Landlord registration: time limit for determining application

21 Landlord registration: time limit for determining application

(1) After section 85A of the 2004 Act, insert—

“85B Time limit for determining application

- (1) This section applies where a relevant person makes an application to a local authority in accordance with section 83.
- (2) The local authority must determine the application under section 84 within 12 months of receiving the application.
- (3) The period mentioned in subsection (2) may be extended by the First-tier Tribunal, on application by the local authority, by such period as the Tribunal thinks fit.
- (4) The First-tier Tribunal may not extend a period unless the local authority applies for the extension before the period expires.
- (5) The relevant person is entitled to be a party to any proceedings on such an application.
- (6) The decision of the First-tier Tribunal on such an application is final.
- (7) If the local authority does not determine the application within the period required by this section—
 - (a) the authority is to be treated as having entered, on the day by which the authority was required to determine the application, the relevant person in the register maintained by the authority under section 82(1), and
 - (b) unless otherwise removed from the register in accordance with this Part, that person is to be treated as being removed from the register on the expiry of the period of 12 months beginning with that day.
- (8) Where subsection (7) applies the authority must—
 - (a) enter the name of the relevant person in the register maintained by the authority under section 82(1), and
 - (b) state in the register a registration number in relation to that person (which is to be treated as having been given under section 84(5A)).
- (9) Subject to the modifications in subsection (10), the relevant person is for all purposes to be treated as having been registered by virtue of section 84(2)(a).
- (10) The modifications are—

Private rented housing: Enhanced Enforcement Areas

28 Private rented housing: Enhanced Enforcement Areas

- (1) The Scottish Ministers must by regulations provide a scheme whereby a local authority may apply to the Scottish Ministers for additional discretionary powers to enable it to target enforcement action at an area characterised by poor conditions in houses subject to tenancies and occupancy agreements of the type mentioned in section 16(1) (“private rented housing”).
- (2) The scheme under subsection (1) must provide—
 - (a) that a local authority may apply to the Scottish Ministers for an area to be designated as an Enhanced Enforcement Area where it considers that the area is characterised by—
 - (i) an overprovision or a concentration of private rented housing that appears to the local authority to be—
 - (A) of a poor environmental standard,
 - (B) overcrowded, and
 - (ii) a prevalence of antisocial behaviour, as defined by section 81(4) of the 2004 Act,
 - (b) where the Scottish Ministers agree to designate an area as an Enhanced Enforcement Area, that the local authority will acquire such additional discretionary powers as the Scottish Ministers consider necessary or expedient, to be exercised for prescribed purposes, including in relation to—
 - (i) the checks it may carry out before entering a relevant person on the register of landlords that it maintains under Part 8 of the 2004 Act,
 - (ii) authority to inspect dwellings let by a landlord who is entered on that register,
 - (c) where the Scottish Ministers agree to designate an area as an Enhanced Enforcement Area, that—
 - (i) the local authority must take steps to advertise the fact that the designation has been granted,
