

Social Care (Self-directed Support) (Scotland) Act 2013

2013 asp 1

General principles

2 Further general principles applicable to this Act

In carrying out its functions under this Act in relation to a person who is to choose (or has chosen) one of the options for self-directed support, a local authority must take reasonable steps to facilitate the following general principles—

- (a) that the right to dignity of the person is to be respected,
- (b) that the person's right to participate in the life of the community in which the person lives is to be respected.