium

- 202. This section applies if a renewal premium of £100 or less is payable under the lease and it is necessary to include the renewal or more than one renewal in order to meet the durational requirements for conversion.
- 203. Subsection (2) directs the former landlord to divide the amount of the renewal premium by the number of years between each renewal. This gives a sum which represents the "notional annual renewal premium" or NARP. The NARP is added to the annual rent payable under the lease in order to calculate compensation under section 47.
- 204. Subsection (3) provides that that where there is a partially continuing lease, the renewal premium for leases converting to ownership is as allocated under section 43. Where there is not a partially continuing lease but there is a cumulo renewal premium, the renewal premium is as allocated under section 42. And in all other cases the renewal premium is the amount payable under the lease.
- 205. If a renewal premium of more than £100 is payable, the landlord can claim compensation under the additional payments regime set out in sections 50 to 55.
