

Scottish Independence Referendum Act 2013

2013 asp 14

Information, guidance, advice and encouragement

26 Encouraging participation

- (1) The Chief Counting Officer must take whatever steps the Chief Counting Officer considers appropriate to—
 - (a) encourage participation in the referendum, and
 - (b) facilitate co-operation among officers taking steps under this section.
- (2) A counting officer must take whatever steps the counting officer considers appropriate to encourage participation in the referendum in the local government area for which the officer is appointed.