[<sup>F1</sup>9E. Victims' right to protection of privacy

- (1) Subsection (2) applies during any interaction between—
  - (a) a competent authority, and
  - (b) a person who is or appears to be a victim in relation to an offence or alleged offence or any of that person's family members,which is for the purposes of a relevant function.
- (2) The authority must take reasonable steps to—
  - (a) protect the privacy of that person,
  - (b) where that person or family member is a child, prevent disclosure of any information that could lead to the identification of the child, and
  - (c) prevent the disclosure of any images of the person or any of the person's family members.
- (3) This section is without prejudice to any other obligation placed, or power conferred, on a competent authority, either at common law or in any enactment, to—
  - (a) protect the privacy of a person who is or appears to be a victim in relation to an offence or alleged offence or that person's family members,
  - (b) prevent the identification of a person who is or appears to be a victim in relation to an offence or alleged offence or that person's family members,
  - (c) disclose, or order or permit the disclosure of, any information about a person who is or appears to be a victim in relation to an offence or alleged offence or that person's family members.
- (4) This section does not apply to the giving of evidence in a hearing in relevant criminal proceedings by—
  - (a) a person who is or appears to be a victim in relation to an offence or alleged offence, or
  - (b) any of that person's family members.
